COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On June 25, 1965, Lieutenant George Fencl, Philadelphia Police Department, Commissioner's Office, Philadelphia, Pa., advised that since May 1, 1965, the National Association For The Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) has sponsored a daily picket demonstration at Girard College in Philadelphia for the purpose of seeking integration at that institution. These demonstrations on a daily basis have been continued by the NAACP.

On May 18, 1965, Confidential Source T-1 advised that on Saturday, May 15, 1965, Benjamin Franklin Aycox, Jr., Civil Liberties and Civil Rights Secretary, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), was actively participating in the demonstration at Girard College. Aycox appeared to be carrying messages and instructions between the picket site and the NAACP temporary headquarters, located at 17th and Diamond Streets, Philadelphia. He was also observed marching in the picket line.

Lieutenant George Fencl advised on June 6, 1965, that on the previous day he observed Debbie Amis, Arlene and Jarvis Tyner at a picket site. According to Lieutenant Fencl, there was no indication they were involved in any activity, other than participating in the march.

On June 7, 1965, T-1 advised that Arlene Tyner was Youth Secretary, CPEPD, and that Jarvis Tyner and Debbie Amis are current members of the CPEPD.

On June 22, 1965, T-1 learned that Marion Metelits, a member of the Executive Committee and the District Board, CPEPD, had been an observer at the picket demonstration at Girard College early in the month of June. According to this source, Metelits is of the opinion that she was being followed by a policewoman, who she thought was waiting to arrest her on some trumped up charges.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

ENCLOSURE 100-442527-12

On June 8, 1965, Confidential Source T-2 advised that at a meeting of the Trade Union Club, CPEPD, which was held on June 6, 1965, it was stated the club should participate in the civil rights struggle at Girard College. However, after further discussion, it was resolved no action would be taken until such time as the District Communist Party (CP) issues a policy on this matter.

Lieutenant George Fencl, on June 25, 1965, advised that Goldie E. Watson was prominent at the Girard College demonstrations on the night of June 24, 1965. Lieutenant Fencl stated he has heard her say on several occasions that she was the representative of U. S. Congressman Robert Nix (D., Pa.).

The "Philadelphia Inquirer," a daily newspaper, dated August 18, 1964, on page four, carried a story reflecting Mrs. Goldie Watson, a school teacher from Philadelphia, was fired in 1954 by the School Board for refusing to state whether or not she had ever been a CP member.

On June 25, 1965, Confidential Source T-3 advised that the Youth Club of the CPEPD has not given any instructions for any of its members to participate in the demonstrations at Girard College.

On June 25, 1965, T-1 stated that the CPEPD is not taking any part in the picket line demonstrations at Girard College and has issued no instructions to its members requesting them to participate. According to this source, for the Party to participate as a club or organization would result in Red baiting and harassment to the individuals themselves and reflect unfavorably on the entire situation. Any CP member participating in these demonstrations would be acting as an individual and doing so on his own discretion. However, the CPEPD has been attempting to encourage white people to participate in the picket lines at Girard College for the purpose of reflecting an integrated demonstration.

On June 27, 1965, Confidential Source T-4 stated that on June 24, 1965, Irving Goff, Communist Party, United States of America, (CPUSA), National Representative assigned to Philadelphia, was overheard requesting Jean Frantjis, a member of the Southwest Club, CPEPD, to encourage some of her white friends to participate in the demonstrations at Girard College. Frantjis was subsequently overheard telling another individual that although she consented to contact some of her white friends to participate in these demonstrations, she had not planned to do so.

On July 9, 1965, T-1 advised that Benjamin Franklin Aycox, Jr., had given a report on the Negro people's movement during which he stated a battle of civil rights was being waged by the individual in the Party rather than the Party as an organization. As an example, he cited a lack of Party participation in the picket demonstrations at Girard College. Aycox stated he was the only active Communist in the NAACP and he asked the local district of the Party to examine its members and their work in the civil rights field. During the discussion, Aycox admitted that he himself has not taken an active part in the demonstrations at Girard College.

On July 15, 1965, T-1 advised that at a meeting of the District Board, CPEPD, held on July 13, 1965, Arlene Tyner, Youth Secretary, CPEPD, gave a report on the activities of the youth. According to Tyner, the Philadelphia Branch of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) planned to send some of its members to join the picket demonstrations at Girard College.

On July 15, 1965, Confidential Sources T-3 and T-5, who

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

[redacted] advised this b7D
organization has taken no action on the Girard College demonstrations. The demonstrations have not been discussed at any of the DCA regular meetings, executive committee meetings, or open house affairs. These sources also reported that DCA has not issued any statements concerning this matter.

On July 8, 1965, T-1 advised that the CPEPD has apparently not shown too much interest in the demonstrations at Girard College. The source stated this is his opinion, based on the fact that this matter has not been discussed at any of the CP meetings he has attended since May 1, 1965, when the demonstrations at Girard College commenced.

On July 16, 1965, Confidential Source T-7 advised that at a meeting of the CPEPD, held on July 15, 1965, which was attended by club organizers, Irving Goff, CPUSA National Representative assigned to Philadelphia, proposed that each club organizer at this meeting return to his respective club during the coming week and propose that CP members take part in the demonstrations at Girard College on Saturday, July 24, 1965. Goff stated it was especially desirable that white CP members participate in these demonstrations. He cautioned that those persons participating in this demonstration must not be identified as Communists but participate as individuals.

Confidential Sources, who are aware of some of the CP activity in the Philadelphia area, advised they had no knowledge of any CP participation in the demonstrations at Girard College.

On June 29, 1965, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that MICHAEL DAVIS, who attends Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio, during the school year was staying at the home of a friend, DONALD GUREWITZ, Silver Springs, Maryland, son of CLARENCE and HELEN GUREWITZ. Information received by the source indicated that DAVIS was leaving for Jackson, Mississippi on July 1, 1965, on a summer project and that depending on the local situation, he would either go to jail in Jackson, or be sent "out" elsewhere. DAVIS stated that the Student National Non-Violent Coordinating Committee Office would have details of his whereabouts.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past identified CLARENCE GUREWITZ as a current member of the Communist Party (CP) on January 14, 1963.

A third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 20, 1964, that HELEN GUREWITZ was a CP member as of that date.

A fourth source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 10, 1965, that CLARENCE and HELEN GUREWITZ were still active in the Communist movement.

A characterization of the Milwaukee Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), is contained in the appendix hereto.

On May 2, 1965, a public civil rights meeting, sponsored by the Milwaukee Branch, SWP, was held at 541 West Clark Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The SWP line, as stated at this meeting, seemed to be defense in word, but violence in action. (U)
(Source: MI T-1, May 18, 1965) (U)

At a meeting of the Milwaukee Branch, SWP, held on May 16, 1965, an idea was introduced to form a group of demonstrators or pickets to picket the Industrial Commission complaining of its failure to take action against a local manufacturing company because of the company's practices concerning employment of Negroes. It was proposed that a demonstration be undertaken in which a group of Negroes would jam the employment office of the company. (U)
(Source: MI T-2, May 17, 1965) (U)

On May 31, 1965, at a closed membership meeting of the Milwaukee Branch, SWP, a discussion was had concerning the distribution and mailing of a leaflet to all civil rights organizations and sympathizers of these organizations, explaining a new method of demonstrations against "tokenism" in the employment of Negroes in some Milwaukee factories. (U)

During the meeting, a resolution was passed that the SWP become more active and cooperate with all the activities of the Milwaukee United School Integration Committee (MUSIC), a local civil rights group, without any fear of being arrested. (U)

At a membership meeting of the Milwaukee Branch, SWP, held on July 11, 1965, a resolution was approved to discontinue holding Sunday Lyceums so the members could attend meetings of various civil rights groups which are also held on Sundays. (U)

Red Diplomats Imperil Security, Hoover Says

By the Associated Press

Most Communist diplomatic personnel in the United States are a dangerous threat to national security, J. Edgar Hoover said today.

"The great majority of the 800 Communist-bloc official personnel stationed in the United states, "protected by the privilege of diplomatic immunity, have engaged in intelligence assignments and are a dangerous threat to the security of the United States," the FBI director said.

In a fiscal yearend report pointing with pride to FBI accomplishments, Hoover said members of the American Communist party "continued to constitute a major disruptive influence on the national scene" during the year.

He added: "Concentrating particularly on youth, Communists launched widespread propaganda campaigns designed to enlist support for a determined and vicious attack on American foreign policies and to foment confusion and create disorder in regard to the nation's efforts to resolve the racial situation."

Hoover echoed the opinion of Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, however, in emphasizing that racial and student demonstrations that went on throughout the year were neither instigated nor controled by Communists.

The FBI director reported a number of record-breaking statistics piled up by his investigators over the fiscal year that ended June 30:

—Fines, savings and recoveries totaled more than $235 million, representing, he said, a return of $1.46 for every FBI dollar appropriated.

—Convictions in FBI cases exceeded 13,000, the highest total for any peacetime year, and convictions were recorded against 96.4 percent of all persons brought to trial in FBI cases.

ALABAMA LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION TO PRESERVE THE PEACE

By memorandum 7/13/65, the Attorney General forwarded the Director a copy of the undated Biennial Report to the Alabama Legislature by the Alabama Legislative Commission to Preserve the Peace. The Attorney General noted "I would be interested in any comments you might have regarding this report." An envelope attached indicates that the Report was sent to the Attorney General by the Alabama Legislative Commission.

HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED CONTAINED
DATE 5-1-01 BY 94-64383-11 60267MSEPTM

BACKGROUND CONCERNING THE REPORT:

Memorandum from M. A. Jones to Mr. DeLoach 7/2/65, "Congressman James Martin (R-Alabama)" reveals that on 7/1/65 Supervisor David W. Bowers called on the Congressman at the latter's request. Martin referred to the Report which he expected to obtain and wanted to know if he sent a copy to the FBI, would we confirm or deny the allegations in the Report concerning the communist influences in the civil rights movement. He was told that this would not be possible since information in FBI files is ~~confidential~~. Concerning Martin, you will recall that on 6/3/65, we furnished to the White House and the Attorney General copies of news releases of a statement by Martin which concerned the exposure of Martin Luther King, Jr., by the President at such time as it is considered politically expedient.

ANALYSIS OF ALABAMA COMMISSION REPORT:

REC-21 100-442529-125 EX-101

The Report is made up of several parts, some duplicating each other, all dealing generally with the subject of communist influences in the civil rights movement. One part is a June, 1964, Study by the Commission concerning the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. Another part is a 3/11/64 Study entitled "The 1964 Civil Rights Bill...Its Pattern...Its Architects." The Report brands the civil rights movement as largely infiltrated and controlled by communist elements through the tracing of the communist backgrounds of key civil rights organizations and leaders. Much emphasis is placed on the communist associations of King, his organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating ~~Committee~~, among others. The part concerning the National Council of Churches alleges communist involvement of that Council and the part concerning the 1964 Civil Rights Bill attempts to portray that legislation as following the Communist Party line. The Report goes so far as to state that the bill "was copied from the Communist Party platform of 1928."

RECORDED COPY FILED IN

There are no facts in the Report new to the Bureau concerning communism in the civil rights movement. The Report makes much use of statements by the Director such as those before the House Subcommittee on Appropriations, the Bureau-published summary of information of 9/18/64 concerning riots in the Summer of 1964, and other published statements of the Director. A gross inaccuracy in quoting the Director is noted on Page 25 where it is stated " J. Edgar Hoover said in his report to Congress last year that many of the persons in clerical garb who took part in the march on Washington were identified by the FBI as Communist Party members." The Director has never made such a statement. The Report is replete with generalizations, conclusions and editorializing and is inadequately documented.

OBSERVATIONS:

The Report is obviously a "political football" begging to be kicked around. While factual in many respects, we certainly do not necessarily subscribe to the many conclusions and generalizations drawn. The fact that Congressman Martin has already solicited our views is an indication of an attempt to draw the FBI into this matter which we should definitely avoid. We believe that our reply to the Attorney General should point out that while it appears to contain no new facts, it does contain much by the way of conclusion to which we do not necessarily subscribe. The Attorney General should be advised of Martin's solicitation of our views and our "FBI files are confidential" reply to Martin, as well as the information we furnished the Attorney General 6/3/65 concerning Martin's statement about the President's exposure of King when politically expedient.

As to the gross inaccuracy of the reported statement by the Director alleging many Communist Party members in clerical garb, we have considered setting the record straight with the Alabama Commission but believe it unwise for two reasons: (1) our correction of any portion of the Report could well be interpreted as an agreement with the remainder; and (2) it would draw us directly into the "political football game." Either of these two strong probabilities would be highly undesirable. We believe that the Attorney General should also be advised of our thinking concerning the inaccuracy so that he would also be less inclined to be drawn into a position which could backfire for the Bureau as well as the Department.

RECOMMENDATION:

Attached for approval is a letter to the Attorney General in line with the above observations.

DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA

The "Dorchester - Roxbury Record", a weekly newspaper published in Dorchester (Boston), Massachusetts in its edition of April 27, 1965 carried an item announcing that the Boston Jewish People's Forum (BJPF) of Dorchester would conclude its 27th season of lectures and discussions on Sunday morning May 2, 1965. The speaker was to be CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and his topic would be "The Image of the United States in Africa and Asia.

A characterization of the BJPF is contained in the appendix hereto.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT was the speaker at the final meeting of the BJPF held in Dorchester on Sunday morning May 2, 1965 with about 100 people in attendance.

LIGHTFOOT was introduced as a "man just returned from Africa and a civil rights leader of the Communist Party of the United States." In the introduction of LIGHTFOOT it was mentioned that his talk would be on how people overseas regard the United States.

LIGHTFOOT during his talk mentioned that this was his first trip to Boston and that for years he had been denied a passport. He said that he had been under House arrest until the Supreme Court reversed part of the McCarran Act and that he was then allowed a passport. He stated that thereafter he had travelled extensively in about 30 countries. He had been invited to attend the 7th Annual Convention of the Communist Party (CP) of India and that on his way there he visited Africa first. The poverty in India was the greatest he had ever seen and he cursed imperialism for what it had done to India. LIGHTFOOT went on to say that Bombay was decorated with banners announcing the Communist convention and that about 250,000 people attended this convention. He related that his party, the CP, is the only party that would send a Negro to such an important convention.

During his talk LIGHTFOOT further stated that he had learned that he and a member of the Central Committee in Russia were to be the main speakers at the convention; furthermore after the convention he went on to Russia.

LIGHTFOOT said that all over the world the United States is hated and is setting a new record for being the most hated country in the world.

LIGHTFOOT told the audience that he had joined the CP in the 1930's and that he is still a member of the CP. LIGHTFOOT further stated that some day history would put the workings of the CP along those of JEFFERSON and that some day the work the CP is doing to help the country will be realized.

(BS T-1 on May 3, 1965)

At the meeting of the BJPF held in Dorchester on May 2, 1965, among those present were OTIS S/HOOD, LEWIS S/JOHNSON, ANNE B. S/TIMPSON and S/EDWARD and TILLYRUTH S/TEIXEIRA.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT the speaker on this occasion reported on his trip to the International Congress of Communist parties in India. LIGHTFOOT said there were 250,000 Communists from India that greeted the arriving delegates at Bombay.

LIGHTFOOT further stated that there have been three phases in governmental trends throughout the world. Phase one was the trend from capitalism to socialism, phase two was freedom from colonialism and imperialism and phase three was the same as phase one.

should be considered as a member of the CP at that time. [redacted] b7D

The letterhead memorandum is being classified ~~"confidential"~~ because data reported by [redacted] could reasonably result in the identification of a confidential informant of great value and compromise his future effectiveness.

The letterhead memorandum is being shown as having emanated from Washington, D. C. in order to further protect the informant.

The following information was obtained by [redacted] on July 8, 1965. It is not set out in this letterhead memorandum as it is felt to do so would pinpoint the identity of the informant.

[redacted] advised that on July 7, 1965, JACOB GREEN informed HENRY WINSTON, CP National leader, of the results of the conference set forth above. WINSTON advised GREEN that JESSE GRAY was a former CP member who was still in contact with CP leaders including WINSTON seeking CP advice and assistance. WINSTON stated that GREEN had been correct in describing GRAY's organization as a black Nationalist group. WINSTON stated that JESSE GRAY wanted to become the successor of MALCOLM X, murdered Negro Nationalist leader.

FEDERATION FOR BLACK POLITICAL POWER
INFORMATION CONCERNING

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in part on July 6, 1965, and in part on July 8, 1965, that on July 3, 1965, a group of about 30 Negroes met at 4141 South Cottage Grove, Chicago, Illinois, to discuss the problems of the Negro "ghetto" and "poverty."

Of the 30 individuals in attendance the following were recognized:

JULIUS HOBSON, Washington, D. C.
JESSE GRAY, New York
JAMES BOGGS and his wife, GRACE BOGGS, Detroit
JACKIE WILSON, Detroit
LAWRENCE LANDRY, Chicago
JACOB GREEN, Baltimore
NAHAZ ROGERS, New York
WILLIAM DAVIS, Philadelphia
JAMES RUSSELL, Cleveland
CLARENCE GOGGINS, New Jersey

The meeting was called to order about 4:45 p.m. by LANDRY, who announced that the conference schedule would include the discussion at the present place until about 6:00 p.m. and at which time the Steering Committee would take over and continue discussion about 9:00 p.m. LANDRY said that the group would have dinner at 6728 South Dorchester and would meet the following day at 9:00 a.m. for a workshop at the ACT office, 413 East Oakwood Boulevard. LANDRY said that a National freedom rally in Washington Park in Chicago would be held in the afternoon of July 4, 1965, and that the conference would conclude with a workshop at the ACT office during the evening of July 4.

LANDRY then introduced JAMES BOGGS who told those present that the theme of the conference and its future work would concern Black America. BOGGS then stated that the American imperialists had taken over where the British and Dutch had left off and that the black man would never be free as long as imperialism continued. BOGGS stated that the black man had to rise to a position where he would have all of the power in his hands.

BOGGS then stated that what he had said about the U. S. also applied to the Soviet Union who wanted to keep the Africans under their thumb just like the Americans.

BOGGS stated that the black man must rise and strike and dominate in order to win his freedom. He further stated that the body present had to consider how such power could be achieved.

BOGGS then mentioned two prior meetings which had been held in Detroit, Michigan, and Washington, D. C., the latter meeting in May, 1965, during which earlier meetings there had been discussions or mobilization of Negroes in American ghettos.

BOGGS then stated that the Civil Rights Movement was of no real value to the Negro and that its leaders such as ROY WILKINSON of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING were not giving any real aid to the Negro.

JESSE GRAY then took over the meeting and again mentioned the failure of Dr. KING and Mr. WILKINSON in leading the Negro people.

JESSE GRAY stated that the great Negro ghettos of Chicago, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Detroit, and Los Angeles, contained the nucleus for Negro power.

NAHAZ ROGERS then stated that he had received 30 cards filled out by those present which contained names and addresses. He stated that he would like those who had filled out the cards to volunteer to give $2 per week to JESSE GRAY, the head of ACT, and who was heading up the organization which they were in the process of forming. ROGERS said that JESSE had no job of his own and was sacrificing himself in order to form a Negro organization that would benefit all of Black America. ROGERS then asked all those who could not contribute $2 a week to GRAY to raise their hands. Only two persons raised their hands.

Under the direction of GRAY a Steering Committee was then formed which consisted of the following:

JESSE GRAY
JULIUS HOBSON
LAWRENCE LANDRY
JAMES BOGGS
JACOB GREEN
NAHAZ ROGERS
WILLIAM DAVIS
JACKIE WILSON
JAMES RUSSELL
CLARENCE GOGGINS

The group then broke up and the Steering Committee was driven by car to a motel in the outskirts of Chicago.

The Steering Committee met at 6:30 p.m. with JESSE GRAY advising the group that they would talk on poverty and the ghetto, the need for political power, the future work of the Federation they were organizing, and finally the name of the Federation.

JESSE then asked JULIUS HOBSON to talk about the U. S. Government's anti-poverty program.

HOBSON then read a typewritten resolution, which in brief suggested that the American Negro have nothing to do with such a program since its basic purpose was to keep the ghetto in full bloom. HOBSON said that politicians would be pocketing most of the money which would go into most of the so-called anti-poverty program.

Discussion followed with a number disagreeing with the resolution which was finally tabled without a vote taken.

JESSE GRAY then raised the question of a name for the new organization and suggested that it be called the "Federation for Black Political Power."

Only two individuals took exception to the name, one of whom was JAMES RUSSELL. The other individual who objected to the name was JACOB GREEN, who was known to the source as the Chairman of the CP of Maryland. GREEN said that he felt that the name suggested Negro Nationalism and it appeared to him as though such an organization would prevent Negro and white unity which he thought essential to the final solution of the Negro problem.

The discussion continued with regard to the name and a final vote taken. All were in favor of the name suggested by GRAY except RUSSELL and GREEN.

The Steering Committee stopped for dinner at about 9:50 p.m. and later resumed discussion after 11:00 p.m. at 6728 South Dorchester following dinner. During this second discussion another vote was taken with the same result. Final decision of the Steering Committee was that the newly formed organization considers itself the "Federation for Black Political Power."

On July 4, 1965, the original 30 individuals met again at around 10:00 a.m. at the ACT office, 413 East Oakwood Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois. JESSE GRAY told those present that the Steering Committee had met the previous day and that they had pretty well united in connection with a name for the newly formed organization, which was Federation for Black Political Power.

JESSE then told the group that a program of action was needed for the Federation and once it began to operate it would have a set policy that would not change. JESSE said he expected those present to go back and form local chapters who could report on their activities to the Federation.

JESSE said he wanted to emphasize that although the Federation for Black Political Power was established he wanted all the members of the Federation to continue to be active in whatever other organizations in which they were presently involved in order to avoid arousing trouble.

JESSE said he felt that those working in the local chapters could pick out certain individuals they thought might be receptive to the newly formed organization. JESSE said eventually when the Federation became powerful enough, it would bind the Negro people into one political group.

In conclusion JESSE said that in essence his remarks tied in with the thinking of MALCOLM X, murdered leader of the Black Muslims, especially in connection with the importance of black political power.

GRAY, LANDRY, and a few others then excused themselves and the discussion continued with no other action taken.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

(A) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

(1) Southern California District, Communist Party, (SCDCP)

LA T-1 (5/3/65) Jimmy GARRETT

A public forum was held by "People's World" (PW), on April 4, 1965, at 1500 East Rosecrans, Compton, California, with 35 persons, most of whom were Communist Party members, in attendance. JAMES GARRETT, a young Negro who was an officer in the Los Angeles Office of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), was the main speaker and his topic was "Should Our Troops be in Vietnam or Selma?". GARRETT spoke as an anarchist and was very proud of the fact. He believed that cities such as Selma should withdraw from such "outside influences" as national and local government until Negroes were able to vote, attend all white schools, and eat in the same restaurants. He saw no reason for school boards and thought that the children could run the schools themselves.

PW is a west coast communist newspaper.

LA T-1 (5/17/65)

In regard to JAMES GARRETT, a meeting of a Communist Party club in the South Side Section, SCDCP, on May 11, 1965, included a discussion on radical existentialists, and these persons were described as anarchists who wanted no controls, no government, and no organization, therefore, they were enemies of the Communist Party. JAMES GARRETT was named as an example; the Communist Party helped get him started, but he had gotten out of hand and the Communist Party was now pushing him out of all contact with the Communist Party and with every other organization possible.

LA T-2 (5/28/65)

DOROTHY HEALEY, SCDCP Chairman, recently indicated that a member of the SCDCP had tried to build up JIMMY GARRETT for membership in the Communist Party because it was necessary to build up promising young Negroes, but that they could not always be expected to turn out right, and that in GARRETT's case another influence was stronger, that of ROBERT MOSES of SNCC.

LA T-3 (4/9/65)

At a meeting of the West Adams Club, Moranda Smith Section (MSS), SCDCP, held April 5, 1965, CHARLENE MITCHELL, Section Chairman, and a member of the National Committee Communist Party, USA, announced a forthcoming section conference and said that the three topics for discussion would be concentration, registration and recruitment in the Watts area of Los Angeles, which would be the main area for concentration and recruitment, since it was a predominately Negro area.

LA T-4 (4/7/65)

On April 6, 1965, CHARLENE MITCHELL indicated an interest in the statement of a national Communist Party leader that the Communist Party wanted to get more Negroes into full-time leadership. MITCHELL, who is a Negro, considered the possibility of returning to the Communist Party payroll in California, but in view of the fact that WILLIAM TAYLOR, SCDCP, Vice Chairman, was on full-time leadership, she wanted some assurance that in a few years the state of the Party's finances would not compel a debate as to whether she or TAYLOR should be retained. She was also reluctant because of the status of Negroes working in the SCDCP; she felt that there was not a sufficient core of Negroes in the Party to make it worthwhile.

LA T-5 (4/23/65)

CHARLENE MITCHELL was the keynote speaker on the subject "The Ideological Problems of the Negro People's Struggle", at a work shop discussion held by the SCDCP, April 9, 1965. She stated that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Negro churches were the only real mass organizations which had given leadership to the Negro people's struggles. She analyzed the various demonstrations held to obtain Negro freedom and pointed out that getting arrested merely for the sake of demonstrating indicated that there was no real basis for the demonstration. There was a real need for a constant leadership base from which to operate as had been made clear by the experiences of Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. She stated that in order to have an impressive leadership the Communist Party had to have a real program, that the Communist Party must relate the civil rights movement to trade union organizations in terms of workers and jobs. Negro organizations must be given this basic knowledge and the theoretical line upon which to work. According to MITCHELL the Communist Party had the experience and dedication which could be utilized and that the Communist Party must find a way to get into the civil rights struggle. She stated that there was a real need for a political approach in the civil rights movement and the movement needed a working class base. She felt that the big question was whether Negroes really wanted to integrate into a decaying society. She stated that the whole economic question of jobs, housing, and a higher standard of living was a necessary part of any basic program which the Communist Party could use in the civil rights struggle.

LA T-6 (5/28/65)

At a May Day Rally held May 2, 1965, by the May Day Committee, and attended by approximately 500 persons , DOROTHY HEALEY SCDCP, spoke on the forthcoming Los Angeles Municipal elections and urged the election of Reverend JAMES E. JONES, a Negro minister, to a position on the Los Angeles Board of Education. HEALEY emphasized that his election would mean the defeat of Mrs. MARION MILLER, whom she described as the darling of the ultra-right, and whom she castigated for her work for the FBI.

Mrs. MARION MILLER, [redacted] Los Angeles, for the purpose of furnishing information to the FBI, was affiliated with Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born from 1950 to 1955, and was a member of the Los Angeles Communist Party from 1952 to 1955. b6 b7C

In May, 1965, the West Adams Club, MSS, SCDCP, formulated its criticism of the Communist Party's current program in the area of peace and civil rights by drawing up the following resolution which is set out in part.

"WAR & PEACE"

"The party's present attitude (as expressed in the press) disregards our basic principles. Instead of demanding a complete pullout of US troops and self-determination of the people of Viet Nam, we ask only for negotiations and to stop the bombing.

"CIVIL RIGHTS"

"There should be more active participation of our membership in the civil rights movements; and re-examination of our role in the civil rights movement and particularly of participation of our members.

"We believe our program should include:

"(1) Compensatory hiring (training Negroes who have not not been sufficiently trained - due to our system of discrimination).

"(2) Unions to make an effort to draft Negro membership and see that they are trained.

"(3) Gov't to take positive steps to see that pressure is not applied to people attempting to register and vote.

"(4) Correction of the party's attitude that immediate demands being the entire goal, such as in the civil rights movement - lack of participation of our members for fear of being identified -- this particular attitude has done harm to our organization and has not accomplished its purpose of preventing smear to the civil rights movements.

"(5) We must not lose sight of our ultimate goal of socialism. "

LA T-7 (6/7/65)

At MSS Section meeting held May 10, 1965, and conducted by CHARLENE MITCHELL, a discussion was held on the role of the Communist Party in the poverty program. It was decided that the Watts area of Los Angeles should be the main point of concentration for MSS and an effort should be made to involve more Negroes in their own welfare and in the current struggle.

LA T-8 (5/19/65)

At a meeting of the SCDCP, Mexican Commission, held May 11, 1965, BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary, SCDCP, discussed the possibility of the Communist Party arranging a working agreement between the Negro community and the Mexican-American community of the Los Angeles area to support the Negro candidate for the office on the Board of Education, Reverend JAMES E. JONES. To obtain support for JONES, DOBBS suggested that a paid advertisement signed by certain Mexican-American leaders be placed in community newspapers in East Los Angeles. The cost of the ad would be paid by the Communist Party and DOBBS was currently seeking someone to line up the Mexican-American leaders who would sign the ad .

LA T-5 (5/21/65)

At a meeting of the MSS Section Committee, held May 17, 1965, CHARLENE MITCHELL stressed that MARION MILLER, whom she described as an ultra-rightist, had to be defeated in the Board of Education election and that Reverend JAMES E. JONES had to be elected, since this would mean that for the first time in history Negroes would have a representative on the Los Angeles Board of Education. She urged all Communist Party clubs in MSS be assigned precincts in which to campaign for Reverend JONES, and it was decided that certain club representatives would pick up material from his campaign headquarters, and go all out to work their precincts for the election of JONES.

MITCHELL also proposed that the MSS create a new Communist Party club in the Watts area of Los Angeles to implement the concentration program in that area, geared to the poverty program.

On May 17, 1965, a student forum was held at noon at the Hyde Park area of the University of California, at Los Angeles (UCLA), and the topic for discussion was "Diversity on the Left: Diagnoses and Solutions to the Negro-White Issue in the United States Today." The discussion featured as speakers OSCAR COOVER, spokesman for the Socialist Workers Party and candidate for Mayor of Los Angeles in 1965; WILLIAM TAYLOR, spokesman for the Communist Party, U.S.A., and candidate for Los Angeles County Supervisor in 1964; JIMMY GARRETT, spokesman for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC); and MICHAEL LASKY, spokesman for and West Coast Director of the Provisional Organizing Committee to Reconstitute a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party, U.S.A.

The source advised that attendance was approximately 200 to 300 persons, mostly students who had gathered at the Hyde Park area to eat their lunches and who left before the meeting ended in order to resume classes. There were indications that they gave little encouragement for any additional meetings of the Students Forum.

An article captioned, "Leftists Solutions to Negro Problem - Diverse Opinions at Hyde Park," written by JUDY BORGERDING, Staff Writer, appearing on page sixteen of the May 19, 1965 issue, is quoted in its entirety as follows:

"Representatives of four leftist organizations presented their diagnoses and solutions to the Negro-white issue in the U.S. at a lengthy rally held Monday in Hyde Park.

"OSCAR COOVER, spokesman for the Socialist Workers Party, characterized the Negro problem as a class struggle. He said that Negroes must be represented in their own separate organizations: 'The goal of the Socialist Workers Party is to establish independent political action to mobilize the Negro.

"'Our party fights for socialism as its objective. Only under socialism can all men be free,' WILLIAM TAYLOR, representative of the Communist Party, U.S.A., said. He asserted that the majority of the people, including the Negroes, are not convinced that socialism is the best way to fight for this freedom.

"JIMMY GARETT of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (S.N.C.C.), said that this was the only organization at the rally that allowed its members the fredom to determine what position their organization will take. He stated that most people are in varying levels of slavery because they let other people make decisions for them and have to live under that system whether they approve of it or not.

"'The Negroes are less in slavery than are the rest of the population because they at least realize they're slaves.' When people 'probe the deepest issues of their country,' and work these out meaningfully in terms of their lives, GARETT said that organization will grow out of this. 'This is the challenge that SNCC offers you,' he concluded.

"MICHAEL LASKY, spokesman for and West Coast Director of the Provisional Organizing Committee to Reconstitute a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party, U.S.A., said that until the right wing of the Communist Party is expelled, it will remain as a mere adjunct to the Democratic Party.

"'Our primary concern is with the revolution of the working class. Our aim is the overthrow of the capitalist system and its complete destruction; the destruction of its representatives whether it be JOHNSON or GOLDWATER. We will use violence to protect the interests of the working class. If we could do it peacefully through the ballot, we'd do it. The only way to overthrow is armed overthrow of the white ruling class,' LASKY said.

"He stated that the Negro question is not a race question but a question of colonial oppression of the Negro in the black belt. The black belt was formed as a direct expression of the developing capitalism. The result of this 'has been the formation of a Negro people distinct and apart from all.' Color is used to facilitate this exploitation.

"LASKY said that the problem of the Negro will only be solved by a proletariat revolution."

LA T-10 (5/25/65)

OSCAR COOVER was a current member of the Los Angeles Local of the Socialist Workers Party (LAL-SWP), and was a member of the SWP National Committee.

LA T-11 (5/19/65)

MICHAEL LASKY was currently Chairman of the Los Angeles Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist- Leninist Communist Party (LAPOC), also referred to as the Provisional Organizing Committee to Reconstitute a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party, U.S.A.

LA T-5 (5/26/65)

At a SCDCP District Conference, held May 22, 1965, GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, U.S.A., made the keynote talk and stated that the civil rights movement has helped create the feeling that it is morally wrong to oppress other people The Communist Party must be the organizers of such a struggle to initiate [illegible] and to get these movements off the ground. HALL continued that the civil rights movement had [illegible] produced a new level of political understanding and political action. The great impact of the civil rights movement had created a mass current in terms of election power, and the Communist Party had to create a new level to bring the party's position to the masses in terms of leaflets and pamphlets.

LA T-12 (6/8/65)

At a meeting of the South Central Club, MSS, SCDCP, on June 2, 1965, a discussion was held on whether the clubs in the Section should be reorganized into interest groups, into study and educational groups, or into struggle and community groups. Subsequent discussion rejected the first two ideas and favored the idea of organizing clubs as struggle groups to be active in their communities, particularly in Watts, where the main concentration would be. Members were to participate in the struggle of the Negro people's movement without taking over the leadership of the movement, however.

At a meeting of the Medgar Evers Youth Club, MSS, SCDCP, held on April 15, 1965, it was announced that the National Office, Communist Party, U.S.A., had proposed that every youth member possible should travel to southern states during the summer to help in the civil right struggle.

At a meeting of the Medgar Evers Youth Club,MSS,SCDCP, held on April 29, 1965, it was suggested that the club undertake a particular project for the summer and it was suggested that the Freedom House,run by the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE),might offer opportunities. A representative of the section was to contact CORE to determine the type of activities at the Freedom House, and it was suggested that a representative of the section be at the Freedom House every Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. to contact Negro youth and look for prospective members.

Informants, who are familiar with plans and activities at all levels of the SCDCP in the Los Angeles area, advised that for a number of years the SCDCP has,on numerous occasions, and on all levels of the District, discussed the racial situationiin the Los Angeles area, and has put forward proposals, made resolutions, and suggested plans of action in that connection. None of these plans have been put into effect, however, and at top level meetings. District leaders have frankly admitted that the District and the Communist Party, U.S.A., in general, have been unable to provide any leadership and have been generally ineffective in the civil rights struggle and the Negro freedom right movement. The District leaders recognize that the Communist Party is still without any effective plan that may be implemented to gain for the party a leadership position in the movement.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

Certain security measures are to be utilized by various civil rights groups in the Los Angeles area during street demonstrations, these measures being known only to the high level officials of the organizations involved. These security measures are utilized by these organizations not only in conducting their own respective street demonstrations but are used when these specific groups are invited to participate in demonstrations sponsored by other groups.

These measures were prompted by picket line demonstrators being attacked by counter pickets and the alleged lack of any police protection given the demonstrators. This resulted in the demonstrators themselves arming on an individual basis, such as carrying knives or ice picks, which would eventually lead to violence and trouble. This situation was remedied by selecting a number of key security men who would intersperse themselves through the crowd around the demonstrators and who would be available to protect the demonstrators if attacked. These security men reportedly are armed by small firearms which can be concealed. Some of the picket captains, although not armed with firearms, are also in a stand-by status in the crowds surrounding the demonstrators for assistance in case the demonstrators are attacked. The latter are promised security but details and identity of security men are withheld.

It is a stated policy of these civil rights groups officials, who are cognizant of the security measures taken, that the use of firearms or violence is only to take place as a last resort and only for protection of any demonstrators who might be attacked and who are not protected by the police. It is a distinct policy that no resistance is to be offered law enforcement agencies and the security men and picket captains are to be prepared and willing to be arrested to further the cause for which the demonstration was held. The security men are selected carefully so that they may keep control of the situation and prevent any violence occurring except in defense when attacked. Attorneys and bail are provided for those arrested.

Among the organizations known to have knowledge of the above security measures on the top executive level are CORE, SNCC, the Western Christian Leadership Conference (WCLC), the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), the Urban League, the Mexican-American Political Association (MAPA), and the Women's International Strike for Peace (WISP).

The person through whom these security measures have been set up and who reportedly directs them is CHARLES MOSLEY, who is adept in the practice of judo. He is reported to have approximately ten individuals who are classified as security men operating under his supervision at the present time.

Officials of SCDCP are also aware of these security measures and are known to have been consulted regarding these measures as well as the experience of the CP in conducting demonstrations in the past. The SCDCP is known to have approved of such security measures but has suggested that they be utilized most circumspectly to prevent any and all violence if possible.

CHARLES MOSLEY, who has been an inactive member of the West Adams Club of the Moranda Smith Section, SCDCP, as of June, 1965, was in the process of being reinstated as an active member of the West Adams CP Club.

Synopsis:

At a Michigan District Communist Party (MDCP) meeting on 5/3/65, THOMAS DENNIS, a CP functionary, said there are not many of "our" people active in mass work and that "we" are not doing anything in the civil rights struggle. DENNIS directed the club representatives to go back to their clubs and have some serious political discussion on "Plan of Work". At a MDCP meeting on 6/8/65, DENNIS said the MDCP has not yet decided on a course of action concerning the forthcoming Common Council election, City of Detroit. DENNIS said it is his opinion the CP should observe who is the strongest Negro candidate, and help such candidate as much as possible. At a MDCP meeting on 6/22/65, DENNIS berated the club members for not engaging in affairs of mass organizations. It was reported on 7/21/65, that the MDCP has done nothing in furtherance of placing its members and close sympathizers into the civil rights movement or into mass type organizations. At a Detroit Branch SWP (DBSWP) meeting on 4/27/65, it was stated that only one member belongs to CORE. Demonstrations at Federal Building, Detroit, on 6/18/65; the NLG "1965 Guild Program in the South for Desegregation of Public Facilities"; and plans of RAM, set forth.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

(A) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CP)

1) Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at national meetings, including expressions by national and other functionaries.

DE T-1 advised on May 19, 1965, that a meeting of the Michigan District CP (MDCP) Club Leadership Council was held on May 3, 1965, at 6300 Hartford Avenue, Detroit, Michigan. THOMAS DENNIS opened the meeting by announcing that the agenda included a review of the MDCP "Plan of Work". DENNIS said there are not many of "our" people active in mass work and that "we" are not doing anything in the civil rights struggle.

Source said DENNIS requested a review by each club representative concerning club activity in mass organizations and civil rights. Following this review, DENNIS stated it was his opinion that not much was being done. DENNIS instructed the club representatives to go back to their clubs and have some serious political discussion on "Plan of Work". According to source, DENNIS stated he wondered how "we" could expect to recruit people when "we" are not even in the masses talking to people.

DE T-2 advised on April 5, 1964, that THOMAS DENNIS was elected in April, 1964, to the National Board, CP, USA. (U)

DE T-3 advised on June 28, 1965, that DENNIS is Organizational Secretary of the MDCP.

DE T-3 advised on June 11, 1965, that at a meeting of the West Joy Club, MDCP, held on June 8, 1965, at 11300 North Martindale, Detroit, THOMAS DENNIS stated that the MDCP has not yet decided on a course of action concerning the forthcoming Common Council election, City of Detroit. DENNIS said it is his opinion that the CP should observe who is the strongest Negro candidate, and then help such candidate as much as possible.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

DE T-1 advised on July 2, 1965, that at a meeting of the East Side Club, MDCP, held on June 22, 1965, at 6710 Crane, Detroit, THOMAS DENNIS berated the club members for not engaging in the affairs of mass organizations.

DE T-1 advised on July 21, 1965, that the MDCP has done nothing in furtherance of placing its members and close sympathizers into the civil rights movement or into mass type organizations.

(B) SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP)

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

1) Plans, strategy, Party line and the like made at District and lower level meetings, including expressions by local leaders and rank-and-file members.

DE T-4 advised on April 27, 1965, that at a closed membership meeting of the Detroit Branch SWP (DBSWP) held on April 18, 1965, at 3737 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, it was stated that ROBERT FINK, a member of the DBSWP, is the only member who belongs to the Congress Of Racial Equality (CORE).

A characterization of the DBSWP is contained in the appendix hereto.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

(A) DEMONSTRATION AT FEDERAL BUILDING, DETROIT, JUNE 18, 1965

On June 18, 1965, Detective Lieutenant NORMAN NICKERSON, Special Investigations Bureau, Detroit, Michigan, Police Department, advised the Detroit Friends of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) planned to assemble outside the Federal Building in downtown Detroit at approximately 4:30 p.m.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CONFIDENTIAL

Lieutenant NICKERSON advised that they would be joined there by some individuals from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, Friends of SNCC, and some representatives of the Ann Arbor Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

Lieutenant NICKERSON advised this group planned to picket in the area of the Lafayette Street entrance of the Federal Building and they planned to present a petition to Chief Assistant United States Attorney WILLIAM H. MERRILL at the entrance of the Federal Building.

Lieutenant NICKERSON said that leaders of this demonstration would be MARTHA KOCEL and MARK NICHOLAS SHAPIRO, both of the Detroit Friends of SNCC. Mich.

DE T-5 advised on October 14, 1964, that MARTHA KOCEL was then a member of Youth for De Berry and Shaw.

Youth for De Berry and Shaw was publically advertised as a Committee endorsing the candidacy of CLIFTON DE BERRY, the SWP candidate for President of the United States in November, 1964, election; and EDWARD SHAW, the SWP candidate for Vice President of the United States. Mich.

DE T-6 advised in March, 1965, that MARK SHAPIRO visited the William McKie Memorial Library and Educational Center (WMMLEC) on March 13, 1965, and met with HERBERT KRANSDORF. They discussed the future potential of civil rights marches and rallies.

A characterization of the WMMLEC is contained in the appendix hereto.

DE T-3 advised on June 28, 1965, that HERBERT KRANSDORF is Chairman of the MDCP.

On June 18, 1965, at approximately 4:30 p.m., Federal Building Guard Captain FELIX RADCLIFFE advised that a picketing demonstration had begun on the sidewalk area near the Lafayette entrance of the Federal Building and eight individuals were at that time taking part in the demonstration.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

It was thereafter observed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that the picketing demonstration continued at this location until approximately 6:00 p.m., with a maximum of 38 individuals, predominantly Caucasians, participating.

It was noted that the demonstrators chanted, "One Man - One Vote" and "Freedom Now" and they sang songs, such as "We Shall Overcome" and "Freedom".

It was also observed that many of the individuals participating in the picketing demonstration carried signs, some of which read as follows:

"Make the South part of the free world - stop police brutality";

"We demand an injunction against Mississippi outlaw cops";

"Federal protection for voter registration";

"Let my people go";

"Freedom now";

"Over 600 people are in a detention camp in Jackson, Mississippi - free them now";

"Mississippi SS must not be allowed";

"Illegal Mississippi Congressmen must be unseated".

Captain RADCLIFFE, mentioned above, advised that one of the participants in the picketing demonstration passed out a leaflet headed "700 arrested In Mississippi - Terror Reigns In Police State".

Captain RADCLIFFE also advised that a petition addressed "Mr. Nicholas Katzenbach, Attorney General, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C." was presented at the Lafayette entrance to the Federal Building.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

Captain RADCLIFFE further advised that the demonstrators did not enter the Federal Building and the demonstration was conducted in an orderly manner. He said no arrests were made.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

(A) NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD (NLG)

A characterization of the NLG is contained in the appendix hereto.

1) National Headquarters (C) (U)

DE T-7 advised on May 27, 1965, that the NLG continues to maintain headquarters at 1509 Cadillac Tower, Detroit, Michigan.

DE T-8 made available on May 27, 1965, a letter prepared on the NLG stationery dated April 15, 1965. (C) (U) This letter listed the following officers of the NLG, in addition to those previously reported:

PHYLLIS J. MC NEIL, Administrative Secretary

MALCOLM SHARP, Advisory Board

LOUIS F. BUDENZ, self-admitted former member of the CP, USA, advised in 1951, that MALCOLM SHARP was a Communist in the early 1940's. BUDENZ said that SHARP, if questioned, would probably deny his membership in the CP. BUDENZ also stated that SHARP had cooperated with the CP in various front activities and in political affairs at Chicago, Illinois.

Mich.

CONFIDENTIAL (U) OTHER Removed per Court Order (U)

DE T-9 made available on June 4, 1965, an undated mimeographed letter to "All Members of the NLG" [redacted] on the subject of the "1965 Guild Program in the South for Desegregation of Public Facilities". This letter disclosed that the program set forth had recently been approved by the National Executive Board, and stated "It is proposed that the Guild concentrate its efforts in the South this summer on a program to provide legal assistance to the Negro people in their efforts to enforce Title III of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which provides for the desegregation of Public Facilities, such as courthouses, libraries, hospitals, public parks, golf courses, etc..."

This letter, under the caption "How the 1965 Project Will Work" states that "The project consists of bringing together approximately 20 Teams composed of attorneys and research workers. Each Team will assume responsibility for desegregating the public facilities in a given county in Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama or other selected southern states, including the institution of omnibus law suits pursuant to Title III of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

"As nearly as possible, a Team should be composed of a single law firm working in cooperation with designated civil rights leaders in the particular county. Where this is not feasible, the attorney members of a Team should be practitioners from the same community so as to facilitate consultation and division of work..."

DE T-10 advised on September 19, 1954, that ERNEST GOODMAN has been present at Communist activity meetings where no one but a Communist would be admitted. Source said "I cannot say that I know him (GOODMAN) to be a member, and as a matter of fact, he probably has never been an actual member of the CP. I have no doubt GOODMAN is completely dedicated in principle, to the ideals of the CP, and he is a sympathizer with the Soviet government in Russia". (U)

(B) REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM), DETROIT LOCAL

A characterization of RAM is contained in the appendix hereto.

DE T-11, a representative of a municipal agency which conducts security type investigations, advised on May 11, 1965, that information available to him indicates that GENERAL GORDON BAKER and CHARLES SIMMONS are the acknowledged leaders of the Detroit RAM group.

GENERAL GORDON BAKER, JR., advised Special Agents of the FBI on January 20, 1965, that he traveled to Cuba during the summer of 1964 with the "Student Committee for Travel to Cuba" (SCTC).

A characterization of the SCTC is contained in the appendix hereto.

CHARLES EDWARD SIMMONS, III, advised Special Agents of the FBI on November 25, 1964, that he traveled to Cuba during the summer of 1964 with the SCTC.

DE T-12 advised in May, 1965, that GENERAL GORDON BAKER and CHARLES SIMMONS participated in a discussion with several other individuals on May 3, 1965, relative to the Dominican Republic and the Vietnam situations. During the discussion, BAKER commented that "they" will have to use racism to get some of the "cats" and expressed the desire to get classes started from which "they" may get about 10 people who could be taught the basics of Marxism and Revolution and Black History. According to source, SIMMONS stated that "they" should be organized by the middle of summer and have some type of platform by that time.

DE T-13 advised on June 7, 1965, that a meeting of the Fox and Wolf Hunt Club (FWHC) was held on June 6, 1965, at 13341 Livernois, Detroit, Michigan. Among the individuals present at this meeting were RICHARD B. HENRY, President; GENERAL BAKER, Treasurer; and CHARLES SIMMONS.

Richard B. Henry

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

At this meeting, RICHARD HENRY showed the individuals present a newspaper clipping which referred to an armed league of Negroes formed in the Bogalusa, Louisiana, area, known as the Deacons for Defense and Justice. According to source, HENRY stated that "they" should consider the possibility of sending two representatives of the FWHC to contact the Deacons in Bogalusa, Louisiana. HENRY indicated he believed it might be a good idea to obtain some information regarding the Deacons, and that this information might be beneficial to the FWHC in the future. HENRY said he might try to telephonically contact either the President of Vice President of the Deacons.

Source said RICHARD HENRY also suggested having a rally in Detroit with the idea of raising funds in order to send delegates to Louisiana to work along with the Deacons.

Lieutenant NORMAN NICKERSON, Special Investigations Bureau, Detroit, Michigan, Police Department. advised on January 15, 1965, that GENERAL GORDON BAKER, JR., and CHARLES EDWARD SIMMONS, III, leaders of the Detroit RAM group, along with the RAM and another club, organized the FWHC at a meeting held on January 3, 1965, at 11605 Linwood Avenue, Detroit.

2 [illegible]E T-4 advised on June 9, 1964, that a letter of the DBSWP stated that the SWP was supporting RICHARD B. HENRY for the Detroit Board of Education election in November, 1964. This letter described HENRY as a militant civil rights fighter who is independent of the Democrats and Republicans.

The Sunday edition, June 6, 1965, of the "Detroit Free Press", a newspaper published daily in Detroit, contained an article captioned, "Southern Negroes Form Armed League Against Terrorists". This article states in part that "an armed league of Negroes, formed for defense against white terrorism, is spreading across the South.

CONFIDENTIAL

"The Deacons for Defense and Justice, born last summer at Northern Louisiana,...

"The Deacons have guns and they have shown they are willing to use them. Twice in Louisiana they have opened fire on harassing whites..."

This article states that ERNEST THOMAS, Vice President and full time organizor of the Deacons, said the organization has 50 to 55 chapters in various stages of organization in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama; and that one of their main purposes is to protect civil rights workers and volunteers participating in civil rights activities.

(C) [DE T-13 advised on June 16, 1965,] that a meeting of the FWHC was held on June 13, 1965, at 13341 Livernois, Detroit. The meeting was called to order by RICHARD HENRY, FWHC President, who indicated that he had recently been in contact with the Deacons of Bogalusa, Louisiana, and had been invited by the Deacons to come to Louisiana.

According to source, HENRY requested the club and club membership to contribute funds to defray the cost of his trip. HENRY did not indicate any date that he contemplated leaving on the trip, and no decision was made by the club regarding a contribution to HENRY to defray the necessary expenses in connection with his travel.

Source said HENRY also suggested that the club should consider having a rally in Detroit. The purpose of the rally would be to raise funds, and the club could invite representatives of the Deacons from the Louisiana area as guests and speakers at the affair.

Source added that GENERAL GORDON BAKER and two other local RAM members were also present at this meeting.

CONFIDENTIAL

(C) DE T-13 advised on June 30, 1965, that a meeting of the FWHC was held on June 29, 1965, in the apartment of GENERAL GORDON BAKER, JR., [redacted] Detroit. The meeting was called to order by BAKER, who, with other individuals present, expressed dissatisfaction with the presidency of RICHARD HENRY in that he failed to attend meetings regularly and was attempting to utilize the club to further his own aims and purposes.

b7C

Source said it was agreed among the individuals in attendance at this meeting that RICHARD HENRY should be impeached from the presidency. GENERAL BAKER, at the suggestion of members in attendance, agreed to compose a letter containing their grievances against HENRY, which letter the club would present to HENRY at a future meeting of the club.

Source also advised that at the suggestion of GENERAL BAKER, new officers for the club were elected at this meeting. The following individuals were elected:

JOHN JACKSON, President;

MAX HENDERSON, Vice President;

GRETTA HENDERSON, Secretary;

GENERAL BAKER, Treasurer;

VALES CROSSLEY, Training Officer.

Mich.

According to source, GENERAL BAKER indicated to those present at the meeting that inasmuch as RICHARD HENRY and his associates were no longer officially members of the club, that the club was now a part of his group.

(C) DE T-13 advised on July 13, 1965, that a meeting of the FWHC was held on July 11, 1965, at the residence of RICHARD HENRY, [redacted] Detroit. The meeting was called to order by RICHARD HENRY, but before HENRY could make any statement, he was interrupted by GENERAL BAKER who presented the letter containing the grievances of other club members against HENRY. BAKER told HENRY he was no longer President, or a member, of the club.

Source advised that after RICHARD HENRY read the letter aloud and was advised by BAKER that he was no longer President, or a member, of the club, he, HENRY, became very angry. HENRY stated that the club had acted in a very underhanded manner in removing him from the presidency and from membership in the club, and HENRY became engaged in a brawl with another member of the club over his removal.

Source further advised that due to the attitude of HENRY, the meeting of the club was ordered terminated by GENERAL BAKER and those in attendance departed the HENRY residence. Shortly after the meeting, BAKER stated to several club members that he was glad the club was rid of HENRY, and that the club could now become a part of his group.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

1. National CP Plans and Strategy

CV T-1 advised on April 23, 1965, of a meeting of the National Negro Commission of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), at which Communist Party participation in the Civil Rights struggle was discussed. The need for Communist Party concentration in this struggle was stressed and the comment was made that the Ohio Communist Party should be responsible for the Appalachia area.

2. Local CP Plans and Strategy

CV T-2 advised on May 5, 1965, that a meeting of Citizens for Constitutional Rights (CCR) was held in Cleveland on May 3, 1965, at which two women were present who are very active in the Congress On Racial Equality (CORE), they having been specifically invited to attend. At the start of this meeting, EDNA KAUFMAN gave a resume of the CCR for the benefit of these two women. She stated that the CCR was started in 1960, originating with the FRANK WILKINSON case. EDNA KAUFMAN stated that WILKINSON was a school teacher, and not a Communist, and that his fight against the HCUA is what caused the formation of the CCR. EDNA KAUFMAN indicated that the CCR is not a subversive group, she apparently making this statement for the benefit of the two women from CORE. Although these two women did not appear to be very enthusiastic about becoming involved in the work of the CCR, in an effort to interest them it was pointed out that all that would be asked of them was to give moral support to the program of CCR and that the CCR Committee would call on them occasionally to help out.

CITIZENS FOR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

VIRGINIA HARDIN, who has furnished information to the United States Government is a self admitted former member of the "Communist Party" (CP) whose cooperation with the Government was publicly disclosed on June 5, 1962. Mrs. HARDIN mentioned on September 5, 1961, that on September 1, 1961, a CCR meeting was held in Cleveland, Ohio, at which the name CCR was approved to replace the name "Cleveland Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities" (HCUA), which had been the former name used by the group. EDNA KAUFMAN, Chairman and only officer of the CCR, controls the operations of the CCR, which has no formal membership requirements. The stated purposes of the CCR are to abolish the HCUA and to fight against the Smith and McCarran Acts.

EDNA KAUFMAN

CV T-3 advised on March 29, 1965, that EDNA KAUFMAN attended a CP State Conference held at Cleveland, Ohio, on March 28, 1965, and during this conference KAUFMAN was congratulated on the work she had done to abolish the HCUA which was a "Party assignment."

FRANK WILKINSON PENN.

WILKINSON was publicly identified as having been a Communist Party member in California at sometime during the period 1951 to 1953 by ANITA BELLE SCHNEIDER, who testified at the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) hearings which were held in San Diego in 1958.

WILKINSON was released from the Federal Prison Camp at Allenwood, Pennsylvania, on February 1, 1962, after serving nine months of a one year sentence for contempt of Congress. This conviction arose out of his refusal to answer questions put to him at HCUA hearings which were held in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1958.

CV T-3 advised on May 14, 1965, that as of May 7, 1965, TERRENCE HALLINAN was in Cleveland, stating that since he has been here he has been in contact with representatives of CORE and with the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). He stated that both of these groups are planning Summer projects in Cleveland and they like the idea of working with the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA). HALLINAN stated that he had been well received by both CORE and SDS.

TERRENCE HALLINAN

CV T-14 advised on June 11, 1965, that TERRENCE HALLINAN has stated that he is one of the few National Executive Board members of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America who is not a party member. He is experiencing some difficulty in being admitted to the California Bar, and is impatient to be admitted so that he can formally join the CP.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

CV T-4 advised on June 30, 1965, that he is entirely familiar with the activities of CORE in Cleveland and with any projects that it might have planned. He advised that CORE has no local Summer projects planned at this time.

B. SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

1. Local Plans and Strategy

CV T-5 advised on April 21, 1965, that a meeting of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) at Kent, Ohio, was held on April 20, 1965, at which the local YSA Organizer stated that he had an idea of how to send propaganda to the South in a sneaky way. He suggested that the YSA could send YSA literature and some "Militants" to Selma, Alabama, along with food; the initials YSA could be painted on the food cartons in nail polish so that it could not be rubbed off. He advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) had already sent bundles of "Militants" to Negroes in the Selma area.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE, KENT, OHIO and
"THE MILITANT"

A characterization of the Young Socialist Alliance, Kent, Ohio, and also "The Militant" is contained in the Appendix hereto.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

a guest speaker at a Militant forum held in Cleveland on April 18, 1965, this Militant forum being sponsored by the Cleveland Branch of the Socialist Workers Party. GUREWITZ spoke on his recent participation in a march which took place in Selma, Alabama. He said he had participated in this march as a member of the SDS, and that while in Alabama he had contacted many members of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee.

DONALD GUREWITZ ALA

CV T-7 advised on July 17, 1964, that DONALD GUREWITZ is the son of HELEN and CLARENCE GUREWITZ. Ohio

CV T-8 advised on January 14, 1963, that CLARENCE GUREWITZ was, at that time, a member of the Communist Party.

CV T-9 advised on February 20, 1964, that HELEN GUREWITZ was, at that time, a member of the Communist Party.

CV T-10 advised on February 10, 1965, that both CLARENCE and HELEN GUREWITZ were, at that time, still active in the Communist movement.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY
CLEVELAND BRANCH

A characterization of the Cleveland Branch of the Socialist Workers Party is contained in the Appendix hereto.

CV T-6 advised on June 9, 1965, that in the past six months the Cleveland Chapter of the YSA has been very active in demonstrations against local, State and Federal Government. Members have participated in demonstrations protesting the war in Viet Nam, intervention of the United States in the Dominican Republic, and protests against the firing of DON FREEMAN by the Cleveland School Board. II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. DEMONSTRATION ON APRIL 26, 1965, AT SITE OF NEW FEDERAL BUILDING, CLEVELAND, OHIO

In accordance with plans previously announced in public news media, the Cleveland Branch of the National Association of the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) conducted a demonstration at the construction site of the new Cleveland Federal Building on April 26, 1965, for the purpose of protesting alleged discrimination in hiring practices of building trade unions working on this project. Demonstrations began at approximately 10:00 AM; and, according to Sergeant JOHN J. UNGVARY, Bureau of Special Investigation, Cleveland, Ohio, Police Department, approximately 47 persons participated in the picket line. Sergeant UNGVARY stated that on three separate occasions groups of demonstrators sat down in the work entrance to the construction site. These persons were arrested by the Cleveland, Ohio, Police Department and charged with disorderly conduct. A total of 24 arrests were made.

The demonstration recessed at 11:50 AM and was resumed at 2:00 PM with approximately 32 persons participating in the picket line. Sergeant UNGVARY advised that there was no civil disobedience during the afternoon demonstration, no arrests were made, and the demonstration terminated at 3:30 PM. He advised that there was no violence at any time during the day. Sergeant UNGVARY advised further that among those participating in the picket line during the morning of April 26, 1965, were MORRIS JAFFA and BETH MICHELE ROBINSON.

MORRIS JAFFA Ohio

ISADORE BAKST, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party (CP) of Ohio, advised on December 12, 1949, that JAFFA was a member of the CP prior to 1945.

CV T-15 reported during the period 1957 - 1958 that JAFFA attended five functions of the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born (ACPFB) during this time.

The ACPFB has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

CV T-15 also reported on May 21, 1959, that JAFFA was present at a testimonial banquet for GUS HALL, General Secretary of the CP, USA, which banquet was held on May 10, 1959, in Cleveland, Ohio.

CV T-16 advised on March 9, 1964, that JAFFA was at that time a subscriber to "The Worker."

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

BETH MICHELE ROBINSON

CV T-17 advised on April 2, 1962, that BETH MICHELE WOLLAND gave a speech at a forum of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), held March 26, 1962, in New York City. Her talk concerned her 1961 visit to Cuba, and she spoke favorably of the Cuban Government of FIDEL CASTRO and noted that she was employed by the Ministry of Education compiling statistics while in Cuba. Source stated he had learned also that she had travelled to Cuba via Mexico, apparently without permission of the United States State Department.

B. DEMONSTRATION APRIL 27, 1965, AT CLEVELAND BOARD OF EDUCATION BUILDING ON BEHALF OF DONALD FREEMAN

Approximately 30 pickets assembled in front of the Cleveland Board of Education Building on April 27, 1965, to protest in behalf of DONALD FREEMAN, who had been fired from his position as a teacher in the Cleveland School Board System. Sergeant UNGVARY advised on April 27, 1965, the demonstration lasted from approximately 4:00 PM until 5:30 PM, that date, and was peaceful in all respects. The deomonstrators carried placards protesting against the Cleveland School Board and in particular against its handling of the FREEMAN case. The picketing was sponsored by Freedom Fighters, Inc., and by CORE. An article in "The Plain Dealer, a Cleveland daily newspaper, issue of April 28, 1965, stated that DONALD FREEMAN was fired by the Cleveland Board of Education. The Board announced that it had found that evidence presented at a hearing two weeks previously indicated that FREEMAN "wrote for three publications advocating a Nationalistic government based on racial identification, hatred, and contempt for those people of races other than the Afro-American." The statement said also that FREEMAN "over a period of more than "two years associated with others who advocated actions against American institutions, economic, social, governmental, and otherwise, which would give power to a movement known as RAM."

Sergeant UNGVARY advised on April 28, 1965, that among those participating in the demonstration against the Board of Education on April 27, 1965, were LEWIS G. ROBINSON, DON K. SMITH, and JOHN MC CANN.

LEWIS G. ROBINSON

LEWIS G. ROBINSON, in his application for a position with the United States Government, dated July 1, 1957, in answer to the question, "Are you now, or have you ever been, a member of the Communist Party, USA, or any Communist or Fascist organization?", stated, "I have attended several meetings of the Labor Youth League in Boston in 1950."

The Labor Youth League has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In April, 1964, LEWIS G. ROBINSON publicly announced through local news media that he intended to form a rifle club for the purpose of protecting Civil Rights demonstrators when the local Police failed to do so.

C. UNITED FREEDOM MOVEMENT DELEGATION TO CLEVELAND MAYOR RALPH S. LOCHER, JUNE 7 - 14, 1965, AT CLEVELAND, OHIO

Assistant Safety Director RICHARD MC KEAN, City of Cleveland, advised on June 10, 1965, that a delegation of representatives from the United Freedom Movement attempted to obtain a conference with Cleveland Mayor RALPH S. LOCHER on June 7, 8, 9, and 10, 1965. The desired conference concerned a statement made by Cleveland Chief of Police RICHARD WAGNER in testimony before the Ohio Legislature to the effect that he favored retaining the death penalty in the State of Ohio, one reason being because it discouraged activity of certain groups. One of the groups mentioned by Chief WAGNER was the Revolutionary Action Movement. United Freedom Movement objected to his singling out the Revolutionary Action Movement, contending it was a reflection on the Negro race and that he should also have mentioned organizations such as the Ku Klux Klan, and so forth. MC KEAN stated that on June 9, 1965, some of the members of the United Freedom Movement attempted to remain in the Mayor's outer office after the close of business on that day. They declined to move, when requested to do so, with the result that five of them were arrested. Among those arrested was JAMES M. RUSSELL. All were charged with trespass and were released on personal bond. No hearing as yet has been held.

JAMES RUSSELL Ohio

CV T-15 advised on January 22, 1965, that JAMES RUSSELL has attended a number of public meetings sponsored by the Cleveland Branch of the SWP. However, he only attends those meetings in which he has a particular interest, being primarily meetings at which problems of the Negro race are discussed. He has no interest at all in the SWP.

CV T-11 advised on June 10, 1965, that PHILIP BART stated that he had been to Cleveland City Hall that morning to see what was going on at the Mayor's Office. He said there were 40 - 50 people there, but that most of them were news reporters or Police Officers. BART said he was not acquainted with any of those present and did not participate in the "sit-in."

PHIL BART

CV T-3 advised on March 29, 1965, that PHIL BART is the new Organizer of the Ohio Communist Party.

Assistant Safety Director RICHARD MC KEAN advised on June 14, 1965, that the demonstrators had stopped at the Mayor's Office on that morning as they had for the past week, and continued to "sit-in" his Office throughout the day. He stated that the number of demonstrators changed from time to time, as some left and others came in, but that an average of 12 persons were present. He identified LEWIS G. ROBINSON as one of the demonstrators.

Assistant Safety Director MC KEAN advised on June 15, 1965, that on that morning six members of the National Association for the Advancement of White People occupied the chairs in the Mayor's outer office and that when the United Freedom Movement delegation arrived and observed this they issued a statement and left. Picketing concluded on this morning. He advised that LEWIS G. ROBINSON was observed in the corridor outside the Mayor's Office, but made no attempt to enter.

Assistant Safety Director MC KEAN advised that all picketing during the period June 7 - 15, 1965, had been peaceful and that no arrests were made except for those arrested on June 9, 1965.

D. RENT STRIKE AT ALHAMBRA APARTMENTS IN CLEVELAND, JUNE 19, 1965

CV T-12 advised on June 15, 1965, that a meeting of Freedom Fighters, Inc., was held in Cleveland on June 13, 1965, and was attended by approximately 15 persons, among whom were JAMES RUSSELL, BERNARD MANDEL, ERIC REINTHALER, DON FREEMAN, and LEWIS ROBINSON. CV T-13 advised on June 15, 1965, that LEWIS ROBINSON, his wife, BETH ROBINSON, and BONNIE HOLT were also present at this meeting. Ohio

CV T-12 stated that at this June 13, 1965, meeting BERNARD MANDEL, who is in charge of the Rent Strike Committee of Freedom Fighters, Inc., discussed a rent strike rally to be sponsored by Freedom Fighters, Inc., and to be held on June 19, 1965, in the courtyard of the Alhambra Apartments, 8602 Wade Park Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. CV T-12 stated that a male Negro who is from out of town and who is said to be a rabble rouser and who has organized successful rent strikes in other areas, will be in charge. (CV T-12, on June 25, 1965, identified this male Negro from out of town as being JESSE GRAY.) CV T-12 stated that the purpose of this rally is to force the owner to improve living conditions at the Alhambra Apartments.

BERNARD MANDEL

JOHN VICTOR BLANC, a former member of the CP, who testified on behalf of the United States Government, advised on June 30, 1946, that BERNARD MANDEL's name appeared at that time among the records of the Cuyahoga County CP Membership Director as being a member of the CP Euclid Club, with CP Book No. 88987.

CV T-19 advised on October 31, 1963, that on October 27, 1963, the first of a series of six Sunday night lectures, conducted by BERNARD MANDEL, and sponsored by the SWP, Cleveland, Ohio, was held at the SWP meeting hall in Cleveland.

ERIC S1 REINTHALER

REINTHALER was convicted in United States District Court, Cleveland, Ohio, on January 29, 1958, on the charge of conspiring to violate the Labor Management Relations Act of 1947 through the filing of false non-Communist union officer affidavits. On February 19, 1958, he was sentenced to eighteen months in prison and fined $2,500.00.

JESSE GRAY

CV T-20 advised on November 20, 1958, that JESSE GRAY had been an organizer for the Harlem region, Communist Party up until November, 1958. N.Y.

CV T-11 advised on November 20, 1958, that according to WILLIAM PATTERSON, Chairman of the New York District CP, JESSE GRAY is no longer a CP member, but is friendly with the CP.

CV T-13 advised on June 24, 1965, that a meeting of persons active in the National Black Coordinating Committee, which he said was a new group in the process of being formed, was held in Cleveland on June 19, 1965, and among the five persons participating in this meeting were JESSE GRAY of New York and JAMES RUSSELL of Cleveland. Discussion pertained generally to the Civil Rights Movement and to the efforts of the United Freedom Movement in Cleveland to meet with Mayor RALPH LOCHER in an effort to discuss the testimony which Chief of Police WAGNER had given before the State Legislature. JESSE GRAY stated that in his opinion the "Movement" needed an incident to attract the people in the ghettos, such as a case of Police brutality. GRAY questioned the decision of the Freedom Fighters to involve the United Freedom Movement in the WAGNER controversy before getting the "back alley" people involved.

CV T-13 stated that following the above meeting, this same group of five people met with six or seven additional persons, including BETH and LEWIS ROBINSON, ERIC REINTHALER, BONNIE HOLT, and BERNARD MANDEL. At this meeting, plans were finalized for the tenants' rally at the Alhambra Apartments, and it was agreed that if the Police broke up the meeting, no one was to create an incident so as to go to jail. CV T-13 stated that at the tenants' meeting, RUSSELL, GRAY, ROBINSON, and MANDEL spoke urging the tenants to join a protest rally to be held at the home of Mr. KAPLAN on June 21, 1965, he being the owner of the Alhambra Apartments.

CV T-13 stated that at this June 19, 1965, tenants' rally, the adult tenants who were present were rather apathetic, causing GRAY to express doubt whether the protest rally at the KAPLAN home would be successful. Patrolman JOHN PATTON, Bureau of Special Investigation, Cleveland Police Department, advised on June 19, 1965, that the rally held that date at the Alhambra Apartments, lasted from 3:45 PM until approximately

5:00 PM with an estimated 25 adults and 60 children gathered to hear the speakers. There were no incidents, but after the speakers finished, BERNARD MANDEL led a group of youths in a march in front of the apartment. They carried placards protesting high rent, filthy conditions, and containing the words, "slum landlord."

The rally at the KAPLAN home on June 21, 1965, took place without incident, and is not pertinent to this report.

II. CP PLANS AND STRATEGY AT DISTRICT AND LOWER LEVELS

A meeting of the Des Moines CP Club was held April 12, 1965, at 801 South 219th, Des Moines, Washington. During the meeting there was circulated among the members news letter No. 2 from JOHN FAWCETT, who was described as working with the Delta Ministry at Hattiesburg, Mississippi. This news letter formed the educational required at these meetings.

VI RUSSELL, member of the Club, said after reading two news letters from JOHN FAWCETT that she thought they should take more interest in his activities. It was agreed they should try to send money and bundles of clothing for the Negroes in Mississippi.

SE T-5 (4/14/65)

"The Seattle Times" of February 14, 1965, carried an article on Page 16 relating that JOHN FAWCETT was leaving his job and family at 11819 19th Avenue SW, to participate in civil rights causes in Mississippi. It was stated he would be gone about five months. FAWCETT was described as an ordained elder of the Boulevard Park Presbyterian Church, (Seattle).

During the latter part of April, 1965, VIVIAN GEORGE, member of the North Central Section Committee CP, Seattle, gave a general description of the Anti-Poverty Program being undertaken in the central area of Seattle. GEORGE stated she

During the first part of May, 1965, LONNIE HEALY, member of the CP in Seattle, Washington, stated the Des Moines CP Club was going to sponsor an affair on May 16 which would feature a speech by ELLEN FAWCETT (wife of JOHN FAWCETT). HEALY stated JOHN FAWCETT was due back from Mississippi during the second week of June. HEALY advised she had been assured by a member of the Des Moines CP Club that proceeds from the above affair would go to the "People's World" (PW), even though the people attending would believe the money was going to civil rights work.

SE T-1 (5/19/65)

The PW is noted as a West Coast Communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

A PW fund-raising meeting sponsored by the Des Moines CP Club was held at 801 South 219th, Des Moines, Washington, on May 16, 1965. Mrs. ELLEN FAWCETT gave a talk in which she described a visit with her husband in Mississippi.

SE T-8 (6/7/65)

The PW of July 10, 1965, carried an article which related the following in part:

"Irate Seattle Negroes and their allies in the fight for full equality will rally at Mt. Zion Baptist Church this Saturday, July 10, 11 a.m., 'to discuss our long-ignored efforts to get relief from abuse by law enforcement agents,' in the words of Rev. JOHN H. ADAMS, chairman of the Central Area Committee for Civil Rights (CACCR).

"The public meeting is the first such assembly since a Seattle policeman's bullet on June 20 killed a Negro, ROBERT L. REESE.

"REESE, 41, was slain while riding in an automobile driven by a companion. The two were among five Negroes involved a few minutes earlier in an altercation with two off duty police officers in a Chinatown cafe.

"'Excusable' Murder

"The patrolmen, HAROLD LARSEN and FRANK JUNELL, were suspended from duty for eight days, pending possible further action by their superiors, after a coroner's jury ruled that killing of REESE by LARSEN was 'excusable homicide.'

"Failure to dismiss LARSEN and JUNELL was termed an 'Alabama style of justice' by the Central Area Committee headed by Rev. ADAMS. The committee is a coordinating body for numerous units of civil rights organizations such as the Natl. Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, Congress of Racial Equality, Seattle Urban League, Catholic Interracial Council and others.

"The Negro men allegedly assaulted the officers in the cafe after JUNELL made racist remarks. JUNELL has been charged with provoking the assault, pursuant to a finding of the coroner's jury. No official charges have yet been lodged against LARSEN, who fired five shots that did considerable damage besides causing REESE's death, but none of which hit the automobile tire at which LARSEN said he was aiming.

"Cops Drinking

"At the inquest both officers admitted to having consumed several alcoholic drinks on the evening of the killing. The coroner's jury and King County Prosecuting Atty. CHARLES O. CARROLL have since recommended that Seattle Police Department regulations be changed to provide that off duty officers who are drinking shall no longer be required to carry their weapons, as is now the case."

"People's World" (7/10/65)

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), Seattle Chapter

A meeting of the PW Readers Committee was held at Seattle on April 10, 1965. CAL HARRIS said that at a CORE meeting the chairman spoke of the "power" battle that is going on in the Central Area Citizens Committee in connection with the poverty and economic program. He stated some of the Negro leaders are struggling to get their hands on some of the federal funds for personal use and were pushing themselves prestige-wise. HARRIS indicated the actions of these individuals showed they were disregarding the underprivileged.

SE T-9 (4/12/65)

A meeting of the North Central CP Section Committee was held at 6717 Sycamore Avenue Northwest, Seattle, on April 15, 1965. CAL HARRIS spoke of the CORE summer project in Louisiana. He stated the center of the project was to be in Bogalusa because of incidents of police brutality and discrimination in all public accommodations. He stated there was no police protection whatsoever for demonstrators in Bogalusa and the Federal Government offered no protection. HARRIS stated they should do everything they can to spotlight Bogalusa and to pressure its chief industry--Crown Zellerbach. He stated they should bring pressure on Crown Zellerbach in the State of Washington to support the civil rights workers in Bogalusa. HARRIS suggested this support might be in the form of a picket line or boycott. He stated the enemy is monopoly-capital and this fact must be understood by both Negroes and whites alike.

SE T-21 (4/26/65)

A CORE open house was held at 22nd and East Union Streets, Seattle, on April 18, 1965. CAL HARRIS was in charge of the housing booth.

B. National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)

A meeting of the Downtown CP Club was held at Tacoma, Washington, on April 2, 1965. MARY SUTHERLAND asked for a report regarding the NAACP. It was stated investigation was being made in connection with charges that a counsellor at a Tacoma school had contacted the police in connection with an incident which had occurred and that, although both white and Negro girls had been involved, the counsellor had pointed out only the Negro girls to the police. It was stated the matter was being checked and that if the charges were true, they would consult JACK TANNER, a Tacoma attorney.

SE T-17 (4/16/65)

At a meeting of the Downtown CP Club, Tacoma, held May 14, 1965, MARY SUTHERLAND asked for a report on the Area Conference of the NAACP, which was held at Yakima, Washington, on May 8 and 9 (1965). It was learned that no member of the club had been able to attend.

SE T-17 (5/18/65)

C. Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)

At a meeting of the KCYC of CP, held April 25, 1965, in Seattle, Washington, it was stated that DAVE KING had some serious problems of a political nature. KAE NORTON stated KING seriously doubts the need for a CP. She said he does not see a reason for developing a CP club where he is at presently (Spokane, Washington). KING felt, according to NORTON, that SNCC and Students for Democratic Society (SDS) are the new revolutionary movements and that they make the CP unnecessary. It was stated during the meeting that it would be necessary for the CP to change in order to meet the needs of the new revolutionary elements.

It was stated that the SNCC and SDS have been considering a merger at the national level. KAE NORTON said that SNCC is only a fund-raising organization in Seattle and this is as it should be. She said that there is a Friends of SNCC on the University of Washington campus. She said that JOAN MIRACLE is the actual head of SNCC locally and that her abilities lie only in fund raising. NORTON said that TIM LYNCH is the real leader of the Friends of SNCC.

SE T-3 (4/28/65)

Source identified TIM LYNCH as a former member of the University CP Club, Seattle.

SE T-3 (11/26/62)

During the first part of July, 1965, JOHNNY WEBB stated he was in Washington, D.C., during June for about two weeks at the request of MILFORD SUTHERLAND. SUTHERLAND had asked him to take part in discussion of plans to enlarge the Freedom Labor Union (FLU), formerly known as the Mississippi Freedom Labor Union. WEBB said that it (FLU) was created by SNCC. In the South it concentrates primarily on non-unionized Negro workers. In other parts of the country, other minority, non-unionized persons are of prime interest, according to WEBB.

WEBB stated he would concentrate on migrant workers in the State of Washington and that he is the only organizer in Washington at present.

WEBB stated he has been asked to spend at least two weeks in Mississippi this summer with members of FLU in order to become better trained in organizing. He stated he did not have the funds to make such a trip and that he was concerned over the fact that there were no funds available to organize FLU in Washington. WEBB mentioned the possibility of consulting CP leaders in this regard.

Source reported it had been stated CAYAC had not as yet developed a specific action program and has no ties in the adult community. SE T-23 (February, 1965)

The YPEL is characterized in the Appendix Section of this report.

Source advised that MIKE RUBICZ has stated that CAYAC is a group involving Central Area youth and that its goal was to represent all the Central Area youth and to belong to Central Area youth. RUBICZ stated there were about 25 members, with a ratio of three to one Negroes over whites. RUBICZ described CAYAC as a multi-issue organization which grew out of interest in the MFDP and has also been somewhat involved in the demonstrations around the Viet Nam issue.

SE T-3 (5/3/65)

During the latter part of April, 1965, MIKE RUBICZ reported to the KCYC of CP concerning CAYAC activities. He spoke of plans to have a person from the MFDP appear as a speaker. RUBICZ was criticized for failing to build unity with adult leaders in the Central Area. RUBICZ denied the need for any alteration in his approach, which had been critized as showing consideration of CAYAC first to the exclusion of the rest of the Central Area or to the exclusion of the CP. It was stated that RUBICZ failed to identify his CAYAC activities with the CP and did not recognize the need for an integrated overall program. It was stated that RUBICZ wanted the KCYC of CP to concentrate entirely on Central Area youth and he showed signs of becoming disinterested otherwise.

SE T-3 (5/17/65)

On May 19, 1965, RUBICZ reported to the KCYC of CP that the CAYAC had received confirmation that a MFDP Congresswoman would be in Seattle to speak at the Masonic Hall on May 30th (1965). RUBICZ stated CAYAC would co-sponsor the event with other civil rights organizations.

SE T-3 (5/27/65)

A meeting of the North King Section, NWDCP, was held May 20, 1965. The possibility of using CAYAC as one type of "anti-imperialist" center was discussed. It was agreed that the Section should have a report on the activities of CAYAC so that the Section could know what CAYAC is doing and what the Section can do to assist it.

SE T-3 (6/1/65)

A meeting of CAYAC was held May 20, 1965, at 19th and Yesler, Seattle. The meeting was led by BILL CORR and MIKE RUBICZ, and was concerned with the coming appearance of Mrs. VICTORIA GRAY on behalf of the MFDP at the Masonic Hall, May 30th. It was stated CAYAC was handling Mrs. GRAY's appearance along with other sponsors, such as SNCC and SDS.

After the meeting, MIKE ZAGARELL of the CP, USA, from New York, spoke privately with MIKE RUBICZ. Subsequently, ZAGARELL stated he had not convinced RUBICZ of the need to change CAYAC into a DuBois Club.

SE T-20 (5/25/65)

The W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) are characterized in the Appendix Section of this report.

Source furnished a flyer announcing a town meeting featuring the appearance of Mrs. VICTORIA GRAY, challenging Congresswoman from Mississippi, who would speak at the Masonic Hall, Seattle, May 30th (1965). SE T-26 (6/3/65)

On May 30, 1965, MARY SUTHERLAND of the Tacoma CP stated Mrs. VICTORIA GRAY would be in town and that she wanted to meet with some young people. SUTHERLAND stated that the (Communist) Party would have complete control of where Mrs. GRAY went and whom she saw while she was in the Northwest. SUTHERLAND stated GRAY represents the MFDP and that CAYAC had brought her to Seattle to speak.

SE T-17 (6/15/65)

A meeting of the North Central Section Committee (CP) was held at 1726 - 19th Avenue, Seattle, on June 17, 1965. VIVIAN GEORGE reported on the week-long stay in Seattle of VICTORIA GRAY of the MFDP, stating that one of their own youth took the initiative to invite GRAY to Seattle to speak. She stated over 200 people were present at one meeting and one-third of the audience was Negro. GEORGE said the Third Congressional District passed a resolution in support of the Mississippi challenge and that the resolution GEORGE introduced in the 37th Legislative District calling for support of the Mississippi challenge passed.

SE T-21 (6/24/65)

The meeting will also discuss what we can do to stop the special harrassments that are directed against the youth of the Central Area." Handprinted in the upper portion of the handbill was the following: "Come one...Come all...Youth rally about the slaying of ROBERT L. REESE." On April 27, 1965, JOSEPH R. DI SANTI ordered five tickets to the coming National Association For The Advancement Of Colored People (NAACP) banquet. He said he would use two himself and dispose of three to other people. DI SANTI also expressed an interest in any demonstrations the NAACP might be planning.

ROBERT ARCHULETA on the same date ordered two tickets to the same banquet.

(SU T-1, 4/30/65)

JOSEPH R. DI SANTI and ROBERT ARCHULETA were in July, 1963, members of the Utah State Board of the Communist Party (CP). ARCHULETA was at the same time the Secretary-Treasurer of the CP of Utah.

(SU T-2)

The Trinity AME Church, which is a Negro church in Salt Lake City, Utah, held a meeting on May 9, 1965. A guest speaker was present. JOSEPH DI SANTI, who is a Caucasian and not a member of this church, was in attendance. This was one of a series of meetings at which guest speakers would be featured. The topic discussed was Mormonism and the Negro.

(SU T-1, 5/11/65)

The Trinity AME Church held another meeting in the series on May 16, 1965. A guest speaker showed slides of the Holy City. JOSEPH DI SANTI was present.

(SU T-1, 5/19/65)

ROBERT ARCHULETA on May 16, 1965, obtained information pertaining to the Credit Union of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP and stated he planned to borrow $1,000.00 to consolidate some of his debts.

(SU T-1, 5/19/65)

The Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP held its annual banquet on May 28, 1965, in Salt Lake City. Among those present were MARCUS PARR, JOSEPH DI SANTI, ROBERT ARCHULETA and UDA HANSON. A guest speaker at one point stated that Negroes are to be commended because the majority of them have not become discouraged and joined such organizations as the Black Muslims and the CP. UDA HANSON renewed her membership in the NAACP at this banquet. MARCUS PARR and JOSEPH DI SANTI stated they did not like some of the remarks made by the speaker but were not specific.

(SU T-1, 6/7/65)

MARCUS PARR was a member of the Utah State Board of the CP in July, 1963, and UDA HANSON was a member of the CP at that time.

(SU T-2)

On May 27, 1965, ROBERT ARCHULETA obtained a loan of $1,100.00 from the NAACP Credit Union.

(SU T-1, 6/7/65)

The Trinity AME Church held another meeting in its series featuring guest speakers on June 20, 1965, at Salt Lake City. The subject was The Hazards of Cigarette Smoking. JOSEPH DI SANTI and MARCUS PARR were present. MARCUS PARR is a Caucasian and not a member of the above church.

(SU T-1, 6/21/65)

The Trinity AME Church, Salt Lake City, on June 27, 1965, held another of its meetings with guest speakers. JOSEPH DI SANTI was present. The subject of the speaker was Alcoholism.

(SU T-1, 7/2/65)

There are approximately 320 paid-up members of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP. The NAACP, Salt Lake City, sponsors demonstrations from time to time for the purpose of advancing the civil rights of Negroes. The President of the NAACP, Salt Lake City, is JOHNIE M. DRIVER, who is employed as an engineer by Sperry Utah Corporation, Salt Lake City. He was elected on December 7, 1964. There have been no demonstrations sponsored by the Salt Lake City NAACP during the past three months and none are presently planned.

The CP and its activities are recognized as a danger to the NAACP and the civil rights movement. The NAACP nationally has warned its branches to attempt to avoid cooperation with the CP. DRIVER attempts to discourage activities on the part of communists and communist synpathizers in the Salt Lake City area but does not consider that he has sufficient knowledge pertaining to their activities at the present time to be entirely successful in this. He has some ideas with respect to the identity of some CP members, but these ideas are based only on conversations he has had with other members of the NAACP in Salt Lake City. He has had no personal experience with any of these people of an unsatisfactory nature up to the present time. He will continue to seek the guidance of members of the organization who have been in Salt Lake City for a long period of time in any instance in which communist influence is suspected. He has been in Salt Lake City for less than three years.

Membership lists of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP in the possession of DRIVER reflect that among the current members are the following:

BERNICE CURTIS, [redacted] b6
JOSEPH CURTIS, [redacted] b7C
JOSEPH DI SANTI, [redacted]
ETHEL HALE, [redacted]
UDA HANSON, [redacted]

b7C

(JOHNIE M. DRIVER, [redacted]
7/16/65) PRESIDENT - N.A.A.C.P.

BERNICE CURTIS and JOSEPH CURTIS were members of the Utah State Board of the CP in July, 1963, and ETHEL HALE was a member of the CP of Utah at the same time.

(SU T-2)

The Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP continues to be interested in sponsoring demonstrations and other activities which will further the rights of Negroes. The officers and members of the NAACP, Salt Lake City, are generally aware of the dangers of the CP and hope that communists do not participate in the NAACP demonstrations. Efforts are made to discourage such participation, since it is considered that the CP is basically a danger to the civil rights movement. The NAACP, Salt Lake City, has sponsored no demonstrations during the past three months and none are planned for the immediate future. It is estimated that there are about 320 paid-up members of the Salt Lake City Branch. The President of the branch is JOHNIE M. DRIVER. BERNICE CURTIS, JOSEPH CURTIS, JOSEPH DI SANTI, ETHEL HALE and UDA HANSON are members of the Salt Lake City NAACP but have no influence on the policies of the organization and are not officers of the NAACP.

The NAACP at various national conventions has passed resolutions opposing communism. If a person is a known communist, he is not supposed to be granted membership in the NAACP. As a matter of practice, however, it is almost impossible to challenge a person on this basis, since NAACP officers do not have proof of such membership. It becomes necessary to use other methods to discourage persons suspected of being communists from active participation in the NAACP.

NAACP officers in Salt Lake City assume that the Public Affairs Forum of Utah County (PAFUC) and the Utah Council For Constitutional Liberties (UCCL) are communist front organizations. In view of this, attempts are made to be circumspect in connection with any contacts or activities with these groups.

(SU T-1, 7/26/65)

Characterizations of the PAFUC and UCCL are included in the appendix hereto.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS FORUM OF UTAH COUNTY, also known as, Peoples League For Peace of Utah County

FREDRICK LEE HEUSER, admitted member of the Communist Party (CP), reported that the Public Affairs Forum Of Utah County (PAFUC) was organized about 1951 for the purpose of promoting CP peace programs in the vicinity of Provo, Utah.

A source in July, 1963, reported that the Chairman of the PAFUC and some members, are members of the CP of Utah.

A second source reported in May, 1965, that the PAFUC continues to promote programs of the CP.

APPENDIX

SU 100-9845

UTAH COUNCIL FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES

FREDRICK LEE HEUSER, Sandy, Utah, in May, 1955, stated he was associated with the Communist Party (CP) of Utah as a member and leader from 1948 to April, 1955. In April, 1955, HEUSER reported the Utah Council For Constitutional Liberties (UCCL) was organized at the specific instructions of the Rocky Mountain Regional leaders of the CP for the purpose of fighting Smith Act prosecutions. HEUSER stated that WAYNE HOLLEY, Utah State Chairman of the CP, organized the UCCL in April, 1955. HEUSER also reported that the majority of officers and members of the UCCL are known to him as being members of the CP, State of Utah.

A source, who is affiliated with the UCCL, in July, 1963, reported that the UCCL continues to support programs of the CP and other organizations which have been designated as subversive by the Attorney General of the United States, and many members of the UCCL are known members of the CP of Utah.

A second source advised in May, 1965, that UCCL continues to promote programs of the CP.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA (CPUSA)

1. PLANS, STRATEGY, PARTY LINE, AND THE LIKE MADE AT LOWER LEVEL MEETINGS

On April 13, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised that at a meeting of the District Board, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), held at 8612 Rugby Street on April 6, 1965, it was announced that a civil rights rally was scheduled to be held on April 9, 1965, at Philadelphia.

It was indicated this would be the beginning of a new civil rights group, which will be in direct opposition to CECIL MOORE, President, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). This new organization would be known as North Philadelphia United and would be headed by GOLDIE WATSON and GEORGIE WOODS, a disc jockey at a local radio station. The speaker at this rally would be Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY.

The "Philadelphia Inquirer," a daily newspaper, dated August 18, 1964, on page four, carried a story reflecting Mrs. GOLDIE WATSON, a school teacher from Philadelphia was fired in 1954 by the School Board for refusing to state whether or not she had ever been a Communist Party (CP) member.

On May 4, 1965, PH T-1 advised at a meeting of the Executive Committee, CPEPD, held on May 3, 1965, DEBBIE AMIS, current CP member, gave a report on civil rights work in the Philadelphia area. According to AMIS, the civil rights movement in Philadelphia is disorganized and several of the groups are opposed to each other. She specifically mentioned that GEORGIE WOODS, a disc jockey for radio station WDAS in Philadelphia, Pa., has expressed opposition to CECIL MOORE, President of the Philadelphia Chapter of the NAACP. In addition, there is some opposition by the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the NAACP.

According to AMIS, the Philadelphia Friends of SNCC is undergoing a radical change. The head staff worker is a fund raiser and has done little to support the civil rights movement in the Philadelphia area. Efforts are being made to replace this staff worker with a Negro woman named MADDLE HUMPHRIES. AMIS was of the opinion that should HUMPHRIES take over this group it would become much more active in the civil rights movement in the Philadelphia area.

In a continued discussion of SNCC, DEBBIE AMIS stated her association with SNCC in Atlanta, Ga., was actually a party assignment, given her by the national office of the CPUSA. She indicated her present assignment was to reside and work in the Philadelphia area for approximately one year, at which time she would be given another party assignment.

On June 7, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-2 advised at a meeting of the Trade Union Club, CPEPD, held on June 6, 1965, it was suggested that the CP should participate in the picketing demonstrations at Girard College, Philadelphia, Pa. Most of the club members expressed dislike for CECIL MOORE, President of the NAACP, and described him as an opportunist and an insincere Negro leader. After further discussion, it was decided that members of this club would not participate in these demonstrations until such time as the local district issued a policy statement.

On June 27, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-3 advised a few days prior to this date IRVING GOFF, national CP representative assigned to Philadelphia, was overheard requesting JEAN FRANTJIS, a member of the Southwest Club, CPEPD, to encourage some of her white friends to participate in the demonstrations at Girard College. FRANTJI was subsequently heard telling another individual that although she consented to contact some of her white friends to participate in these demonstrations, she had not planned to do so.

On July 9, 1965, PH T-1 advised that at a meeting of the District Board on June 29, 1965, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN AYCOX, JR., Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Secretary, CPEPD, gave a report on the Negro people's movement, during which he stated a battle of civil rights was being waged by the individual in the party, rather than the party as an organization. As an example, he cited the lack of party participation in the picket demonstrations at Girard College.

AYCOX stated he was the only active Communist in the NAACP and he requested the local district of the party to examine its membership and their work in the civil rights field. During the discussion, AYCOX admitted he, himself, has not taken an active part in the demonstrations at Girard College.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

(COMMUNIST DIRECT INFLUENCE AND PARTICIPATION IN RACIAL DEMONSTRATIONS, DISTURBANCES, DRIVES, AND SIMILAR ACTITIVES WITH RACIAL OVERTONES)

A. NAACP DEMONSTRATIONS AT GIRARD COLLEGE

On June 25, 1965, Lieutenant [redacted], Philadelphia Police Department, Commissioner's Office, Philadelphia, Pa., advised that since May 1, 1965, the NAACP has sponsored a daily picket demonstration at Girard College in Philadelphia for the purpose of seeking integration at that institution. These demonstrations on a daily basis have been continued by the NAACP. b6 b7C

Lieutenant [redacted] advised on June 6, 1965, that on the previous day he observed DEBBIE AMIS, ARLENE and JARVIS TYNER at a picket site. According to Lieutenant [redacted], there was no indication they were involved in any activity, other than participating in the march.

On June 7, 1965, PH T-1 advised that ARLENE TYNER was Youth Secretary, CPEPD, and that JARVIS TYNER and DEBBIE AMIS are current members of the CPEPD.

On June 22, 1965, PH T-1 learned that MARION METELITS, a member of the Executive Committee and the District Board, CPEPD, had been an observer at the picket demonstration at Girard College early in the month of June. According to this source, METELITS is of the opinion that she was being followed by a policewoman, who she thought was waiting to arrest her on some trumped up charges.

Lieutenant [redacted], on June 25, 1965, advised that GOLDIE E. WATSON was prominent at the Girard College demonstrations on the night of June 24, 1965. Lieutenant [redacted] stated that he has heard her say on several occasions that she was the representative of U. S. Congressman ROBERT NIX (D., Pa.).

On June 25, 1965, PH T-1 stated that the CPEPD is not taking any part in the picket line demonstrations at Girard College and has issued no instructions to its members requested them to participate. According to this source, for the party to participate as a club or organization would result in Red baiting and harassment to the individuals themselves and reflect unfavorably on the entire situation. Any CP member participating in these demonstrations would be acting as an individual and doing so on his own discretion. However, the CPEPD has been attempting to encourage white people to participate in the picket lines at Girard College for the purpose of reflecting an integrated demonstration. b6 b7C

On June 4, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-4 advised he had learned that MICHAEL LANDIS, [redacted], was a participant in the picket demonstrations at Girard

College on May 29, 1965. LANDIS had in his possession a fire cracker and indicated he wished to throw it at a particular policeman. Later LANDIS was contacted by the police and told he was an "oppressor." LANDIS was arrested for inciting to riot.

At the time of his arrest, LANDIS had a notebook in his possession containing the names of JARVIS TYNER, a leader in the local branch of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA), and TED FAGIN, a leader of the Philadelphia Young Socialist Alliance (PYSA).

Characterizations of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America and the Philadelphia Young Socialist Alliance appear in the Appendix Section of this report.

Also, according to this source, LANDIS, on the night previous to the above, attended a meeting at 3502 Powelton Avenue, which was held for the purpose of attempting to interest people in forming a Progressive Labor Party club in Philadelphia.

A characterization of the Progressive Labor Party appears in the Appendix Section of this report.

B. ST. JOSEPH'S HOME FOR HOMELESS INDUSTRIAL BOYS
16TH STREET AND ALLEGHENY AVENUE

On May 3, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-5 advised the Philadelphia Branch of the DCA had planned to send a white couple and a Negro couple to one of the dances at St. Joseph's Home for Homeless Industrial Boys, 16th Street and Allegheny Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., for the purpose of attempting to integrate these dances. If the white couple were to be admitted and the Negro couple refused, a letter would then be sent to the Priest protesting this discrimination. Ample time would be given him to answer the letter. Thereafter, another attempt would be made to have a Negro couple admitted. Should this attempt fail, the DCA would then plan a picket at that location.

On June 24, 1965, the source subsequently advised DCA had taken no action on the above.

C. NORTH PHILADELPHIA UNITED

On May 10, 1965, JULES COHEN, Executive Director of the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC), stated he attended a meeting of the North Philadelphia United at the Bright Hope Baptist Church, 12th Street and Columbia Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., on April 9, 1965. This meeting was, in effect, in two parts. One was the presentation of funds to various organizations by GEORGIE WOODS on behalf of Radio Station WDAS Charities. The other was a series of civil rights talks.

According to COHEN, GOLDIE WATSON was chairman of the entire meeting and she performed so well that she was almost a professional. One of the speakers was Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY, an assistant to MARTIN LUTHER KING.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

On May 18, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-6 advised that REGINALD ~~X~~ ROBINSON of Washington, D. C., attended a founding convention of the DCA in San Francisco in June 1964 and that he spoke at this convention.

On May 29, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-7 reported that one "REGGIE" ~~X~~ ROBINSON, who identified himself as the representative of a Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), had recently arrived in Philadelphia and claimed he was in contact with the local office. According to this source, ROBINSON advised ARLENE TYNER, [redacted], that he expected to be in Philadelphia at least until September 1965. b6 b7C

ROBINSON and TYNER were overheard discussing the SNCC in Philadelphia as being "all messed up." According to TYNER, many people drifted away from SNCC when it did nothing but raise funds. She claimed the "kids" were looking for activity in the community action field and fund raising did not interest them. She also stated that some of these same kids were subsequently attracted to the DCA but again drifted away when there was no civil rights action.

TYNER felt that ROBINSON should discuss civil rights activities in Philadelphia with DEBBIE AMIS, who is well versed in this subject. TYNER opined that perhaps ROBINSON could reorganize things in Philadelphia.

PH T-7 further stated he had learned that TYNER and ROBINSON also speculated on the desirability of moving the local headquarters of SNCC to a new area, better situated for the people. TYNER felt that North Philadelphia would be the best location.

Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

On February 2, 1965, MM T-2 advised that PETER CHRISTIANSEN, a white male and recent graduate from the University of Miami [redacted], had been elected a new co-Chairman of the Miami Chapter of CORE.

On March 12, 1965, Lieutenant [redacted], Intelligence Unit, Miami Police Department, advised that a Mrs. DUDLEY BURTON, [redacted], contacted him on this date and advised as follows: b6 b7C

In the early part of November, 1964, PETER CHRISTIANSEN, who holds an office in CORE, appeared at the First Unitarian Church, 7701 S.W. 76th Avenue, Miami, for the purpose of participating in a debate concerning the merits and content of the book, "None Dare Call It Treason." During the debate, CHRISTIANSEN was asked a direct question, "Are you a Marxist?" He answered, "Yes, I am a member and I believe in Marxism." She said there were other persons present who could verify this statement during the debate.

Mrs. BURTON also said that CHRISTIANSEN appeared shortly thereafter at the home of MARY ANN MacKENZIE, Florida State Legislator, [redacted], at which time he denied that he was a Marxist. b6 b7C

On May 7, 1965 ERNEST E. LENT, Executive Director, Community Relations Board, Miami, advised that CORE was to picket the Florida State Building, located at 14th Street and N.W. 12th Avenue, Miami, on May 10, 1965 to protest a breach of freedom of speech. The picketing stems from the dismissal of PETER CHRISTIANSEN, an employee of the State Welfare Department, Miami, Florida.

LENT advised that CHRISTIANSEN was co-Chairman of CORE and was dismissed by the State Welfare Department for debating an official of the John Birch Society over a local radio station in March, 1965.

The MIAMI NEWS, local Miami newspaper, on May 11, 1965 reported that 12 pickets appeared at the Florida State Building to protest CHRISTIANSEN's dismissal.

On July 16, 1965, MM T-3 advised that PETER CHRISTIANSEN had resigned his position as co-Chairman of CORE in order to take a job with the War on Poverty Unit of the Dade County, Florida area.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

MM T-3 said CHRISTIANSEN will continue as an active member of CORE.

DETAILS:

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

(A.) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA DISTRICT
SAN DIEGO DIVISION

On March 12, 1965, ARTHUR STEVENS, described by the informant as the Chairman of the San Diego Communist Party (CP), LEE MAJOR, described by the informant as the San Diego CP delegate to the Southern California District CP, and BILL TAYLOR, described by the informant as Vice Chairman, Southern California District CP, had a conference concerning the situation in the CP in San Diego with relation to the Congress Of Racial Equality (CORE) and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

TAYLOR warned the local CP leaders not to become involved in any illegal CORE activities such as marijuana parties similar to thoseheld by the Los Angeles Chapter of CORE. He criticized STEVENS for allowing the leaders of CORE in San Diego to learn that he was a CP member adding that STEVENS, because he is white, would naturally be suspect inasmuch as he was so interested and active in a Negro organization. TAYLOR said that CORE is taking extreme measures to keep the left wing out of the organization and he does not believe it will ever permit the communists to operate within it.

TAYLOR said that the CP members should try to have CP sympathizers become active in SNCC but should not try to take it over as that would ruin the organization. He said that the CP influence should be through young people who are basically sympathetic to the communist movement.

(SD T-1, March 22, 1965)

(B.) SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY
SAN DIEGO BRANCH

The Socialist Workers Party (SWP) has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A characterization of the San Diego Branch of the SWP appears in the appendix of this report.

At a meeting of the SWP on March 23, 1965, LUDWIG GARTNER, described by the informant as Chairman of the San Diego Chapter of the SWP, said he understood that dissenting CORE members are drifting toward SNCC and the SWP members should maintain close contact with the latter organization. He added that SNCC had offered to furnish a speaker for a Militant Labor Forum (MLF) meeting.

(SD T-2, March 25, 1965)

A characterization of the MLF is set forth in the appendix of this report.

At an SWP meeting on April 13, 1965, LUDWIG GARTNER said that five SNCC people attended the MLF meeting on April 10, 1965, at which ROGRE BARKLEY, SNCC Chairman, spoke but only a few SWP members attended. He said this showed a lack of support which he considers bad particularly at this time because the SWP is starting to maintain much closer contact with SNCC in the hope of doing some recruiting among its members.

(SD T-2, April 23, 1965)

At an SWP meeting on April 27, 1965, WILLIAM KITT, described by the informant as an active SWP member, said that SNCC is taking a left position in the civil rights struggle and the SWP must fully exploit this situation.

(SD T-2, April 28, 1965)

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

(A.) STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE DEMONSTRATION SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA JUNE 27, 1965

Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) of San Diego sponsored a public rally in the downtown area of San Diego June 27, 1965, attended by approximately 50 people. ROGRE BARKLEY, Chairman of SNCC, acted as Master of Ceremonies and announced that the purpose of the rally was to inform the public of the atrocities being committed in Jackson, Mississippi and of the work that SNCC is doing. There was no violence in connection with this demonstration. Special Agents of the FBI observed ARTHUR STEVENS participating in this rally and following the rally participants placed placards in a car driven by STEVENS.

Student Non Violent Coordinating Committee

Calif

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

On April 10, 1965, ROGRE BARKLEY addressed a group at 1853 Irving Avenue, the headquarters of the San Diego Branch of the SWP. The meeting was sponsored by the Militant Labor Forum (MLF). His topic was "After Selma, What Next?" He requested financial support for the San Diego SNCC office at 3622 El Cajon Boulevard. Donations were collected at the door and approximately $11 was given to BARKLEY for SNCC.

(SD T-3, April 26, 1965)
(SD T-4, April 30, 1965)
(SD T-5, April 30, 1965)

On July 7, 1965, ROGRE BARKLEY said that he does not want to become active in any organization other than SNCC because it might make his work in that organization less effective and subject him to criticism. MORTIMER ALTMAN, described by the informant as an active CP member, has been trying for some time to get BARKLEY active in work for the CP.

(SD T-6, July 21, 1965)

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

At an SWP meeting on April 27, 1965, WILLIAM KITT asked LUDWIG GARTNER to get in touch with GEORGE JONES of the Los Angeles Branch of the SWP and ask him to bring down copies of an SWP pamphlet on MALCOLM X for distribution in San Diego.

(SD T-2, April 28, 1965)

On May 1, 1965, the MLF held a May Day meeting and social at SWP Headquarters, San Diego. The featured speaker was GEORGE JONES who spoke on "MALCOLM X, The Man And His Ideas" and on the need for a Freedom Now Party. Approximately 20 people attended this meeting.

(SD T-4, May 17, 1965)
(SD T-5, May 17, 1965)

"Voice," a San Diego Negro newspaper in its issue of May 13, 1965, carried an article announcing that AL KITT had joined the staff of "Voice." It stated that he is a junior at San Diego High School and had served as Managing Editor of that school's paper.

(SD T-2, July 21, 1965)

On July 2, 1965, ROGRE BARKLEY said that he is employed by MORTIMER ALTMAN at the Long Life Rug Company in El Cajon, California.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis:
This report covers the period April 1, 1965, through June 30, 1965.
COMMUNIST STRATEGY:
CP, USA:
ROSCOE PROCTOR on 4/19/65, reported on a meeting of the National Negro Commission of the CP, USA and declared the chief concern of the CP is the civil rights movement. PROCTOR noted that there is dissension in the civil rights movement, that the CP is being redbaited and leaders of the movement are trying to oust CP influence, and that the CP must fight for unity in the movement. Memo of the Northern California District Committee of the CP in May, 1965, declared CP should concentrate on unseating the illegal Mississippi delegation in the ensuing two or three months. Washington Summer Action Project scheduled for August 6-9, 1965, under joint sponsorship of various national organizations, will lobby for the unseating of Mississippi Congressmen.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

PROPAGANDA IN PUBLICATIONS:
"People's World" editorial on April 24, 1965, alleged the Administration would like to curb independence in the civil rights movement through use of the HCUA and the FBI.
SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY:
Attention of SWP during recent months has been focused on Vietnam and the Dominican Republic to the neglect of the Negro freedom movement.
YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE:
YSA decided in March of 1965 to send two members to Montgomery-Selma area of Alabama because of the students and contacts there, and to develop an inroad into the student and civil rights movements in San Francisco. YSA also has been concentrating on mass protests against the policy of the U. S. Government in Vietnam during recent months instead of engaging in civil rights demonstrations.
PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY:
PLP in Bay Area reportedly is interested in exposing alleged police brutality in Oakland and Richmond, California, and in unification of all races in working for a socialist government in the United States.
YOUTH FOR JOBS:
YFJ program outlined in April of 1965 a campaign against police brutality and harassment.
OTHER ORGANIZATIONS ACTIVE IN CIVIL RIGHTS AND NEGRO MATTERS:
CORE:
CORE leaflet distributed in Berkeley on May 11, 1965, sought 100 volunteers from Bay Area to work with Negro groups in Louisiana for ten weeks during the summer of 1965 on voter registration, formation of farmers' leagues and co-ops, and the organization of independent campaigns for local elections. Western regional office of CORE was closed June 5, 1965, to "get more workers out of offices and into action programs."
NAACP:
NAACP in San Francisco has surveyed population composition and compared it with school composition to prove schools in SF essentially are segregated.
SNCC:
SNCC hosted conference in SF in connection with campaign to recruit volunteer workers to participate in a Mississippi and Arkansas Summer Project. SNCC also was committed to work on unseating of Mississippi delegation.
STUDENTS FOR DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY:
SDS in Oakland reportedly wants full-time staff to work among poor Negroes to build a movement around economic and political grievances.

COMMUNIST TACTICS:

PICKETING OF EMPORIUM STORE:

CORE-sponsored picketing against Emporium Store in SF for alleged discriminatory hiring practices attracted 13 pickets on 4/14/65, 15 pickets on 4/15/65, and 25 pickets on 4/16/65. No recent picketing reported.

DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST EAST BAY RESTAURANT ASSOCIATION:

CORE-sponsored demonstrations against alleged discriminatory hiring policies of Oakland restaurants attracted 60 pickets on 4/9/65, and 150 pickets on 4/23/65. Demonstrations were discontinued because of dissension among CORE chapters and lack of progress. All demonstrations were peaceful.

PICKETING AGAINST WESCO:

DETAILS

AT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

This report covers the period April 1, 1965 through June 30, 1965.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CP, USA)

1. National Level

CAL NV

At a meeting of the Northern California District Committee of the CP in San Francisco on April 10, 1965, ROSCOE PROCTOR presented a report on a meeting of the National Negro Commission of the CP, USA which he had attended.

MEMBER

PROCTOR declared that the major question facing the civil rights movement and the CP is getting the masses in the North to participate as they do in the South. He also stated that another problem in the North is using the vote more effectively in suburban areas.

PROCTOR commented that there is no one organization within the civil rights movement that can claim the leadership of the movement. He stated that the civil rights movement in the South represents a broad coalition of various groups. The main tactics of the civil rights movement continue to be based on a policy of nonviolence.

PROCTOR indicated that the CP feels that it has a "line of communication" into the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

PROCTOR suggested that the Negro Commission in the San Francisco area meet for the purpose of reviewing local forces and issues in order to decide upon a point of concentration PROCTOR concluded with the observation that there would be an enlarged meeting of the Negro Commission at his home in Berkeley, California, on April 19, 1965.

SF T-1 on 4/13/65

ROSCOE PROCTOR is a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA, and he attended a meeting of that committee in New York City on April 23-25, 1965.

SF T-2 on 4/26/65

At a meeting of the ~~CP~~ MEMBER club chairmen of the San Francisco County CP in San Francisco on April 12, 1965, WALTER STACK reported on the civil rights movement. STACK noted that this report was based on abbreviated notes which he took in a conversation with ROSCOE PROCTOR, who had just returned from a meeting of the National Negro Commission of the CP, USA.

STACK reported that there is great dissension in the civil rights movement and the CP is suffering because of "redbaiting." STACK stated that leaders of the civil rights movement are trying to eliminate any and all communist influence. He also stated civil rights movement leaders feel that SNCC is the "most infiltrated" and therefore they are trying to push SNCC out of the movement, or at least deny them access to civil rights movement councils.

STACK reported that the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) had revoked charters of chapters in certain cities in its fight to keep communists out of the NAACP or to remove them from influence. STACK concluded that it was a question as to whether the CP should support SNCC, with which it has been close, or whether the Party should fight for unity in the civil rights movement. STACK answered the question by stating that the CP should fight for unity in the civil rights movement.

SF T-3 on 4/14/65

WALTER STACK is a member of the Northern California District Committee of the CP, and he attended a meeting of that committee in San Francisco on April 10, 1965.

On April 13, 1965, WALTER STACK reported on the civil rights movement at a meeting of the Miscellaneous Industrial Club of the CP in San Francisco. STACK reported that his report was based on a discussion of ROSCOE PROCTOR, who had attended a meeting of the National Negro Commission of the CP, USA.

STACK stated that individuals interested in the report of PROCTOR could attend a meeting scheduled at PROCTOR's home on April 19, 1965.

STACK reported that SNCC, the most progressive organization in the civil rights movement, was about to be isolated. STACK stated that attention should be given to activity which would tend to unite organizations in the civil rights movement.

WILLIAM SCHNEIDERMAN commented that the CP must always maintain a watch in order to see that "left forces" are not isolated. SCHNEIDERMAN stated that he felt that this was happening in the civil rights movement because the "progressive forces" get too far out.

SF T-4 on 4/19/65
SF T-6 on 4/28/65

WILLIAM SCHNEIDERMAN is a member of a CP club in San Francisco at the present time. He formerly was chairman of the Northern California District CP.

SF T-4 on 4/19/65

At the meeting of a CP club in San Francisco on April 13, 1965, STACK also stated that there were disagreements between leaders of the various civil rights organizations, that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING had been questioned about communists within his movement, and KING replied that he was not a communist and that he would never be a communist. STACK commented that he felt KING was doing a good job. STACK concluded that leaders of the various organizations in the civil rights movement must get together and settle their problems.

SF T-6 on 4/28/65

A meeting of CP members was held on April 19, 1965, at the residence of ROSCOE PROCTOR in Berkeley, California. This meeting was called for the specific purpose of hearing a report by PROCTOR on a meeting of the National Negro Commission which he had attended.

PROCTOR reported that the civil rights movement had proceeded at a pace wherein the activity was at about the same stage that it was during the reconstruction period following the freeing of the slaves. He stated that this advance had taken place in spite of the true wishes of the JOHNSON Administration.

PROCTOR declared that President JOHNSON should be commended for his efforts in attempting to spearhead the civil rights movement and in this regard the CP should devote special attention to the latest two speeches of JOHNSON in regard to civil rights.

PROCTOR reported the existence of dissension in the civil rights movement and noted that the CP was being given a bad time because of "redbaiting." He noted that most of the highest leaders of the civil rights movement were trying to eliminate any communist influence from the movement, and that their efforts had been directed primarily against SNCC, which generally is considered to be the civil rights organization most influenced by communists. PROCTOR noted that the civil rights leaders were endeavoring to get SNCC out of the movement or, at least, out of the high councils of the movement.

PROCTOR noted that there had been instances of disunity between civil rights movement workers, and pointed out an NAACP worker may feel that a Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) worker is too progressive and a CORE worker in turn may think a SNCC worker is too progressive.

PROCTOR declared that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING had experienced some difficulty in holding his own in the power struggle in the civil rights movement.

PROCTOR called for stronger cooperation between the Negro in the South and the Negro in the North. He noted that the Negro in the North has a lack of interest in the Negro problems in the South, and vice versa. Moreover, the Northern Negro seems to be losing some of the interest he had a year previously.

PROCTOR reported that there would be another national CP meeting on the Negro question and solicited the viewpoints of CP members. PROCTOR noted that he would be leaving soon but that he would give a report which would be mimeographed and delivered to the individuals present before June 24, 1965.

CARL BLOICE disagreed with the observations of PROCTOR regarding the stage of the civil rights movement. He stated that the civil rights movement is not at the reconstruction stage for many reasons. BLOICE stated that it is true that the NAACP has revoked some charters, but this has not been done because of any "red witchhunt," but because of a question of policy which dated back to 1962.

Another CP member pointed out that the interest of the Northern Negro is almost totally different from that of the Southern Negro.

SF T-3 on 4/23/65

CARL BLOICE was elected to the San Francisco County Committee of the CP at a meeting on April 3, 1964.

CAL

SF T-7 on 4/7/64

CARL BLOICE attended a meeting of the Northern California District Committee of the CP in San Francisco on January 8, 1965.

SF T-1 on 1/11/65

A mimeographed report of seven pages entitled "National Report," believed to be identical with the report referred to above, was prepared from PROCTOR's notes which he took at a meeting of the CP, USA Negro Commission meeting. This report was distributed during May, 1965.

The report declared in part as follows:

The combination of forces at work in the country for the first time has forced the President to commit the executive power of the government to the drive for civil rights. The reactionaries can be expected to do everything within their power to intimidate, terrorize, bribe, control and even murder, to smash the movement and prevent it from getting the vote.

The voting rights speech of President JOHNSON signalled a break with gradualism and tokenism and symbolized the beginning of a new era.

Another three and one-half million Negro voters will be added to the rolls in the South if the voting bill passes Congress. This would lay the political basis for retiring the Dixiecrats from Congress, and also for electing Negro Congressmen, Senators, Judges and Sheriffs, as well as a considerable number of white representatives with a pro-labor and progressive outlook.

White America has taken a leap forward in understanding and willingness to take up the civil rights struggle.

The significant changes in the major civil rights organizations is that no one of them can claim dominance of the movement. The main character of struggle continues to hinge on nonviolence and the class character of the movement is primarily lower middle class and student, with many religious forces, particularly Catholic.

None of the existing organizations have an organized mass base in the ghetto, in spite of mass support received from the ghetto. This presents a most serious challenge to "our movement" and the civil rights movement.

There is a tremendous struggle in the movement between the so-called militants and conservatives which has strained relations between the old-line leadership. In general there are militants coming into leadership who want more independence and leeway for waging the struggle.

The big ideological struggle in the civil rights movement centers around violence and nonviolence. The ideological question before the CP is whether it is correct to fight for a single center in the civil rights movement, specifically should all support be shifted to SNCC. Such formulations should be rejected, and the CP should fight for unity and joint action.

There is a real need to bring forward the CP Negro cadre through the medium of radio and elections. The following proposals have been made:

(1) Work to get a conference in all districts around the ghetto problem and a war on poverty

(2) Discuss methods of strengthening Party work in the South

(3) Each district should establish a committee of three persons to work on these problems, as well as on the problem of finances.

A big question is the involvement of greater numbers of Negro trade unionists in the civil rights struggle under new conditions. Each district must discuss methods which will allow Negro trade unionists to take more initiative inside and outside the labor movement around civil rights and the war on poverty.

SF T-3 on 5/18/65

ROSCOE PROCTOR made a speech in Mill Valley, California on April 20, 1965, which declared in part as follows:

The Federal Government for the first time has committed itself publicly in regard to the civil rights movement. The center of political power is shifting from the arch-conservative to the moderates. The major problem facing the civil rights movement and the CP is the involvement of Negro masses in the North in the activities in the South. In the South, the problem is the more effective use of the right to vote in urban areas.

SF T-1 on 4/28/65

2. District and County Level

At a meeting of a CP club in San Francisco on April 28, 1965, JUANITA WHEELER presented a report on behalf of the Negro Commission of the CP. She indicated that the Negro Commission had discussed whether CP members should support all of the various organizations involved in the civil rights struggle, or only those organizations which seemed to be advocating the correct policy. She advocated that members of the Fillmore Club of the CP participate actively in organizations involved in the civil rights movement, particularly in CORE.

SF T-8 on 4/30/65

JUANITA WHEELER is a member of the Northern California District Committee of the CP.

SF T-5 on 4/17/65

SF T-9 on 12/29/59

During May, 1965, a memorandum entitled "Urgent - Special Memorandum - Urgent" was distributed by ARCHIE BROWN in the San Francisco area. This memorandum noted that the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party had provided the United States with an imaginative mode of attack upon the reactionary coalition. It noted that the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party is an independent group existing alongside, and in opposition to, the corrupt Democratic Party structure.

The memorandum noted that the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party was challenging the Congressmen from Mississippi and that a completion of the challenge would open the way for free elections in Mississippi. The memorandum concluded that if "we" on the left are to help in the struggle to extend and deepen democracy, "we" are going to have to understand the challenge in all its aspects, and find ways and means to broaden the national support.

The memorandum attached a series of questions and answers adopted from the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party memorandum concerning the basis and purpose of the challenge of the Mississippi delegation.

SF T-10 on 5/24/65

ARCHIE BROWN attended a meeting of the Northern California District Committee of the CP in San Francisco on January 8, 1965.

At a meeting of the Northern California District Peace Commission of the CP in San Francisco on June 24, 1965, CARL BLOICE reported that SNCC, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), Women for Peace (WFP), DuBois Clubs of America (DCA), and the Committee for Non-Violent Action (CNVA) were merging for a program to be known as "The Project." BLOICE reported that 17 individuals were working at CNVA Headquarters in Washington, D. C. on "The Project" which involves a program in Washington, D. C., from August 6 - 9, 1965. He noted that one of the days will be spent lobbying among various members of Congress.

3. Propaganda in Publications

An editorial entitled "HUAC, KKK, FBI, LBJ" appeared in the April 24, 1965, issue of the "People's World" on page 8, columns 1-4. The editorial declared that the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) did not have the competence, integrity or inclination to conduct proposed investigations of the Ku Klux Klan (KKK). The editorial observed, in part, as follows:

> "It is no secret that HUAC has been straining to get at the civil rights movement. But given the scope of the movement, such an assault is not to be undertaken lightly. And this is where the so-called investigation of the Klan would seem useful to the HUAC.
> "Having investigated the segregationist 'extreme,' the HUAC will then be able to plead, it is only fair for it to investigate the 'extreme' integrationists, to expose 'Communist infiltration' into the civil rights movement. A feint against the KKK is to be followed by a haymaker aimed at the civil rights movement."

The editorial noted that President JOHNSON had provided an opening for a grandstand play by HUAC, and that he in the same statement could not find words strong enough to extol J. EDGAR HOOVER and the FBI for their role in the South. The editorial concluded that this statement was a calculated rebuke to those civil rights spokesmen who have complained about the HOOVER-FBI operation in Dixie, and to make the rebuke more emphatic the President had the FBI Director at his side in front of the television cameras.

The editorial alleged that the Administration would like to curb independence and militancy within the civil rights movement.

The "People's World" is a West Coast communist weekly publication, published in San Francisco, California.

(2) To develop an inroad into the student and civil rights movements in the San Francisco area.

As of April 1, 1965, DAWSON was in Montgomery, Alabama, working with SNCC.

C. OTHER ORGANIZATIONS ACTIVE IN CIVIL RIGHTS AND NEGRO MATTERS

1. CORE

At a meeting of a CP club in San Francisco on April 28, 1965, JUANITA WHEELER said that members of the club should take an active part in CORE as their main concentration.

SF T-27 on 4/29/65

A Special Agent of the FBI on May 11, 1965, received a leaflet being distributed at Sather Gate at the University of California, Berkeley, entitled "Louisiana Summer, 1965." This leaflet stated that CORE needed about 100 volunteers from "this area" for Louisiana during the summer of 1965. The leaflet explained that volunteers would work for approximately ten weeks with local Negro groups in 20 selected parishes in Louisiana on voter registration, formation of farmers' leagues and cooperatives, and the organization of independent campaigns for local elections. Volunteers were scheduled to meet during mid-June in Plaquemine, Louisiana, for one week of orientation.

The "San Francisco Examiner" newspaper on May 29, 1965, page three, contained an article entitled "SF CORE Office to Close." This article reported that the Western Regional Office of CORE at 2085 Sutter Street, San Francisco, was scheduled to close on June 5, 1965, in an administrative shuffle designed to get more workers out of offices and into action programs.

The "San Francisco Examiner" is a daily newspaper published in San Francisco with general circulation in Northern California.

2. NAACP

The "San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper on May 25, 1965, page 27, contained an article entitled "Schools and Race in SF - An Offer," which reported that LOIS BARNES, Co-Chairman of the Education Committee of the NAACP, had told the Equal Opportunities Commission that existing evidence indicates racial groups are treated unequally in San Francisco public schools. Miss BARNES reportedly noted that schools that house predominantly white pupils cost approximately $1790 per pupil, and that schools housing Negroes cost approximately $1430 per pupil.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" is a daily newspaper published in San Francisco with general circulation throughout Northern California.

The "San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper on May 31, 1965 page one, contained an article entitled "The NAACP Case Against SF Schools," which reported that the NAACP had made the following charges against San Francisco schools in the investigation by the State Fair Employment Practices Commission.

(1) About 94 per cent of San Francisco public school pupils attend essentially segregated schools

(2) Although about 35 per cent of the public school children are non-white, in 1964 only 6.2 per cent of the city's secondary school teachers were non-white.

(3) There are discriminatory patterns of teacher placement in schools

(4) The need for education is severe among the city's adult non-whites, 50 per cent of whom have not completed high school.

Mrs. RICHARD ~~B~~ARNES of the NAACP CO-CHAIRMAN EDUCATION Committee reportedly produced figures to combat the argument that there has been a "flight to the suburbs" by white parents. She noted that the San Francisco non-white population is rising at the slow rate of eight-tenths of one per cent per year.

3. Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)

The "Sun Reporter" newspaper on May 1, 1965, page five, contained an article entitled "SNCC to Host SF Conference" which reported that several hundred students from colleges and universities in the Greater Bay Area would meet at San Francisco State College on May 9, 1965, to receive orientation and information about this summer's civil rights activities. The article noted that SNCC would be recruiting volunteer workers to participate in a Mississippi and Arkansas summer project as well as volunteers for a political action program in Washington, D. C., designed to unseat the five racist Mississippians sitting as Congressmen in the House of Representatives.

The "Sun Reporter" is a weekly newspaper published in San Francisco with emphasis on Negro news.

The "San Francisco Examiner" on May 6, 1965, contained an article entitled "A New SNCC Strategy" which reported that SNCC would make its big civil rights push of the summer by lobbying rather than by demonstrating. SNCC reportedly was scheduled to emphasize the challenging of Mississippi's delegates because Negroes were denied the right to vote.

MIKE ~~M~~ILLER, Bay Area Field Secretary for SNCC, reportedly stated that SNCC would also wage a campaign to pressure Northern California Congressmen into voting to unseat the Mississippi delegation.

MIKE MILLER is a full-time field representative for SNCC who is paid $50 per week.

At a branch membership meeting of the SWP in San Francisco on April 22, 1964, it was stated that SNCC is made up mainly of CP people like MIKE MILLER.

SF T-13 on 4/23/64

MIKE MILLER was one of the individuals nominated for President of DCA at its founding convention in San Francisco on June 19-21, 1964.

SF T-28 on 6/23/64

The "Golden Gater" newspaper on May 7, 1965, contained an editorial entitled "SNCC Recruiting Here Soon" which reported that SNCC needed 2,000 students from all over the country to go to Washington, D. C. for a direct action lobby against the five Mississippi Congressmen who were elected in that state because most Negroes are disenfranchised. The editorial noted that SNCC also wanted students to engage in direct action in Washington, D. C., on behalf of a more liberal voting rights bill and other civil rights legislation.

The "Golden Gater" is a student publication of San Francisco State College in San Francisco, California.

The "Pioneer" newspaper on May 13, 1965, page three, contained an article entitled "Campus Chapter of 'Friends of SNCC' Holds First Meeting" which noted that the "Cal" State Friends of SNCC had made an appeal for help in the civil rights struggle at its first meeting. SNCC reportedly was interested in having students go to Mississippi during the summer of 1965 to help develop the Negro from a disunited, uneducated, frightened individual into an organized group with political objectives.

The "Pioneer" is a weekly publication of the Journalism Department for Associated Students of California State College at Hayward, California.

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette" on May 19, 1965, page 27, contained an article entitled "Students Aid SNCC" which noted that students from various Berkeley schools were joining students from all over the state in giving up lunch to help promote SNCC. Donations of lunch money were being made in celebration of the 1964 Supreme Court decision to desegregate schools, the proceeds of which were to go to the salaries of freedom school teachers in the deep South.

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette" is a newspaper published daily with general circulation in the Berkeley, California, area.

The "Oakland Tribune" newspaper on May 27, 1965, page two, contained an article entitled "Negroes Plan Four Campaigns for Summer" which noted that SNCC had plans for projects in four southern states and the District of Columbia. The article noted that emphasis would be given to the development of local Negro leadership in communities in Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas and Georgia. The article noted that SNCC was seeking 1,000 college student volunteers to lobby in Washington, D. C. between June 13 and July 4, 1965, to challenge the Mississippi delegates.

4. Students for a Democratic Society (SDS)

The SDS circulated a leaflet on May 21, 1965, entitled "SDS Summer '65" which outlined an Oakland community project. This project envisioned the employment of a full-time staff to work among poor Negroes to build a movement around the common economic and political grievances. The leaflet solicited money for staff sustenance, volunteers for research, and for furnishing a staff house.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. PICKETING OF THE EMPORIUM STORE

On April 14, 1965, a Special Agent of the FBI observed picketing against The Emporium Department Store for alleged discriminatory hiring practices. The picketing was sponsored by the San Francisco Chapter of CORE and the maximum number of pickets reached 13. At the inception of the demonstration, BILL BRADLEY, Chairman of the San Francisco Chapter of CORE, was asked by a sergeant of the San Francisco Police Department as to who was in charge of the demonstration. BRADLEY replied that he was in charge. BRADLEY refused to answer a question of the police sergeant as to how long they planned to demonstrate. BRADLEY remarked that he did not have to give any answers and that this would be the "sorriest day" for the sergeant.

When BRADLEY refused to identify himself, he was taken to the Southern Station of the San Francisco Police Department. At the police station, he reportedly was recognized by another police officer and was released. There were no other incidents or arrests.

A Special Agent of the FBI on April 15, 1965, observed a picketing demonstration sponsored by CORE against The Emporium for alleged discriminatory hiring practices. The picketing lasted for approximately two hours and 40 minutes. The maximum number of pickets reached 15, and there were no arrests or incidents.

A Special Agent of the FBI on April 16, 1965, witnessed the picketing of The Emporium Department Store for alleged discriminatory hiring practices by the San Francisco Chapter of CORE. The maximum number of pickets reached 25 and the picketing continued for approximately two hours and 20 minutes. The picketers distributed mimeographed leaflets captioned "Don't Buy Bigotry" which alleged that 34 retail stores in San Francisco had reneged on an agreement to sign an equal employment understanding. There were no arrests or incidents.

B. DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST THE EAST BAY RESTAURANT ASSOCIATION

A Special Agent of the FBI observed a demonstration conducted against the East Bay Restaurant Association on April 9, 1965, under the sponsorship of CORE. The demonstrators carried signs protesting alleged discriminatory hiring practices on the part of the restaurant association for approximately two hours. The estimated number of pickets was 60, the demonstration was orderly and no arrests or incidents took place.

A Special Agent of the FBI on April 22, 1965, received a flyer being distributed by CORE at the University of California in Berkeley, California, which stated that there would be picketing on April 23, 1965, at Jax Steak House, 13th and Broadway, Oakland.

On April 23, 1965, a Special Agent of the FBI observed CORE pickets at Jax Steak House carrying signs which alleged that the restaurant was discriminatory in its hiring practices. Approximately 150 pickets participated in the demonstration. The demonstration was orderly and there were no arrests or incidents.

A Special Agent of the FBI on May 3, 1965, witnessed a demonstration against the East Bay Restaurant Association sponsored by CORE. An estimated 150 persons participated in an orderly fashion. There were no arrests or incidents.

A source advised on May 3, 1965, that demonstrations against the East Bay Restaurant Association were discontinued because dissension arose in the leadership. The University of California Campus chapter of CORE withdrew because it was felt that there was no progress being made.

SF T-21 on 5/3/65

A Special Agent of the FBI on April 10, 1965, observed the picketing of the Wesco Land and Management Corporation, 14511 East 14th Street, San Leandro, California, by the Southern Alameda County CORE. 23 individuals carried placards urging nondiscrimination in Southern Alameda County for approximately one hour and 45 minutes. They distributed literature which alleged that CORE had tried to negotiate with Wesco regarding its policy in dealing with minority groups, and that Wesco had refused to negotiate. There were no incidents, and no arrests were made.

A Special Agent of the FBI on May 1, 1965, observed another demonstration against Wesco sponsored by CORE in which a maximum of ten individuals participated. The demonstration lasted approximately one hour and 45 minutes and there were no arrests or incidents.

A Special Agent of the FBI on May 8, 1965, observed a demonstration against Wesco sponsored by CORE in which 11 individuals carried placards. The demonstration lasted for approximately one hour and 30 minutes. There were no arrests or incidents.

A Special Agent of the FBI on May 20, 1965, received a leaflet distributed at the University of San Francisco which announced that a protest vigil would take place at the Crown-Zellerbach Building, San Francisco, to protest "atrocities committed yesterday" in a town controlled by Crown-Zellerbach. A leaflet distribution took place at the Crown-Zellerbach Building on May 20, 1965, and these leaflets were distributed under the name of "Bogalusa Committee for Concern." A maximum of 19 individuals participated in the leaflet distribution, and there were no arrests or incidents.

> The Committee for Concern in San Francisco was promoted and dominated by the San Francisco Chapter of CORE and was concerned primarily with the situation in Bogalusa, Louisiana.
> SF T-29 on 5/20/65

A Special Agent of the FBI on May 25, 1965, received a leaflet being distributed at the Crown-Zellerbach Corporation in San Francisco by the Bogalusa Committee for Concern. This leaflet alleged that the unwillingness of Crown-Zellerbach to take an aggressive part in solving the racial problems in Bogalusa, Louisiana, made it as responsible for police brutality as the Mayor who apparently could not withstand pressures from the Klan.

A Special Agent of the FBI on May 28, 1965 observed a picketing of the Crown-Zellerbach Corporation in San Francisco under the sponsorship of the San Francisco Committee for Concern. The maximum number of pickets was 23 and they paraded with signs protesting the alleged racist policies of Crown-Zellerbach in Bogalusa. There were no arrests or incidents.

A Special Agent of the FBI on June 4, 1965, witnessed a demonstration at the Crown-Zellerbach Corporation in San Francisco by approximately 19 pickets. The demonstration lasted for approximately one hour and five minutes, and there were no arrests or incidents.

A Special Agent of the FBI on June 25, 1965, observed a demonstration of the Committee for Concern against the Crown-Zellerbach Corporation in San Francisco. A leaflet distributed by the pickets claimed that Crown-Zellerbach controlled Bogalusa, Louisiana, but had remained uncritical of the plight of the Bogalusa Negro. A maximum of 56 pickets demonstrated for approximately two hours and 45 minutes. Nine pickets staged a sit-in demonstration on the eighth floor of the building and were carried outside the building by the San Francisco Police Department at 6:30 P. M. No arrests were made.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN ORGANIZATIONS

A. NAACP

WHK/clh

1. San Francisco

A source advised on April 6, 1965, that HERB ~~Y~~NUGENT, Chairman of the San Francisco County CP, has not indicated any CP interest in the NAACP when discussing the civil rights movement.

CAL

SF T-30 on 4/6/65

Another source advised on April 8, 1965, that the CP leadership has not mentioned the NAACP in recent years in regard to any attempt to infiltrate the organization. The CP seems to have ignored the NAACP to a great extent because it is not sufficiently militant for the CP.

SF T-31 on 4/8/65

Another source advised on April 14, 1965, that at the San Francisco County conference of the CP on March 12, 1965, the Fillmore Club of the CP was designated as the club which would best be suited to have members participate in the NAACP. The primary purpose of a CP member in joining the NAACP would be to find out what is taking place in that organization both locally and nationally.

SF T-3 on 4/14/65

Another source advised on April 21, 1965, that there has not been any concerted effort on the part of the CP to gain influence or control of the NAACP in the San Francisco Area.

SF T-4 on 4/21/65

The SWP in San Francisco, when discussing the need to participate in the activities of civil rights organizations, usually considers SNCC and CORE as the Negro civil rights organizations worthy of note in connection with the movement. The SWP generally ignores the NAACP in San Francisco because it is not regarded as being sufficiently militant.

SF T-13 on 4/28/65

2. Sonoma County

There has been very little discussion regarding the NAACP at any club meeting in Sonoma County. The CP has not engaged in any efforts to infiltrate the NAACP because the Sonoma County CP is composed of a small disorganized group of elderly individuals. The CP is critical of the NAACP both nationally and locally in regard to leadership.

SF T-32 and SF T-33

C. San Mateo County

In San Mateo County, the CP attitude is one of giving assistance to the NAACP in its fight for equal rights for Negroes. The strength of the CP in San Mateo County is such, however, that it exercises no influence or control over the NAACP.

SF T-34 on 4/8/65

The members of the San Mateo Club of the CP have not shown any interest in infiltrating the NAACP in San Mateo County.

SF T-11 on 4/21/65
SF T-35 on 4/22/65

4. Santa Clara County

In Palo Alto, Santa Clara County, the CP attitude toward the NAACP is one of sympathetic understanding of what the NAACP is trying to do in its fight for equal rights for Negroes. The CP does not participate actively in the NAACP campaigns and it exercises no influence or control over that organization.

SF T-36 on 4/28/65

5. Oakland, California

In Oakland, California, the CP considers the NAACP to be too conservative to be worthy of attention.

SF T-37 on 4/19/65

6. Berkeley, California

The SWP in Berkeley, California, has declared consistently that they have no interest or influence in the NAACP and that the latter organization will have nothing to do with the SWP.

SF T-16 on 4/2/65

B. SNCC

At a meeting of the Northern California District of the CP on April 10, 1965, ROSCOE PROCTOR indicated that the CP believes it has a "line of communication" into SNCC.

SF T-1 on 4/13/65

On April 19, 1965, a special meeting of CP members was held in order to hear a report by ROSCOE PROCTOR on a meeting of the National Negro Commission of the CP, USA. PROCTOR reported dissension in the civil rights movement and stated that the "highest leaders" of the civil rights movement were trying to rid the movement of communist influence. He reported that leaders of the civil rights movement were directing attention to communists in SNCC, which generally is considered as the civil rights organization most influenced by communism. PROCTOR also reported that civil rights movement leaders were trying to eliminate SNCC from the movement, or at least to exclude them from the high councils of the movement.

SF T-3 on 4/23/65

A petition entitled "Mississippi Congressional Challenge" contained a notation that the petition should be returned to the Santa Clara Valley Friends of SNCC, 170 North 11th Street, San Jose, California.

RES 170 North 11th Street, San Jose, is the residence of FRED HIRSCH. HIRSCH was a member of the CP from 1958 to 1963, at which time he resigned from the CP in order to permit himself to advance in his union and to participate in politics in Santa Clara County.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

1. Plans, Strategy, Party Line Made at National Meetings, Including Expressions by National and Other Functionaries

On 5/4/65, NH T-1 advised that on 5/1/65 a meeting sponsored by the Yale Socialist Union was held at Strathcona Hall, Yale University, New Haven, Conn. One of the speakers at this affair was Dr. HERBERT APTHEKER, who was introduced to those present as follows: "The time will come when it will be a shame that a man who wrote so scholarly about negro history in the United States should be denied the right to instruct in a university because he was a member of the Communist Party."

Informant said that after the aforementioned introduction, HERBERT APTHEKER read a lecture on the socio-economic conditions of the negro today.

On 12/13/59, NH T-2 advised that HERBERT APTHEKER was elected to the National Committee of the CP, USA at its 17th National Convention held 12/10-13/59.

A characterization of the Yale Socialist Union is set forth in the Appendix section of this report.

On 5/5/65, NH T-3 also made available the afore-mentioned information regarding HERBERT APTHEKER.

2. Plans, Strategy, Party Line Made at District and Lower Level Meetings Including Expressions by Local Leaders and Rank and File Members

On 5/4/65, NH T-3 advised that on 4/24/65, a "get-together" was held at the residence of JOHN MARSALKA at New Haven, Conn. Approximately 35 persons were in attendance at this affair, among whom were ALICE GOLDBERG and her husband DAVID GOLDBERG, JOHN MARSALKA, WILLARD UPHAUS, JOSEPH DIMOW, and AMALIA CRAGO.

WILLARD UPHAUS told those present that he had visited Montgomery, Alabama during the recent past and that he had been greatly impressed by the number of young people who participated in the march held within the State of Alabama.

AMALIA CRAGO told those in attendance that the negro situation in the United States is comparable to the plight of the Jews in Nazi Germany. She said she often asks herself if the German populace could have helped the Jews at that time by breaking existing laws of the Nazi regime in Germany. She said she also asks herself if a corollary could be drawn in the United States to the effect that the only way to help the negro would be by breaking laws in this country. Informant said that during the aforementioned affair, it was announced that money was being sent to an unnamed organization within the State of Mississippi which organization is working for "civil rights". According to the informant, $106.00 was collected from those in attendance, which money was to be sent to the aforementioned organization within the State of Mississippi.

Characterizations of ALICE GOLDBERG, DAVID GOLDBERG and JOHN MARSALKA are included with that of the Connecticut Committee for Social Action, which is set forth in the appendix section of this report.

A characterization of WILLARD UPHAUS is included with that of World Fellowship, Inc., which is set forth in the appendix section of this report.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

1. Plans, stragety, Party line, including expressions by national and other functionaries.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, Communist Party of Illinois, and Chairman, Communist Party National Negro Commission, advised on June 17, 1965, that he would attend the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) National Convention to be held in Denver June 28 through July 3, 1965.

DN T-1 (6/17/65)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT on June 30, 1965, was in touch with several members of the Communist Party group in Denver, Colorado. LIGHTFOOT stated that he was preparing an article for an international communist magazine or pamphlet and that the article would deal with the interrelationship of the Civil Rights Movement with the Peace Movement. LIGHTFOOT states in this article that in the past, the Peace Movement failed to show any interest in the Civil Rights Movement, but now have come to realize that these two issues are interrelated. The same applies to the Civil Rights Movement, they have come to realize that without Peace, their struggle for Civil Rights does not mean anything, so that now some of the top Negro leaders, like MARTIN LUTHER KING has come out in support of the Peace Movement, and asking publicly that the Civil Rights Movement support the groups asking that we get out of Vietnam. Mr. LIGHTFOOT also states in his leaflet that something basic and fundamental changed in world affairs making it possible to do things, such as the Civil Rights Movement has done, sit-ins, demonstrations, etc., which could not have been possible twenty years ago, and so even though it was not possible initially to get a lot local "allies," it was possible to get allies in the world arena. The forces throughout the world who responded to the Negro's struggle compelled many forces in this country to support the struggle of the Negro people - such as educators, clergymen, etc. Mr. LIGHTFOOT states that what was even more basic and fundamental was the existence of the Worlds Socialist Camp - foremost the Soviet people, and the over one billion and a half people who fought for freedom from the colonial and imperialist powers. Both combined their efforts against racialism in the United States and made a lasting contribution to the solution of this problem.

Mr. LIGHTFOOT went on to talk about social equality, and stated that a Negro cannot achieve social equality until he achieves economic equality, and he feels that the only way that economic equality can ever be reached or achieved in this country is through the Socialist Reorganization of America, because as long as there is the profit motive in this country, the working man will be exploited. The exploitation of man against man will continue under capitalism, because this is the only way it can survive.

2. Plans made at District and lower level meetings

At a Communist Party meeting held in Denver, Colorado, at 4030 Tejon Street, on June 9, 1965, ROBERT TRUJILLO stated that the members of the group should pass out copies of "The Worker" to individuals attending the National Convention of the NAACP.

DN T-2 (6/16/65)

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper.

B. OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS - SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

The Socialist Workers Party (SWP) has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Characterizations of the Denver Branch, SWP; Militant Forum, Action Committee for Equality (ACE) appear as appendices hereto.

Plans, etc., made at district and lower-level meetings, including expressions by local leaders.

At a meeting of the Denver Branch, SWP, held on June 20, 1965, at 1465 South Josephine Street in Denver, there was some discussion about the forthcoming NAACP Convention. The members present planned no activity by the SWP; however, the individual members of the SWP were encouraged to attend some of the sessions of the convention and the members were urged to sell copies of "The Militant" newspaper.

DN T-2 (7/6/65)

"The Militant" is a weekly newspaper of the SWP.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. MALCOLM X ADDRESSES MILITANT FORUM, 6/11/65

At a meeting of the Denver Branch, SWP, held at 1106 South Josephine Street, Denver, on June 6, 1965, there was a discussion pertaining to future Militant Forum meetings. B. PROPOSED DEMONSTRATION IN CONNECTION WITH NAACP CONVENTION, 6/26/65

At a meeting of the Denver Branch, SWP, held June 20, 1965, ALLEN TAPLIN, Branch Organizer, reported that a group was working towards getting a rally together for June 26, 1965. The rally would be for the purpose of protesting the Department of Justice's failure to do anything about bringing to justice the men involved in the death of the 3 Civil Rights workers last year. TAPLIN stated that they planned to try to arouse people to march on the Justice Department in Denver carrying a coffin. This protest hoped to arouse sympathy and assistance of individuals attending the NAACP Convention in Denver at that time.

DN T-2 (7/6/65)

The demonstration which was planned for June 26, 1965, was cancelled due to the inability of the Denver Branch of the SWP and other groups to generate any interest among individuals to participate in this demonstration.

ACTION COMMITTEE FOR EQUALITY

A source advised that at a meeting of the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), held in Denver, Colorado, on November 3, 1963, it was announced that a meeting of a Negro discussion group was held on October 30, 1963, in Denver, which was attended by ten persons, including three members of the Denver Branch, SWP. A meeting of the local CP District Board was held on April 14, 1965 at Baltimore, Maryland. At that time, SAM SCHMERLER presented a draft CP legislative program which spoke out against white supremacy and requested the Baltimore City Council and the Maryland State Legislature to act in connection with better public accommodations for negroes.

(BA T-1 on 5/10/65;
BA T-2 on 5/10/65)

A meeting of the CP Negro Subcommittee was held at Baltimore, Maryland on April 14, 1965. At this time, JACOB GREEN, Chairman of the CP of Maryland, said that it was essential to get a concrete program ready immediately to present to the CP National Negro Commission meeting which was to be held in New York City on April 23, 1965. GREEN said that the National Negro Commission meeting would deal with the problems of CP organization work in the South. JACOB GREEN also said that he felt that local CP members who are members of the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) should re-establish themselves in the NALC and work along CP lines. GREEN said that he, himself, did not plan to return to the NALC because the local chairman suspects that GREEN is a CP member.

JACOB GREEN also criticized CP leadership in the negro field, and he said that he wanted to institute a program of action. He pointed out that the CP nationally has a comparatively small number of negro members. He said that this was unfortunate in view of the negro revolution presently underway. He blamed the small number of negro members on the fact that the CP national leadership had abandoned the rank and file of the CP in 1948. SAM SCHMERLER who was present at the meeting said that he agreed with GREEN's remarks and that the CP program of action should be concerned with jobs, housing, and public accommodations.

At the meeting, they also discussed CP organization work in the South and it was agreed that negro and white unity was essential and organizing teams should include both negroes and whites.

FJW:med

A meeting of the CP Negro Commission was held at Baltimore, Maryland on April 25, 1965. At this meeting, JACOB GREEN, Chairman of the CP of Maryland, stated that he and CHARLES JOHNSON, another CP member, had drawn up a report on negro matters which he intended to present at the meeting of the National Negro Commission which is to be held in New York City April 23, 1965. GREEN said that he had received a call from GEORGE MEYERS, Chairman of the CP District, which includes Maryland, Washington, D. C., and Virginia and who is also organizer of the southern region of the CP, USA and that MEYERS had put HENRY WINSTON, a national CP leader, on the phone. GREEN said that WINSTON told him to be in New York early on April 23, 1965 to attend the CP National Negro Commission meeting but had instructed not to bring with him BERNARD PARRISH and CHARLES JOHNSON. GREEN said that he gave no reason for not bringing them and he felt badly that they were excluded. He said that he regarded it as an effort to keep the rank and file from attending the national meeting. md

JACOB GREEN then read a draft of a report that he and CHARLES JOHNSON had prepared which set forth a local program for action in the negro field. The program suggested that the CP work towards full equality and opportunity for all negroes and suggested a program for the recruiting of negro students into the CP. GREEN's draft also spoke of party work with labor unions, continued political activity on behalf of negro citizens, and contacts with local negro organizations.

(BA T-1 on 5/18/65)

On May 26, 1965, a meeting of the CP Negro Commission was held in Baltimore, Maryland. GEORGE MEYERS who was present at the meeting said that he had been to the South several times and had talked on the negro question and had received some encouraging replies from white people in the South.

(BA T-3 on 6/15/65)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

At a meeting of the CP National Negro Commission held in New York City on June 12, 1965, some CP members from Baltimore who were present criticized the CP national leadership for failing to present a program of action for the negro people and working class commrades. GEORGE MEYERS, CP District Chairman, who was present immediately disassociated himself from the criticism and said that it was distorted. The Baltimore commrades who were led by JACOB GREEN, Chairman of the CP of Maryland, stated that CP activity in the Baltimore, Maryland area had not proceeded actively enough because of the failures of GEORGE MEYERS as a leader. As a result of this criticism from the Baltimore commrades, it was decided to send a member of the CP national leadership to Baltimore in the future to examine the situation.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on July 26, 1965, observed Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference leading a march of approximately from 10,000 to 15,000 civil rights demonstrators on City Hall, Chicago, Illinois, in protest to the rehiring of Chicago Superintendent of School Benjamin C. Willis.

The participants in this demonstration began to assemble at Buckingham Fountain, Grant Park, Chicago, in the afternoon of July 26, 1965, and by approximately 5:00 PM the march began with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and A.J. Raby, Convener for the Co-ordinating Council of Community Organizations at its head. The demonstrators then proceeded west on Balboa to State Street, then north on State Street, then west on Madison to LaSalle, terminating the march in front of City Hall at LaSalle and Randolph Streets, Chicago.

As the crowd of demonstrators assembled in front of City Hall Dr. King mounted a platform in front of City Hall and addressed the demonstrators. During his remarks he noted that if nothing was done by the leaders of the city to show good faith in the administration of the Chicago School System problems, King stated he and his associates would return to the city within a few days and lead another massive march.

Martin Luther King closed his remarks with a prayer in which he asserted that Chicago was in the throes of a social revolution and he prayed that the political leaders of the city of Chicago would respond to the legitimate discontent of the non-white citizens of Chicago with creative and imaginative programs which would rectify the injustices of the past.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

U On July 29, 1965, PH T-1 furnished a letter from the "Philadelphia Committee For Martin Luther King's Tour," indicating Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and his staff would visit Philadelphia on the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) - Northern City People-to-People Tour on August 2 and 3, 1965.

U PH T-1 stated this proposed tour has caused several splits in the Negro community in Philadelphia. The Baptist Ministers, Reverend LEON SULLIVAN and CECIL B. MOORE, President of the Philadelphia Branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) all oppose Dr. KING's visit. In other cities in which the tour is to be made, it has been reported that the SCLC takes 85 per cent of the money raised, leaving 15 per cent for the local sponsors. In Philadelphia, the SCLC will take only 10 per cent of the money raised, leaving 90 per cent for the local sponsors. In addition, if there should be any financial loss on the tour, this will be absorbed by SCLC.

Cecil B. Moore

U PH T-1 indicated that opposition to Dr. KING's tour of Philadelphia is based on rivalries for positions of leadership, on the loss of funds local civil rights groups would suffer to Dr. KING, and to the feeling of local civil rights leaders that their programs are progressing satisfactorily in Philadelphia and Dr. KING's visit will not enhance these programs at all. b6 b7C due to rivalry over leadership positions. CECIL B. MOORE, President, Philadelphia Branch NAACP, plans to make a public attack against Dr. KING's visit to Philadelphia by stating that Dr. KING is not needed in Philadelphia.

Lieutenant GEORGE FENCL, Philadelphia Police Department, advised SA JOHN R. WINEBERG on July 29, 1965, that CECIL B. MOORE implied that the NAACP would probably take some type of action to harass or embarrass Dr. KING in Philadelphia on Tuesday, August 3, 1965, during his street corner appearances. MOORE did not spell out the tactics to be used. MOORE has made statements to the press, radio and TV that Dr. KING is not needed or welcome in Philadelphia.

On July 27, 1965, PH T-3 advised that MARION METELITS, a member of the Communist Party, Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), had attended an enlarged meeting of the CPUSA National Committee on July 17 and 18, 1965. During this time METELITS had a private meeting with GUS HALL, CPUSA leader. HALL informed METELITS that the National Office, CPUSA, wanted her to participate in a national conference on civil rights to be held sometime in August or September 1965, as a representative of the Independent Citizens Committee (ICC). HALL stated that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING is reportedly going to announce this conference while he is touring Philadelphia on August 2 and 3, 1965.

A characterization of the ICC is contained in the appendix of this memorandum.

On July 29, 1965, PH T-3 advised that on this date FRANCES GABOW, a member of the Professional Section, CPEPD, stated MARION METELITS is the only CP member known to the CP leadership to have been invited to a breakfast for Dr. KING which is being held at 8 a.m. on August 2, 1965, at Fellowship House, 1523 West Girard Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa. GABOW also stated that SARA LERNER, a local official of the "Morning Freiheit," is attempting to attend the breakfast as a representative of this newspaper. MARION METELITS, who was invited to the breakfast as a representative of the ICC, is trying to assist LERNER to secure an invitation.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

A characterization of the "Morning Freiheit" is contained in the appendix of this memorandum.

On July 29, 1965, PH T-4 advised that ELEANOR WILLIAMS, a member of the Trade Union Club of the CPEPD, received an invitation to the breakfast for Dr. KING as a representative of North Philadelphia United, a local civil rights group formed by GEORGIE WOODS, a disc jockey for WDAS, a Negro-oriented radio station. WILLIAMS reportedly will not be able to attend due to her employment schedule.

"The Philadelphia Inquirer," a Philadelphia daily newspaper, in its Final City Edition, on July 30, 1965, on page 10, column 4, carried an article entitled, "Moore Assails Two-Day Visit Here of Dr. KING." This article indicated that CECIL B. MOORE, President, Philadelphia Chapter, NAACP, blasted the planned Philadelphia visit of Dr. KING as an attempt by "the egghead white power structure" to divide local Negroes. MOORE attacked both Dr. KING and the "appeasers, social climbers and whites who have contributed to the $20,000 Dr. KING has taken out of Philadelphia without accounting."

The article also stated that earlier in the day Representative ADAM CLAYTON POWELL of New York said he had advised Dr. KING that "he might have trouble in Philadelphia. CECIL MOORE has 30,000 members of the NAACP there."

PROCEDURE AND CHECK LIST FOR
THE 1965 GUILD
PROGRAM IN MISSISSIPPI AND THE SOUTH
FOR DESEGREGATION OF PUBLIC FACILITIES

Purpose of Activity: To desegregate all public facilities on a county wide basis and to secure compliance under the 1964 Civil Rights Act pursuant to Title II and III and related sections, either through negotiated voluntary compliance or initiating suit.

Your Activity Outlined:

1. Offer to Act:
Because of the scope of an omnibus suit to desegregate all public facilities in a county, it is contemplated that only firms and groups of individual lawyers acting as a team can assume responsibility of this type of litigation. If your firm or you and several lawyers in your community acting as a team wish to volunteer to engage in this program, write to Claudia Shropshire, Southern Regional Director of the Guild 507½ N. Farish Street, Jackson, Mississippi.

It is imperative that in your offer to serve you advise her of a probable date that you can come to Mississippi. We would like to get these suits commenced by Mid-July or sooner where possible. If you cannot arrange two or three days by that time please indicate, since the County assigned to you will depend upon your availability date.

2. Acceptance of Offer:
Your firm or team, will be assigned to a county by the Southern Regional Director, and you will receive a packet with relevant information relative to elected and appointed officials in that county, statistical information relative to size and racial composition and information available on the types of discrimination practiced. Also, when you have definitely confirmed a date that you will and can come to Mississippi for at least two or three days, a meeting will be arranged for you by the Southern Regional Director between yourself and your clients, local people and the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party County Chairman.

It is suggested that you employ the following steps during the two or three days in Mississippi:

a) Meet with local people and F.D.P. County Chairman, which will have been pre-arranged for you by the Southern Regional Director.

b) Fully explain the nature of suit to parties and the steps involved in the litigation including their responsibility as plaintiffs and your role as volunteer attorney.

c) Explain fully and have the retainer agreements signed by the plaintiffs who have indicated in advance they wished to institute the desegregation suits.

d) Do on-the-scene investigation of the reported incidents of discrimination and types of segregated facilities; take pictures and obtain affidavits from clients or witnesses who have experienced or witnessed these acts. This may include some testing of facilities by local people. Treat this as a major piece of litigation for which you are doing the investigation preparatory to the drafting of your complaint.

e) Look for violations in all public facilities receiving local, state or municipal money or funds and which are owned, operated or managed by a State or subdivision. For example:

1. County and Municipal Court Houses;
2. City Halls and State Office Buildings;
3. Parks, Golf Courses and Public Swimming Pools;
4. County and City Museums;
5. State, County or City Hospitals, Clinics and Public Health Centers;
6. So-called private facilities located in public buildings, owned, operated, managed or leased by governmental unit.

Note that the discrimination or segregation complained of may be one or more of the following:

1) An absence of a facility provided to the other race;
2) An absolute exclusion from access to the facility;
3) An unequal limitation on the use of the facility;
4) A closing down of the facility upon attempts to desegregate.

f) Obtain names and addresses of all governmental officials, with proper designation, who will be possible defendants to the litigation. The Southern Regional Office will assist you in this matter.

g) Formally request with letter of retainer, the association of local counsel who will be recommended to you by the Guild, to satisfy the court's rules.

h) It should be determined at the meeting with counsel and the local leadership and F.D.P. County Chairman whether steps should be taken to negotiate voluntary compliance. In some Mississippi Counties, this would be a futile effort. In others, the local people may want to attempt the creation of a bi-racial group in their community. We are not optimistic about such possibilities from past experiences, although steps for attempting negotiations are outlined in our attorney's brochure.

Relationship of Lawyers to Local People: You will find Mississippi a unique experience. Most if not all of the white community will resent passively if not actively your intrusion upon "their way of life." The Negro community in general, your clients and local F.D.P. group will render you the only assistance available. But they are not lawyers or trained investigators and you will have to dig out the information necessary for your suit. You will be assisted by the Guild office in Jackson and our resident law students. It is extremely important that you establish meaningful rapport with your clients. They are not trained in decision making but are capable of it, and should make all decisions after consultation, upon your advice and recommendations.

It is possible that as a result of bringing this type of litigation your clients may suffer arrest and harassment after you have returned to your office outside of the State. It is important that you explain to your clients in advance, that should these arrests occur, that they will have to rely upon and ask for legal defense from the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party and from the other three groups of Civil Rights Attorneys in the State, who are in Mississippi to represent indigent civil rights workers and local people, who cannot otherwise obtain local representation.

It would be wise and we recommend that you meet with the local F.B.I. agents and Justice Department personnel if they are located within your county or proximity. Notice may be given to the U.S. Attorney General upon filing of your suit, in the event they wish to intervene.

Commencing the Action:

1. After preparation of sufficient copies of the Complaint, they should be mailed to the Southern Regional Office where the signatures of all parties needed, including local counsel will be obtained, and the suit will be filed and service by the U.S. Marshall will be arranged by the Guild office. (see attorneys brochure for sample Complaint)

2. Written interrogatories are recommended as the method of discovery to avoid expenses and costs of depositions. (see enclosed sample)

3. Requests for admissions may be utilized after responses to the interrogatories have been served upon plaintiffs. The extent of discovery needed, as well as the scope of the law suit, will depend on the circumstances of the area and your particular county, and of the responsive pleadings on preliminary motions filed by the opposition.

4. Hearings on preliminary motions can be handled by local counsel. It is noted that where the Courts decision on a preliminary motion is discretionary, out of state counsel can avoid the expense of a futile appearance, and have local counsel argue the motion.

5. It is anticipated that in most cases the actual "trial" will be the argument on the motion for Summary Judgment and out of state counsel should plan to return for this argument. Your admission to practice before the Court on this hearing and others, would be moved by local counsel. It is therefore recommended that you obtain and bring with you a certificate of Good Standing from the Federal District Court to which you are admitted in your State.

Coordination by Guild's Southern Regional Office: All matters that must be handled in Mississippi which can be done without out-of-state counsel's appearance will be handled by Mrs. Shropshire, local counsel, and/or our resident law student. This would include the filing of papers and arrangement for service and forwarding of all responsive pleadings to the out-of-state law firms. Past experience indicates that in most instances only local counsel has been served with pleadings and we shall have to arrange copies for the Northern firm actually handling the case.

Copies of all pleadings and papers filed in each suit will be kept on file in the Guild's office in Jackson, and sample copies of various types of pleadings will be sent to cooperating counsel upon request.

As part of your responsibility, we would appreciate progress reports of any telephone conversations and copies of any correspondence relative to the case which you feel will be pertinent to our permanent file in Jackson.

We appreciate your offer to assist us in this project, which we feel and hope will be a lasting contribution to the people of Mississippi, in that it will afford them at long last an opportunity to share equally in the pleasures and activities of their local communities and government, for which they have paid a heavy price and made untold sacrifice.

The Philadelphia Police Department, Secret Service and INTC, Philadelphia, were advised on 7/23/65 of possible appearance of unknown Black National group on 7/24/65 at Girard College.

Philadelphia PD taped speeches at Girard College on 7/24/65 and Philadelphia will attempt to get transcript of L. HENRY's remarks, depending on quality of reception.

It should be noted that after the Philadelphia PD identified Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD) members, the PD advised NAACP coordinators of this fact.

When LAWRENCE HENRY made his speech, he said that he did not like it that the FBI had told the Philadelphia PD who the CP people in the picket line were; and the PD in turn telling the NAACP leaders who the Communists were. The Philadelphia PD through its intelligence investigations know the identities of numerous members of the CPEPD, particularly those who have taken part in demonstrations over the past several years.

DISCRIMINATION, SPRING OF 1965

CHARLES ROBINSON, and STERLING ROCHESTER of the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD) in the picket line. Confidential Informant PH T-3 advised on July 26, 1965, that he observed FRANCES GABOW, RITA GABOW, SARGE DAVIS, STERLING ROCHESTER, CHARLES ROBINSON, SANDRA PATRINOS, JARVIS TYNER, AARON and GAIL LIBSON, all of the CPEPD.

Lieutenant GEORGE FENCL, Philadelphia Police Department Commissioner's Office, advised on July 24, 1965, based on intelligence information in the police department, he recognized people the department considers Communist Party (CP) members, leftists and Socialists, including SANDY PATRINOS, SOL ROTENBERG, THEODORE FAGIN, DEBBIE AMIS, FRANCES GABOW, ROOKIE GABOW, JERRY FELDMAN, and AARON LIBSON and his wife, in the picket line.

On July 26, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-4 advised SOL ROTENBERG and DEBBIE AMIS are current members of the CPEPD.

At the outset of the rally, GEORGE SELLERS, Third Vice President of the NAACP of Philadelphia, made an announcement over the public address system that the NAACP was not identified or seeking the support of any political group and therefore any individual in the picket line who was affiliated with the CP, W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA), or the Philadelphia Social Science Forum Committee (PSSFC) was not welcome in the picket line.

Characterizations of the DCA and PSSFC are attached.

Several youthful NAACP demonstrators spoke, who have been arrested during the Girard College demonstrations. They stated that they did not care who was in the picket line, just so they were marching for "freedom."

PROTEST DEMONSTRATION BY NAACP, PHILADELPHIA, AGAINST GIRARD COLLEGE, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, ALLEGING DISCRIMINATION, SPRING OF 1965

An individual from Philadelphia identifying himself as the Reverend LAWRENCE HENRY, who has been at civil rights demonstrations in Philadelphia for a couple of years mainly as a free lance photographer and newswriter, spoke. He said that since the Philadelphia Police Department had identified the CP people in the demonstration and told the NAACP leaders who they were and the NAACP was not allowing the CP people to demonstrate, this was again an example of the white man dominating and setting out under what terms the Negro would get his freedom. He said the white man should not be allowed to dominate the Negro in the civil rights movement but that he could not say too much against the whites as a class because it might cause him trouble at home--he said he has a white wife.

LAWRENCE was critical of the Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING approach of nonviolence and "turn the other cheek" in the civil rights movement. He quoted the Biblical "eye for an eye and tooth for a tooth" method of the Negro to obtain his freedom. He alluded to the fact that KING is to come to Philadelphia in the near future but that he would not think that KING would be welcome in the Girard College area.

He said the Negro cannot wait for the white man to allow him his freedom in a slow way. He said he recently had been in Santo Domingo and had seen American soldiers propagandizing the Dominicans. He said that rather than doing this, the United States Government should be sending those troops home and spending the money on helping the Negro. He also said he had just returned from Algeria, where he had talked to the Head of State. They talked of the plight of the Negro in the United States in his quest for freedom and that the Algerian Government would furnish the United States Negroes guns and arms he needs to free himself.

He said the Negro cannot wait for freedom and since he has a background of "cutting and shooting" one another, he might start doing this in the civil rights movement. He also made favorable comment on the Deacons for Defense and Justice who are active in Bogalusa, Louisiana.

He ended his talk with a prayer in which he welcomed Communists, prostitutes, winos, drunks, or anyone else who took part in the picketing for freedom.

At the conclusion of the rally, the demonstration continued without CP people until 11:50 p.m., with as few as four demonstrators and as many as 20.

Shortly after the rally, CECIL B. MOORE, President, NAACP Branch, appeared at Girard College and told the demonstrators that he did not want any Communists marching in the picket line, nor anyone else who was not willing to follow his orders absolutely.

The demonstration on July 25, 1965, began at 4:30 p.m. with four pickets, and continued until 5:15 p.m. Picketing started again at 8:30 p.m. and lasted until 11:05 p.m., with a maximum of 16 demonstrators.

An article appearing in the "Philadelphia Inquirer," July 25, 1965, page one, states that the City of Philadelphia will propose in the near future that they be allowed to set up scholarships for students at Girard College. If accepted by the trustees, this could eliminate court action on the will of GIRARD, thereby circumventing the possibility of abrogating the will. In the event the will was destroyed, the trust would revert to the State.

An article in the "Philadelphia Bulletin," page eight, July 25, 1965, states that on a television show, Governor WILLIAM SCRANTON commented on the potential violence as long as the Girard College situation is not solved. The State is concerned about the "difficult and very complicated" problem. There is the conflict of will-making as to property rights against the segregated institution with a Berlin-like wall (to the Negro) around it.

APPENDIX - CHARACTERIZATIONS OF ORGANIZATIONS

PROTEST DEMONSTRATION BY NAACP, PHILADELPHIA, AGAINST GIRARD COLLEGE, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, ALLEGING DISCRIMINATION, SPRING OF 1965

PHILADELPHIA SOCIAL SCIENCE FORUM COMMITTEE (PSSFC)

A source advised on November 14 and 17, 1958, that a meeting of the District Education Commission, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), was held November 13, 1958 at 3425 Powelton Avenue, Philadelphia. At this meeting DANIEL RUBIN, the District Education Director, presented a proposal for a series of forums under the nominal sponsorship of the Philadelphia Social Sicence Forum Committee (PSSFC). The source stated that PSSFC was merely a paper organization and this series of forums was organized by the District Education Commission (CPEPD) and had to be approved by the District Committee (CPEPD) before being put into effect.

This source stated on June 12, 1959, November 5, 1959, and October 21, 1960 that the PSSFC remained under the control of the District Education Commission, CPEPD.

A second source reported on October 9, 1961 that the District Executive Committee (DEC), CPEPD, met on October 2, 1961, and approved plans to hold and to support a new series of forums of PSSFC beginning November 10, 1961 and ending in May, 1962.

The second source on May 8, 1964 advised that the main purpose of the PSSFC is to bring to Philadelphia well-known speakers who have a pro-Communist point of view. Included among the speakers each year are national leaders of the Communist Party, USA.

The second source added on May 8, 1964 that the PSSFC continued to meet during 1962, 1963, and 1964 and that it remains under the control of the DEC, CPEPD.

SENATE

Pages 16362-16366. Senator Thurmond, (R) South Carolina, spoke concerning Communist influence in the civil rights movement. He stated "In closing my brief remarks today, I invite the attention of Senators to the testimony presented by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover before the House Appropriations Committee on March 4, 1965. There are some very pertinent comments by Mr. Hoover which I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the Record at the conclusion of my remarks." These remarks were not set forth in the Record. Mr. Thurmond advised that he was including with his remarks an article from the New York Times of July 5, 1965, showing how Dr. King and others in the civil rights groups are indeed peddling the Communist line in America. He also included a portion of the recently released report by the Alabama Legislative Commission To Preserve the Peace. The report comments on the employment of Jack O'Dell by King pointing out that at the time O'Dell was hired he was publicly identified as a member of the Communist Party. King stated he had fired O'Dell, however, a year later it was revealed that he was still employed by King. The report states "This deliberate falsehood on King's part was in keeping with J. Edgar Hoover's statement a few months ago that King was a 'notorious liar'." The report goes on to state [redacted] b7D made an affidavit in 1963 that King was set forth at Communist Party meetings as an individual the Communists should rally around in the Communist struggle on many racial issues. - - - - J. Edgar Hoover said in his report to Congress last year that many of the persons in clerical garb who took part in the march on Washington were identified by the FBI as Communist Party members. "

Hoover also reported that the Reds are working hard, and with some success, to infiltrate and take over the Negro protest movement." (Per the Domestic Intelligence Division, [redacted]

Page A4150. Senator Thurmond, (R) South Carolina, pointed out that on July 6th the News of Lynchburg, Virginia, published an editorial commentary on the question of Communist infiltration of and influence in the civil rights movement. The editorial was printed in the Record. The editorial points out that despite the overwhelming mass of evidence to the contrary, high Federal Government officials have denied that Communists exert any influence in the movement. Attorney General Katzenbach was mentioned as one of the officials. The editorial states "The facts prove otherwise. And the Attorney General cannot claim he was misinformed. J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation--the investigating agency of Katzenbach's Department of Justice--has repeatedly warned of Communist infiltration of the rights organizations." The editorial quotes from Mr. Hoover's recent testimony before the House Appropriations Committee.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party (CP), USA

1. Plans, Strategy, Party Line And the Like, Made at National Meetings, Including Expressions By National and Other Functionaries

On April 23, 1965, a meeting of the CPUSA National Negro Commission was held at CP Headquarters, 23 West 26th Street, New York, New York.

Among those attending this meeting was CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman of the CPUSA, National Negro Commission, and Chairman of the CP of Illinois.

During the course of this meeting, one of the main items discussed was the changes which were occurring in the Southern Section of the United States due to the civil rights movement and the discussion attempted to formalize the CP program relative to these changes in the South.

During the course of this meeting, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT remarked that the first task for the Party was to politically arouse the CP. He felt that what is needed was for the rank and file of the CP to have a clear understanding as to why the CP was in the civil rights fight. LIGHTFOOT stated that he would propose that a substantial sum of money be arranged for work in the South during the months of September, October, and November and December. He indicated that this would be a control period.

(CG T-1, April 23, 1965)

On June 12, 1965, a meeting of the CPUSA National Negro Commission was held at the Chelsea Hotel, located on 23rd Street, New York, New York. Among those attending this meeting was CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT.

This meeting was held to hear a report on the current struggle for Negro equality and political action as well as a report on the economic status of Negro workers, in the current society. Also discussed during this meeting was the role of Communists in the struggle for Negro equality.

(CG T-2, 6/14/65)

2. Plans, Etc., Made at CP of Illinois Lower Level Meetings, Including Expressions by Local Leaders and Rank and File Members

a. General

On April 21, 1965, a meeting of the Jewish Commission, CP of Illinois, was held at a private residence in Morton Grove, Illinois. The main point of discussion at this meeting was the Negro-Jewish relationships in the United States.

Among those attending this meeting was EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, and during the discussion, DURHAM stated that such meetings as the Jewish Commission meeting were extremely important to the CP and that more should be held. He stated that Negro members of the CP had responsibility to fight anti-Semitism in the Negro community and that he had to admit at the present time that there was no conscious effort in this regard.

DURHAM cited the example that within the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO), there were no Jewish organizations which were part of that Council. DURHAM stated that there was no conscious effort to include Jewish organizations in the CCCO.

DURHAM also reported that the major problems facing the Negro civil rights movement were in the realm of economics, that is, that a struggle for the economic needs of the Negro people is still lagging.

Also during his remarks, DURHAM commented concerning the quota system proposal for integrated neighborhoods. He stated that the majority of the CP Negro Commission rejects any quota plan for integrating communities. He stated that such a plan was unworkable because it went against the main demands of the current Negro movement and such a system would cause more antagonism than it would arrest. DURHAM noted that the logic of the quota plan proposed by the South Shore Community in Chicago was exposed when Chicago School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS carried the proposal to its logical conclusion, and further restricted the participation of Negro children in the schools of the South Shore community.

DURHAM stated that in his opinion, open occupancy was the only logical solution and that the problem could not be solved on any piecemeal basis.

At the close of his remarks, DURHAM recommended to the Jewish Commission that they tell the "Jewish progressives" that they should function in Jewish organizations in the current struggle for Negro civil rights.

(CG T-3, 4/22/65)

On May 7, 1965, a meeting of a West Side Club, CP of Illinois, was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois, attended this meeting and gave an estimate of the civil rights struggle in Chicago to this club meeting.

DURHAM, during the course of his remarks, stated that the Chicago civil rights movement has had many activities, but in the main there have been no significant victories. DURHAM said that the character of the movement indicates the necessity for an understanding by CP members of how they can make a contribution.

DURHAM advised the Club that the leadership of the civil rights movement in Chicago remains in the hands of Negro middle class professionals and middle class white liberals. However, the bulk of the activists are young people and that the young people keep the movement going. DURHAM stated that the biggest coalition of civil rights organizations is still in the CCCO; however, the CCCO still suffers from a lack of member organizations who have roots in the Negro community.

DURHAM commented that relative to militant-type organizations such as the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), these organizations suffer from a very limited type leadership and membership. DURHAM stated that the biggest program confronting the Negro civil rights organizations in Chicago is how to develop a base in the Negro community.

DURHAM pointed out that other serious weaknesses include the fact that the labor movement in Chicago is not an outstanding participant in the civil rights struggle. He also noted that another weakness was the fact that basic organizations in the Jewish community have been absent from the CCCO coalition.

DURHAM also noted that the overriding problem confronting the civil rights organizations in Chicago is the relationship of Mayor DALEY's political machine to civil rights struggles, and the conflict which the civil rights organizations face in their activities when confronted with this political machine.

DURHAM concluded that all members of the CP of Illinois should give serious consideration to how the community activities they are engaged in can help break the stranglehold on the civil rights struggle in Chicago.

(CG T-3, May 10, 1965)

During June, 1965, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, and a member of the CPUSA National Negro Commission, came under criticism from JAMES WEST, Organizational Secretary of the CP of Illinois, because, according to WEST, LIGHTFOOT has not become involved in the local Chicago civil rights movement and neither LIGHTFOOT nor the CP of Illinois has been in any way identified with this movement. WEST also has been critical of LIGHTFOOT because LIGHTFOOT does not work collectively with the rest of the CP of Illinois leadership and because LIGHTFOOT frequently leaves Chicago without advising the leadership of his departure or where he is going or what he is going to be doing.

(CG T-4, 6/16/65)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT as head of the CPUSA National Negro Commission, is scheduled to attend the National Convention of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to be held in Denver, Colorado, June 28 through July 3, 1965.

b. CP of Illinois State Board

On June 1, 1965, the CP of Illinois State Board held a meeting at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. During this meeting, EARL DURHAM, who was in attendance, was asked to comment on the status of the recommendation for a civil rights boycott against the Chicago Board of Education.

DURHAM stated that he had limited knowledge of the status of the recommendation for a boycott, noting that there were wide splits in the various civil rights organizations as to the advisability of the two-day boycott. DURHAM stated that no active organizing center had yet been set up for the boycott and that was the extent of his knowledge.

(CG T-3, 6/2/65)

c. CP of Illinois Clubs

On April 11, 1965, a meeting of the Ray Hansborough Club, CP of Illinois, was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. During the course of this meeting, it was announced that a civil rights demonstration would be held at Chicago City Hall on April 16, 1965, the purpose of which would be to try to oust Chicago School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS. It was recommended that as many of the Hansborough Club members as possible attend the demonstration and it was also recommended that the members of this Club who were connected with various unions see what they could do to have union participation in the demonstration.

It was also announced to the Club membership that the Negro American Labor Council was interested in a Negro employment drive for those Negroes now unemployed. It was stated that the Hansborough Club members should support this drive as well as any other NALC programs for unemployed Negroes.

On April 25, 1965, the Ray Hansborough Club of the CP of Illinois held a meeting in Chicago, Illinois.

During the discussion at this meeting, it was announced that there had been a tremendous drop in the membership of the Chicago Chapter of the NALC. It was announced that because of this condition, members of this Club were being urged to do everything they could to build the membership of the Chicago Chapter, NALC. It was also stated that any of the Club members also members of other civil rights organizations should do everything possible to get these other civil rights organizations to support the activities of the NALC.

(CG T-6, 4/26/65)

On May 11, 1965, a meeting of the Ray Hansborough Club, CP of Illinois, was held at the offices of the African-American Heritage Association (AAHA), 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago, Illinois.

During this meeting, LULA SAFFOLD, a member of this Club, presented a report on the Mississippi Democratic Freedom Party movement. During this report, she stated that she and another member of the Hansborough Club had participated in meetings of a group in Chicago who were active in support of the Mississippi Democratic Freedom Party, (MDFP). LULA SAFFOLD urged that members of the Hansborough Club give wider and greater attention to activities which were designed to support the Mississippi Democratic Freedom Party.

As a result of SAFFOLD's recommendation, a committee was appointed to meet and discuss ways and means of arousing the Negro community to the necessity of supporting the MDFP in its efforts to unseat five Mississippi Congressmen. Those appointed to serve on this committee are as follows:

VERSTA MILLER
ISHMAEL FLORY
RANDY HOWARD
LULA SAFFOLD

d. CP of Illinois Collective in the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

In late April, 1965, EUGENE TOURNOUR, a member of the CP active in CORE in Chicago, held a meeting with the leadership of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission to discuss plans relative to a camp meeting sponsored by CORE to be held during the week end of May 7-9, 1965, at the United Auto Workers Camp, Ottawa, Illinois.

TOURNOUR reported to the Negro Commission that this camp would attempt to have in attendance leading CORE members as well as members of the Students for a Democratic Society and leaders of other civil rights projects. TOURNOUR reported that the meeting would attempt to hold discussions leading toward the establishment of common perspectives for the summer of 1965.

During the discussions that occurred at this meeting, relative to this CORE camp, TOURNOUR recommended that EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, attend the sessions as well as BRENETTA HOWELL, a CP of Illinois member.

(CG T-3, 4/26/65)

In early May, 1965, EUGENE TOURNOUR met with the leadership of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission and during this meeting, TOURNOUR announced that the proposed camp scheduled to be held May 7 through 9, 1965, at the United Auto Workers Camp, Ottawa, Illinois, had been canceled, by the Regional Director of the United Auto Workers.

(CG T-3, 5/4/65)

EUGENE TOURNOUR's purpose behind the Ottawa meeting was to establish a "left wing" section in CORE for the purpose of taking over the National Action Council in CORE which was the governing body of CORE.

(CG T-8, 4/30/65)

On May 7, and May 8, 1965, a conference on community organizing was sponsored jointly by the Students a Democratic Society and the Midwestern CORE Chapter. This conference was held in Chicago, Illinois, and one of the basic organizers of this conference was EUGENE TOURNOUR of Chicago, Illinois. One of the main objectives of this conference was to bring together organizers from around the Midwest to pool experiences and plan for more effective organizing work among the poor Negroes and white classes. Another objective was to bring together leaders of the "left wing"in CORE in the Midwest to discuss strategy and tactics to be followed at the CORE National Convention scheduled to be held in Durham, North Carolina, July 1-4, 1965.

Participants in this conference included delegates from CORE Chapters from Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio, Ann Arbor and Detroit, Michigan, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Chicago, Illinois, St. Louis, and Kansas City, Missouri, and Lawrence Kansas and Omaha, Nebraska. Also present were representatives of civil rights organizations from Pontiac, Michigan, Detroit, Michigan, Chicago, Illinois, and Cairo, Illinois.

EUGENE TOURNOUR had also hoped to involve the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) in this conference, and had discussed this with the National President of the DCA. It was the feeling of some of the sponsors active that if the DCA did participate, it would draw "red baiting" and suspicion on the conference.

JAMES PEAKE, Jr., a member of the CP of St. Louis, Missouri, and a DCA organizer for Southern Illinois and Missouri, attended this conference at TOURNOUR's invitation and instruction. PEAKE was introduced as a member of East St. Louis, Illinois, CORE, at the conference.

About 150 persons attended the conference, which was held in the Ida Noyes Hall of the University of Chicago. The first day's session held on Saturday was devoted to panel discussions. The second day of the meeting held on Sunday followed the practice whereby CORE and the Students for a Democratic Society members gathered separately to discuss the specific problems relating to their organizations.

At one of the panel discussions entitled "Goals of Organizing," EUGENE TOURNOUR participated. The presentation to this panel was made by TOURNOUR and concerned itself with the differences between those attending the conference and the professional social workers in the approach to the war on poverty.

In his presentation, TOURNOUR emphasized the importance of CORE acquiring a "working class" outlook and ridding itself of the "middle class" ideas.

The home of JESSE E. PROSTEN, an official of the Packinghouse Workers Union, at 4800 South Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois, was made available for housing a delegate to this meeting. PROSTEN described himself as a former member of the Young Communist League. Also a strategy meeting involving plans for the CORE National Conference was held at PROSTEN's home on Saturday, May 7, 1965. This meeting was attended by leaders of the "left faction" in CORE, including EUGENE TOURNOUR of Chicago, and JAMES PEAKE of St. Louis. The following plans for the CORE National Convention were tentatively agreed upon as follows:

The main effort of the left forces in CORE will be aimed at electing a favorable National Action Council and not at a direct attack on JAMES FARMER, the National Director of CORE. It was the feeling that once the National Action Council was taken over, then there would be time to clean out the National Office of CORE and get rid of JAMES FARMER. A move was also discussed whereby an attempt would be made to end the policy of having four National Action Council members appointed by the National Director of CORE. It was decided that once the left wing forces in CORE feel that they have the strength to do so, they would also move to strike out the anti-Communist clause from the CORE Constitution.

Also discussed during this strategy meeting was a proposed resolution which would give the Regional Organizations of CORE the final approval over the hiring and firing of CORE field staff members. It was planned to urge other regions in CORE to set up the kind of Regional Organization which has been established in the Midwest and which can operate semi-independently of, and, if necessary, at cross-purposes with the National CORE organization. This particular effort was sponsored by EUGENE TOURNOUR, who was also working on the idea of a regionally-employed Field Secretary. TOURNOUR's interest in this effort stems from the fact that he was recently fired by the National CORE organization.

The left forces in CORE feel that they are very strong in the Far West, particularly around Los Angeles, California. They also feel that they have the Midwest under their control although one of the members said that elements in her CORE Chapter continued to "red bait" and oppose her. The Eastern part of the United States is considered "FARMER's territory," although the CORE Chapters at Columbia University in New York City, the Brooklyn, New York, CORE, and the Englewood, New Jersey, CORE, were described as especially friendly. It was felt that the Southeastern and Southwestern regions are pivotal and considerable effort will be concentrated in these areas. TOURNOUR plans to make a tour of the Midwest Chapters for the National CORE Convention in order to solicit support. Funds for this trip will be forthcoming from left forces in Chicago.

It is planned to get everyone who is friendly to the left to attend the convention and efforts will be made to get some kind of voting credentials for these individuals. EUGENE TOURNOUR was also anxious to arrange a conference with DANNY RUBIN, Organizational Secretary of the CPUSA, for the purpose of conferring with him about the CORE convention. TOURNOUR also indicated that he will confer with the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America leadership about the CORE convention during the DCA national meeting which is to be held in Chicago over Memorial Day.

(CG T-8, 5/14/65)

EUGENE TOURNOUR, as of March, 1965, was a CP member who was active in CORE on behalf of the CP of Illinois.

(CG T-3, 3/26/65)

Appended hereto is a characterization of the DCA and the Chicago Chapter, DCA.

Concerning JESSE PROSTEN, it is to be noted that CG T-6 on June 4, 1962, advised that as of June, 1962, CP of Illinois leaders were interested in maintaining contact with JESSE PROSTEN, a key CP contact in the packing industry. These contacts with JESSE PROSTEN were to obtain financial contributions from PROSTEN and to keep him current on CP policy.

e. CP of Illinois Connections With The CCCO

Relative to AL RABY, Convenor of the CCCO, it is to be noted that he resides at [redacted] b6 b7C

RABY is "clean as a whistle" as far as progressive, left or Communist Party background is concerned. RABY came into being as a civil rights leader about three years ago in the Teachers for Integrated Schools (TFIS). During the time of some of the Southern civil rights movements several years back, a Chicago coalition known as the Chicago Council of Community Organizations came into being, and RABY became a delegate to the CCCO from TFIS.

RABY has stated that he inherited his present position because he had no intention originally of becoming a civil rights leader or figure, but was only interested in participating in integration, particarly in the area of problems of education.

RABY's first relationship was with the Chicago Urban League when they began a campaign around quality education. Some of the teachers who started the campaign for integrated education became interested in RABY, and he in them, because these individuals wanted a Negro leader and they began to push RABY upward.

RABY then developed a relationship with ANN PROSTEN, who worked in the TFIS office. When things began to get rough, with demands for action, the CCCO came into being and RABY was the delegate from TFIS. At that time the Rev. BRAZIER from the Temporary Woodlawn Organization, and a CHARLES DAVIS from the NAACP had the leadership of the CCCO. When things began to get hot, with demands for more activity, the lines were drawn, and RABY, being the only unattached, uninfluenced Negro, with no background of "left or right," becamse everybody's candidate to take over the leadership of the CCCO from BRAZIER and DAVIS.

Since then, RABY has been surrounded by ex-CP members, with the exception possibly of QUENTIN YOUNG, a CP member. CHARLES and SYLVIA FISCHER got hold of RABY first, but they also had LAWRENCE LANDRY, to whom they were trying to give maximum influence, and therefore did not do to much with RABY. Those who stuck with RABY were ANN PROSTEN and QUENTIN YOUNG, and they seemingly had some type of influence over RABY.

EARL DURHAM came into the picture and tried to switch RABY from the ex-CP members to involve him in the real CP by trying to get RABY to establish a coalition body in the Negro community with CP participants. RABY rejected and resisted this program, all the way, although he maintained a friendly relationship with DURHAM.

AL RABY has never taken any of the suggestions from EARL DURHAM, particularly on organization, or even in some instances, on activities. RABY just never did anything about this collective and even rejected repeated attempts by DURHAM to influence him. None of DURHAM's attempts with RABY were ever productive. RABY is not unfriendly toward DURHAM but it is believed the influence of other people mentioned, such as ANN PROSTEN and QUENTIN YOUNG, were more successful because these individuals were also actively engaged in the projects of the CCCO which are much more decisive than any of the projects suggested by the CP of Illinois itself.

AL RABY's only other advisor is EUGENE TOURNOUR, who seems to be part of a clique that is advising RABY. However, TOURNOUR, as of June, 1965, was out of the city of Chicago and has not been around for several weeks.

Relative to the current civil rights demonstrations protesting the rehiring of Chicago School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS, it is felt that AL RABY had no idea that the current developments would go as far as they have. RABY was originally very hesitant about the WILLIS protest demonstrations, but with the urging by DICK GREGORY, who is a "loud mouth" sort of individual, and with the mass arrests ordered by Mayor DALEY, the pot got to boiling. The final outcome is unknown and it will probably depend on how the Chicago authorities handle the whole situation. It is believed that had the CCCO demonstrators been left alone, on the second day as they were on the first day, the whole thing would have died out. However, now that there have been mass arrests, the CCCO now has a cause for which to fight.

(CG T-3, 6/14/65)

Concerning Dr. QUENTIN YOUNG, it is to be noted that CG T-9 in September, 1964, advised that as of September, 1964, Dr. QUENTIN YOUNG was a member of the CP of Illinois.

Concerning CHARLES H. FISCHER and his wife, SYLVIA FISCHER, it is to be noted that CG T-3 on May 27, 1964, advised that as of May, 1964, the FISCHER's were at odds with the CP of Illinois. In the recent past, the CP of Illinois had discussed the feasibility of contacting SYLVIA and CHARLES FISCHER and decided it would do no good since the CP has no influence over the FISCHERs. As of May, 1964, the FISCHERs were not friendly towards the CP of Illinois.

Also relative to CHARLES FISCHER, himself, it is to be noted that ISAAC ALEXANDER WRIGHT, a self-admitted former member of District #5, CP, from April, 1943, to December, 1955, advised in January, 1949, that CHARLES FISCHER attended a meeting of District #5, leaders held on January 13, 1949, at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Relative to ANN PROSTEN, it is to be noted that CG T-10 on December 1, 1962, and May 2, 1963, advised that ANN PROSTEN, up to December, 1962, was attending CP of Illinois Club meetings; however, in April, 1963, it was learned that she would no longer be coming to CP Club meetings.

CG T-3 on April 2, 1964, advised that at a meeting of CP of Illinois Negro Commission held in April, 1964, a CP member stated that ANN PROSTEN was not a current CP member, but that she was still a Marxist.

Concerning EUGENE S1 TOURNOUR, it is to be noted that he has previously been characterized as a CP member active in CORE in behalf of the CP of Illinois as of March, 1964.

f. CP of Illinois Caucas
Active Within the NAACP

On April 14, 1965, a meeting of CP of Illinois members active in the NAACP was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. Also in attendance were CLAUDE S1 LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, and PETTIS PERRY, member of the CP in Los Angeles, California, and EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission.

The purpose of this meeting was to discuss the forthcoming NAACP National Convention to be held in Denver, Colorado.

During this meeting, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT stated that the CP was concerned about this convention because it was a very important convention. LIGHTFOOT insisted that all efforts be undertaken to guarantee that the CP participants at this convention be highly organized at this time. LIGHTFOOT indicated that he planned to be at this convention and hoped that LESTER DAVIS, CP of Illinois member active in the NAACP in Chicago, also attended. LIGHTFOOT indicated that he and DAVIS would be at the Convention to gather the Party forces together.

LIGHTFOOT also indicated that throughout the Convention, he would maintain liaison with DAVIS; however, he did not want DAVIS to plan any organized meetings of Party forces which would include LIGHTFOOT. LIGHTFOOT noted that he had high hopes that the CP forces on the West Coast would be able to take an active role in the Convention and he noted that he planned to organize a meeting of CP people active in the NAACP in the Eastern part of the United States, and that this meeting would be held in New York City.

LIGHTFOOT directed that LESTER DAVIS, who planned to be in New York City over the week of April 23-30, 1965, on personal business, contact CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT at National CP Headquarters in New York City on April 26, 1965, and at that time LIGHTFOOT would advise DAVIS of the time and place of a meeting to be held between CP and non-CP NAACP forces where a discussion would be held concerning possible resolutions to be presented at the NAACP National Convention.

LIGHTFOOT, during his remarks, also indicated steps should be taken to advise CP forces who were to attend the Convention that efforts must be made to direct the Convention's activities toward the field of Negro voting rights. He noted that every effort should be undertaken to see that the Convention emphasized greater voter registration and Negro representation in the South and that in the North, emphasis be placed on quality Negro representation. LIGHTFOOT noted that it might not be necessary for Party forces to introduce resolutions as such at the Convention; however, the CP forces must be constantly alert to amend or cause discussions concerning any projects coming within the framework of the voting rights problem.

On April 26, 1965, it was learned that LESTER DAVIS, a member of the CP of Illinois who was present in New York City, contacted CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT on that date at CP

Headquarters, and that these two individuals held a discussion concerning the CP policy and program which would be undertaken in connection with the NAACP National Convention scheduled to be held in Denver, Colorado, in June, 1965.

As a result of these discussions, a meeting of CP forces active in the NAACP was held in New York City on April 27, 1965; however, due to the fact that many of those scheduled to attend did not appear for this meeting, the meeting was postponed until April 29, 1965.

On April 29, 1965, some of those scheduled to attend this meeting again failed to appear; however, a discussion was held among those individuals who did appear, and among the issues discussed were the following:

1) The question of voting.

During the discussion on the question of the vote, it was reiterated that the decision set down by leading CP forces must be followed, namely that there must be increased voter registration in the South and the CP must strive to improve the quality of representation in the North. It was noted that the National Office of the NAACP now appears to be ready to exert additional influence in the political action field; therefore, the CP forces at the NAACP National Convention should explore the possibility of trying to commit the Convention to a much broader policy for actively participating in election campaigns.

2) Foreign affairs.

A discussion was held on the current Viet Nam and African crises; however, it was decided that this problem must be set aside until it is determined what forces are available at the Convention who would be in a position to submit such resolutions. It was felt that known CP forces at the NAACP Convention could not present such resolutions.

3) Domestic.

A discussion was held concerning the establishment of multiple branches of the NAACP throughout the United States. It was stated that this plan was tried in Texas and California and has been successful; also it was learned that the Chicago NAACP is against this plan and hopes to present a resolution to reject it. If such a plan is passed, the Chicago Branch NAACP would be broken down into five or six smaller branches. It was felt that should the multiple branch plan be accepted, it would bring about greater membership participation and in this way it was also felt that Party forces could function more effectively in multiple branches. It was therefore decided that all efforts should be made by Party forces at the NAACP National Convention to back any resolution in favor of the multiple branch policy.

g. CP of Illinois Caucus in the Negro American Labor Council (NALC)

On April 14, 1965, CP of Illinois members active in the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) held a meeting at 6203 South Park Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. The agenda for this meeting consisted of a discussion concerning the NALC; Negro trade unions in the civil rights movement; as well as other problems.

RALPH TURNER, CP of Illinois member, gave a report concerning the present activities of the NALC and of the role which the CP of Illinois was attempting to play in the NALC. TURNER noted that at the present time the NALC is at its lowest ebb. TURNER attributed this condition to the fact that the leadership of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, had involved themselves in attempting to achieve objectives other than those outlined by the NALC national leadership.

The next speaker at this meeting was HERB WRIGHT, CP of Illinois member, who noted the limited participation on the part of the Negro trade unions in the civil rights movement. He reported that in addition to a few United Auto Workers of America members, a few railroad workers and one or two indivduals in the Mine, Mill Union there were very few Negro trade unionists participating in the civil rights struggle in Chicago. He noted that in the main the leadership in trade unions within the Chicago area are not involved in the civil rights struggle. He also noted that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People had a membership of about 25,000, but does not have an active labor committee. He noted that another reason for limited union participation is that no civil rights organization in the country has attempted to mobilize the Negro trade unions. He concluded that the overall problem was that everyone was looking for quick victories and the civil rights struggle attempts have been made with a hodge-podge group which is not trained and prepared to put in motion a concrete program.

On May 3, 1965, a meeting of individuals who are members of the CP group active in the Chicago Chapter, NALC, held a meeting at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. The major item discussed at this meeting was the pending convention of the NALC scheduled for May 27-29, 1965, at Yonkers, New York. The discussion concerning this convention indicated that there was no enthusiasm in the Chicago Chapter for this convention, however, the Chicago Chapter would attempt to send a delegate.

h. Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)

On April 23, 1965, 30 members of a Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) delegation left Chicago, Illinois, at 3:00 PM aboard a chartered Trailways Bus for Washington, D.C. where this delegation was to attend a meeting of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party scheduled to be held on Saturday, April 24, 1965. Among this SNCC delegation was TED PEARSON, Chairman, W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of Chicago.

(CG T-13, 4/23/65)

Concerning TED PEARSON it is to be noted that CG T-14 on June 4, 1965, advised that TED PEARSON is a member of the Chicago Youth Club, CP of Illinois as of that date.

LULA SAFFOLD, a member of the CP of Illinois, also was scheduled to attend a meeting of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party to be held in Washington, D.C. April 24, 1965.

3. Plans, etc., As Revealed in Party Publications and Other Propaganda Media Such As, Written Directives, Press Releases and the Like carried an article entitled, "Red Says He'll Assist Rights Work".

This "Daily News" article quoted Communist leader CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT as stating in St. Louis, Missouri, that he would exert every effort to assist Negroes in the current civil rights struggle. The article stated that LIGHTFOOT affirmed that the Rev. Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING is not a member of the CP. LIGHTFOOT was also quoted as stating concerning KING, "I wish he was a member of the Communist Party. He is a very fine leader". GAI

The article further noted that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT was in St. Louis, Missouri, for two appearances at Washington University's Student Speakers Forum.

The "Chicago's American", a Chicago daily newspaper, issue of July 2, 1965, carried an article entitled, "Admits Some Are Workers - - King Denies Commie Influence In Movement".

This "Chicago's American" article reported that the Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference who was in Chicago, had stated "No Communist influence or infiltration" exists in the civil rights movement, but Communists do work "here and there" in the movement.

This same "Chicago's American" article also reported that two local Chicago Communist spokesmen, CLAUDE MACK LIGHTFOOT and JIM WEST, had issued statements verifying that individual Communists had been part of the anti-WILLIS demonstrations being sponsored in Chicago under the auspices of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations.

LIGHTFOOT and WEST were quoted as saying "the fact that Communists support integration and have done so for over 30 years is not a startling revelation nor does it make a crime of integration just as it is no crime to be a Communist. The fact that Communists participate in demonstrations for integration is likewise no crime or a startling discovery. Where else does Mayor DALEY expect the Communist to stand on integration, with the KKK and the John Birch Society, who fight to preserve Jim Crow Segregation?".

This news article further reported CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and WEST in referring to Mayor DALEY's remarks as stating that Mayor DALEY is "attempting to redbait the Chicago civil rights movement. He has run out of meaningful arguments to defend his indefensible position".

The article also stated that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and JIM WEST also accused Mayor DALEY of having refused to take a forthright stand on integration and of refusing to use the power of his high position to help break down Jim Crow walls in housing and education. LIGHTFOOT and WEST further noted in the article that DALEY had said he wanted to keep politics out of education but by his statements concerning communism he had brought the cheap politics of redbaiting into the controversy.

It is to be noted that the article noted that the statements by WEST and LIGHTFOOT were in reference to a previous statement by Mayor DALEY wherein he charged that the civil rights movement in Chicago, particularly the anti-BENJAMIN C. WILLIS protest demonstrations, had Communist support.

B. Other Communist Groups

1. Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM)

(No pertinent information developed.)

2. Chicago Branch,
Socialist Workers Party

The Chicago Branch, Socialist Workers Party, CBSWP, since the beginning of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations' protest demonstrations protesting the rehiring of Chicago School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS, has participated in these demonstrations, but CBSWP members have taken no part in the planning of these demonstrations and have exercised no influence over the leadership of these demonstrations.

CBSWP members sell copies of "The Militant" and pass out leaflets to the demonstrators and to the bystanders watching these demonstrations.

Among the leaflets passed out was one entitled "Answer to Daley Smear," which was the joint statement of the CBSWP and the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA). This statement related to Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY's statement that the anti-WILLIS demonstrations were Communist-influenced. Among the CBSWP members who have participated in these anti-WILLIS demonstrations have been FRANCINE CHANCEY, SUZANNE BUCH, JOE MC BRIDE, DICK MC BRIDE, JACK MARSH, ED HEISLER, CARROLYN and MADALYN JASINSKI, BILL ONASCH, JIM HUDSON and BOB HALFHILL.

In addition, it is to be noted that CBSWP has been unable to attain any leadership capacity in any of the civil rights organizations in the Chicago area. They have discussed programs to infiltrate the civil rights organizations, such as Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, ACT, CORE, and others, but CBSWP members have not been accepted by these groups.

(CG T-18, 7/19/65)

Appended hereto are characterizations of the CBSWP and the Young Socialist Alliance.

In connection with the leaflets which the CBSWP and the YSA have distributed in connection with the CCCO anti-

WILLIS demonstrations, CG T-18 on July 13, 1965, made available a joint statement of the CBSWP and the YSA entitled, "Answer to Daley Smear." This leaflet states as follows:

"In an attempt to discredit the growing movement to oust Supt. Benjamin Willis, Mayor Daley smeared this movement by calling it 'communist influenced.' This tactic should not blind anyone to the basic fact that Daley and the Democratic Party of Chicago are unwilling to answer the just demands of the anti-Willis movement with any meaningful action.

"In making his smear, Daley joined hands with the Commission to Preserve the Peace, a special legislative committee of Alabama, which branded SNCC, SCLC, and CORE as part of a 'pro-communist conspiracy.' The aim in both places is the same: to ignore the realities of racism and discrimination against Afro-Americans and to stop if possible the growing movement towards Freedom Now by discrediting the militant activists.

"The Socialist Workers Party and the Young Socialist Alliance participated in these demonstrations and they feel that anyone, whatever his political beliefs, who supports the goal of full freedom for black Americans should participate not only in these demonstrations against Willis, but also in a movement to defeat Daley in 1967.

Also on July 13, 1965, CG T-18 made available a copy of the "Young Socialist Newsletter" dated July 9, 1965. This letter, under a paragraph entitled "Anti-Willis Demonstrations," stated as follows:

> "Demonstrations continue daily and participation of YSAER's and friends is encouraged. Meet at 1:00 p.m., Buckingham Fountain, and march to City Hall."

According to CG T-18, the "Young Socialist Newsletter" is a newsletter of the YSA at Chicago, Illinois.

In reference to "The Militant," it is to be noted that "The Militant" is a weekly newspaper of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. March on City Hall by the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, April 16, 1965, at Chicago, Illinois

On April 16, 1965, 2,300 participants under the auspices of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations conducted a march on City Hall, Chicago, Illinois, as a "mass witness" against Superintendent of Chicago's Public Schools, BENJAMIN C. WILLIS. The purpose of this protest demonstration was "if you believe----inferior education is sin----segregation is sin----official silence on these issues is sin-----the Board of Education should replace Superintendent WILLIS with an administrator committed to vigorous implementation of the Houser and Havighurst Committee recommendations to promote quality and integration in our schools".

This march was publicized as a "Good Friday, passover and pilgrimage to set our children free". The march began at about 2:00 PM, April 16, 1965, when two west side groups assembled. One group assembled at Jackson Boulevard and Western Avenue and the second group gathered at Roosevelt Road and Ashland Avenue. Group no. 1 proceeded east on Jackson to Columbus Drive and then north to Buckingham Fountain on Chicago's lake front. Group no. 2 proceeded east on Roosevelt to Halsted, then north on Halsted to a point where they joined group no. 1.

At approximately 3:00 PM, a third arm of this march was scheduled to begin at the corners of Sedgwik and Oak and was to proceed east on Oak to LaSalle, north to Randolph Street where the group was to meet with the other marching groups from Buckingham Fountain.

By approximately 3:45 PM, all of the above participating groups had assembled in the vicinity of Buckingham Fountain and at this time stepped off four abreast for City Hall. The route of march was across Columbus, then crossed west over Van Buren street to State, North on State to Madison, west on Madison to LaSalle and north to Randolph Street and City Hall.

In front of City Hall the marchers gathered around an automobile that was equipped with a public address system. The purpose of this gathering was to hear brief speeches by members of the participating organizations and the speeches began at approximately 5:00 PM when ALBERT A. RABY, Convenor of the CCCO, stood on the hood of the car and officially opened the meeting portion of the march.

The speaking portion of the demonstration came to a close in approximately 6:15 PM at which time the demonstration was dispersed.

BAIRD has spoken on many platforms with well known Communists, including LIGHTFOOT, and was a principal sponsor of a dinner Oct. 27, 1963, in the Hamilton Hotel, honoring Illinois communist leader GIL GREEN."

The "Chicago Tribune," issue of July 1, 1965, page 1, column 2, carried an article entitled "DALEY Tells Red Role in Willis Row.:

This "Chicago Tribune," article indicated that Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY, at a press conference the previous day , had indicated that Chicago Police Department files show that many of the marchers in Chicago's civil rights demonstrations protesting the rehiring of Chicago's School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS are communists, and the article further indicates that DALEY stated that communist funds were helping to finance these demonstrations.

The article quoted DALEY as stating that some of the "troublemakers" of a communist nature were drawn to Chicago by the House Committee on Un-American Activities hearings which were held in Chicago, in May, 1965. The article quoted DALEY as stating, "You know, those people take part in any disturbing thing they can."

The article indicating that DALEY's statement concerning communists was made as a result of a reporter at the press conference asking DALEY if he thought communists dominated the marches. When asked if he thought communists dominated the marches, DALEY said he could not answer the question.

The "Chicago Tribune" article also referred to a statement by Deputy Police Superintendent JOSEPH MORRIS, wherein MORRIS had stated to the press that he had turned over to Mayor DALEY's office information indicating that communists were taking part in the demonstrations. The article quoted MORRIS as stating that the police have "checked more than 50 names of demonstrators and at least 11 are communists or members of communist front organizations."

The "Chicago Tribune" article also quoted ALBERT RABY, Convenor of the CCCO, the prime mover of the demonstrations, as accusing Mayor DALEY and his remarks relative to the communists in the demonstrations as engaging in "witch hunting." The article stated that RABY indicated that DALEY was probably taking lessons from Governor WALLACE in Alabama, and RABY stated that he wished the Mayor was as interested in resolving the school crisis as he was in participating in witch hunting.

The article also quoted ARTHUR BROOKS, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), as being shocked and dismayed by Mayor DALEY's charges.

According to the article, BROOKS, who attended the National Convention of the NAACP at Denver, Colorado, had demanded that the Mayor support his charges. The article indicated that BROOKS had sent a telegram from Denver to Mayor DALEY indicating his displeasure. In this telegram, BROOKS was alleged to have stated that the anti-WILLIS demonstrations of June 11-12, 1965, were wholly financed by funds of the NAACP. BROOKS also indicated that DALEY's charges have prompted an independent investigation into the source of other funds which were made available to the demonstrators.

The "Chicago Daily News," a Chicago daily newspaper, late edition, issue of June 30, 1965, page one, columns three and four, also carried Mayor DALEY's statement concerning the communists' participation in the anti-WILLIS demonstrations in an article entitled "Communists Aiding WILLIS Foes -- DALEY."

This article quoted Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY as making a statement to the effect that communists are participating in civil rights protest marches against School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS, and said that DALEY said, "Many of the people that are marching are communists. That's been printed and the police department files show this to be true."

The article also stated that DALEY, when asked if communist money was being used to finance the demonstrations, answered, "some of it, yes." This "Chicago Daily News" article also quoted ALBERT RABY, leader of the CCCO, as stating, "We don't make political threats in the Civil Rights Movement. I don't ask any questions. I don't ask anyone if they are Democrat, Republican, fascist or communist." RABY was also quoted as stating he was not surprised at Mayor DALEY's charges because as RABY stated, "This is traditionally, throughout the country, one of the ways of attacking the Civil Rights Movement. It is interesting that the power structure of the City of Chicago, symbolized by Mayor DALEY, is making the same kind of attack in Chicago as is being made in Alabama."

MICHAEL B. GAINER

CG T-20 on May 15, 1964, advised that MICHAEL GAINER, as of May, 1964, was President of the Modern Teens Club.

CG T-20 on October 9, 1964, advised that MICHAEL GAINER attended a meeting of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of Chicago on September 9, 1964.

Appended hereto is a characterization of the Modern Teens Club.

The "Chicago Daily News," a Chicago daily newspaper, issue of June 3, 1965, page 22, column 8, carried an article entitled 'Rights Trials Here Are Costly." This article noted that the first jury trial of 19 civil rights demonstrators had ended Wednesday, June 2, 1965, and had taken four weeks to complete. The article noted that the 19 individuals had been arrested for disorderly conduct for chaining themselves together and lying prone on March 14, 1965, in front of the Alabama exhibit at the Boat Show in McCormick Place, Chicago, Illinois.

This article further noted that these 19 individuals were found guilty and were fined $200 each, or a total of $2,400, a little over half of the court reporter's fees for the month-long trial and a fraction of the total costs. It is to be noted that the 19 individuals found guilty in this instance were not identified by name in this article.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. African-American Heritage Association (AAHA)

The AAHA, with headquarters at 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago, Illinois, was known as the Afro-American Heritage Association, until February, 1961. It was founded by ISHMAEL

FLORY around 1958, and incorporated in the State of Illinois as a non-profit organization. It was founded ostensibly for the purpose of teaching African history and culture to American Negroes.

AAHA is strongly influenced by the CP of Illinois. It is represented by both Communist and non-Communist members, and some people with strong black nationalistic tendencies. This organization reflects CP policy on some issues and opposes CP policy on others; for example, the CP rejects the concept of"Afro-American" as a reference term to the American Negro, and rejects aspects of nationalism, both of which are reflected in the AAHA program. FLORY is a member of the CP of Illinois and theoretically under the discipline of the CP. FLORY is the guiding force in AAHA and controls policy and decisions in AAHA.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, in 1964, spoke of a plan to beef up AAHA's membership in a concentrated drive toward making AAHA a mass organization; however, this plan never fully materialized and LIGHTFOOT is currently undecided about the matter. LIGHTFOOT has appeared at some AAHA affairs in 1964 and 1965. LIGHTFOOT occasionally meets with FLORY and he still encourages CP members to cooperate with FLORY.

B. Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

On May 27, 1965, SAM RILEY, Chairman of CORE in Chicago, advised SA CLAY M. BRADY that CORE activity in Chicago is presently very disorganized and there are no definite plans for the coming summer months. RILEY noted that the big problem in Chicago CORE has been a lack of adequate leadership and RILEY stated that he has been urged by many to run again for the position of Chairman of Chicago CORE, but that he had declined.

RILEY noted that an election of officers is planned for May 28, 1965, and that among those seeking the position of Chairman will be ROBERT LUCAS, EARLESS ROSS and ROBERT LLOYD. RILEY stated that he considered this to be a very weak slate of officers.

SI On May 27, 1965, SAM RILEY also advised relative to EUGENE TOURNOUR that TOURNOUR has definitely been fired from his position within CORE and actually is no longer considered a member of CORE.

Concerning EUGENE TOURNOUR, it is to be noted that he has previously been characterized in this report as a member of the CP who had been working within CORE in behalf of the CP of Illinois.

C. Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO)

FOSTER STOCKWELL is a delegate to the CCCO from some Hyde Park Methodist group.

SI If FOSTER STOCKWELL is taking any initiative to obtain support of the CCCO anti-WILLIS protest demonstrations, it is probably coming from either the CCCO or the Methodist group he represents. Nothing definite is known as to whether or not the CCCO or the Methodist groups represented by STOCKWELL are engaging in such activities. STOCKWELL is known to have contacts with Methodists all over the Midwest.

The CP of Illinois definitely has not given FOSTER STOCKWELL any directions along these lines. STOCKWELL is still a CP of Illinois member; however, the CP of Illinois has issued no instructions to anyone to obtain support for the CCCO protest demonstrations.

The CP of Illinois in Chicago does not agree with many of the methods being employed by the CCCO demonstrators, such as civil disobedience, demonstrators throwing themselves under police vans, etc. However, the CP of Illinois is not in a position to even debate these tactics with the CCCO, inasmuch as the CP of Illinois, as an organization, has no influence in the demonstrations or with the leadership of the CCCO. Because of this fact, the CP of Illinois is in no position to give directions to the individuals involved in these demonstrations.

(CG T-3, 6/22/65)

D. National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)

Relative to the CP influence within the Chicago Branch, NAACP, it is to be noted that CP of Illinois influence in establishing policy within the Chicago Branch continues to be inconsequential.

BRENETTA HOWELL and LESTER DAVIS, current members of the CP of Illinois, continue to be members of the Board of the NAACP, but as far as these individuals influencing any policy decisions of the board, it is totally absent.

(CG T-3, 4/28/65)

Relative to the CP of Illinois influence in the NAACP Chicago Branch, it is to be noted that BRENETTA HOWELL and LESTER DAVIS continue to be members of the Chicago Branch, NAACP, as well as members of the Chicago Branch, NAACP Executive Committee. In this position, both HOWELL and DAVIS are entitled to one vote at meetings; however, these individuals exert little influence on the NAACP and its members in Chicago.

EARL DURHAM is a member of the Chicago Branch NAACP but he rarely attends meetings and exerts little influence on the NAACP and its members.

HOWELL, DAVIS and DURHAM are all current members of the CP of Illinois.

The CP of Illinois' success in infiltrating and influencing the Chicago Branch, NAACP, is weak and ineffective.

(CG T-11, 5/4/65)

E. The Negro-American Labor Council (NALC)

On April 22, 1965, a meeting of the Labor Committee of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, was held at the Packinghouse Center, 4859 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Approximately 25 individuals were present for this meeting, and among these, the following former members of the CP of Illinois were in attendance:

BERNARD LUCAS
HANK and LEON JENNINGS

Also in attendance at this Labor Committee meeting were HERB WRIGHT and NATE SHARPE, current members of the CP of Illinois.

PAULA ENGEL ILL.

CG T-19, an agency which collects security data in the Chicago area, advised in January, 1964, that PAULA ENGEL is the daughter of JOSEPH ENGEL.

Concerning JOSEPH ENGEL, it is to be noted that CG T-3 advised in February, 1961, that JOSEPH ENGEL was present at a meeting of the CP of Illinois held in February, 1961.

JAY LITVIN

CG T-19 on February 16, 1965, advised that on February 12, 1965, the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of Chicago and a number of other organizations held a "Vigil of Concern" at the New Federal Building in Chicago, protesting U.S. involvement in Viet Nam. JAY LITVIN was observed by CG T-19 participating in this demonstration.

SCOTT ARDEN

CG T-45 advised in October, 1956, that ARDEN, as of October, 1956, had been dropped from membership in the Independent Socialist League for non-payment of dues.

Appended hereto is a characterization of the Independent Socialist League.

GLORIA CRAWFORD ILL.

CG T-20 on September 28, 1964, advised that he had observed CRAWFORD in attendance at a meeting of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of Chicago, held in August, 1964.

Appended hereto is a characterization of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of Chicago.

JIM HARVEY

CG T-46 on September 21, 1964, advised that one JIM HARVEY served as an usher for a civil rights rally sponsored by the African-American Heritage Association in cooperation with other civil rights organizations on September 20, 1964 in Chicago, Illinois.

Appended hereto is a characterization of the CCDBR.

BETH JOFFE

JOFFE has previously been characterized in the details of this report.

VERA KING

CG T-47 on September 10, 1965, advised that one VERA KING, also known as Dr. VERA MARKOVIN, during the period 1948, through 1950, was a member of the CP of Illinois.

HAROLD LEE

CG T-43 on August 5, 1964, advised that one HAROLD LEE on July 29, 1964, paid a visit to the headquarters of the African-American Heritage Association in Chicago, Illinois.

CHARLES MC DEW ILL

CG T-48, a confidential source abroad, advised that one CHARLES MC DEW, an attorney who claimed to be associated with SNCC, apparently arrived in Mexico in early June, 1963, and for a time attended classes at the Universidad Obrera. MC DEW claimed to have letters introducing him to VICENTE LOMBARDO TOLEDANO, whom MC DEW had contacted personally.

VICENTE LOMBARDO TOLEDANO is Secretary-General of the Partido Popular Socialista (PPS - Popular Socialist Party), which he has publicly identified as a Marxist Party. He is the founder of the Universidad Obrera (UO - Workers University) which is sponsored by the PPS. ILL.

CG T-48 added that this one MC DEW appeared to be far to the "left" politically as most of the persons he claimed to know in the United States and Mexico have Communist backgrounds.

DAN STERN

The "Cornell Daily Sun," a daily student newspaper published at Cornell University, in its issue of September 27, 1951, set forth a letter to the editor signed by six individuals, including the names HOWARD GOLDFINGER, NORA WALDEN, and one DAN STERN. GOLDFINGER and WALDEN have been identified by EMANUEL ROSS, self-confessed former member of the CP from 1951 to 1953, as CP members while attending Cornell University. This letter dealt with the Korean War and concludes by urging "all students to speak and write and act for peace as they see fit."

ROBERT VAUGHN

CG T-46 advised on September 23, 1964, that one ROBERT VAUGHN served as an usher for a civil rights rally sponsored by AAHA in cooperation with other civil rights organizations on September 20, 1964, in Chicago, Illinois.

Regarding the Chicago Area Friends of the SNCC, it is noted that they operate a Freedom House on Cottage Grove Avenue, Chicago.

DET/krp

Nobody from the CP of Illinois has an assignment to work within SNCC. TED PEARSON, head of the CP of Illinois, Youth, does have some contact with one of the leaders of SNCC, but PEARSON has no influence whatsoever in SNCC.

CHARLES and SYLVIA FISCHER are active in SNCC; however, the FISCHERs are no longer considered to be friends of the CP of Illinois. The CP has no influence or control over the FISCHERs and the CP feels it is worthless to try to work with the FISCHERs.

Currently, the CP of Illinois has no influence whatsoever in SNCC in the Chicago area.

(CG T-3, 4/29/65).

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

Medical Committee for Human Rights, Chicago Chapter

In May, 1965, an organization then in the process of formation called the "Medical Committee for Human Rights," (MCHR), Chicago Chapter, 4919 South Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago 15, Illinois, telephone number OA 4-0091, issued a document in the nature of a report entitled "Crisis in Selma (Alabama)."

This document, which was dated April 24, 1965, reviewed activities in connection with the civil rights marches which had taken place of recent date in Selma, Alabama, and noted among other things that individuals who represented the MCHR, Chicago Chapter, had participated in these marches as representatives of the MCHR and as such had been one of the main units which had offered the marchers and demonstrators medical support.

Dr. QUENTIN D. YOUNG

QUENTIN YOUNG has previously been characterized as a member of the CP of Illinois in the details of this report.

Relative to the CP of Illinois program in connection with the MCHR, Chicago Chapter, it is to be noted that CG T-3 on May 6, 1965, advised that as of May, 1965, no individual from the CP of Illinois had an assignment to work within the MCHR. CG T-3 advised that a few medical doctors who are CP of Illinois members are connected as individuals with the MCHR. This is the extent of CP of Illinois participation within this group.

CG T-3 further advised that at present, the CP of Illinois has no plans or program to extend this participation. CG T-3 further stated that the MCHR, Chicago Chapter, is not a point of concentration for the CP of Illinois.

Proposed Conference to Form a Coalition of Militant Negro Radicals, Washington, D.C., May 30 - 31, 1965

Over the period of May 1 and 2, 1965, a conference was held in Detroit, Michigan, which was attended by a number of militant Negro civil rights personalities. Among those who attended this conference in Detroit was LAWRENCE LANDRY, Chairman of ACT, as well as representatives of the Chicago RAM organization.

There was no formalized agenda for this conference and all of the individuals present were afforded the opportunity to express themselves on what they considered to be the most vital issues facing individuals involved in the civil rights movement. As a result of this conference, and on the last day of the conference, a summary paper was drawn of the discussions held and the essence of the summary was that there was a need for the Negro to assume political power in cities throughout the nation where he resides so that the Negro could redress, himself, the grievances he has suffered for so many years.

Also, it was decided as a result of this conference to send representatives to attend a conference to form a coalition of militant Negro radicals scheduled to be held in Washington, D.C., May 30-31, 1965. It was hoped that approximately 20 people would attend this conference in the Midwest area, to include the following cities:

Cleveland, Ohio,
Detroit, Michigan ,
Chicago, Illinois,
Gary, Indiana

The purpose of this conference will be to iron out final details of the completion of the militant Negro forces envisioned at the Detroit conference, and to tie up any loose ends which remain, and also to plan to involve additional people and organizations in this movement. It was also decided that the Washington conference would be called the National Conference on Black Unity and it was pointed out that the resulting organization from the Washington conference would not represent a new civil rights organization, as such, but would remain in the category of a strategy-planning and organizing group. The primary issues for the Washington conference consisted of providing a possible base for demonstrations with the issues involving local housing conditions, problems of the slum and ghetto areas in Washington, and problems involving police activities in connection with civil rights matters.

It is to be noted that among those attending this Detroit conference was JESSE GRAY of New York City.

(CG T-16, 5/5/65)

Concerning JESSE GRAY, it is to be noted that CG T-57 advised on November 20, 1958, that JESSE GRAY had been an organizer for the Harlem Region CP but this position was terminated during November, 1958.

CG 100-41324
DET/krp

CG T-58 on January 24, 1964, advised that according to WILLIAM PATTERSON, Chairman of the New York District CP, JESSE GRAY was no longer a CP member but was friendly to the CP.

CHICAGO COUNCIL OF AMERICAN SOVIET RELATIONS, Formerly known as Chicago Council of American-Soviet Friendship

EDWIN GORDON FOX, 7147 Jeffrey Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, (now deceased) made available in January, 1954, the "First Annual Report CCASF," an undated publication which stated that the Chicago Council of American-Soviet Friendship (CCASF) was incorporated in July, 1943. This document stated, "The Council's affiliation with the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship (NCASF) was validated August 11, (1943). The present name was adopted to conform to standard national practice. It should be noted, however, that the Chicago Council is entirely autonomous; the government of its affairs rests exclusively in the hands of its Chicago Executive Board."

On April 8, 1965, a source furnished information to the effect that as of March 11, 1965, this organization would be known as the Chicago Council of American Soviet Relations (CCASR), and receive its mail through Post Office Box 4118, Merchandise Mart Station, Chicago, Illinois. MANDEL TERMAN continued to be listed as Chairman of the new organization.

On November 5, 1958, a second source advised that in the early 1940s, MANDEL TERMAN was a member-at-large of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois. TERMAN was in Russia in November, 1958, where he had gone to discuss the treatment of Jews and to discuss Jewish culture in the USSR with the leadership of the Soviet Union.

A third source advised on November 30, 1964, that as of November, 1964, the letterhead of the NCASF listed TERMAN as a member of the Board of Directors.

During April, 1965, a fourth source advised that MANDEL TERMAN has arbitrarily dissolved the Board of Directors, assumed all financial and other functions of the organization, and is maintaining existing records of the organization at his residence, 660 West Irving Park Road, Chicago. The aims and purposes of this organization continue to be to work for peaceful coexistence and friendship with the USSR. While it claims to be an autonomous organization, its program follows the NCASF and it is in frequent contact with the NCASF.

The NCASF has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NEW DAY BOOKS, INC., d/b/a Modern Book Store

On July 8, 1964, a source advised that the Modern Book Store is presently located at 56 East Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and is operated by LOU DISKIN, a current member of the District Board, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois.

The Modern Book Store today is the direct line successor to the original Workers Book Store, 23 South Lincoln Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, established by the CP in the 1920s ostensibly under the ownership of SAM HAMMERSMARK, a charter member of the CP.

The aim and purpose of the Modern Book Store is to act as a receiver and purveyor for Marxist-Leninist literature as well as publications of the CP, USA.

While from its origin and through the present time the Modern Book Store has been publicly announced as privately owned and operated, it is covertly controlled by the CP. The CP subsidizes the Modern Book Store from time to time, purchases literature through this outlet and makes up financial losses sustained therewith. The CP utilizes the Modern Book Store as a working point for CP of Illinois functionaries in regard to organizational and educational activities.

Records of the Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois, reflect that on March 18, 1964, New Day Books, Inc., 56 East Chicago Avenue, Chicago, was incorporated in the State of Illinois. Its listed registered agent was LOUIS DISKIN.

A second source advised on July 2, 1964, that LOU DISKIN had stated the Modern Book Store was newly incorporated as New Day Books, Inc., but publicly and in Party circles, it would continue to use the name Modern Book Store.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

(A) COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

1) The Minnesota-Dakotas District of the Communist Party, USA (MDD, CP) includes within its area the states of Minnesota, South Dakota, and North Dakota.

There have been no announced plans issued by local officers of the MDD, CP to the membership enunciating directives received from higher Communist authority. No such directives, therefore, have been placed in effect within the MDD, CP.

MP T-1 on July 28, 1965
MP T-2 on July 28, 1965
MP T-3 on July 20, 1965

2) There have been no plans or directives issued by the leadership of the MDD, CP locally concerning Communist infiltration into racial groups or civil rights groups. There has been some effort made by the local group of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America, a characterization of which appears in the appendix, to assist the Minnesota Task Force Foundation, but their activity in this regard has been refused. This matter is discussed under heading III below.

MP T-1 on July 28, 1965
MP T-2 on July 28, 1965

(B) OTHER COMMUNIST GROUPS

The Twin Cities Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (TCB-SWP) has engaged in no significant activity affecting the racial or civil rights situation within this area. Those members of the TCB-SWP, who as individuals are interested in racial and civil rights matters, act on their own and are not directed or controlled by the leadership, locally or nationally, of the TCB-SWP. The leadership of the TCB-SWP discourages open activity by its members in the name of the organization in the racial field. This is for the reason that if it became widely and publicly known that the TCB-SWP were involved in racial and civil rights matters, it would be harmful both to the TCB-SWP and to the civil rights movement.

MP T-5 on July 27, 1965
MP T-6 on July 27, 1965

The TCB-SWP is characterized in the appendix.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

There has never been, during the past months, any significant effort by any Communist-type group to participate as such in racial activities of any character. From time to time at demonstrations or meetings of a racial nature, a member of the CP may appear individually, however, there has been no instance within the past months where such an individual has attempted to act other than in a passive role.

The one member of the CP who participates in S/ such activity more than any other is Mrs. FRAUSILE HANSON, an elderly woman who has been, nominally at least for many years, a member of the MDD, CP. She is in all probability, more of a "do gooder" than she is a Communist. Because of her age and willingness to work, she is well respected by most persons who know her in the Negro community. Her influence in the racial movement as a Communist, that is to say in advancing Communist ideology, is nill.

The leaders among the Negroes in this area, particularly those involved in activity in the civil rights picture, are well and widely known to be extremely fearful of having a Communist or subversive taint applied to the movement. This attitude, by both the Negro and white leaders of the civil rights movement locally, is well known to the leadership of the MDD, CP. They are aware of the fact that any open or publicized activity by the CP or the SWP in the civil rights movement would have highly undesirable and serious repercussions.

Therefore, there has been no effort by the leadership to become involved in the civil rights picture locally.

MP T-1 on July 28, 1965
MP T-2 on July 28, 1965

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

No efforts have been made by the CP locally or by the TCB-SWP to infiltrate any of the known Negro or civil rights groups.

MP T-4 on July 25, 1965
MP T-2 on July 28, 1965
MP T-3 on July 20, 1965
MP T-7 on July 24, 1965

91

In the spring of 1965, BETTY SMITH, a very prominent and active member of the MDD, CP, expressed hopes that members of the CP could become active in the racial and civil rights movement by joining a then going organization called the Committee of Concern. The Committee of Concern was a mixed group designated to give publicity to the struggle for racial equality. It did not advocate violence and was not under any degree of control or influence by any subversive group. BETTY SMITH's hopes for the infiltration of this committee were fruitless. The committee is now no longer in existence.

The two most active groups participating in the Negro struggle for civil rights currently operating in this district are the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Minnesota Task Force Foundation (MTFF). The CP and all subversive groups have never been successful in penetrating or exerting influence in either of these organizations. The MTFF is primarily a fund raising agency. It also attempts to create publicity for and a good public image of the Negro civil rights movement. One of the leaders of this group is PAUL MULLER, a teacher in the Minneapolis public school system. He is in no way a subversive sympathizer.

The local group of the W.E.B. Clubs of America from time to time has attempted to assist the MTFF in its activities. MULLER and his associate officials of the MTFF are vigorously opposed even to receiving assistance from the DuBois people. MULLER realizes that any subversive taint to his group would adversely effect public respect for it.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF THE TWIN CITIES

On July 13, 1964, a source advised that on July 8, 1964, a meeting was held to initiate the formation of the Minneapolis affiliate of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America. This source advised on August 14, 1964, that on August 7, 1964, a constitution was adopted and the following club officers were elected:

JOHN DOYLE, Chairman
THOMAS WAITE, Vice Chairman
GRETA FLODQUIST, Secretary
ROBERT BAUM, Treasurer

This source advised that the Minneapolis affiliate is known as the W.E.B. DuBois Club of the Twin Cities.

On February 4, 1964, a second source advised that according to RALPH TAYLOR, Chairman of the Minnesota-Dakotas District of the Communist Party, USA, the above-named WAITE, FLODQUIST and BAUM were members of the Communist Party.

According to a third source, ROSE RENAUD, Secretary of the Minnesota-Dakotas District of the Communist Party, advised on July 21, 1964, that the local DuBois Club of America wants help from the Communist Party such as financial assistance and names of young people to contact for membership. She stated, "The Communist Party must raise money to help."

RH T-2 reported on June 8, 1965 that [redacted]

At 6:35 P.M. on June 9, 1965, at the Washington National Airport (WNA), Arlington, Virginia, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed STANLEY LEVISON, accompanied by a white female about 40 years of age, debark from an Eastern Airlines shuttle flight which originated in New York City. Also observed to debark was CLARENCE JONES. These three individuals were subsequently observed to enter a taxicab and proceeded to Dulles International Airport (DIA) where they were met by an unknown individual.

The four then proceeded to the parking lot where they entered a late model red Pontiac automobile bearing District of Columbia license RB 169. Three unknown Negro males were already seated in this automobile at the time. All of these individuals departed DIA in this car at 8:05 P.M. and headed in a southerly direction.

At 8:55 P.M. on June 9, 1965, this same automobile was observed entering the gates to the property at Airlie Foundation, State Route 605, Warrenton, Virginia. Six or more passengers were observed to be occupying the automobile.

On June 10, 1965, it was determined through the records of the Avis Rent-A-Car System, WNA, by SA SAMUEL W. WEST that a red Pontiac automobile, bearing District of Columbia license RB 169 was rented at 4:57 P.M. on June 9, 1965 by BERNARD S. LEE, 1327 Outten Street, Norfolk, Virginia. The automobile had been rented to LEE on a credit card issued to SCLC.

APPENDIX

CLARENCE JONES

RH T-3 related on February 26, 1957 that he had identified a photograph of CLARENCE JONES as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League (LYL).

The LYL has been cited by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

STANLEY LEVISON

RH T-4 informed in April 1964 that STANLEY LEVISON was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), in July 1963. In late 1963 or early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. LEVISON was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in its position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical, and he continues his ideological adherence to communism.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on the night of July 31, 1965, revealing that Stanley David Levison and Clarence Jones were in contact on that night. Levison told Jones that he had recently contacted Andy (Andrew Young, Executive Director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) to learn what action had been taken in regard to Bill Stein, and the project he (Levison) had proposed. He said Andy apprised him that the Administrative Committee (SCLC) had adopted it and had agreed to go forward with it. Jones inquired if that meant that Stein had been hired (by the SCLC). Levison answered that since his proposal to embark on the project had been approved, he would say yes, adding, however, that someone would have to talk to him (Stein) about his background and other matters. said that someone other than Andy (Andrew Young) would have to talk with him since Andy had already reached a satisfactory conclusion. (U)

With regard to the project proposed by Levison, attention is called to information by the same source on July 9, 1965, that Levison and Bill Stein were in contact on that date, during which time Levison said his memorandum had been read by Martin Luther King and that King would present it to the Executive Committee on July 19, 1965. The memorandum, according to Levison, urged that funds be raised through the SCLC by soliciting contributions from various churches. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on July 31, 1965, that Bayard Rustin (Organizer of the March on Washington) was in touch with Donald Slaiman on that date. During their meeting, Rustin mentioned that he was writing a speech for Martin Luther King, which deals with Viet Nam. In that regard, Rustin said he had a hard time convincing King that he should not press the Student Non Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) to take a position on the issue. (U)

Also during their contact, Rustin and Slaiman discussed a scheduled leadership conference (of civil rights organizations) for the near future. The source believes the conference will be in Washington, D.C., and will be for the purpose of promoting harmony in the civil rights field. Rustin and Slaiman agreed to work for the success of the conference and in that regard, Rustin said he would be in Washington, D.C., (U)

In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League.

The Labor Youth League has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12,1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." X(U)

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (U)

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964. (U)

through 1959. In an application signed by Slaiman in November, 1960, while endeavoring to obtain access to classified information, he stated he had never been a member of any organization which advocates the violent overthrow of the Government. However, he admitted membership from 1940 to 1958 in the Workers Party and the Independent Socialist League. (U)

INDEPENDENT SOCIALIST LEAGUE (ISL)
FORMERLY WORKERS PARTY(WP)

The May 4, 1942, issue of "Labor Action," then an official publication of the Workers Party (WP), carried an article which reflected that the WP was formed in April, 1940, as a result of a split within the leadership of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The article stated that when the Hitler-Stalin Pact was signed and Poland invaded, the minority group within the SWP, in proclaiming the formation of the WP, condemned the pact as being imperialistic in nature and stated it would not support either imperialist camp.

The April 25, 1949, issue of "Labor Action" contained an account of the Fifth National Convention of the WP, held March 24-27, 1949, in New York City, which reflected the change of name of the organization from the WP to the Independent Socialist League (ISL) in order to emphasize the character of the group as a propaganda group for the spreading of socialist ideas and not as a full-fledged political party.

The July 14, 1958, issue of "Labor Action," an official publication of the ISL, contained an article captioned, "The ISL Program in Brief." The article indicated: "The ISL stands for socialist democracy and against the two systems "of exploitation which now divide the world: capitalism and Stalinism. The ISL, as a Marxist movement, looks to the working class and its ever-present struggle as the basic progressive force in society. The ISL is organized to spread the ideas of socialism in the labor movement and among all other sections of the people. There can be no lasting and genuine democracy without socialism and there can be no socialism without democracy.

The September 22, 1958, issue of "Labor Action" contained an undated statement signed by the Political Committee of the ISL which indicated that the ISL had been dissolved. The statement urged former ISL members to join the Socialist Party-Social Democratic Federation.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

RENT STRIKE AT ALHAMBRA APARTMENTS
SPONSORED BY THE FREEDOM FIGHTERS OF OHIO, CLEVELAND, OHIO
July 31, 1965

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on July 31, 1965, that the Freedom Fighters of Ohio, Inc., a small, local civil rights group, had decided to reinstitute picketing on that date at the Alhambra Apartments, 8602 Wade park Avenue, Cleveland. The source stated that the Freedom Fighters had called for a rent strike in June, 1965, by the tenants to protest high rents and unsanitary and dilapidated conditions in these apartments, but they were unsuccessful in getting enough tenants to withhold rents to make the strike effective.

The source advised that JAMES RUSSELL, Freedom Fighters president, stated that he was tired of fooling around with the above issue and that he would not take part in the picketing. He stated he had too much to do to waste time with the above. He stated BERNARD MANDEL was in charge of the picketing.

The source further stated that the Freedom Fighters hoped to have a picket line all day on July 31, 1965, and to continue it each day thereafter if they met with any success.

BERNARD MANDEL

JOHN VICTOR BLANC, a former member of the Communist Party (CP), who testified on behalf of the Government, advised on June 30, 1946, that BERNARD MANDEL's name appeared at that time among the records of the Cuyahoga County CP Membership Director as being a member of the CP Euclid Club.

"The Evening Bulletin," a Philadelphia PA newspaper, in its issue of July 27, 1965, Two Star Edition, carried an article entitled "MARTIN LUTHER KING to Visit Phila. Monday and Tuesday." This article listed Doctor KING's host for this visit as the "Philadelphia Committee for MARTIN LUTHER KING's Tour," 1521 West Girard Avenue. The article listed WILLIAM R. MEEK as chairman of the committee and Mrs. GOLDIE WATSON as one of the many sponsors.

On March 6, 1957, PH T-1 advised that a meeting of the Section Executive Committee, 32nd Ward Section, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), was held on March 5, 1957, at 3022 Euclid Street, Philadelphia, Pa. At this meeting a discussion was held concerning the current status of the CPEPD. During this discussion, ARTHUR SCHWARTZ said that BILL MEEK was recently transferred to a Section in the Nicetown area of Philadelphia. X U

On January 25, 1956, PH T-2 advised that ARTHUR SCHWARTZ was Organizational Secretary of the 47-29th Ward Section, CPEPD. X U

On March 19, 1952, PH T-3 advised that GOLDIE WATSON was a member of the Communist Party and Communist Political Association during the period 1940 - 1945. X U

"The Philadelphia Inquirer," a Philadelphia newspaper, in its early edition of August 1, 1965, on page one, section two, carried an article entitled "Dr. KING Cancels Visit to Phila. Philadelphia after he was warned of "unpleasant repercussions" in a telephone conversation with CECIL B. MOORE, President, Philadelphia Chapter, National Association For the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). Doctor KING was reported to be willing to change his mind about the cancellation if the sponsors of his visit were persuasive enough. With this possibility in mind, some 80 members of the sponsoring group met in closed session at the Fellowship House, 1521 West Girard Avenue, most of the day on July 31, 1965, in an attempt to resolve the impasse. CECIL B. MOORE declared that the people who were sponsoring Doctor KING's visit to Philadelphia do not represent anybody. The Negro leaders of Philadelphia were not consulted about Doctor KING's planned visit and that he, MOORE, was not the only one who was ignored in this regard.

"The Philadelphia Inquirer," in a late edition on August 1, 1965, page one, section two, carried an article entitled, "KING Reschedules Trip to Phila., Will Greet Pickets at Girard Wall." This article stated that after a full day of secret, on-again off-again negotiations, it was reported shortly before midnight on July 31, 1965, that Doctor KING would visit Philadelphia on August 2, 3, 1965, as originally scheduled.

On August 1, 1965, a representative of the Philadelphia Police Department advised that Doctor KING arrived in Philadelphia at 9:07 p.m., this date, after which he and his party went to the Sheraton Hotel where they will stay during the tour.

Doctor KING's schedule for August 2, 1965, includes a breakfast meeting at Fellowship House at 8:30 a.m., a meeting with local clergy at 11 a.m., a meeting with Civil Rights leaders at 2:30 p.m., and two private fund raising meetings from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m.

PH T-4 advised on August 1, 1965, that one of the above fund raising meetings would be held at the home of OTTO GARDNER, Rydal, Pa. PH T-4 also advised that in his opinion Doctor KING's visit had now become a joint venture, involving CECIL B. MOORE and this minimized or eliminated the chance of any violence or counter-picketing of the tour.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On August 1, 1965, PH T-5 advised that CECIL B. MOORE may not be happy with Doctor KING's visit to Philadelphia but he has accepted it. PH T-5 does not know what concessions Doctor KING may have made to MOORE to overcome MOORE's opposition. PH T-5 speculated that Doctor KING will probably support MOORE in seeking the admission of Negroes to Girard College on terms laid down by MOORE. Doctor KING will retain his non-violent philosophy in the matter. MOORE personally believes in non-violence but he cannot be moderate when addressing the Negro residents in the area of Girard College.

On August 2, 1965, PH T-4 advised that about 900 persons were present for the breakfast meeting with Doctor KING on this date. Mrs. GOLDIE WATSON presided over the meeting. Doctor KING spoke and said that due to the help he had received in the South from Northern people he had come North to help the leaders of the civil rights movement, to lend his moral support, and to help raise funds for the local civil rights organizations. CECIL B. MOORE was not present at this meeting.

PH T-4 also advised that at this meeting the following schedule of the tour was announced:

August 2, 1965

Doctor KING to meet with clergymen at Fellowship House immediately after the breakfast meeting ended.

1:30 p.m.	Press conference at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel
2 p.m.	Meeting with Civil Rights leaders
5:30 p.m.	Outdoor rally at Raymond Rosen Apartments, 2110 North 23rd Street
8 p.m. to 11 p.m.	Receptions in private homes for purpose of raising funds. (WILLIAM MEEK announced that the funds will be left in Philadelphia and will be administered by a representative committee.)

6:45 p.m.	Outdoor rally, 22nd Street and Columbia Avenue. From this rally, Doctor KING and all who join him will march to the 8 p.m. rally at Grace Baptist Church, Broad and Berks Streets.

It was pointed out that the schedule was not complete, since meetings with the Mayor and other officials had not yet been arranged.

On August 2, 1965, a Philadelphia Radio Station announced during a news broadcast that Mayor JAMES H. J. TATE was out of town and his representative would not meet with Doctor KING during the tour.

On August 2, 1965, PH T-6 was advised by WILLIE FRANK CAMBRIDGE that a few Black Nationalist were coming to Philadelphia on August 3, 1965, from New York City. They plan to hear MARTIN LUTHER KING speak at Girard College. If KING is not as strong in his statements as CECIL MOORE, the Black Nationalists plan to heckle KING.

For the information of the Bureau, LEVISON is now on vacation, but is due to return to New York on 8/8/65, and in view of his plans to go to Birmingham on 8/9/65, Special Agents of the NYO will conduct a surveillance at New York Kennedy Airport to make certain that he takes his scheduled flight. (U)

As far as coverage of HUNTER PITTS O'DELL is concerned, conditions in Harlem, the residence of O'DELL, are such that a full time surveillance is prohibited, therefore, a surveillance will be conducted at the New York Kennedy Airport on 8/9/65, to determine whether or not he takes a flight to Birmingham.

The characterization of LEVISON was furnished by NY 694-S*. (U)

This LHM is classified ~~"Secret"~~ because it contains information from NY 3810-S*, NY 4092-S* and NY 694-S*. (U) The first two sources furnish information of a highly confidential nature concerning racial matters in the New York area and the Communist infiltration thereof. The last source furnished a concentration of information in the characterization of STANLEY LEVISON. In order to protect these sources, the ~~"Secret"~~ classification is utilized. (U)

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), in July, 1963. In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherance to Communism. (U)

ReBuairtel 7/30/65 which instructed an intensification of investigation concerning O'Dell based upon the recently-obtained information that he was to be given an assignment by Gus Hall to work "secretly" in recruiting into the Communist Party Negroes from the civil rights movement.

In furnishing the foregoing to the Bureau by airtel 7/28/65, your office stated that unless the information was obtained from a source other than NY 694-S*, it should not be disseminated outside the Bureau.

It is imperative that the Bureau disseminate this information at the earliest possible moment. Reurlet 7/30/65, which was submitted in lieu of a quarterly report because no pertinent data had been developed by your office during the preceding quarter. No copy was designated for New York, origin, as required. The Bureau is furnishing New York a copy.

A review of the Bureau file in this matter reveals the following:

Your letter, 1/25/65, in lieu of a quarterly report failed to designate a copy for New York. This was brought to you office's attention by an Error Form, 0-17, 1/27/65. Your letter 5/3/65, in lieu of a quarterly report again failed to designate a copy for New York. This was brought to your office's attention by 0-17, 5/6/65, which further stated that the same error had occurred relative to your letter 1/25/65.

As can be seen from the foregoing, the error which occurred relative to your 7/30/65 letter is the third such letter this year in this case. While the Bureau recognizes that the error is of a form nature, and in itself relatively minor, there is concern relating to the repetitious nature of this matter. It would appear as though your office either does not have the necessary administrative procedures in effect to avoid repetitious errors of this nature by appropriately flagging instant file; or, there is a complete disregard for Bureau instructions.

I will expect you to personally look into this matter and take such steps that are appropriate to insure that it will not be again necessary for the Bureau to write you in this regard. A repetition will require explanations from responsible personnel and your recommendations relative to administrative action. Form errors should be scored against the responsible personnel in the current instance.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On July 30, 1965, PA a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised he had learned that MARION METELITS, a member of the District Board, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), plans to attend the convention of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in Birmingham, Alabama, from August 7 - 12, 1965. This source further advised that all expenses for her trip are being paid for by the National Office of the Communist Party, United States of America.

This source also advised that METELITS has been unsuccessful in obtaining an invitation to the closed meeting of civil rights leaders being held in Philadelphia on August 2 or 3 when Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING comes to town. According to METELITS, if KING does not appear at Girard College, it will certainly "set that fight back." Also, it is rumored that CECIL MOORE, President, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, is calling for a boycott of the meetings with KING. U.S.A.

Concerning the demonstrations at Girard College, the local district of the CPEPD has adopted the line that known Communists must stay away from the demonstrations but will attempt to get white people to participate.

PRINCIPAL RACIAL ORGANIZATIONS IN THE UNITED STATES

The following is a brief summary of information concerning the four principal organizations in the United States engaged in the civil rights movement, also described as the racial movement or the Negro movement. This information includes the identities of the heads of these organizations, the stand generally taken by the organizations relative to communist infiltration and pertinent data concerning inroads being made by communists in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC).

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)

The NAACP and CORE are two of the most respected of the civil rights organizations and of the four discussed herein, have been the most successful in avoiding communist taint. The NAACP is headed by its Executive Secretary, Roy Wilkins. CORE is headed by its National Director, James Farmer. While both of these organizations have had and still do have some communists in their ranks, the leaders have disavowed communist aid and have actually been able, in some instances, to identify and remove from their ranks active communists. Of course, in the competition existing among civil rights groups for assistance in terms of funds and individuals' support, it is sometimes difficult to avoid completely the use of communist help. The element of "opportunist" sometimes shows itself among leaders of these two organizations. It can therefore be candidly stated that, notwithstanding the claims which these two organizations might make relative to disavowing communist help, a degree of communist penetration has been made in lower levels of the NAACP and CORE.

Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)

SNCC is headed by John Lewis, Chairman, and James Forman, Executive Secretary. SNCC is not a membership organization as such but is able to recruit large numbers of individuals for its activities. SNCC is probably the most militant of the four organizations discussed herein and makes its greatest appeal to young people and, particularly, students and faculty members of the Nation's colleges and universities. This is one organization that is making little, if any, effort to keep itself clean of communists. As a matter of fact, its leaders have stated that it would accept communists within its ranks and assistance from communists, placing what an individual can do for it ahead of the nature of the individual. The only qualification voiced has been that it will not permit communists in policy-making positions. Experience has shown that SNCC is more closely associated with acts of violence in the civil rights movement than is any of the other organizations referred to here.

Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)

The SCLC may well be the most influential of all civil rights organizations. Its rapid growth and influence on the American scene is largely traced to its present and only President, Martin Luther King, Jr., an individual who has risen to become probably the principal Negro spokesman in the United States. The SCLC is also not a membership organization as such but is able to recruit large masses in support of its efforts. Its fund-raising efforts have also met with considerable success. It draws its support in large measure from the clergy.

The combination of the SCLC's impact on the American scene along with the communist influences on this organization necessitates a meticulously watchful eye in the safeguarding of the security of the United States. A summary of pertinent security ramifications follows:

King has for years surrounded himself with individuals either present or former communists. Some are associated directly with the SCLC; others serve in advisory capacities. The individual who probably bears the most influence on King is Stanley David Levison, a New York City attorney who is a long-time communist whose secret membership in the CPUSA has been established as recently as July, 1963. In moments of his greatest crises, King has turned to Levison for counsel and advice and has followed such advise. Other individuals having communist backgrounds who are close to King and his organization include Hunter Pitts O'Dell, Clarence Jones, and Harry Wachtel. Two members of King's immediate staff, Cordy Vivian and Randolph Blackwell, are former Party members.

Significantly, King has continued to maintain his relationship with communists notwithstanding authoritative advice to him about the dangers inherent in such situations. The public pronouncements regularly made by King and members of his staff that King is anticommunist and will not have any communists in his organization is merely an example of the hypocrisy practiced by this opportunist.

Most recently King has entered the field of foreign policy and has made public pronouncements concerning the Vietnam situation which are not in accord with the United States foreign policy. It is noteworthy that his stand parallels the present urgings of the CPUSA relative to Vietnam.

On page A it is indicated that the Bureau and New York received copies of rerep by registered mail. There was no such indication relative to the three copies disseminated to military intelligence locally. Also on page one there was no indication that the three copies disseminated to the military were by registered mail. As you are aware, rerep having been captioned ~~confidential~~, was to be forwarded by registered mail.

In the event dissemination to the outside agencies was by registered mail and your office merely inadvertently failed to so show, consider this a form error. On the other hand, if dissemination to the military was not by registered mail, consider this a substantive error and submit to the Bureau explanations from responsible personnel and your recommendations relative to administrative action. In any event, advise the Bureau of your findings.

It was noted that the top two lines of pages two and three of all copies received at the Bureau were inadequately inked and necessitated filling in of certain words. Insure proper inking when reproducing copies of reports and other correspondence.

On page three information is reported from T-1 obtained 5/18/65. Informant told of a meeting of the local Communist Party (CP) Negro Commission held at Baltimore 4/25/65. It is reported that at this meeting Jacob Green stated that he and another had drawn up a report which Green intended to present at a meeting of the Party's National Negro Commission "which is to be held in New York City 4/23/65." Inasmuch as the information was obtained 5/18/65, the quoted portion above should have read "which was held." No corrective action desired in this instance.

The "Evening Bulletin," a Philadelphia newspaper, in its issue of July 27, 1965, Two Star Edition, carried an article entitled "MARTIN LUTHER KING to Visit Phila. Monday and Tuesday." This article listed Doctor KING's host for this visit as the "Philadelphia Committee for MARTIN LUTHER KING's Tour," 1521 West Girard Avenue. The article listed WILLIAM R. MEEK as chairman of the committee and Mrs. GOLDIE WATSON as one of the many sponsors.

On March 6, 1957, PH T-1 advised that a meeting of the Section Executive Committee, 32nd Ward Section, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), was held on March 5, 1957, at 3022 Euclid Street, Philadelphia, Pa. At this meeting a discussion was held concerning the current status of the CPEPD. During this discussion, ARTHUR SCHWARTZ said that BILL MEEK was recently transferred to a Section in the Nicetown area of Philadelphia.

On January 25, 1956, PH T-2 advised that ARTHUR SCHWARTZ was Organizational Secretary of the 47-29th Ward Section, CPEPD.

On March 19, 1952, PH T-3 advised that GOLDIE WATSON was a member of the Communist Party and Communist Political Association during the period 1940 - 1945.

On August 3, 1965, Lieutenant GEORGE FENCL, Philadelphia Police Department, advised SA EDWARD M. COLE that Dr. KING had generally followed the tour schedule set out for him on this date. Lieutenant FENCL also advised that a [redacted] GARY ADAMS, paraded in front of the crowd at Girard College who were listening to an address by Dr. KING. The flag carried by this individual bore the words "Afro Service Union." ADAMS was taken to the headquarters of the North Central Detective Division for investigation. PA

On May 14, 1965, PH T-4 described the "Afro Service Union" as a Black Nationalist Group.

On August 4, 1965, Sergeant BERNARD MARGOLIS, North Central Detective Division, Philadelphia Police Department, advised that GARY ADAMS had not been arrested; after questioning, to determine his identity, he was released.

At 11:55 p.m. on August 3, 1965, Sergeant CHARLES WALSH, Philadelphia Airport Security Police, advised that at 11:45 p.m., August 3, 1965, an anonymous call had been received by Miss DAISY SPENCER, Airport Message Center. The caller stated there would be a bomb on MARTIN LUTHER KING's plane when he leaves Philadelphia.

Immediately after this, Sergeant ROBERT SHEPPARD, Philadelphia Police Department Radio, furnished the same information and said Police Department information indicated Dr. KING was to depart Philadelphia at 7:55 a.m. on August 4, 1965, airline not known.

On August 4, 1965, Sergeant JOHN ZERHLE, Philadelphia Airport Security Police, advised SA DAVID E. WALKER that Dr. KING was scheduled to depart Philadelphia via National Airlines for Washington, D. C., at 7:50 a.m. on August 4, 1965. Dr. KING arrived at the airport at 8:30 a.m. and was rescheduled for National Airlines Flight 283 departing Philadelphia at 8:40 a.m. for Washington, D. C. The captain of Flight 283, on learning of the anonymous bomb threat received during the night, requested his aircraft be checked. Rather than check the aircraft, the airline did not load any cargo which was scheduled to go on the aircraft. National Airlines Flight 283, with Dr. KING aboard, departed from Philadelphia Airport at 9:08 a.m. on August 4, 1965.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On August 4, 1965, PH T-5 advised that Dr. KING attracted large, enthusiastic crowds when he spoke at the entrance to Girard College and at the Grace Baptist Church. At Girard College Dr. KING supported the picketing campaign against the white-only admission policy of the college, while stressing the necessity of non-violence. At the Grace Baptist Church, Dr. KING again stressed the necessity of keeping the civil rights struggle non-violent and urged the Negro to achieve excellence in everything he did.

On Page 5, first indented paragraph, line 4, "Afro-American Committee," changed to read "Afro-American Unity."

On Page 5 appears a subheading "MALCOLM X ADDRESSES MILITANT FORUM, 6/11/65." Then it is reported that at the 6/11/65 affair it was planned that a tape would be played of a speech by Malcolm X. This information was obtained 6/8/65.

It is observed that the heading as quoted above is misleading in light of the decease of Malcolm X in February, 1965. It is also noted that there is no reporting as to whether or not the 6/11/65 affair did, in fact, take place. This should have, of course, been reported.

[redacted] Bring the foregoing to the attention of Special Agent and the Supervisor who approved rerep for their future guidance.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On August 2, 1965, a telephone call was received at the Philadelphia Office of the FBI from an individual who refused to identify himself. This individual said he was one of a group who had come from Atlanta, Ga.; that another group from Virginia was also in Philadelphia; and that both groups were going to make an attempt on the life of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING at the rally to be held at 5:30 p.m. on August 2, 1965, at 22nd and Diamond Streets, Philadelphia. When detailed information was sought, the caller terminated the call.

The above information was furnished to the Philadelphia Police Department on August 2, 1965.

On August 2, 1965, Inspector MILLARD MEERS, Philadelphia Police Department, advised Special Agent THOMAS F. CARRIG that members of Dr. KING's party had cancelled a tentative appointment to meet with Philadelphia Mayor JAMES H. J. TATE on the morning of August 3, 1965, since it could not be fitted into Dr. KING's schedule. Inspector MEERS furnished the following schedule for Dr. KING's tour on August 3, 1965:

12:00 Noon to 2:00 P.M.	Lunch with businessmen at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel
2:20 P.M.	Mrs. PANKEY, [redacted] Philadelphia
2:30 P.M.	Rally at 40th Street and Lancaster Avenue
4:00 P.M.	Rally at 13th and Fitzwater Streets

6:30 P.M.	Private residence [redacted] (Telephone directory lists a Mrs. ETHEL SMITH residing at this address.)
6:45 P.M.	Rally at 22nd Street and Columbia Avenue, and then walk to the Grace Baptist Church, Broad and Berks Streets for a rally there at 8:00 P.M.

Inspector MEERS advised that on the evening of August 2, 1965, Dr. KING visited the residence of HARRY A. TAKIFF, [redacted] Philadelphia, from 8:00 P.M. to about 10:00 P.M. He then visited the residence of OTTO GARDNER, [redacted] Rydal, Pa., until about midnight. PA

On August 2, 1965, Detective MC CALISTER, Philadelphia Police Department, advised that six individuals were arrested on this date about three blocks away from the location where Dr. KING had attended a rally. The arrests were made shortly after Dr. KING had departed the area. The individuals were charged with desecration of the American Flag. All except one of those arrested were teenagers.

"The Philadelphia Inquirer," a Philadelphia daily newspaper, in its Final City Edition of August 3, 1965, carried an article entitled "Dr. King, Moore Vow Unity; Plan Meeting at Girard Wall." This article indicated that Dr. KING and CECIL B. MOORE, President, Philadelphia Chapter, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, joined hands on August 2, 1965, in a show of unity. Dr. KING endorsed demonstrations directed by MOORE against the white only admission policy of Girard College.

[redacted] on August 6, 1965, advised concerning the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois Negro Commission that the plan as originally outlined for a reorganization and reactivation of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission remains the same, that is, the plan remains the same but it has not as yet been implemented.

[redacted] advised CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, recently indicated to EARL DURHAM, Chairman, CP of Illinois Negro Commission, that he, LIGHTFOOT, hopes they could obtain BRENETTA HOWELL, GUS SAVAGE and some other individuals who are close to ISHMAEL FLORY to form the nucleus of a CP club.

LIGHTFOOT further indicated that as soon as he could get a little leeway from his busy schedule he would like to meet with DURHAM and work out the details.

[redacted] advised that in the meantime EARL DURHAM is to function in the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) and try to influence certain people around the NALC so that they will have a base in which to work to put the proposed plan for the Negro Commission into effect.

[redacted] advised that to date LIGHTFOOT has made no attempt to meet with DURHAM to discuss this matter. DURHAM is working individually with persons active in Negro mass organizations and has responsibility for establishing contact with non-Party Negro leaders.

[redacted] stated that the original stated plans for the reorganization of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission remain the same; however, to date nothing positive has been done to make the plan operational.

ReSFreport of SA Wilbert H. Kehe, 7/30/65.

The following Bureau observations are for the future guidance of your office in preparing reports in captioned matter.

Pages 21-25 report information concerning several demonstrations under a main heading "II - COMMUNIST TACTICS." Nowhere in this section of the report is there any information to indicate any communist involvement in the demonstrations being reported. Attention is directed to Bulet 8/28/64 to Albany, copies to your office, which furnished the original Bureau instructions relative to quarterly CIRM reports. Enclosed with that letter was an Outline containing specific instructions as to information to be reported under "II - COMMUNIST TACTICS." You will note especially the closing instruction "If a particular event had no communist involvement, it should, of course, not be included in the document."

You must insure that future CIRM reports are in compliance with the instructions of the Bureau dated 8/28/64.

Pages 17-21 reported information under a sub-heading concerning several racial organizations. This information is under the main heading of "I - COMMUNIST STRATEGY." It is more appropriate to report the information concerning these racial organizations in section III of future reports.

Paragraph 2, page 5, discusses a report made by Roscoe Proctor at a Communist Party meeting 4/10/65. Proctor presented a report on a meeting of the Party's National Negro Commission which he had attended. The report should have contained the date of the Commission meeting which Proctor attended. The same observation holds relative to page 8, paragraph 1.

ReNYreport of SA John C. Seaton, 7/30/65.

Section III concerning Communist Penetration and Influence in Racial Organizations contains information concerning four different racial groups. An opening paragraph concerning one of these groups on page 38 notes that investigation of that group is directed solely toward establishing the extent of communist influence, and that the FBI is not investigating the legitimate activities of this organization. Such a statement, however, is not set out relative to the other three of the racial organizations reported upon. In the future, include such a statement for all such organizations, as to do so for one and not others, may convey a wrong impression relative to Bureau interest.

On pages 39 and 44 sub-headings are denoted by the use of a Roman numeral. These sub-headings are under a heading denoted by B. It is suggested that it would have been more appropriate to use regular numerals rather than the Roman numerals, inasmuch as the Roman numerals are used for the main sections of the report.

The following observations are being brought to your office's attention for future guidance in the preparation of reports in instant and similar matters.

On page B, "Location" column, information is lacking relative to T-4, T-5, and T-7. Reasons for concealing T-7, T-9, and T-10 not indicated as required.

Appendix characterization for the Muslim Mosque, Inc., omitted. Same added at the Bureau. Pages 10 and 11 devoted to an appendix characterization of the Nation of Islam. This was unnecessary, and possibly inadvertently included in place of the characterization concerning Muslim Mosque, Inc.

On page 5, it is reported that James Shabazz would speak at an affair 4/23/65. There was no indication that the affair did actually take place and Shabazz actually appeared. This, of course, should have been reported.

Bring foregoing to the attention of SA West and the supervisor who approved rerep. They should be scored with Form errors.

Information is reported in paragraph 1, page 6 of rerep, to the effect that a local Communist Party (CP) Club was to sponsor an affair which would feature a speech by the wife of an individual who was due back from Mississippi.

A Party member had been assured by a member of the Party Club that proceeds from the affair would go to the "People's World," even though people attending the affair would believe that the money was going to civil rights work.

This idea, if implemented, would be a striking example of the exploitation by the Party of the civil rights movement. It is therefore desired that you recontact the original source [redacted] and such other appropriate sources as are available, to determine full specifics concerning the intentions, as well as the actual carrying out of those intentions by the Party. Among other things, determine how much money was gained through the affair and how much was diverted to the "People's World." Include all positive information developed in a letterhead memorandum. b7D

ReATtel to Bureau and Philadelphia, 7/31/65, Martin Luther King, Jr., SM - C; Cominfil SCLC, IS - C.

It was reported that King, head of the SCLC, had conferred with two of his staff, Walter Fauntroy and Andrew Young, concerning the desirability of the SCLC taking the 'Northern Tour' to Philadelphia. In discussing the current civil rights movement in Philadelphia, King pointed out that he had spoken to Cecil (not further identified) who mentioned that a woman high in the leadership is a communist.

It would appear as though the "Cecil" referred to may be Cecil Moore, a Philadelphia leader of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

It would be extremely desirable to determine, in connection with the Bureau's investigation of the communist influence in racial matters, the identity of the woman referred to, what, if any, position she may have in the Communist Party (CP), what position she has in the civil rights movement and what influence she has in the movement.

Philadelphia should attempt to conduct the necessary investigation which would serve to obtain the desired information. Consider the possibility of the woman being Debbie Amis, a Communist Party member who is active in the civil rights movement. Also [redacted] (U)

A confidential source recently furnished information reflecting that in July, 1965, one David Tobis of [redacted] West Point, Mississippi, contacted the office of "Freedomways" magazine, New York City, and stated that he and three other persons had set up a Freedom Center in the rural area of Clay County, Mississippi. He further stated that John Buffington, the Project Director for the Clay County MFDP (Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party) told them that they might be able to obtain free copies of "Freedomways." He added that it would be valuable to use in a Freedom School and that the course they are setting up on Negro history might center around the issue of "Freedomways" dealing with Mississippi. b6 b7C (U)

Tobis expressed the hope that they could be helped and sent to "Freedomways" a subscription form giving his name and address so that copies of "Freedomways" could be sent to him. (U)

The source also furnished information reflecting that copies of past issues of "Freedomways" including three copies of the issue on Mississippi had been sent to Tobis by J. H. O'Dell. (U)

1 APPENDIX

CHICAGO COUNCIL OF AMERICAN SOVIET RELATIONS, Formerly known as Chicago Council of American-Soviet Friendship

EDWIN GORDON FOX, 7147 Jeffrey Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, (now deceased) made available in January, 1954, the "First Annual Report CCASF," an undated publication which stated that the Chicago Council of American-Soviet Friendship (CCASF) was incorporated in July, 1943. This document stated, "The Council's affiliation with the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship (NCASF) was validated August 11, (1943). The present name was adopted to conform to standard national practice. It should be noted, however, that the Chicago Council is entirely autonomous; the government of its affairs rests exclusively in the hands of its Chicago Executive Board."

On April 8, 1965, a source furnished information to the effect that as of March 11, 1965, this organization would be known as the Chicago Council of American Soviet Relations (CCASR), and receive its mail through Post Office Box 4118, Merchandise Mart Station, Chicago, Illinois. MANDEL TERMAN continued to be listed as Chairman of the new organization.

On November 5, 1958, a second source advised that in the early 1940s, MANDEL TERMAN was a member-at-large of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois. TERMAN was in Russia in November, 1958, where he had gone to discuss the treatment of Jews and to discuss Jewish culture in the USSR with the leadership of the Soviet Union.

A third source advised on November 30, 1964, that as of November, 1964, the letterhead of the NCASF listed TERMAN as a member of the Board of Directors.

During April, 1965, a fourth source advised that MANDEL TERMAN has arbitrarily dissolved the Board of Directors, assumed all financial and other functions of the organization, and is maintaining existing records of the organization at his residence, 660 West Irving Park Road, Chicago. The aims and purposes of this organization continue to be to work for peaceful coexistence and friendship with the USSR. While it claims to be an autonomous organization, its program follows the NCASF and it is in frequent contact with the NCASF.

The NCASF has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

ENCLOSURE

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed; if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly; you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves...

Winston Churchill
"The Gathering Storm"

Communism as an identified ideology dates back to the publication of THE COMMUNIST MANIFESTO by Karl Marx in 1848. It is, thus, three quarters of a century younger than Americas' own great experiment in Democracy. Yet, in its final concept Communism is as old as oppression of freedom- it is as old as dictatorship - because that is what it is when the subterfuge of "Peoples Democracy" is stripped from it.

The Communist profess to hate Fascism such as epitomized by Adolph Hitler and Benito Mussolini. Theirs, the Reds say, was a dictatorship of the state, while Communism is the dictatorship of the workers, or proletariat. This is sophistry of the rankest sort. It is a good example of Communist double-talk in using words and terms to mean only what the Communist want them to mean. In reality, Fascism goes to the right to achieve complete dictatorship and to enslave the people. Communism goes to the left to achieve the same ends. When this vicious circle meets the results are identical - complete loss of individual freedoms, except for the favored few. The lower and middle classes are the first to feel the yoke of enslavement and minority groups are quickly brought to complete subjugation or purged.

In this we face a great paradox in the world today, and most particularly in the United States - that great melting pot of races.

Today Communist subversion in America is in large measure directed through minority groups. Remember, we said directed 'through' not directed 'by'.

As in all cases, Communist direction is in the hands of hard-core, trained red agents. Many of these have been trained in Russia, but many more are trained in America, either in Communist training schools or by long and careful tutelage under party leaders and party discipline.

Communism officially came to America in 1919, following the Bolshevik Revolution and take-over in Russia in 1917. Russia than, was the first nation to be brought to heel by the Ideology of Marx and Frederic Engles, who worked with Marx and helped to hammer out origional Communist theory. It remained, however, for Nicoli Lenin, the modern "father of Communism", to implement and modify Marx and Engles' theories and to direct and ferment the overthrow of the Tzarist Regime in Russia in 1917.

Lenin was a strict disciplinarian and a revolutionary in every sense. He adopted as his slogan:

> "Give us an organization or revolutionaries, and we shall overturn the whole of Russia."

He proscribed the type of organization he had in mind when he said;

> "The organization must consist chiefly of persons engaged in revolutionary activities as a profession - in a country with an autocratic governme nt."

For the purpose of this report we will try to deal only in specifics as these subversive influences affect Alabama. But by its' nature, the Communist conspiracy is not localized. Therefore, it is necessary to bring into focus the entire scope of the subversive apparatus and relate it, in so far as possible, to the problems thus posed to the State of Alabama and to its elected representatives.

THE ALABAMA LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION TO PRESERVE THE PEACE was created in 1963 by the following Joint Resolution of the Legislature.

Act No. 3

H.J.R. 5 - Turner (Crenshaw) Brewer, Hawkins, Thomas, Merrill, Cates, Bevill, Fite, Engel, Goodwyn

Approved May 21, 1963.

During the first several months of the life of the Commission, it operated with only one paid employee, Mrs. Mavis Hicks. During that time outside investigators were employed to begin gathering information for the files. In this work, and in the purchase of certain required equipment the Commission expended approximately $5,000.

In February, 1964, the Commission, by resolution, employed the part-time services of Mr. Edwin Strickland, to serve as Staff Director for the agency; to set up its files, make investigations, write reports, and to generally direct the work of the agency.

A number of private staff studies were completed. These were dealing with individuals known to be working with, or used by, known subversive agents.

In March, 1964, the Commission directed Mr. Strickland to make a study and analysis of the then pending Civil Rights Bill. This study was later printed, and is made a part of this report.

This published study received nation-wide attention, and demand for it required three separate printings. Permission was also given to interested persons to reprint the report. We know that at least 100,000 additional copies were thus produced and distributed.

During the month of May, Commission Chairman John H. Hawkins, Jr. and Staff Director Strickland, conferred with the Committee on Un-American Activities of the United States House of Representatives and with the Senate Sub-Committee on Internal Security. A result of these conferences was a valuable interchange of information and a working relationship was thus established between these two agencies and the Commission.

Later in the month of May, Chairman Hawkins and Strickland were invited to participate in the Annual Conference of the Southern Association of Investigators, meeting in Montgomery. The subject dealt with by Commission personnel was "Communist Subversion in Racial Unrest". The two hour program on this subject drew official commendation of the investigative group, representating nine states. Both Hawkins and Strickland were invited to become members of The Southern Association of Investigators, and were duly voted into membership.

In June, 1964, a study was made by the Staff Director on the activity of The National Council of Churches, as it related to racial unrest in Alabama and the South.

This report was released only on individual request, but received wide distribution by this method, both in Alabama and other states. The demand for this phamplet is still heavy from all parts of the country and we continue to distribute several hundred copies each week. The total number of this report so distributed is approximately 25,000.

This Commission has felt that its function could be best served in working as a coordinating body for police agencies. We have had excellent cooperation from police and sheriff departments through-out the state, and from city and county officials. On request, we have furnished reports to many of these agencies, as well as agencies from several other states.

The Alabama Public Safety Department, under direction of Col. Al Lingo, has worked closely with this Commission and furnished valuable assistance to it.

We furnished certain confidential reports to other police agencies from time to time. Because of the nature of these, they are not included in this report, but are available for inspection by members of the Legislature.

Throughout the entire life of this Commission, we have attempted to keep a first-hand surveillance on groups and individuals who were working in areas sensitive to State security as well as those who were known trouble-makers , or were associated with persons or organizations known to have subversive backgrounds. In this field, personal investigations were made in so far as limited personnel permitted. We have also used the service of other police agencies and private investigators and informers.

In some cases testimony has been taken on a voluntary basis from certain witnesses believed to have information of value to the Commission. We have been careful, always, to afford full protection to such sources.

By request we have furnished information to the administrators of two colleges, several local Boards of Education, the mayors and/or other officials of some twenty municipalities, and to police agencies in several states.

The requests for informantion and material from our Commission has grown steadily, as attested to by the fact that more than 275,000 copies of three reports have been distributed by the Commission during the past fifteen months. These requests to the Commission have come from almost every state of the union and from hundreds of cities all over the nation. We have been hard pressed to fill requests due to the lack of funds for printing sufficient numbers of reports. We paid for and distributed approximately 40,000 items and we granted reprint rights which were used to print and distribute an estimated 240,000 additional copies. The three publications that have been so much in demand are made a part of this report. In addition, we have compiled a number of reports not for public release, but which are available to authorized persons on request.

The Staff Director of the Commission has worked closely with law enforcement agencies in Selma, Marion, Montgomery, Tuscaloosa and other areas where demonstrations have occured. The city, county and state officers are to be thanked and commended for their valuable cooperation in the gathering of facts and materials on which the Commission has been able to base its reports.

In addition, the Commission, in some instances, has employed the services of individuals and investigative groups out of state where such services were indicated. This is in addition to the services that have been freely forthcoming from police agencies, and other agencies in several cities and states.

While the Commission has tried to utilize its own resources whevever possible to conserve funds, we have found it necessary and desirable to use the paid services of some persons who were able to obtain valuable information for the Commission. The total expenditure for this type service has averaged less than $90.00 per month.

During the march from Selma to Montgomery on March 21-25, 1965, the Commission cooperated with other agencies and with the Governor's office, to film the event and to identify, whenever possible, those participating. The Staff Director worked as co-ordinator of this effort, documented the film and was co-author of the script. During the approximate six weeks so engaged, the other work of the Commission was necessarily slowed down. The film that resulted from this effort is a documentation of the Communist, activists and revolutionary forces participating in this mass demonstration.

We feel the first twenty months of work of this Commission proved its worth to Alabama. Starting from nothing, the Commission has attracted favorable attention, and has been widely quoted by national publications, by major anti-Communist groups and even in numerous pulpits. It has also been attacked by certain groups who do not agree with the work of the Commission. These include at least one New York Congressman known for his extreme ultra-liberal, and even pro-Communist, stance.

In summarizing our work to date, we feel justified in the following conclusions:

1. The work of this Commission has received nationwide attention and has drawn unstinting praise from many groups and persons interested in the preservation of our democratic institutions in the face of the anti-democratic forces arrayed against them.

2. That our work has activated others to join in the growing concern over the erosions of our constitutional liberties

3. That we have been able, in some degree, to lessen the assault on Alabama by alerting proper agencies to plans for such assaults well in advance.

4. That we have established contacts that can make our work in the future even more effective.

WHAT COMES NEXT ?

As this report is compiled, it is possible to forecast, with what we feel is complete accuracy, some of the things that will face state, county and municipal officials during the next few months.

There is a growing movement on the part of certain civil rights groups to become more militant in pursuing unreasonable demands upon government at all levels, as well as on private businesses. The Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) has set up headquarters in all major cities of Alabama, and in almost half of the smaller communities in rural counties. This group's leadership and history indicates that it is deeply marxist-oriented, tending toward the pro-Chinese Communist and pro-Castro brands of activity.

It is, in the opinion of this Commission, an extremely dangerous, irresponsible group, which tends to promote acts of violence to gain support for their own goals. (See citation)

A financial supporter of SNCC in this is the Southern Conference Education Fund, an alter-ego of the cited Communist front, Southern Conference For Human Welfare.

These two groups are working hard on our college campuses to activate students, and to form student groups oriented to the far left, to be used as a spearhead in their drive against state institutions, laws and social customs. The Commission has concerned itself with keeping abreast of such campus groups. Federal Bureau of Investigation Director, J. Edgar Hoover has been warning for the past three years that this infiltration of our colleges is the prime target of the Communist. This is borne out daily by known activity on some campuses, plus the weekly reports by the Communist themselves in such party publications as THE WORKER, THE MILITANT and POLITICAL AFFAIRS.

WE are further faced with the growing attempt of Black Muslim groups to join hands with SNCC and other groups on the far-left. Frequent meetings are being held in Montgomery and elsewhere between SNCC leaders and identified Black Muslim leaders. This Muslim influence is also reflected in the orgin and leadership of such local groups as GROW (Get Rid of Wallace) and REACT (Racial Equality and Civil Treatment).

This Commission has evidence that these local groups were organized by three leaders of the Black Muslim Cult and that these groups are closely tied with SNCC and has ties with SCLC and other civil rights groups.

It is further interesting to note that during the Selma-to-Montgomery march scores of GROW buttons were observed on the lapels of march leaders, including a large number who left the airport by plane for their home states during the twenty-four hours following the end of the march.

Martin Luther King's group, The Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), has been competing with SNCC for leadership of the so-called Civil Rights movement in Alabama. This struggle between these groups has at times become bitter and there is evidence that it will become more so in the future. It could result in an open break, since SNCC is manning the picket lines. But so far an open break has not developed. This was emphasized on the last day of the march when the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, King's top aide, told the group in front of the Alabama State Capitol that funds could be sent to either SCLC or SNCC headquarters in Atlanta, "It will all go for the same cause."

Abernathy first asked for money only for SCLC, but James Foreman, the SNCC firebrand, rushed to Abernathy and confered with him. It was then that Abernathy added SNCC to the funds appeal.

King is being pulled further to the left by the pressure from SNCC and other leftist action groups, such as Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). Currently the trend seems to be that King is in control of the older groups who have the money, but SNCC is getting the campus support and trying to force King to either get out or to lead further to the left.

CORE has been involved only to a minor degree so far in the Alabama demonstrations. It has aligned itself with SNCC, however, and, under identified Communist leadership, is attempting to formulate in Alabama a coalition group like the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP). This group in Mississippi is liberally laced with identified Communist and pro-Communist, especially in its legal staff, supplied in part by the CITED Communist front NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD.

Plans have been in discussion stage since January, 1965, by representatives of SNCC, SCLC and local Civil Rights groups to mount a challenge to the election of certain members of the Alabama Legislature, especially those from counties where there is a predominant Negro population. They also plan to run candidates from a third party against members of Congress next year. So far, plans do not include opposition to major candidates for state office. The reason is that they feel they have a better chance of challenging members of Congress just as they are doing in Mississippi. This challenge cannot be brushed off lightly due to the liberal makeup of the present Congress. This is a problem that suggests sober thought by members of The Alabama Legislature.

SNCC

The Alabama Legislative Commission to Preserve the Peace, on the basis of evidence hereinafter set out, respectfully makes the following findings to the Legislature and to the Executive Department of the State of Alabama.

1. The Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, commonly known as SNCC, is extensively Communist dominated, and its leadership substantially follows the Communist Party line. This Commission finds that SNCC is an agent for the Communist conspiracy and measures up to every definition of a Communist Party Front.

The evidence upon which this finding is based is hereinafter set out in part and these findings are further supported by documents and evidence in the files of this Commission.

(A) John Lewis, 26, Negro of Troy, Alabama, is the titular head of SNCC. He has on many occassions made public statements calculated to overthrow, undermine or subvert the government of the State of Alabama and of the government of the United States.

(B) In 1963, Lewis participated as one of the leaders of the March on Washington. The speech he had prepared for that occassion was of such violent and revolutionary nature that other leaders of the march prevailed upon him to use more temperate tone.

Lewis is known to associate with many identified

Communists, including Carl Braden, Anne Braden, Dr. James A. Dombrowski and others. His organization has used the services of Carl and Anne Braden as publicity agents, and SNCC has received direct financial grants from the Southern Conference Education Fund, for which the three above identified Communists work. The SCEF was identified by the U.S. Senate Internal Securities Sub-Committee as the successor to the identified Communist Party Front apparatus, The Southern Conference For Human Welfare. This is proven in letters and documents seized from SCEF headquarters in New Orleans and reproduced by the Louisana Committee on Un-American Activities, (C) We have evidence that SNCC is closely aligned with Students For A Democratic Society (SDS) an admitted Marxist oriented student group. SNCC and SDS are found to be closely aligned and subsidized by The League for Industrial Democracy (LID), a radical socialist group headed by Michael Harrington and financially supported by the millionair financier of Communist causes, Corliss Lamont. We have evidence that LID occupies joint offices with SDS, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City, and also with SNCC, at the same address.

The SNCC buttons and a special button "I SUPPORT MFDP"(Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party) were ordered and delivered from The Olympic Button and Emblem Co., New York 12, N.Y. and the bill for these was paid for by LID.

The MFDP, which is thus tied to SNCC - and is indeed an alter-ego of SNCC - is the group that has challenged the seating of some Mississippi Congressmen, and is supporting this challenge with the use of several identified Communist attorneys, as well as attorneys who are members of National Lawyers Guild, a cited Communist Front, and Americans for Democratic Action, a far-left, socialist-oriented group.

SNCC is also being supported, both financially and verbally, by Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, a cited Communist front organization, headquartered at 421 Seventh Ave. New York City. The ECLC publishes a magazine called RIGHTS, which is currently urging its readers to contribute to SNCC in order that the cost of publicity for MFDP can be defrayed. Corliss Lamont is also chairman of ECLC and is its financial "angel".

Others joining in urging support of SNCC and its offspring MFDP include Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) a wing of the Communist Party oriented toward Red China and Cuba; Congress For Racial Equality (CORE), identified in Senate Committee reports as "working for a Soviet America"; Congress of Federated Orgnaizations, (COFO) predominately under management of SNCC and CORE; and the National Association For

The Advancement of Colored People, (NAACP) whose board of directors features a record number of Communist front citations.

We have found conclusive evidence that SNCC is operating as the action arm in civil rights matters for the militant communist group, Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) and has ties with other violent groups, including, Young Socialist Alliance, SDS, militant Labor Forum, W.E.B. DuBois Clubs (identified communist clubs on college campuses), CORE, UHURU, (a violent pro-communist group in Harlem) RAM, another violence-advocating, Communist-oriented civil rights group, and the Free Speech Movement. The latter is the Berkeley, California group which nearly ripped the University of California apart over their insistnace on the right to use obscene four-letter words.

(D) Last year John Lewis, head of SNCC, traveled extensively in Africa and was honored by Communist leaders in several countries. He espoused the line "One Man, One Vote" and "Freedom Now", both phrases first introduced into Africa by Chinese Communist seeking to overthrow colonial rule.

(E) SNCC is currently preparing to send 500 delegates to a National Youth Festival in Algiers, July 28-August 7, 1965.

(F) James Foreman, executive secretary and "strong-man" of SNCC has been prominent in the leadership of many demonstrations in Alabama, including the Selma - to-Montgomery march. He is a vicious revolutionary with a violent hatred for all whites. This feeling he makes known freely when talking with Negro groups, including our own agents.

Foreman and Lewis have both been described by many national publications as being "activists, revolution-aries and dangerously far left".

(G) John Lewis was quoted by a national magazine in May, 1965, as admitting that "there may be some communists in SNCC, but they are not dictating policy".

(H) James Garrett, West Coast leader of SNCC, was quoted in the same national publication as saying some West Coast Communists went to Mississippi in 1964 and to Selma, Alabama, in 1965, to work with SNCC.

(I) There is mounting evidence that SNCC seeks to promote violence in order to spotlight civil rights campaignes and to bring federal intervention to abridge and to abolish sovereignty. John Lewis stated in California, during the early part of the demonstrations in Selma, that it was the intent of SNCC to create a situation in Alabama that would require the federal government to stage a take-over.

(J) Commission investigators have talked to paid workers with SNCC and drawn admissions that a revolution is the aim of SNCC, working in conjunction with its two campanion groups, MFDP and COFO.

We also have been told by paid SNCC performers that SNCC wanted violence - preferably to get some of its demonstrators killed in Alabama.

All this is in line and keeping with published plans of the Communist Party, U.S.A., and its program of using civil rights as a springboard to achieve a Soviet America. SNCC is following the Chinese Communist line in its support of a pull-out of American forces from Viet Nam.

This Commission has much additional evidence, which cannot be stated here, that SNCC is engaging in serious law violations on an interstate basis.

On the basis of this cumulative evidence, The Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee is found by this Commission to constitute one of the most serious attempts by the Communist in America, with support of Red China, Cuba and Communist Nations in Africa, to effect a violent overthrow of existing governments, state and federal, in the United States.

CORE

Some of CORE's activites have already been outlined in the documentation of SNCC. This group, while never having received a listing by the Justice Department as a Communist front, has, nevertheless, received considerable documentation by the Senate Sub-Committee referred to earlier.

CORE has stated, through its spokesmen, that the group does not attempt to screen out Communists and this is evident by the large number of identified Communist agents working under CORE banners.

CORE was the principal supporter of SNCC and its Mississippi affiliates in trying to unseat the Mississippi congressional delegation.

CORE and SNCC jointly control COFO which lost the support of the NAACP and SCLC because of its extreme pro-red operation that proved too much embarrassment even for these two pro-left agitation groups.

CORE, according to mounting evidence, is moving even more into active communist identification. The dozen top leaders of CORE, including the director, James Farmer, and its Field Secretary, James Peck, have impressive pro-communist records.

It is, therefore, the finding and conclusion of this Commission that Congress For Racial Equality be cited as an important arm of the pro-communist conspiracy and a dedicated agent working toward the sovietizing of America.

King has been previously documented by this Commission and part of this is elsewhere in this report.

Our evidence, as pointed out, shows that King is, and has been for ten years, closely advised by Communists if not actually controlled by them. This evidence is further supported by some 60 pro-communist citations King has amassed since 1955 - a near record-breaking performance by this false prophet of the far-left.

SCLC has received help and support from - and given support to - the identified communist front, Southern Conference Education Fund.

On April 21, 1965, at 8:30 P.M. King addressed a meeting of the Association of the Bar of New York City, at 42 West 44th Street, The meeting was by invitation only, and apparently the contents of King's speech was not fully reported in the press. Several identified communists were in attendance, including Bayard Rustin and Levi Lee Laub, chief lieutenant of the Progressive Labor Movement, and one of the leaders in violating the State Department's ban against travel to Cuba.

King, in that speech, stated that Communists were "patriots who believe in the responsible doctrine of the redistribution of wealth".

It is the finding of this Commission the the Southern Christian Leadership Conference is, and has been, actively engaged in promoting the communist line; that it is, and has been, substantially under control of Communists, and that it callously operates under the front of a christian organization while actively working toward the overthrow of existing governments.

SCLC's non-vilent doctrine is a farce, since this group's activities have resulted in more violence than any other single organization in the nation. The sham of this non-violent facade is further shown by King, himself, when he outlined, in the Saturday Review, how his tacticts work:

(1) Non-violent demonstrations go into the streets to exercise their constitutional rights.

(2) Racists resist by unleashing violence against them.

(3) Americans of conscience, in the name of decency, demand Federal intervention and legislation.

(4) Administration, under mass pressure, initiates measures of immediate intervention and immediate legislation.

Martin Luther King, Jr. is most probably not a member of the Communist Party, U.S.A., nor of any identified Communist splinter party. But the ten year history of his rise to prominence through advocating Social Revolution is part and parcel of the Communist operation in America during that same period. During that time he has amassed an amazing number of Communist 'fronts' as well as a larger list of groups which follow the Communist line even though they have not been officially declared a part of the Communist solar system of fronts.

During the same period, however, he has been closely, even intimately, associated with persons who have been officially labeled under oath before Congressional Committees as Communists. This list includes;

Bayard Rustin, King's executive Secretary for three years and still an intimate advisor. Rustin has served as an "observer" at the 1957 Communist Party Convention in New York, and has admitted he was an organizing member of the Young Communist League in New York for eleven years.

Hunter Pitts O'Dell, alias Jack O'Dell, was hired by King as executive director of his Southern Christian Leadership Conference, in charge of the SCLC activities in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. At the time O'Dell was hired by King he was a publicly identified member of the Communist Party. He was so identified in testimony before the U.S. Senate Sub-Committee on Internal Security on April 12, 1954, at which time O'Dell repeatedly invoked the Fifth Amendment.

After O'Dell had worked for King approximately a year, a newspaper, the St. Louis Globe Democrat, revealed his employment by King. King was then contacted by the Associated Press and said he had fired O'Dell. A year later it was again revealed by the AP that O'Dell was in fact still working for King in his New York office.

This deliberate falsehood on King's part was in keeping with J. Edgar Hoover's statement a few months ago that King was a "notorious liar".

F.L. Shuttlesworth, an ex-convict, has long served as King's right-hand man in the Birmingham and Selma demonstrations and is still active.

Shuttlesworth doubles as President of an officially identified organization, The Southern Conference Education Fund.

The SCEF is the successor to the old and notorious Southern Conference For Human Welfare, which changed its name after it was officially identified by ex-communist Paul Couch before the Senate Sub-committee as "a trans= mission belt for the Communist Party".

Other members of the SCEF include James A. Dombrowski, Carl Braden, Anne Braden and Wm. Howard Melish, Frank Wilkerson, all officially identified under oath as Communist Party members, and Benjamin Smith, who registered with the U.S. Government as an agent for Castro.

Dian Bevel, wife of James Bevel, one of King's top aides, is also a member of the SCEF Board, as is John M. Coe, Lawyers Guild Attorney of Pensacola, Florida, and the late Aubrey Williams of Montgomery, Alabama who was publicly accused of being a Communist Party member but denied under oath that he was.

Williams long headed the extremely pro-communist front, Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

King is a signer of the petition to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and his name appears along with a large group of known Communists and veteran Communist Fronters.

Karl Prussian, former Communist Party member and secret F.B.I. informant in the party, made an affidavit in 1963 that King was set forth at Communist Party meetings as an individual the Communists should rally around in the Communist struggle on many racial issues.

Prussian also swore that King has either been a member of or wittingly accepted support from over 60 Communist Fronts, individuals and/or organizations which give aid to and espouse the Communist cause.

J. Edgar Hoover said in his report to Congress last year that many of the persons in clerical garb who took part in the march on Washington were identified by the F.B.I. as Communist Party members.

Hoover also reported that the Reds are working hard, and with some success, to infiltrate and take over the Negro protest movement.

The Communist confirm this in a letter from James E. Jackson and Louis Weinstock, in June 1963.

It was further documented by the late Communist leader, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, that Communists are playing a big part in the Negro protest movement.

THE WORKER, official organ of the Communist Party, has featured King more than three dozen times within the past three years. The Communist have nothing but the highest praise for Dr. King and the movement he heads.

Along with the troubled outlook, there appears to be some factors favorable to a lessening of the pressures. The brightest hope seems to come from a growing awareness in other parts of the nation that most civil rights groups have gone too far and pushed too hard. This awareness is reflected in the rising tide of criticism of the "Movement" by some national magazines, some usually liberal syndicated columnist and even an occassional voiced criticism from the major television networks.

The national business community and even most national trade unions showed impatience with King's attmepted boycott of Alabama. It was supported only by a few small groups outside the Communist Party press organs, and by the International Longshoremen's Union, headed by Harry Bridges, an identified Communist Party member.

King lost face both in the lack of support his proposal received and in the Communist identity of the support which he did receive. These excesses by King and other irresponsible and revolutionary civil rights leaders, is helping to initiate and push what appears to be a groundswell of more conservative opinions. All these factors may be counted on the credit side of the ledger.

We would be less than honest to close this report on a note of high optimism. We have a long and hard fight before us as a state and as a stable society. We think the evidence points to increasing problems on the racial front for the next several months, especially since so much group pressure is being applied to the matter by forces of the militant group.

The Commission feels that with the background of achievement and experience of the past twenty months its work will prove even more effective for the citizens of Alabama who oppose those forces of the far left which are threatening the very foundations of constitutional government, individual rights and economic freedom.

SPECIAL REPORT
FEBRUARY 4, 1965

The Civil Rights crisis promoted by Martin Luther King, Jr. and his agents, if allowed to run its planned course, could place in grave jeopardy the lives and property of many citizens of both races.

King and his group fully realize this. He has stated at mass meetings attended by local and state police officers that this is a fight to the finish against "the white Power Structure" and that it will continue even if it results in deaths. I was present in a Negro Church on January 14, 1965 when King made this statement, and stated further that "a man is not measured so much by what he lives for as by what he will die for."

"Revolution" has become a trade-mark and by-word of the movement and every speaker - King, Fred L. Shuttlesworth, Ralph Abernathy, James Bevel, and others, - uses it many times in each speech used to harangue a crowd, True, King still says "non-violent" revolution, but most of the other leaders, especially Bevel, have dropped the modifying phrase.

This assault on the peace and dignity of the people of Selma and of Alabama, is not a casual thing, and events are MADE to happen to fit into King's propoganda plans.

PROOF OF PLANNING

Enclosed with this report is a reproduction of the program outline King brought with him to Selma early in January. It fell into the hands of investigators and was reproduced from the origional, apparently before King had even distributed it to his own leaders.

Significant in the report is the statement by King of how his "agit-prop" machinery would work. He points out that he will get in jail and that letters would then be sent out from the Selma jail over his signature. It was, therefore, known to law enforcement officers that King had planned to force his own arrest last Monday, February 1, 1965. The officers tried hard not to have to arrest King, even to releasing him once after he was arrested. It was obvious to all witnesses that King was determined to be arrested. This would be testified to by at least some reporters representing the Eastern Press corps. We received information from inside, reliable sources, that the letters King planned to send from the jail, were already in print and that thousands of envelopes were already addressed in Selma and Montgomery.

The letters are intended for two purposes: to serve as a propaganda weapon, and to elicit large funds from liberals and sympathisers in and out of Alabama.

King's aims extend far beyond trying to register qualified Negroes in Selma, or Marion, or Camden or Montgmmery. As shown by his outline, he is planning to disrupt, if possible, the initial meeting of the State Legislature in regular session on May 4. (See plan for "Freedom Registration" and voting in 10 major cities and 21 Black Belt counties.) The format will be roughly the same as that tried by the Freedom Democratic Party of Mississippi at the opening of the present Congress.

The "Oslo Prophet" is trying hard to introduce the issue of police brutality, and to use this issue as a propellent to set cff frenzied demonstrations, such as those that rocked

New york, Cleveland, Chicago, Boston, Los Angeles and Birmingham.

So far there have been no incidents of police using excessive force. Even with the eager press looking on, they have been able to mention only that on one occassion Sheriff Jim Clark caught hold of a Negro woman by the arm and collar and propelled her along the sidewalk at a fast walk during an arrest.

On another occassion, a large Negro woman, totally unprovoked, according to nearby witnesses, struck Sheriff Clark in the face with her closed fist. She was wrestled to the ground by deputies in trying to halt her attack, but she was not abused or injuried.

It is remarkable that police and deputies have shown so much restraint in the face of almost day and night harrassment, arrogance and verbal abuse (ever being spat upon). F.B.I. officers have been present and photographed virtually every arrest. These officers and their photographers will vindicate every arrest in so far as physical handling by officers is concerned.

Adding generally to the seriousness of the situation is the presence of many obviously paid agitators from the radical Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), and King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). Other groups known to be represented in the Selma trouble include Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and the Southern Conference Education Fund. This latter group has been officially identified as a Communist front, and many of the officials connected with this group have been identified in sworn testimony before Congress - ional Committees as Communist Party members.

One recently resigned official of SCEF, is registered with the federal government in Washington as an agent for Fidel Castro. He is Benjamin Smith, formerly treasurer of SCEF.

Fred Shuttlesworth, an ex-convict turned minister, is currently president of SCEF. He is in Selma as one of King's leaders.

Another extremely radical Negro leader of SNCC, active in Selma, is John Lewis. He preaches revolt, rebellion and violence. During the Washington march last year he had prepared a speech so militant that even such leaders of the march as Bayard Rustin and A. Phillip Randolph, objected to his delivering it and forced him to tone it down. This was reported the day after the march by Victor Reisel, national columnist, and other nationally recognized reporters. We have proof that SNCC in its Mississippi operation has many known and some admitted Communists in its organization. Lewis may or may not be a Communist Party member but his actions mark him as a close line-follower. Certainly he does nothing to try to rid his organization of known reds, and SNCC, on the other hand, says it doesn't care what a person is so long as he or she carries out the policies of SNCC.

James Bevel, husband of extremely radical Dian Bevel, is one of King's top paid leaders. He holds the title of General Field Secretary for SCLC. Bevel talks of revolution and violence. (We have many such speeches on tape made by him.) Bevel is known to have close ties with Balck Muslim groups. These groups openly advocate violence. King professes non-violence. This raises a serious question of King's sincerity, since he knows of Bevels views, and Bevel disdaines to hide them.

King, himself, has amassed a Communist Front record numbering more than 40 connections in less than 10 years. He is praised almost weekly as a great leader by THE WORKER, official Communist Party newspaper, and is known to number many identified communists and veteran "fronters" among his close associates.

Rustin, who served three years as King's executive secretary, has admitted in a national magazine that he served as an organizing member of a Communist Party group in New York for 11 years. He also is an ex-convict with many arrests and convictions, and an admitted sex-pervert. He also served as "an observer" at the National Communist Party convention in New York in 1957.

Another of King's close associates and former employees is Hunter Pitts O'Dell, alias Jack O'Dell. Though officially identified in sworn testimony before a Congressional Committee as a veteran Communist Party member, King continued to use his paid services for a year after it was first brought to his attention. King, further, lied in stating to reporters that O'Dell had been fired while O'Dell was in fact still repre-

King has used, and continues to use, the services of Carl and Anne Braden both identified Communists, who work as field secretaries for SCEF. Carl Braden has served a term in Federal Prison for contempt of Congress.

To show Anne Braden's approach to Communism and the Civil Rights movement, we quote from her book HCUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES: - BULWARK OF SEGREAATION (Marzani & Munsell, N.Y. City, 1963) Page 38 says...."It would seem that a civil rights group must ask itself whether it really helps its course if it (screens) out those who are called Communists. Whether the charge be true or false, the more pertinent question would seem to be; What did the person do for or against civil rights"

This is an identified Communist who serves as one of the agit-prop corps for King. This fact is disclosed by Carl and Anne Braden themselves in letters seized by New Orleans police last year in the headquarters of SCEF. Those letters also prove the close connection between SNCC, CORE, SCLC and SCEF, and their overall connections with a host of the big names in Communism.

In the Selma operation, there is a growing number of out-of-state whites. While some of these may be publicity seekers only, the appearance, demeanor and actions of some of them strongly suggest that they are faithful Communist line followers at least.

The Alabama Legislative Commission to Preserve the Peace, in keeping with the duties imposed upon us by the Legislature, has kept careful track of the events, organizations, and persons involved in the current lawless assualt on Selma and the State. It is our firm belief that an impartial investigation by a Congressional Committee would disclose sinister influences detrimental to the peace and order of the state and the nation.

We would like to close this report by pointing out the following facts that are undisputed:

1. The Board of Registrars of Dallas County asked for, and was granted, 10 additional days in January to afford a better opportunity for registration of prospective voters.

2. During the first six days of this special registration only a few people showed up, virtually none of them Negroes.

3. King came to town and organized a march on the Board of Registrars on the seventh day of this registration. About 700 Negroes showed up, urged on by out-of-state whites. Officers identified in the registration lines many Negroes who were already registered voters, and many more who were not eligible for registration by virture of not residing in the county and being under age of 21. The object was, obviously, to swell the numbers and create impossible confusion and incidents.

4. After trying to bring some order out of this chaotic situation Sheriff Clark gave numbered cards, in sequence, to those in line. He then directed that they wait their turn in line by standing in a large alley area between the court house and an adjoining building.

This order was a reasonable exercise of police power and good judgement. To have done otherwise would have resulted in the blocking of pedestrian traffice on sidewalks and vehicular traffic in the street because of the large numbers demanding accomodation.

The Negroes and some whites present for registration stood in the area designated the first day without serious complaint. Because no Negroes were present to receive numbers early, some 40 or more whites were first in line and no Negroes were reached on the first day. It should be pointed out that no Negro applicants showed up until approximately 10:30 A.M., when the large group marched up together. The Board had opened for business at 8:00 A.M. and the white applicants got in line on a first-come first-served basis.

On the second day of mass marching on the Board of Registrars, Negroes were again late in arriving. They came in a group shortly before noon. This pointed out the obvious fact that agitation and not registration was King's aim. This second day Negroes refused to stand in line in the designated area because King and Bevel had harangued them at a mass meeting the night before NCT to obey the order.

In the last two or three days of registration between 60 and 100 Negroes have been interviewed by the registrars, and their applications are being acted upon.

King has repeatedly declared that the assault will be continued on many fronts in Alabama until the state is brought to its knees. The restraint so far showed by police officers and the citizenry has been admirable, especially since provocation to violence has been continous and intense.

We cannot escape recognition of the possibility that an incident on either side could set off a chain reaction of violence that limited police personnel might not be able to handle before lives and property of innocent people of both races were put in grave jeopardy.

Since the Federal Courts have almost preempted enforcement in the Civil Rights field, serious consideration should be given to a thorough impartial investigation by the proper agencies of Congress before vast harm is done.

December 1964

Following are conclusions arrived at after a two day study of the organization and the operation of COFO in the State of Mississippi and principally in Jackson. NOTE: It is apparent at this time that after several months of operation of the so-called 'freedom army' in Mississippi that it is a failure and its demise is sure and certain.

COFO was set up as a co-ordinating agency for four of the principle civil rights groups in Mississippi. COFO could not operate last year in Alabama for the reason that the NAACP, one of the COFO groups, was at that time banned from operating in Alabama. Other groups in the COFO organization are CORE, SNCC, and Kings' SCLC. Since that time, through action of the Supreme Court, NAACP is now operating in Alabama and for this reason we may find, and indications are that we will, COFO or a similar organization causing trouble in Alabama in the months ahead. This has been stated by King, by Farmer and by other civil rights leaders who intend to concentrate again this year on Mississippi and on Alabama. Consequently, for this reason, I think some valuable lessons could be learned from what has happened in Mississippi.

The people of Mississippi have learned to pretty much ignore these so-called 'freedom workers' in their midst. They have withdrawn all support and that includes the local Negroes who are no longer, in most cases, furnishing beds or rooms or food or money for these workers. From their own statements, which we have obtained through co-operation of the Mississippi Sovereignty Commission, it is clear that most of them are in dire financial need at this time - that they are generally looked upon by both the white and the Negroes as an ineffectual group - misfits at best. They are considered as a group of people with no morals. This feeling is substantiated by reports of their actions since they have been in Mississippi. They appear now to be uncertain which way to turn or which way to go - they seem to have very little leadership left; others seem to be on the verge of doing so and many, it is felt, would have already left Mississippi except for the fact that they lack funds.

This group seemed to have been well financed in the beginning. I think the repeated failures which were evident to those backing this group caused the flow of money to be cut down considerably and in some cases cut off entirely. I think too, that the actions of the law enforcement people in Mississippi could well be a subject of study by law enforcement people of Alabama. They have simply enforced the laws stringently against these people for matters out of the field of civil rights work such as not having proper drivers license, or for other violations which would not come under the civil rights laws of Federal Jurisdiction. This in many cases cost considerable money in bonds, in getting them out of jail, in fines, in legal fees and contributed materially to the break-down of the entire operation in Mississippi.

After discussing the matter with many officials in Mississippi , it is my conclusion that had there not been certain acts of violence committed in Mississippi during the early part of the Mississippi Project (particularly the death of the three workers) that the entire COFO operation in that state would have been short lived. It would have received very little national publicity and a lot less financial support than it did receive in later months.

At this time, COFO stands in the eyes of practically everybody in Mississippi a thoroughly discrited group of people, beatniks and worse. Their personal morals seem to be very low in most cases. Their personal appearance and the fact that they do not take normal sanitary measures have made them unwelcome in almost any business establishment in Mississippi.

It is entirely possible, and probable, that because of the experience of the last few months in Mississippi that when the new assualt begins on Mississippi and Alabama in the Spring that it will be a reorganized type of assualt and that a different type of person will be sought for the job.

It was pointed out by some of the personnel in the COFO operation , through informants which we were able to get, that many of the so-called students themselves had a great deal of difficulty in relating one to the other. This cut down the effectiveness outside their own group. Personal jealousies were evident and actual fights were common in the "Freedom Houses".

Informants said the movement was not only Communist inspired, but that many COFO leaders openly admitted their Communist Party membership. In many cases, not going so far as to admit membership, they admitted great admiration for Castro's Cuba, for Stalin, Lenin, Khrushchev and other of the Communist world leaders and mnay admitted that they were working for a Marxist Society in America.

Along with this it might be noted that all of the COFO workers who expressed themselves, disclaimed a belief in God. In many cases they showed a contempt for institutions of America. They advocated free love and, according to the evidence we have, practiced free love on an inter-racial basis.

All this certainly indicates that there is no permanent basis for a successful operation by this group in the South in its present form. They seem to have miscalculated the tenor of the white people of Mississippi. They mentioned several times that it would be necessary that they get the co-operation of the poor white people of Mississippi in order to combine their voting power with that of the Negroes to challenge what they call a white power structure in Mississippi.

They seemed to feel in the begining that this would be a natural inclination on the part of the poor white people. When this did not marerialize they were at a loss to understand it.

It was interesting to note that COFO workers admitted that they had been unable to involve many white people of Mississippi in their program. They further complained that their acceptance by the Negroes was not, in many cases, what they had thought it would be. They were resented in some places. When they called upon many negro families doors would be closed in their faces. This seemed to belie what they had expected and had been taught; that Mississippi was a benighted country and that all of the state, with the exception of the white power structure, would fall on their knees and welcome them as saviours. This certiinly did not happen.

It seems a fair conclusion that those remaining in Mississippi are generally what might be considered the hard core, paid members of radical organizations, and that this group would comprise a nucleous of any future workers in other states such as Alabama. Because of this the names and identities of the persons who are known to have been operating in Mississippi were obtained by us. This should be of considerable help to Alabama when we must face this same thing; if it comes from this same source, which certainly seems to be the plan right now.

Among the most significant things to me, and maybe the most important, is the make-up of the lawyers committee that is handling these legal matters in Mississippi and a group of doctors which was operating under COFO in a health program. We have obtained the names of these people.

It appears that voter registeration will be the No. I thing in Alabama, with the drive starting in early Spring.

June 1965

This is a follow-up on a report of December 1964, relating to the Civil Rights movement and organizations in Mississippi.

Council of Federated Orgnaizations, (COFO) which was the coordinating group in Mississippi, is virtually out of operation, as we predicted in December, 1964. The Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP) is now the coordinator, and has absorbed COFO, according to a report in the April issue of the cited Communist Front newspaper, SOUTHERN PATRIOT.

The National Council of Churches, reported on last June in a special phamplet prepared by this Commission, continues to play a major -sinister- part in the Mississippi mvoment

The NCC has established a training school at Mt. Beulah, Edwards, Mississippi, to train civil rights workers. We have been able to get investigators into this school and have obtained irrefutable evidence, including pictures, proving that the Edwards operation is closely related to the Highlander Center, in Tennessee. The latter, of course, is an identified Communist training school. Miles Horton, head of Highlander, has been working at Edwards. We have pictures of Horton at Edwards.

Since our December, 1964, report we have established the fact that many of the attorneys working in Mississippi are identified Communists. Several of them have worked in Alabama since our first report. Also, a number of the field workers we identified in Mississippi last year are now in Alabama and several were involved in the Selma-to-Montgomery march.

It has been revealed by the SOUTHERN PATRIOT , and other Communist publications recently, that the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) is actually in over-all charge of all the Mississippi operation. (See SNCC documentation in this report). This radical group is also assuming the major leadership in Alabama, under the background influence of League for Industrial Democracy (LID), and The Progressive Labor Movement (PLM).

As we predicted last year, at least one of the Civil Rights groups has announced it is trying to get a type of worker different to the bearded, smelly beatniks, to conduct voter registeration drives this summer in Mississippi and Alabama. The NAACP is recruiting 500 workers to come to Alabama in July, 1965. They have made it clear they don't want the beatniks, who have marked the earlier activities of the movement.

SNCC, however, has several hundred now in Alabama, and are planning to bring in 1000 more in July and August for their "Long, hot Summer". These SNCC workers will again be the type so familiar to the revolutionary movement.

The current activity of SNCC in Montgomery, and in other counties in which they are concentrating this Summer, is in organizing a type of Union among Negro domestic workers; cooks, waiters and maids. They have held a series of meetings in Montgomery in early June. The activity is under direction of a Negro who lives on South Jackson Street, and he is being helped and advised by a white man from Auburn, Alabama. The purpose of the so-called work boycott is to further stir up trouble in the community by making the domestic workers feel they are being mistreated and under paid.

The same type of work is being carried on in rural areas among farm workers.

SNCC has made a "survey", they say, that shows Negro farm workers make an average of only eighteen cents (.18¢) per hour, and that domestics make less than fifty cents (.50¢) per hour. These figures bear no relationship to the actual figures, but are used for propaganda purposes only.

There is growing unrest among respossible Negro groups over some of the activities and tactics of SNCC in Montgomery. These responsible Negroes are complaining that whites are coming, often uninvited and unwanted, into social gatherings and seem to enjoy "showing off" as mixed couples at dances, clubs, etc. This has all the elements of serious trouble. There is talk among some Negro groups of taking matters into their own hands and driving the SNCC group out of the community. As more and more are brought in, the danger of violence on this front continues to grow.

Added to this problem is the mounting evidence, supported by our own informers, that many of the civil rights workers are engaging in illicit drug rraffic. Locally, we are informed, there is fairly wide distribution and use of certain types of barbituates and benzines, as well as some marijuana.

Investigative sources in New York have documented for the Commission the sale of narcotics, benzines, marijuana and dangerous hallucinatory drugs such as LSD and "Keif". The investigative sources have identified some of the persons active in civil rights activities in Alabama as purchasers of these drugs from a named contact in New York. One named contact sold over $1,500.00 worth of drugs to identified civil rights workers during the weekend of the April 17, march on Washington, according to our investigators.

The groups in the April 17, march "TO END THE WAR IN VIET NAM" were identified by the New York investigators as:

The Progressive Labor Movement
Youth Against War and Fascism
W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of New York University and City College of New York
Young Socialist Alliance
Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee
Congress of Racial Equality
Young Southerners League of the University of Alabama, Mississippi and South Carolina
Society for a Sane Nuclear Policy
Woman's Strike for Peace

plus small representation from a dozen other groups.

These far left groups have strong support in high political circles in New York. On May 14, 1965, they held a drug party at the cooperative apartment on Long Island of a powerful New York politician. The party was sponsored by SNCC. Several persons active in SNCC and other radical Negro groups in Alabama were identified at the party.

The use of "pick-up" drugs seems to be encouraged as a policy by some of the civil rights groups and are used as recruiting tools and as a means of controlling those who become active. A number of nationally known entertainers are

"regulars" at these "pot parties", some of which last three days. Promiscous sex activitees, normal and abnormal, take place at these orgies, as an investigator puts it, "with such frequency as to not even command attention."

The above is pointed out from our raw investigative files only for the purpose of emphasing the extent and caliber of the opposition with which we must contend. Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), deeply influenced by Peking, Hanoi and Havana, is working hard for bloody revolutions everywhere in America, and especially in the South. The group has members working in Alabama now, and plans to send scores more in during the Summer. These PLM leaders are saying the revolution will be comsumated "by the use of armed Afro-Americans from the South and ghettos in the North".

PLM and old-line Communist agitators have physically clashed in both New York and Chicago over who would control local forces in time of riot. Communist leaders are trying to work out a peace formula to keep down an intra-fraternity fight that might hurt the overall cause.

PLM seems to have the upper hand in such youth groups as the Free Speech Movement, which originated on the campus at Berkeley, California; The Students for a Democratic Society and the M-2-M. (This refers to a group formed after student riots in New York on May 2, 1964. The DuBoise Clubs, on the other hand, appear to be under influences of the old line Communitst Party, U.S.A.

In November 1964, John Lewis of SNCC, (see documentation) and ten other members of SNCC, were guests of the Guinea, Zambia, Egypt and Kenya as official guests. There are reports, unconfirmed to date, that finances and certain other help, such as arms were promised some civil rights groups by Ghana.

Lewis was a guest of Ben Bella, noted Algerian Communist leader, last year. This year SNCC plans to play a major role in the World Youth Festival (Communist) in Algeria, July 28-August 7, 1965. These SNCC members attending will be hand-picked by SNCC Executive Secretary, James Foreman.

The evidence is substantial that SNCC does not work toward social reform but complete revolution on the Marxist-Leninest pattern. SNCC uses outright Communist literature, and keeps it on hand at their Freedom Houses. This literature includes, among other publications, The Communist newspaper NATIONAL GUARDIAN, and SOUTHERN PARRIOT. (Our investigators have obtained these two papers from SNCC headquarters).

To indicate further that SNCC is acting on an international scale the group recently made an appeal (a copy was obtained by investigators) to leaders of several African countries urging them to retaliate in any way they saw fit for the "atrocities committed against Afro-Americans in Alabama". The appeal was sent to the following:

Kwame Nkrumah, Accra, Ghana
Jomo Kenyatta, Nairobi, Kenya
Kenneth Kauanda, Lusada, Zambia
Ahmed Ben Bella, Algiers, Algeria
Gamal Abdel Nasser, Cairo, United Arab Republic
Sekou Toure, Conakry, Guinea
Julius Nyerere, Dares Salaam, Tazamania

June 1965

The danger signal cannot be ignored. The Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), now concentrating its major efforts on Alabama, must be watched closely and eventually it must be smashed by legal action, or we will court a major disaster.

FOREWORD

Alabama as one of the five Southern states who carried their revolt against Civil Rights extremism to the polls on Oct. 3, is in the target area for new Negro demonstrations led by such Negro action groups as Congress for Racial Equality, The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

During the early days of the Presidential race just finished, these Negro groups showed callous contempt for the intelligence of the American voting public by announcing that street demonstrations and racial violence would be terminated for the duration of the campaign because it was adversely affecting the chances of the national Democratic Party. By this action, the Negro leadership proved what they have previously denied — that they COULD and DID call the shots on street rioting and lawless demonstrations.

The sound of the last ballot hitting the box had hardly died away when Martin Luther King, of the SCLS, James Farmer, of CORE, and officials of SNCC, gave the word in New York for renewed street demonstrations.

King predicted new demonstrations in Alabama and Mississippi "in the very near future."

The press reported a post election meeting of The Northern Student Movement, financing agent for SNCC, at Columbia University, in New York. William Strickland, leader of the Northern Student Movement, announced plans for massive Summer campaigns such as the Mississippi Project. He said they "will attempt to organize people around poverty." This is to take the form of rent strikes and political organizations among poverty groups in Northern urban areas. King is planning to add his weight to this drive.

Before the election, King sent out appeals for money for new demonstrations. He pointed out in these appeal letters that the deep South would become a rallying point for "right-wing extremists," after the election.

On Ocotber 9, 1964, the NAACP filed papers in Alabama to qualify as a foreign corporation. Peter Hall, Birmingham Negro attorney, was designated as their official agent in Alabama. Fred Grey, Montgomery, was the attorney who handled the filing.

So the stage is set for more lawless demonstrations. It is for this reason we offer the following evidence.

COMMUNISTS IN CIVIL RIGHTS
October 20, 1964

Communists have been assuming leadership roles in the civil rights movement, promoting violence, racial hatred and widespread law violations.

This charge was made and documented by the Alabama Legislative Commission to Preserve the Peace as early as February, 1964. Now the accuracy of these charges are being documented from one side of the nation to the other by such outstanding authorities as J. Edgar Hoover, of the F. B. I.; U. S. Senator James Eastland, of the Senate Internal Securities Sub-Committee and Representative James B. Utt, Republican Congressman from California and a man most alert to the threat of Communism in America.

These men have been backed up by such national news columnists as Joseph Alsop and others, including Drew Pearson. After the Harlem riots of July 1964, the deputy mayor of New York charged that known Communist Party members were active in causing strife in New York.

On September 18, 1964 Mr. Hoover released a report on the major riots in the East, and concluded that they had not been organized on a national basis by any individual or groups.

Civil rights leaders such as Roy Wilkins, of the N.A.A.C.P., James Farmer, of C.O.R.E., Martin Luther King, of the S.C.L.C., quickly seized on the report to say the F.B.I. Chief had found there were no communists in the Civil Rights movement.

Mr. Hoover neither said nor implied this. As a matter of fact, he pointed out in his report that such openly violent and subversive groups as the Progressive Labor Movement; Black Muslims; and members of the Communist Party U.S.A., were identified as taking part in the riots.

The Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) was described by Hoover as a Marxist-Leninist group following the more violent Communist Line. One of its organizers is a former Secretary of the New York Communist Party, Hoover pointed out.

On July 16, 1964, according to the F.B.I. report, this Communist and his P.L.M. group, distributed thousands of copies of a handbill containing the photographs of a New York Police lieutenant under the headline; "WANTED FOR MURDER." This policeman had fired in self-defense and killed a negro youth who was advancing on him with a knife and refused to heed a warning shot to stop. The policeman was subsequently cleared of all blame by a New York Grand Jury.

Hoover's report also said:

"Another officer of the P.L.M., also a former member of the Communist Party, U.S.A., resigned from the party because it was not sufficiently revolutionary, and organized a number of groups in the Harlem area in New York City early in the Summer. These groups were to be prepared to exploit incidents and were alerted to that end. Two days after the shooting above referred to this individual arranged a street meeting in New York City announcing there was going to be a demonstration, 'not necessarily peaceful,' and that he and his followers, 'were going to kill cops and judges,' that 'no revolution can be won by peaceful means' and that this state must be smashed 'totally and completely.'

"A negro who formerly was organizer of the Harlem Region of the Communist Party U.S.A. achieved wide-spread publicity early this year through leadership of rent strikes. Three days after the shooting on July 16, this individual issued a public call for 'a hundred skilled black revolutionaries who are ready to die' to correct what he called 'police brutality.'

"The Communist Party U.S.A. does not appear to have officially instigated these riots though its members were observed taking part in some and its former members are leaders of P.L.M., the Labor Vanguard and other such groups.

"For example, two individuals with histories of Communist affiliations were instigators and leaders of the riots in at least two of the cities in New Jersey. Neither of these men appears to be more than a local and comparatively unimportant independent agitator with an organization which can claim only a few members at most. Neither of them started the riots but they capitalized on them and tried to continue them.

"In another city, one agitator with a racial background was found eleven separate times haranguing crowds in a riot area, shouting falsehoods about abuse of the people in the neighborhood and inciting further and more violent riot action."

In the face of this mounting evidence, Negro leaders have hotly protested that no Communists were active in their movement. Rev. Martin Luther King, who has been closely aligned with known Communist Party members for many years, retorted in Greenwood, Miss., that "there are no more Communists in the Mississippi Summer Project than there are Eskimoes in Florida." King, himself, has amassed the staggering total of more than 60 Communist front affiliations since 1955.

King also said again that there are no Communists in his Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

King was wrong on both counts, and he knew he was wrong and untruthful when he made the statement.

With King at the time he made the statement was Bayard Rustin, who served as King's executive secretary for three years and still acts as advisor and right-hand-man on many of King's projects.

Rustin was a young Communist leader and, by his own admission in an interview published in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST in July, was a Communist Party organizer for twelve years.

Rustin has a long criminal record, including a case in which he pleaded guilty to an act of perversion in California, and another where he served a federal sentence as a draft dodger. At the time King declared there were no Communists in his movement or in the Mississippi projects, Rustin was with him and shared the platform with him.

Hunter Pitts O'Dell, who took the fifth amendment before the House Un-American Activities Committee, and who was identified by witnesses as a Communist Party member, worked for more than a year with King's S.C.L.C. Movement. King repeatedly denied that O'Dell was connected with his organization until the facts were proven otherwise, then he admitted that O'Dell had been employed by the S.C.L.C.

King, himself, has been virtually surrounded by Communists or Communist fronters since 1955. While running a "Religious Hootenanny", no man in America has received more praise or more space coverage in such Communist newspapers as THE WORKER and PEOPLE'S WORLD, as has Martin Luther King.

When King promoted the summer riots in Birmingham in 1963, police identified and photographed a number of known Communists and suspected Communists in King's supporting groups.

The invasion of Mississippi by hundreds of beatniks, do-gooders and misfits, gathered mostly from college campuses, was organized and supported by Negro civil rights groups and The National Council of Churches. Among the Negro groups were Congress of Racial Equality, (CORE); The Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC); The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC).

The invasion has drawn support from Walter P. Reuther, of the United Auto Workers, and from a host of red-front groups, such as National Lawyers Guild and American Civil Liberties Union.

Now Congressman Utt has revealed that the Communists were also behind the planning and implementation of the invasion. The names he called in Washington on July 29 put the Communists to bed with the National Council of Churches, CORE, ANCC, Reuther and the rest:

"Invasion of Mississippi by expeditionary forces from other states was carefully planned by the Communist conspiracy for civil disturbance beyond the ability of a single state to provide protection . . .

"If this is accomplished in Mississippi, it will spread into other states with destructive effect upon freedom in liberty.

"The cunning Communists have been able to entice fine Americans to do their work, but the guiding hand is still the Communist conspiracy," said Utt.

Utt, whose remarks were put into the Congressional Record, named Frank S. Pastana as a lawyer working with the 'invaders' in Drew, Mississippi. Pastana and his wife were among the Americans to defy the State Department's ban on travel to Cuba in 1962. He was also identified by Utt as having been an instructor in the People's Education Center, identified by the California Committee on Un-American Activities as a Communist School.

Others named by Utt included Maynard Omerberg, working with Pastana, and identified by the Congressman as having a long record in reports of the House Un-American Activities Committee; George Crokett, a Detroit attorney sent to Mississippi by the National Lawyers Guild (idenified in sworn testimony before Senate and House committees as a legal arm of the Communist Party). Crokett, Utt revealed, had represented the chairman of the Michigan Communist Party in the Smith Act Trials in New York.

Martin Popper, a long-time Communist Party attorney, was revealed by Utt to be in Mississippi as attorney for the family of Michael Schwarner, one of the three slain civil rights workers.

Popper, incidentally, is so well recognized as an important legal aide to the Communist Party, that his mere presence in the Mississippi project would be sufficient to mark it as a Communist sponsored activity.

Also identified by Utt was Benjamin Smith, who registered as an agent for Fidel Castro under the foreign agents registration act, and serves as an officer of the identified Communist front, Southern Conference Education Fund.

Both Utt and Sen. Eastland identified other known Communist or Communist Party line followers in Mississippi. The evidence clearly supports the charge that the civil rights movement in Mississippi is Communist dominated.

Earlier in Alabama Joanne Grant, a Communist reporter, was active in Talladega in civil rights demonstrations, along with such other officially identified Communist Party members as Carl and Ann Braden and James A. Dombroski. Joanne Grant was represented in an injunction suit in Talladega by Victor Rabinowitz, a Communist Party attorney, fifth amendment Communist and identified Communist Party member.

Other identified Communist Party leaders known to have been active in civil rights activities in Alabama and the South include James E. Jackson, Joseph North and Mary Southard.

The Communist Party declared its involvement in the civil rights struggle on June 28, 1963, in a letter sent from THE WORKER, and signed by Louis Weinstock and James E. Jackson, to party members.

The Communist, in that letter, pleaded for financial support.

The following is an excerpt quoted from that letter:

"With the enfranchisement of the Negro masses in the South the Democratic Party will acquire an influx of millions of militant working-men and women, steeled in the great struggle of the civil rights revolution. These sworn foes of the Dixiecrats and fighting partisans of social progress all down the line, by their political action in 1964, may well contribute to giving our nation a genuine new birth of democracy.

"Nothing in the affairs of our nation is more important than this great struggle that is rolling over our country like a mighty wave.

"Our paper has spared nothing to bring you the story of, and the inspiration from, this great revolutionary democratic struggle which is making radical changes in our nation in our days. By so doing we have rendered a distinct and unique service to the unfolding struggle which is highly regarded and deeply appreciated by outstanding fighters on the front lines of the numerous battles."

The F.B.I., in a report issued last spring, took note of the Communist infiltration and leadership of civil rights action outside the South. The report covered Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis, New York, San Francisco and Yellow Springs, Ohio, called names and listed incidents.

The following activity was outlined in that report:

CHICAGO

The Communists made efforts in 1963 to infiltrate the local CORE group. It pointed out that several local Communists were identified in picket line demonstrations at the Board of Education and at construction sites for temporary classrooms. Among those active was Charles McCord, one-time head of the 42nd Ward Communist Club, and associate of Claude Lightfoot, Communist Party vice chairman. Lightfoot, officially second in command of the Communist Party nationally, also took part in the demonstrations during January, 1964.

Another identified Communist active in the demonstrations was Eugene Feldman, one time editor of THE DAILY WORKER.

CLEVELAND

The mayor of Cleveland in April, 1964, sent to the U. S. Department of Justice a list of 31 persons active in civil rights demonstrations, who also were active in subversive organizations. In a story in the CLEVELAND PRESS of April 25, one man on the list was identified as Eric J. Reinthaler. Reinthaler was serving as co-chairman of CORE in Cleveland. He had been released from federal prison at Milan, Michigan on July 19, 1962, after serving a 15 month sentence for violation of the non-communist affidavit section of the Taft-Hartley Act. Reinthaler had previously served as Ohio Valley secretary of the Communist Party.

ST. LOUIS

CORE was active in leading the demonstrations in St. Louis. William S. Massingale, who also took active part in the CORE directed sit-ins was a Communist Party candidate for alderman in 1943, and was once vice-chairman of the Communist Party in Missouri.

NEW YORK

Jesse Gray, of Harlem, has been active in civil disorders in New York and led a rent strike in Harlem this year. He took the fifth amendment before the House Un-American Activities Committee on February 3, 1960, to questions of whether he had been a Communist Party member up until the morning of his testimony; whether he had been or was then an executive officer or representative of the Communist Party in Harlem. Gray was arrested in Chicago June 30, 1964, during a demonstration directed by ACT, a new and violent civil rights group.

(Gray, incidentally, has been featured on a recent national TV show on the Harlem riots, and advocated continued direct action by Negroes in violation of laws, court orders or police directives.

The same network has provided a forum for numerous incendiaries, including Malcolm X, of the Black Muslims, and Mrs. Victor Rabinowitz, who appeared on the show along with the parents of two of the slain civil rights workers in a documentary called "Search in Mississippi."

The major TV networks have shown bias and total irresponsibility in presentations of civil rights affairs, by allowing known communists and seditionists to speak unidentified before the American people, attacking our American institutions, our police and other constituted authorities, and further stirring up hatred, strife and lawlessness.)

SAN FRANCISCO

The report outlined civil rights activities in this West Coast City, in which more than 400 persons were arrested during sit-ins and demonstrations at hotels and automobile showrooms during March and April, 1964. It pointed out the demonstrators were neither peaceful nor law-abiding.

This predominately young group in San Francisco included such Communist or Communist associates as Tracy Sims, 18 year old militant Negro girl, who shares an apartment with Rosanne Forest, daughter of Jim Forest, one-time Communist Party leader in St. Louis, and with Linda Carlson, daughter of Frank Carlson, a long-time active Communist party functionary in Los Angeles. Rosanne Forest was among those arrested along with Tracy Sims. A number of others identified either as Communists or relatives of known Communist Party members, were active in San Francisco. These included Mark Comfort, son-in-law of Robert Black, identified in 1953 as a Communist Party member; Carl Granich, son of "WORKER" columnist Mike Gold; Nora Lapin, daughter of the late Adam Lapin, one-time correspondent for "THE DAILY WORKER"; Bettina Aptheker, daughter of Herbert Aptheker, identified communist and editor of the communist publication POLITICAL AFFAIRS. Also arrested were Terrence Conn and Mathew Hallinan, sons of Vincent Hallinan, San Francisco attorney and 1952 presidential candidate of THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY ticket. (The Progressive Party has been identified as the Communist Party's bid for political power under another name.)

OPEN INVOLVEMENT

The Communist Party in San Francisco did nothing to hide its activity in the civil rights field. It formed a new Communist youth group there, after transferring its organizational meeting from Chicago. Keynote speaker at the organization of the Communist group was Rev. Milton Galaminson, Brooklyn militant leader of school desegregation and advocate of "Mixing" by transporting Negro and white children by bus to all parts of the city to bring about this mixing. Galaminson has advocated unlawful acts of all kinds and was one of those given nation-wide exposure on July 29, on a national TV documentary along with Gray, James Farmer, of CORE, and others.

Among those who issued the call to form the Communist youth group were Tracy Sims and Michael Myerson, of the "Ad Hoc Committee to End Discrimination". The latter group organized the San Francisco demonstrations.

The close amalgamation of this Communist youth group with CORE, one of the most militant of the left-wing groups, was shown by the fact that the following members of CORE were identified in the Communist youth group in official press releases:

Robert Baum, CORE in Minneapolis

Edward Campbell, vice chairman of CORE in Bridgeport, Conn.

Edward Reftwich, CORE in Bridgeport, Conn.

Michael Sheidrick, CORE in Paterson, N. J.

The group took the name of "Du Bois Clubs of America". The name was in honor of W. E. B. DuBois, one of the NAACP founders and later an open and admitted member of the Communist Party of America.

YELLOW SPRINGS, OHIO

This is the home of Antioch College, almamater of many reds and noted Communist fronters. On March 14, 1964, following violent demonstrations by several hundred students, police had to use clubs and tear gas to break up the mob.

One of the prime ring-leaders arrested and placed under bond was Joni Rabinowitz, daughter of Victor Rabinowitz, identified earlier. Her father came from New York to offer his services in defense of the students, just as he had done when Joni was tried for perjury in Albany, Georgia, in November, 1963. Joni, at that time, had avowed she would defy the State Department ban on travel to Cuba.

We could go back further to identify such known red-fronters as Dr. Walter Bergman, of Illinois, and James Peck, an employee of CORE who led the Freedom Riders in a violence-punctuated bus trip into Alabama and the South in 1961.

We could point to the host of home-grown Communist or Communist-line followers, who have been active in the civil rights movement. Among those we would list Aubrey Williams, of Montgomery and now of Washington, who has been identified as a Communist and who has served on half a hundred red fronts, including the notorious Southern Conference Education Fund, and was recently honored by Communists in New York for his work in trying to abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

We could point to Clifford Durr, Montgomery attorney, and his wife, Virgina, both of whom have been active in many red front organizations. Clifford Durr and Williams were two of the signees of a petition to the 87th Congress in 1961, calling for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. They were joined in this petition by a host of identified Communist and veteran fellow travelers, including Harry Bridges, Louis Untenmeyer, John M. Coe, Donald S. Frey, Dr. Linus Pauling, and Dr. Martin Luther King.

The facts beyond dispute prove that you can hardly speak of the so-called civil rights movement without mentioning the ever present, ever active Communist fronts which support it. One would have to disregard either the facts or truth to disassociate one from the other.

In other studies we have documented in depth the fact that the 1964 civil rights bill was copied from the Communist Party platform of 1928, and that two of its authors and sponsors, Rep. Emanuel Celler, of New York, and Sen. Paul H. Douglas, of Illinois, have records of long service to and association with the Communist conspiracy in America.

On January 29, 1964, F.B.I. Director Hoover appeared before the House Subcommittee on appropriations, in justification of the F.B.I.'s appropriation request for 1964. He dealt in much detail on the Communist program in America and the tactics employed to use the racial struggle to its own advantage.

On page 37 of that report, Hoover said:

"Currently, the Communist Party, U.S.A. is stressing such domestic issues as the racial struggle; the abolition of all internal security programs and of congressional committees investigating communism . . ."

On page 38:

"The party is always alert for domestic developments which it can exploit to add to its operating capital. A typical example occurred in May 1963, when a party official told the members of the party's national board that the racial unrest in this country presented an excellent opportunity to start a fund drive to raise up to $10,000 in order to finance Communist Party activities among Negroes . . ."

On page 40:

"Turning to the subject of Communist interest in Negro activities, the approximately 20 million Negroes in the United States today constitute the largest and most important racial target of the Communist Party, U.S.A. The infiltration, exploitation, and control of the Negro population has long been a party goal and is one of its principal goals today.

"In this drive, Negroes have, over the years, been subjected to intensive and extensive Communist agitation and propaganda. The Communist Party has always depicted itself to Negroes as the champion of social protest and the leader in the struggle for racial equality . . . Controversial or potentially controversial racial issues are deliberately and avidly seized upon by Communists for the fullest possible exploitation. Racial incidents are magnified and dramatized by Communists in an effort to generate racial tensions. As a result, such campaigns are actually utilized as a stepping-stone to extend Communist influence among the Negroes . . . The Communist Party is attempting to use the Negro movement, as it does everything else, to promote its own interest rather than the welfare of those to whom it directs its agitation and propaganda.

"The party is continually searching for new avenues in order to expand its influence among the negroes. In particular, it has sought ways and means to exploit the militant forces of the Negro civil rights movement. (emphasis supplied.)

"The number of Communist Party recruits which may be attracted from the large Negro racial group in this Nation is not the important thing. The old Communist principle still holds: 'Communism must be built with non-Communist hands'.

"We do know that Communist influence does exist in the Negro movement and it is this influence which is vitally important. It can be the means through which large masses are caused to lose perspective on the issues involved and, without realizing it, succumb to the party's propaganda lures." (emphasis supplied.)

These statements were made by Mr. Hoover several months before the riots brought his predictions to fullfillment.

In September, 1964, Gus Hall, head of the Communist Party, U.S.A., published a pamphlet called "THE ELEVENTH HOUR—DEFEAT THE NEW FASCIST THREAT." In this 22-page booklet, Hall makes much of the Communist Party's concern in civil rights, its part in pushing the Negro "FREEDOM NOW" movement. Hall expresses fear that conservative forces, "reactionaries" he called them, may prevail unless the militant left is more active. He blasts Goldwater, Gov. George Wallace, the F.B.I., the C.I.A., the Birch Society, and all others to the right of center.

"The racism of white supremacy is now mixed with the anti-democratic currents of fascism," Hall complains.

Further proof of the interest and involvement of the Communist in the Misissippi Project is furnished by the following excerpts from THE WORKER, official organ of the Communist Party, U.S.A.:

On September 22, 1964, page 3, of THE WORKER, was a story by Daniel Rubin, Communist youth leader, who was then in attendance at a Communist World Youth Forum, in Moscow. Rubin listed another American in attendance as Reginal Robinson, whom he identified as "among the leaders of SNCC in Mississippi". Carl Beloice, Publications Director of the DuBois Clubs of America, was also at the conference.

The August 4, 1964, edition of the Communist news organ carried a story on page 3, pointing out that newspapers, including the JACKSON CLARION AND LEDGER, had carried stories charging that Communists were active in Mississippi. The story pointed out that the newspaper article had charged that James Dann and Dale Gronemeier, both from Los Angeles, were pro-Communist and had Communist front records.

On the same page of THE WORKER, were separate stories and pictures on Mrs. Victoria Gray, leader of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party, and of Mrs. Fannie Lou Hamer, the party's candidate for election to Congress from the Second District. The article said Mrs. Hamer's candidacy was sponsored by SNCC.

On page one of the same paper on August 4, was a story date-lined Greenville, Mississippi, and written by one of the freedom workers. This shows the close contact between SNCC, the National Council of Churches, and the Freedom Democratic Party, all deeply involved in the registration drive:

". . . There is a minister and his wife (both about 60 years of age) from The National Council of Churches, and a librarian who came down to put our books in shape . . . I slept in the home of Mrs. Victoria Gray, candidate for the Senate of the Freedom Democratic Party which we are organizing and for which we are trying to get registered voters."

On August 30, 1964, page 10, THE WORKER carried a story about the death and funeral of Mrs. Gil Green (Lillian). Green and his wife were both noted Communists and Gil Green has held many of the highest offices in the Communist Party of America during the past 30 years. The story noted that it was requested no flowers be sent but that contributions be made to the Mississippi freedom fighters."

The SUNDAY WORKER, September 6, 1964, page 6, carried in its letters to the editor column, a letter from a student in Muncie, Indiana. The student sent a small contribution to THE WORKER, and apologized that he could not do more financially. Then he noted:

". . . I did manage to raise from a rally on July 8, enough contributions to send $25.00 and a donated typewriter (brand new) to COFO in Jackson, Mississippi . . ." (COFO is Council of Federated Organizations, an association of civil rights groups working in the Mississippi Project.)

Throughout the Summer and Fall, THE WORKER reported the work of the Mississippi Project volunteers in glowing accounts, clearly indicating the Communist Party's approval and support of this project. This, and the presence of so many identified Communist Party members and pro-Communist groups, proves beyond a doubt that the project has high priority on the Communist action agenda.

THE WORKER recently made an appeal for funds in which it said: "Many of you, too, support our right to publish because of our unwavering position on civil rights. For you know the role this newspaper has played since the time of freeing of the Scottsboro boys which marked the beginning of a new stage in the long crusade for full equality. This paper was the first to be fully integrated, has had Negro editors and staff members throughout the years, and today has as its editor-in-chief, James E. Jackson, a leader of the Negro people."

During the red-inspired "Mississippi Summer Project" Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., an attorney for Walter P. Reuther's United Auto Workers, was sent into that state by Reuther to furnish legal assistance to those arrested for violation of Mississippi's laws. Rauh, one of the founders, along with Hubert H. Humphrey, of the far-left Americans for Democratic Action (ADA), was further noted for his defense of convicted Communist perjurer, William Remington. Rauh will also be remembered as the man who worked so hard to throw Alabama and Mississippi delegates out of the Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City last August, and to seat the Negro Freedom Democratic Party.

It is interesting to note the frequent use of two expressions in almost all recent Communist publications and writing. These phrases are "FREEDOM NOW" and "ONE MAN, ONE VOTE". This latter slogan originated in Africa where both Chinese and Russian Communists were stirring up illiterate mobs to take over existing, non-Communist governments.

It is significant that this phrase, and the phrase "FREEDOM NOW" have become the rallying cry for the most militant civil rights groups in the United States. It is frightening that the U. S. Supreme Court adopted the "ONE MAN, ONE VOTE" policy in overthrowing long existing state legislative bodies, patterned after the two-house legislative body of the United States itself. The court has made it clear in recent opinions that it is using the Communist-created slogan as a legal yardstick in its decisions.

The pattern of the Comunist racial program clearly emerges in the present Civil Rights struggle and its violent by-products.

As a host of federal police push forward to enforce all the freedom-killing provisions of the Civil Rights Bill, and while militant Negroes and Communists push violent demonstrations and riots for ever more and more advantage over the white majority, we must at least know our enemy.

The facts establish beyond any peradventure of a doubt that the major role of the Communist in America in 1964, is being played out within the framework of civil rights.

BAILING SERVICES:

Through the services of the National Council, over ninety (90) people have been released on bail from arduous and severe prison situations, the youngest in his early teens, and the oldest over seventy. The Commission, with the assistance of the Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, were able to secure the services of a national lending company for the first time to put up money for Civil Rights cases in Mississippi.

"Currently," the Commission reported," in co-operation with local and state councils and churches, teams of Civil Rights and Religious Leaders are touring six mid-western states-----

"The Commission Staff has counsulted frequently with the JUSTICE DEPARTMENT and other governmental agencies,-National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, National Urban League, Congress of Racial Equality, The Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee.

"The Commission sponsored a joint advertisement with Freedom House on "The Crisis in Race Relations" in the August 25th issue of the NEW YORK TIMES.---In co-operation with the Broadcasting and Film Commission, a four-part series on the race issue was prepared for broadcast on the CBS television program "Look Up and Live", Oct. 6, 13, 20, 27.

"The Commission on Religion and Race represents one of the important decisions of the church during the past few months to move into more direct involvement in the scandalous racial controversy that divides the nation---The Commission finds itself at the end of four months more deeply engaged in the struggle than many felt possible----

"The church is not in a position to schedule the pace of the racial revolution sweeping the country. Events have pushed the Commission all summer long, as is evident from the summary of where we have been involved. The freedom movement and the resistance to it have deep grass roots and no single force in the country can control or contain the struggle.

"Despite the new alertness on the part of the churches to the legitimate demands for civil rights, the gap between most white church people's understanding of the issues and the concerns of the Negro freedom movement continues to widen. Actually there has been more talk about civil rights in the past few months than actual achievement. Many white people begin to profess fear that Negro rights are being obtained too fast. And yet in most communities, little progress in public accomodations or voting rights or housing have been achieved. And every time there is another shocking murder or brutality, the chill sinks deeper into the Negro's being.

"In certain parts of the country fanatical white supremacists have stepped up their hard-core resistance to Negro civil rights. The parallels between this situation and conditions which prevailed in Germany when the Nazis took over are frightening in the extreme. There exists now clear evidence that these 'master-race' believers control state governments and employ both a gestapo and extra-legal mob action to enforce their will. What is more shocking, in some cities they are able to compel churches and ministers to preach an heretical doctrine of man, which condones segregation and distorts the Christian faith. Both Negroes and whites who do not submit to their view are subject to harrassment and threats to their lives."

Under FUTURE WORK the Commission says:

1. We need to increase the facility of the Commission to move swiftly to areas of crisis and tension. We need to increase the field staff so that it can effectively mobilize local and regional church resources to avert destructive conflict between Negro action groups and white vested interests. This can only be accomplished by the establishment of open communications between the contending groups on an equal basis. In many communities, only the outside help of a trusted group can bring this about. Only the local groups can eventually solve the conflict, but the universality of the christian church is an asset in breaking down the barriers of intense local feeling. There are many more calls for this kind of assistance than we can possibly meet. There is no question but what the intensity and frequency of local conflict will increase. We have established our effectiveness in this important ministry of reconciliation. We must not relinquish it.

2. We must do a more effective job of interpreting the depth of the grievances which the Negro bears to the white community. The increase of police brutality, the use of local ordinances to deny Negroes their constitutional rights have been amply documented to us this summer. With our eyes and ears we begin to know some of the horror that thousands are experiencing. The whole nation must be constantly informed. As part of this responsibility, the Commission proposes to invite a panel of distinguished Americans to meet in Washington in late November to hear testimony on police brutality in civil rights cases this past summer. These cases are often beyond federal jurisdiction, and are frequently not reported in the newspapers.

3. The Commission with the help of the member communions must prepare the churches for the fullest confrontation with the consequences of the sin of racial hatred. In too many places the interpretation is allowed that the present crisis is a 'political' matter only, and that the church's involvement in it is extraneous and interventionist. The full theological and moral canon of the church is threatened by segregation according to race. When people are denied entrance to public worship on that ground, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ is mocked.

We must develop ministries of gospel interpretation to those who hold erroneous views of biblically blessed segregation. We must also be prepared to resist pressures and threats of withdrawal of financial support if accomodation is not made to sanctioned racial descrimination. Such a firm stand must not itself become retaliatory or self-righteous. The lines are being more clearly drawn, however, by the events of our common life. The church's faithfulness to the Word and its servant ministry in the racial struggle are inextricably bound. The future of our evangelical mission in the American scene rests on the clarity of our word and deed--the measure of our faithfulness to Christ.

4. The member communions must continue to see this racial crisis as a priority concern.--- Our close consultation with the government, our association with other national groups, an effective legal liasion, large scale programs of redevelopment, legislative representation, can only be done co-operatively.----

The Commission's budget for 1964 is $248,960, which is at least $100,000 less than what is needed.---There are many long range programs to which we ought to be giving our attention. One, for example, is a massive home mission based kind of operation in the Mississippi Delta, the hard-core area of racial discrimination in the South. It is a problem that affects the north, however, because so many Negroes are forced to migrate north from that area in order to survive. The problems here, however, are more than simply the right to vote, although that is basic. They are economic and welfare problems. They also are educational. Why cannot the vast resources and know-how of Protestant home mission interests be turned to the healing of this dreadful cancer in the midst of the nation? "

On April 16, 1964, the Commission of Religion and Race issued a two-page report related to 'Student Involvement in the South, Summer of 1964....An Appeal for Help in Screening.' It was sent to presidents, deans and religious advisors of colleges, universities, and seminaries. It said in part:

"The summer of 1964 will find an unprecendented number of students working in some phase of the movement for civil rights. Estimates run into the thousands. In The New York Times, Friday, March 20, James Reston reported that 'over 1,000 students from various colleges and universities, most of them affiliated with the Northern Student Movement, will be going to Mississippi, Alabama, and Louisana this summer to live in Negro homes and help the Negro to vote.'

"It is apparent that the summer of 1964 will be a time of serious crises. The tremendous number of students who will seek and accept summer assigments is but one factor contributing to crisis. In addition, there are such related factors as an extended filibuster on the civil rights legislation now pending in the Senate, the substantially increased participation by local Negroes in civil rights programs, the continued resistance to social change in both northern and southern parts of our country, and the anger and fear in southern states towards the rumored 'invasion' by students, and the growing impatience of the Negro leadership with the slowness of progress.--- it is crucial that those of us who work directly with students do all we can to help insure that students who volunteer are adequately screened and trained, and that they are intelligently and responsibly related to existing programs designed to meet such massive needs as literacy training, voter education, voter registration, citizenship education and community development.-----

"In the face of the problems discussed above, attempts to provide screening, orientation, and training are going forward, Some of the civil rights, religious and other organizations, particularly where numbers are small, will carefully select, orient, and train the applicants for their projects.

"In addition, the National Council of Churches' Commission on Religion and Race has agreed to undertake a program of orientation and training. A number of organizations are requiring their volunteers to attend this orientation program when no other training is available.------

"We have agreed to train students out of the conviction that the church has the responsibility to do everything possible to avert violence; out of the recognition that organizations recruiting large numbers of students will find it difficult to provide orientation and training; out of the need for people trained in skills like literacy education and voter registration; and out of the belief that orientation and training will benefit not only organizations operating projects and the students, but also the states where projects are taking place.------ "

The above excerpts from the N.C.C. and its' racial Committee, demonstrate clearly that the National Council of Churches has been and will be, promoting, directing and helping to finance the racial demonstrations this summer.

It also proves in the words of the N.C.C. that it approves, fosters, and urges the breaking of laws which IT considers to be unjust.

From other sources and from the public press, we know that students are being recruited...hired is a better word... off the college campuses to lead the invasion of Dark Dixie.

After looking at what the N.C.C. is doing through its' Commission on Religion and Race, let's take a closer look at the NCC itself.

In 1960, James Wine, Associate General Secretary of the N.C.C. protested to Hon. Dudley C. Sharp, Secretary of the Air Force, that its Air Reserve Center Training Manual charged the N.C.C. was associated with or influenced by the Communist Party, and that there were Communist Anti-Religious activities being carried on in some Christian churches and church religious institutions. The Air Force withdrew the training manual and apoligized to the N.C.C.

The House Committee on Un-American Activities then called a hearing on the matter. Secretary Sharp was the princiapl witness. (Hearing before the HCUA, Feb. 25, 1960). On page 1303 of the Hearing Record, Richard Arens, Staff Director, HCUA, made the following findings:

".....Thus far of the leadership of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, we have found over 100 persons in leadership capacity with either Communist Front records or records of service to Communist causes. The aggregate affiliations of the leadership, instead of being in the hundreds, as the chairman first indicated, is now, according to our latest count, into the thousands and we have yet to complete our check, which would certainly suggest on the basis of the authoritative sources of this committee that the statement that there is infiltration of fellow travelers in churches and educational institutions is a complete understatement."

On Oct. 15, 1963, the N.C.C. held a testimonial meeting at Carnegie Hall to honor Dr. Harry F. Ward on his 90th birthday. Dr. Ward, founder of the Methodist Federation for Social Action (officially identified as a Communist front), was long active with the N.C.C., and its predecessor, the Federal Council of Churches. He has been officially identified as a member of the Communist Party; was a close friend and confident of Eugene Debs, Founder of the U.S. Socialist Party, and William Z. Foster, head of the Communist Party of America. He was head of Union Theological Seminary for many years, and is credited with influencing many ministers toward his "Social Gospel" and the Communist Party.

Karl Prussion, former F.B.I. counter-spy, testified that the Communist Party in Michigan tried to recruit him to the Protestant Ministry while he was a student at Wayne University. Prussion said he was told that Dr. Ward, at Union Theological Seminary, would make all arrangements for him to enroll as a student at the Seminary.

In 1961, The United Youth Movement, of the N.C.C., published a phamplet by William Cole Graham, called "The Meaning of Sex in Christian Life." In slang expressions, this phamplet virtually advocates the flouting of sex standards by un-married teen agers, and endorses their revolt against such standards. To quote from one paragraph of the phamplet:

"Our culture declares that all sexual activity within marriage is legal, proper and good, while any such activity outside marriage is illegal, sinful and wrong. This is to ignore the personal demensions of life, to seek to force everyone under ome massive legal umbrella. You know and I know perfectly well that there are many marriages that are simply matters of convenience that such sex as goes on within them is selfish, exploitative, and evil.

"We know further, that there is sexual contact between Unmarried couples that is motivated by love and which is pure and on occassions beautiful.

The above is to review only sketchily the scope and nature of the activities and teachings of the National Council of Churches. This group claims to represent 38 protestant denominations and to speak for 40,000,000 christians. It has and does, draw its funds and substance from all protestant denominations in some way, wither directly through donations and church budgets, or through the sale of literature, including almost all that is used in Sunday school and Bible studies.

The N.C.C. also approved the revised edition of the Bible, and draws royalty therefrom. Of the 99 ministers who worked on the revision, 30 have been exposed as having records of Communist front activity.

On Nov. 18-21, 1958 the N.C.C. sponsored the Fifth World Study Conference in Cleveland, Ohio. The President of the N.C.C., Dr Edwin Dahlberg, was a delegate, as were most of the top officials of N.C.C. The Study Conference adopted a resolution urging American recognition of Red China, one of the principal aims of all Communist groups in America during the past 10 years.

Contrary to popular belief, The Nationl Council of Churches does not operate as a 'Super Church' and is more of a political pressure group than a religious federation. It maintains a strong lobby in Washington. It is deep in political meddling and social irresponsibility, as shown by its clear history, and enjoys the status of a tax exempt institution. It was active in support of abolishing public prayer in schools.

Further proof of its deep and direct involvement in the often violent and always lawless social demonstrations has just been furnished this Commission by Police Chief Virgil Stuart, of St. Augustine, Fla. Police there obtained documented evidence that the financial backing for the demonstrations was sent to St. Augustine in large money-orders by the N.C.C. from its National Headquarters. Cashier checks, in the amount of nearly six thousand dollars ($6,000) were sent back un-used to the N.C.C. from St. Augustine.

The conclusions are clear. The citizens who support their churches from a feeling of reverence and responsibility, are also being unwittingly used by the N.C.C. in its attack on racial integrity and individual freedoms in the South.

THE 1964 CIVIL RIGHTS BILL

. . . ITS PATTERN

. . . ITS ARCHITECTS

PREPARED BY THE STAFF OF

THE ALABAMA LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION TO PRESERVE THE PEACE

By authorization of that Commission in a resolution adopted March 11, 1964

Representative JOHN H. HAWKINS, Chairman
Senator JAMES S. CLARK, Vice Chairman
Senator E. O. EDDINS
Representative ALTON TURNER
Representative HUGH A. LOCKE, JR.

MRS. MAVIS HICKS, Secretary

In the reconstruction era following the War Between the States the Congress of the U. S. passed a series of Civil Rights Bills, many of which bear remarkable similarity to the proposed 1964 Civil Rights Bill.

In 1883 certain of these acts dealing with private property were considered by the U. S. Supreme Court and in a majority opinion written by Justice Bradley were held to be unconstitutional. The court further held that the congress received no authority under the 13, 14, or 15th amendments to enact such legislation.

The only difference in the approach taken by the 1964 bill is in the fact that it seeks to draw its authority under the Commerce Clause of the Constitution rather than from these amendments.

In his opinion Justice Bradley could well have been speaking to the Congress today when he said:

"When a man has emerged from slavery, and by the aid of beneficient legislation has shaken off the inseparable concomitants of that state, there must be some stage in the progress of his elevation when he takes the rank of mere citizen, and ceases to be the special favorite of the laws, and when his rights as a citizen, or a man, are to be protected in the ordinary modes by which other men's rights are protected."

No bill ever seriously urged in the Congress of the United States has presented so bold an attempt at creating a federal dictatorship through the executive branch as does the proposed Civil Rights Bill of 1964.

The bill is little understood by the American public. It was conceived in secrecy, revised in a conspiracy of silence, mislabeled as a "moderate approach" and is urged on the Congress as a pig in a poke. It is couched in language so obscure of meaning as to open a vast new field of federal court interpretation and executive construction. Even the House Committee on the Judiciary, in a minority report, complained that committee members opposed to the bill were unable to know the full content and import of the bill before it was favorably reported to the House for passage.

Starkly silhouetted from the careful verbage, however, are the following facts, which we feel to represent the complete anthesis of everything American; a dire threat to individual freedoms it purports to assure; a bold grab for power, and totally unwarranted either by good judgment or circumstances.

1. The bill would virtually eliminate the use and enjoyment of private property—the fundamental right that has set America apart from the slave states.

2. It would remove the constitutionally guaranteed right of trial by jury by substituting a "master" to hear complaints originating under the act. It further makes it almost impossible for an individual to challenge the provisions of the act by imposing upon such a losing litigant the burden of all cost of such lawsuit INCLUDING THE ATTORNEY FEES INCURRED BY THE OPPOSING LITIGANT.

3. By requiring racial, ethnic and religious "balance" in employment, it places upon industry, business and labor unions an impossible burden. In practice, this provision could mean federal control of every facet of such business, industry or labor organization.

4. It would open the flood gates to endless litigation which could mean financial ruin to any business or industry which might be frequently ACCUSED of violating its provisions, whether or not there was basis in fact for such accusation.

5. It would effectively place under federal control the operation of every local school system in the United States, making non-elected judges absolute arbiters in all matters pertaining to the operation of such school systems.

6. It would create a vast new network of federal enforcement personnel; enable such federal appointees, in many instances, to act against a person's liberty or property without due process of law, thereby creating the machinery for a police state.

There are so many objectional features of the act, not here covered, as to make the entire bill unacceptable, even through remedial amendments. The argument that the enforcement of its provisions would be with "restraint" does not make the act any more acceptable or platable. Once such a bill is enacted, interested groups will press for full enforcement as fast as the new "super-government" could be set up.

This is not an anti-South bill. It is an anti-American bill. Its provisions would fall as heavily upon the North as upon the South. The loss of personal liberties would fall equally upon all races, religions and ethnic groups. The loss of semi-sacred right of ownership and enjoyment of private property would apply equally to the Negro and to the white owner.

In its subtle attack upon labor unions through elimination of apprentice programs and seniority rights, the bill would destroy the effectiveness of such unions in their representation of membership.

In the platform of the WORKERS' (COMMUNIST) PARTY OF 1928 WE READ A MILDER FORM OF THE 1964 CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

On May 25, 1928, the Party, adopted a 12-point national platform dealing with the race issue. These communist goals enumerated then have remained the goals of the communist actionaries in America ever since, as will be shown.

1. Abolition of the whole system of race discrimination. Full racial, political, and social equality for the Negro Race.

2. Abolition of all laws which result in segregation of Negroes. Abolition of all Jim Crow laws. The law shall forbid all discrimination against Negroes in selling or renting houses.

3. Abolition of all laws which disfranchise Negroes.

4. Abolition of laws forbidding intermarriage of persons of different races.

5. Abolition of all laws and public administration measures which prohibit, or in practice prevent, Negro children or youth from attending general public schools or universities.

6. Full and equal admittance of Negroes to all railway station waiting rooms, restaurants, hotels and theatres.

7. Federal law against lynching and the protection of the Negro masses in their right of self-defense.

8. Abolition of discriminatory practices in courts against Negroes. No discrimination in jury service.

9. Abolition of the convict lease system and of the chain gang.

10. Abolition of all Jim Crow distinctions in the Army, Navy and civil service.

11. Immediate removal of all restrictions in all trade unions against the membership of Negro workers.

12. Equal opportunity for employment, wages, hours, and working conditions for Negro and white workers. Equal pay for equal work for Negro and white workers.

It is well to keep in mind that this is not the Civil Rights Bill of 1964. It was the platform of the Communist Party some 36 years ago.

The Civil Rights bill of 1964 does not contain all parts of that platform, because some of them have long since been enacted into federal law. But the bill under debate now goes much further than even the communist demands, in fact, a careful reading of the 1964 Civil Rights Bill makes the Communist Party Platform seem most conservative.

To show that the communist party has held firm to its 1928 line, the National Committee of the Communist Party issued a statement on Oct. 5, 1955, which read in part:

"Most important is the further strengthening of a great united movement based on the maximum mobilization of the Negro People and their organizations, with the united support of the Labor Movement. Simultaneously the Communist will play their part in helping to guarantee the participation and the militant initiative of the Left.

"Pass civil rights legislation! End segregation! Full equality for the Negro people—now!"

THE COMMUNIST MANIFESTO ON PRIVATE PROPERTY

"The distinguishing feature of Communism is not the abolition of property generally, but the abolition of bourgoise (i.e. capitalists) property. But modern bourgoise private property is the final and most complete expression of the system of producing and appropriating products that is based on class antagonisms, on the exploitations of the many by the few; in this sense the theory of the Communist may be summed up in the single sentence: Abolition of private property."

The quotes above and below from the Communist manifesto, finds expression in Titles II, VI and VII, of the Civil Rights Bill.

" . . . In a word, you may reproach us with intending to do away with your property. Precisely so. That is just what we intend."

"It is (the bill) in the most literal sense, destructive of the very essense of life as it has been lived in this country since the adoption of our Constitution." (Minority report, House Committee on the judiciary.)

" . . . bourgoise family will vanish as a matter of course when its complement (property) vanishes, and both will vanish with the vanishing of capital."

"The undersigned members of the Committee believe it wise to demonstrate, by example, the effect of this legislation on people; to demonstrate, by example, the mourning of lost liberty; to demonstrate, by example, the power in this bill to completely dominate the lives of even the least of us." (Minority report, House Committee on the judiciary.)

"In bourgoise society capital is independent and has individuality, while the living person is dependent and has no individuality . . . and the abolition of that state of things is called by the bourgoise abolition of individuality and freedom! and rightly so. The abolition of individuality, bourgoise independence and bourgoise freedom is undoubtedly aimed at . . . "

" . . . The proletariat will use its political supremacy to wrest by degrees all capital from the bourgoise; to centralize all instruments of production in the hands of the state . . . of course in the beginning this cannot be effected by means of despotic inroads on the rights of property . . . "

This Bill "constitutes the greatest grasp for executive power conceived in the 20th Century." (From minority report, House Committee on the judiciary.)

"The Communist revolution is the most radical rupture with traditional property relations; no wonder that its development involves the most radical rupture with traditional ideas . . . " (See Civil Rights Bill generally.)

The Civil Rights Bill will cause our "fireball of Liberty to spin into darkness." (Minority report, House Committee on the judiciary.)

" . . . But Communism abolishes eternal truths, it abolishes all religion and all morality, instead of constituting them on a new basis; it therefore acts in contradiction to all past historical experiences . . . "

It can be seen from this that the proposed bill embraces and embodies virtually every facet of that platform and the principal objectives set out in the communist manifesto. But far more important, the proposed civil rights bill goes far beyond these proposals of the Communist Party platform of 1928 in that it abolishes the right of trial by jury and makes an even more forceful attack upon private property rights.

Every conscientious American should respect the right of any other American to be wrong on occasion. It is in this spirit that we herein briefly sketch the back-ground of two of the architects and promoters of the 1964 Civil Rights bill. In this the Commission does not attempt to place guilt or to impute Un-American motives to either of the two men or to any other person who might endorse or promote the bill. It is done in the hopeful suggestion that if these men could have been wrong, or misled in their past decisions and associations, the possibility is inescapable that they may be wrong in their advocacy of the present civil rights bill.

"What has been dissilusioning is the manner in which they (the Communist) have been able to enlist support often from apparently well meaning but thoroughly duped persons." (J. Edgar Hoover)

"Every man has his value, his merit. The writer, who without being a party member, defends the Soviet international policy, is worth more than a thousand party members." (George Dimitrof, to the Lenin School of Political Welfare.)

Senator Paul H. Douglas of Illinois

While a professor at the University of Chicago, the man who is now senator from Illinois compiled an impressive list of associations with group and individual identified with the communist apparatus or the communist "solar system" of fronts.

He was a member of the Socialist Party in the early 1930s and headed the campaign committee for Norman Thomas in Chicago in 1932.

He was on the executive committee of the International Labor Defense (officially identified as a legal arm of the communist party for the defense of arrested revolutionaries.).

He signed the petitions for freedom for Sacco and Vanzetti, 1928, and was on the defense committee for Mary Ware Dennett, 1931, exposed for her alleged unamerican activities in war time in the Lusk Report.

In 1931 he was chairman, Chicago branch, American Society for Cultural Relations with Russia cited by HUAC as a Communist Front.

He was on the advisory commission of Chicago Workers Committee on Unemployment, a subsidiary of the Socialist League for Industrial Democracy. This group conducted a Worker's training school, in 1933, and was co-sponsor in October, 1932, of a "hunger march" in which the Communist Party participated and displayed hundreds of revolutionary placards and soviet emblems.

He was a member of the technical staff of the First American Trade Union Delegation to Russia, 1927. This group was repudiated by the American Federation of Labor and was warmly reported in the Communist Press, including the Daily Worker and Federated Press. The delegation issued a series of reports entitled "Russia After Ten Years", published by the Communist International Publishers, and a second report "Soviet Russia in the Second Decade", sold by communist book stores and recommended by the Soviet Information Bureau (See March, 1931 issue, "Soviet Union Review"). The book report was edited by Stuart Chase, Rex Guy Tugwell and Communist Robert W. Dunn, all members of the delegation.

After William Green, president of the A.F.L. had repudiated the delegation, Jay Lovestone, national secretary of the Communist Party, in the party's convention in New York in 1927, stated that the Communist had been able over the protest of President Green, of the A.F.L. to send a labor delegation to Russia.

Douglas was co-author with Communist Robert W. Dunn of a chapter "The Trade Union Movement" in the book "Soviet Russia in the Second Decade."

He was on the Berger National Foundation advisory board. This was a Socialist organization set up in honor of Victor L. Berger (convicted for sedetion) and its purpose was explained by notorious athiest and communist fronter, Clarence Darrow. In accepting presidency of the foundation March 1, 1931, at the National Press Club in Washington, D. C., Darrow said, "It is of paramount importance that we establish our own press as quickly as possible. There is every evidence of the emergence of working class forces in this country . . . "

The announced aims of the foundation were "to honor the memory of the late Victor L. Berger. Its founders believe that this can best be done by rendering effective aid to these minority causes to which he devoted himself for four decades . . . by the buildng of a newspaper press which will mobilize public opinion in behalf of the ideals for which liberals, progressives and peace advocates contend."

In 1934 Douglas was on the committee of the militant socialist Conference for Progressive Political Action. Robert Moses Lovett and Upton Sinclair were well known communists who were active in the conference. Douglas served as temporary chairman for the group at its initial meeting at the University of Chicago.

This group praised Soviet Russia and damned capitalism, and adopted as its platform "public ownership of the means of wealth production" and called for the "nationalization of money and credits", and of public utilities and of various basic industries. The collapse of our present capitalist system was predicted and the scrapping of our constitution proposed to abolish what they called "absentee ownership of property." The masses were urged to rise and take control.

Douglas served on the advisory committee of the Garland Fund Committee on American Imperialism, in 1925. Two studies were made by the committee that year, one was on American Investors in Cuba, Santo Domingo and Bolivia. Two other studies published in book form under auspices of the committee were by well known communist Party members, Scott Nearing, called "Dollar Diplomacy" and Robert W. Dunn, called "American Foreign Investments".

The Garland Fund, also known as the American Fund for Public Service and as the "Free Love Fund" (because its founder served a prison term in Massachusetts for running a "free love farm") was set up by a radical, Charles Garland, for the expressed purpose of "promoting radical causes."

The fund contributed mlllions of dollars directly to known communist causes. The fund report shows some of the disbursements as follows:

Daily Worker, $57,000; New Masses, $64,-500; Vanguard Press, $139,000; Federated Press, $76,000; Russian Reconstruction Farms, $34,000; International Labor Defense, $54,-000; Brookwood Labor College, $115,000; Commonwealth College, $25,000. Other sums were given to the Young Workers League (later Young Communist League); support of the communist-led Gastonia strike; the Labor Research Association; Novy Mir, Russian communist paper of New York; the International Workers of the World, the American Civil Liberties Union, and the NAACP. All but the last two are definitely identified as communistic.

Some identity of the directors of the fund are enough to indicate its fully communistic character. They include William Z. Foster, Scott Nearing, Elizabeth Flynn, Robert W. Dunn, and Benjamin Gitlow, all national functionaries of the Communist Party.

Samuel Gompers solicited help from the Fund for a legitimate labor cause and was turned down by Roger Baldwin, fund chairman, who said in his letter of rejection "we do not see our way clear to financing any enterprise except those definitely committed to a radical program . . . "

Senator Douglas has in past years allowed his name to be associated, actively or passively, in many other radical movements in addition to those listed here. As a distinguished senator, we feel sure he considers many of these to be indiscretions of the past. But he is today one of the strong proponents of the most drastic piece of legislation ever proposed in America. Isn't it time for Senator Douglas and his fellow members of the Senate to stop and consider their actions before a step is taken that could well be irrevocable?

Congressman Emanuel Celler of New York

Without reviewing the history of the notorious Garland Fund listed above, we begin by pointing out that Congressman Celler was also connected with the Garland Fund in the same capacity as Sen. Douglas.

Celler was also associated with such other identified "fronts" as The Consumers Union, founded by Arthur Kallett, identified as a communist under the name of Edward Adams.

Greater New York Emergency Conference on Inalienable Rights, in which were found such noted communist and "fronters" as Manning Johnson and Bella Dodd, (they both since then rejected communism), Veto Marcantonio, Paul Kerns, Max Yergin and Doxy Wilkerson. The organization was identified by the House Committee on UN-American Activities as being associated with the National Negro Youth Congress, American Youth Congress, International Commission on African Affairs, League of Women Shoppers, American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born and the National Lawyers Guild.

He was a sponsor of the National Committee to Combat Anti-Semitism. This committee had many pro-communist and fellow travelers associated with it, and its membership was interlocking to a remarkable degree with the National Citizens Political Action Committee, an identified communist front. The National Committee to Combat Anti-Semitism was labeled by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as Communist infiltrated.

Celler was a sponsor in May, 1943 of the Celebration of 15 Years of Biro Bidjan (a Jewish colony in the Soviet Union). The prored nature of this affair was evidenced by the wide "front" associations of its chairman, Max Levine, its secretary A. Jenofsky, and some of the other sponsors, notably Ben Gold, Louis Winstock, M. Stern, Max Bedacht, Alexander Bittleman, Louis B. Boudin, Peter V. Cacchione, N. Buchwald, Dr. Bella V. Dodd, and Berta Gersten. Some of the above were identified communists.

Celler also served as sponsor on the Ambijan Committee for Emergency Aid to the Soviet Union, which was headed by Max Levin and Joseph B. Boudin, and on the dinner committee for The American Committee for the Settlement of Jews in Birobidjan.

Congressman Celler has allowed his name to be associated, actively or passively, with a number of other groups infiltrated by communist or well-known fellow travelers.

The Civil Rights Bill of 1964 passed the House of Representatives under the guidance of Cong. Celler, isn't the fact of his past mistakes in associations and judgment sufficient cause to give pause in consideration of the bill now in the Senate?

We want to emphasize that this is not for the purpose of imputing improper motives to either of the gentlemen above mentioned. Their past activities and associations were enumerated to sound a warning signal in the consideration of this bill. Similar backgrounds could have been listed for at least some of the other members of the Congress, found in active support of this measure.

We submit the following conclusions:

1. The 1964 Civil Rights Bill follows in marked degree the Communist Party Platform of 1928, but is more radical.

2. It seeks to accomplish many of the precepts set forth in the Communist Party Manifesto, especially in the sections dealing with private property.

3. Found among its authors and active leaders, both in the Congress and out, are persons whose past associations with pro-communist causes are marked.

4. In its enforcement, the bill would greatly diminish, or abolish, the rights of every American, of whatever race, religion or economic state, and would set in motion the feared machinery of a police state in frightening similarity to the courses followed by countries now in Communist enslavement.

5. The proposed act is repugnant to the constitution and the Bill of Rights, and runs counter to prior decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court.

SUBJECT: CIRM

On August 7, 1965, CG 5824-S*, who has furnished reliable information in the past, provided to SA RICHARD W. HANSEN the following information.

According to the source, the knowledge of the following information is extremely limited and, in fact, it is known in total to only GUS HALL, JAMES JACKSON, HENRY WINSTON, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, and the source. While NY 694-S* knows of the withdrawal and payment of funds to subsidize O'DELL, he is not officially aware of the purpose to which this money was to be placed. Accordingly, the Chicago Office feels that any use or dissemination of this information outside the Bureau at this time could possibly seriously jeopardize either CG 5824-S* or NY 694-S*. CG 5824-S* stated in connection with this information that this matter was considered by all involved as highly confidential and as one not to be discussed under any circumstances except with the individuals involved.

During the course of the National Board meeting of the CP, USA, held in New York City during the period July 16-19, 1965, JAMES JACKSON, Editor of "The Worker," contacted CG 5824-S* during one of these days for a discussion which lasted for approximately one and one-half hours. One of the things JACKSON did at this time was to tell him that the Party could not let HUNTER PITTS O'DELL go, and JACKSON noted that O'DELL was now on the verge of leaving New York City and looking for another job. He said that if O'DELL left, the Party would lose his full services for Freedomways, Inc., as well as his talent and work in the civil rights movement. The Party, according to JACKSON, could not find a better man for these tasks. JACKSON stated we must do something and we should do something to subsidize him. He asked the question, "Why don't you do something?" CG 5824-S* replied that all he could do was possibly use what influence he had but that he had no money and could make no decision in this connection. CG 5824-S* then asked JACKSON "what do you want me to do? What do you intend to do?" JACKSON's response was well maybe he would take this up with GUS HALL. At this point, CG 5824-S* suggested to JACKSON that he felt it might be best for him to talk to WINSTON on this matter first and then possibly to LIGHTFOOT. When JACKSON had done this, CG 5824-S* suggested that perhaps they, JACKSON and WINSTON, could jointly present this suggestion concerning some help to O'DELL to the Party as a considered opinion of the collective. CG 5824-S* told JACKSON that if he was asked, he would agree to the suggestion being made by JACKSON.

The source noted that the foregoing was the full extent of the discussions held at that time on the O'DELL matter. However, JACKSON apparently did go ahead and do something on this matter and must have talked to WINSTON as well as LIGHTFOOT. It is assumed that he talked to LIGHTFOOT because LIGHTFOOT had raised this same matter in Chicago. When LIGHTFOOT raised this matter, he was told JACKSON had previously mentioned it in New York. Apparently, also following the National Board meeting, JACKSON as well as WINSTON must have gotten ahold of GUS HALL and talked to him about the situation involving O'DELL. It is assumed that as a result GUS agreed to the proposition to do something financially for O'DELL.

When CG 5824-S* got back to New York on July 30, 1965, JACKSON immediately got ahold of him and said he wanted to thank him for what he had done on the O'DELL matter. CG 5824-S* told JACKSON "Don't thank me, I didn't do much." Parenthetically speaking, the source noted at this point that as a matter of fact he did absolutely nothing regarding the O'DELL matter and had not mentioned JACKSON's conversation to HALL or anyone else within the CP, USA. JACKSON, however, apparently had the impression that CG 5824-S* had a part in getting HALL's approval. HALL undoubtedly approved this because it had been a joint recommendation of WINSTON and JACKSON and his approval authorized turning over $5,000 to O'DELL. This $5,000, according to JACKSON and HALL, will now be used by O'DELL in connection with his work. He is, in fact, being subsidized by the Party as the Party man in the civil rights movement. There are no restrictions on this money and no matter where O'DELL gets located, he is guaranteed this $5,000. He can use it any way he sees fit and is not limited as to its disposal.

Based on the above, it is apparent that O'DELL must now be considered once again by the CP, USA leadership to be a Party activist although he has not attended National Committee or other meetings of leading Party bodies.

RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to memoranda dated June 26, 1965, at Newark, New Jersey, and July 9, 1965, at Albany, New York, captioned as above.

Records of the Department of Motor Vehicles, State of Vermont, Montpelier, Vermont, reflected that Vermont registration [redacted] which was observed near Newark City Hall during the captioned demonstration on a car bearing a sign with the words "NCUP Car", was registered to Kate H. Lynn, Bennington College, Bennington, Vermont, for a 1964 Volvo sedan. b6 b7C

Bennington College records reflected that the parents of Kate H. Lynn were Mrs. Molly Howe Lynn and Mr. Myron Leonard Lynn. These records further reflected that the father and mother of Kate H. Lynn were divorced in 1946.

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Myron Lynn, also known as Mike Lynn, was a full time paid Communist Party organizer, at Albany, New York, from September, 1950, to March, 1951.

A second source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised during December, 1954, that he had learned during 1954 from another Communist Party member whom the informant considered to be well acquainted with Communist Party activities in the Albany area, that Mike and Dorothy Lynn were re-activated in the Communist Party some time between November, 1953, and May, 1954.

DEMONSTRATION BY STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY, CITY HALL, NEWARK, NEW JERSEY, JUNE 26, 1965

The informant stated that Myron and Dorothy Lynn had been expelled from the Communist Party prior to December, 1952, because they had moved from Albany to New York City without consulting the Communist Party.

Re Chicago quarterly report of SA Darwin E. Thornton 7/30/65.

The following observations are being brought to the attention of your office for its future guidance in preparing reports in captioned matter.

The Bureau has noted a tendency on the part of your office to submit reports in this matter which are unnecessarily lengthy. Specifics set forth below concerning rerep will serve to illustrate.

On Pages 5 and 6, there is set out a listing of a number of organizations with a prefatory statement that characterizations of these organizations appear in the latter pages of the report. This statement and listing were for the obvious purpose of eliminating the necessity for constantly repeating throughout the report statements to the effect that characterizations are contained in the Appendix. It was found, however, that this streamlining device, which is of considerable merit, was not fully implemented in that statements appear throughout the report to the effect that characterizations of named organizations appear in the Appendix. Examples are on Pages 13, 17, 30, 35, 37, 38 and so forth.

Page 29 is extraneous as it reports no information. Note original Bureau instructions relative to CIRM reports which state that "no pertinent information developed" should be reserved for main headings for sections denoted by Roman numerals.

Many pages (42-69, 79-84, 90-96) are devoted to lengthy lists of the names of individuals who were arrested in connection with civil rights demonstrations. Only a very small percentage of the many listed had subversive backgrounds necessitating characterizations of those individuals. The names of individuals arrested, if those individuals did not fall into the "subversive" category, should not have been included in rerep as it is obviously not pertinent to CIRM. Further, these lengthy lists were previously submitted to the Bureau by LHMs.

Pages 7 and 8 contain information concerning meetings of the Communist Party, USA, National Negro Commission which were held in New York City. This information need not have been reported as it was activity which took place in New York City and concerning which the New York Office fully reported. This observation is further underscored by the fact that the information in your report emanated from New York and Baltimore informants.

Pages C - K contain documentary information concerning the numerous informants utilized in rerep. Considerable needless typing was done of the term "Characterization of." For example, on Page C relative to T-3 it was necessary only to say "Characterization of" and then list the numerous individuals concerning whom T-3 supplied characterizations.

An observation in another vein is noted. Synopsis states that Claude Lightfoot "was to attend the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) Convention, Denver, Colorado." Lightfoot's intentions were reported on Pages 11 and 21-24. The Convention took place in June, 1965, and the matter appears to be "hanging in the air" in so far as rerep is concerned. It would have been well to have included some information to the effect that Lightfoot did, in fact, attend the Convention, which he did.

Please bring the foregoing observations to the attention of Special Agent Thornton with the request that a conscientious effort be made to keep quarterly CIRM reports as concise as possible, yet without prejudice to reporting of essential information.

Sources noted in the LHM are as follows:

First source - [redacted] b7D
Second Source

This report is classified ~~confidential~~ inasmuch as it contains information from sources of continuing value, identification of whom could adversely affect the national security.

To date information received regarding the Central Area Youth Action Council (CAYAC) has been insufficient to meet the criteria set forth in the Manual of Instructions, Section 87-E, pertaining to investigation of subversive groups. A control file is maintained in Seattle and activity followed so if sufficient CP infiltration develops, appropriate investigation will be conducted.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On August 11, 1965, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised as follows:

During the latter part of July, 1965, leading members of the Northwest District Communist Party (NWDCP) were in contact with Youth members of the NWDCP regarding the CP program in Seattle's predominantly Negro Central District or, as it is sometimes called, the Central Area. As a basis for discussion, there was prepared a "Guidelines for Discussion" which considered the development of the Youth movement in the Central District. NWDCP State Board and Youth leaders discussed how the CP could assist the development of the Youth movement in the Central District. The "Guidelines for Discussion" emphasized "the necessity of a strong independent mass Youth movement closely linked with the over-all movement in the Central District."

Source advised that among the CP leaders involved in the above discussions were MARY and MILFORD SUTHERLAND, Members of the State Board, NWDCP, BURT NELSON, Chairman, NWDCP, CAL HARRIS, VIVIAN GEORGE, members of the North Central CP Section, and the following members of the King County Youth Club of the CP: WANDA HUBBARD, CAROLYN BURDICK, MIKE RUBICZ, and JOHNNY WEBB.

On October 9, 1963, a second source who has furnished reliable information in the past identified CAL HARRIS as a member of the CP in Seattle, Washington.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

The first source noted above advised that during the discussions between the NWDCP leadership and the CP Youth, comments were made to the effect that the Central Area leadership is now easier to work with and more responsive to the demands of the community. It was stated that the Central Area Youth Action Council (CAYAC), was not making some of the mistakes of the former Central District Youth Club (CDYC) which had failed to try to work with Central Area leadership.

Reference was made to the forthcoming trial of individuals involved in an altercation on June 20, 1965, which resulted in the fatal shooting of ROBERT REESE, a Negro, by an off-duty Seattle policeman. No specific mention was made of a demonstration to be held that day; however, it was inferred that some type of activity will take place on the date of the trial. The date, August 16, was mentioned in this connection.

VIVIAN GEORGE was stated by the first source to have shown she was very pleased with the progress of the Freedom Patrols. This reference was to groups set up by Central Area civil rights leaders to observe the functioning of the Seattle Police Department in the Central Area. According to the first source, MIKE RUBICZ stated CAYAC was only a small part of the entire Central Area and that it needed the help of the adult community to progress. His statements were in the midst of many others to the effect that CAYAC is the best vehicle for creating a Central Area Youth movement. The first source advised there has been dissatisfaction with RUBICZ as a leader of CAYAC and a large reduction in members recently.

The CDYC is characterized in appendix pages attached hereto.

On May 3, 1965, the first source above advised that MIKE RUBICZ has stated that CAYAC is a club involving Central Area Youth and that its goal was to represent all the Central Area Youth and to belong to all Central Area Youth. RUBICZ stated there were about 25 members with a ratio of three to one Negroes over whites. RUBICZ described CAYAC as a multi-issue organization which grew out of interest in the

On August 2, 1965, Cheif Ralph Petrone, New Brunswick, New Jersey Police Department, advised that Jack Wysoker, Attorney, [redacted] and who resides in [redacted] had informed him that he was representing the Community Action Project (CAP), Hiran Street, New Brunswick, New Jersey, in their complaints that the New Brunswick Police have been harassing CAP members.

Petrone explained that CAP is an organization which began activity in New Brunswick, New Jersey, about a year ago and had as its objectives the helping of underprivileged both young and old living in this city. The leaders of CAP are Rutgers University students according to Petrone. He stated that recently CAP has made demands on the city government for better recreational facilities and more police protection in the city housing projects. They have appeared numerous times before the mayor and the city council and even though it was clearly pointed out to them that the city could not meet all of their requests, they continued to press the city government.

Petrone stated that CAP has been holding meetings in its headquarters on Hiran Street and recently a CAP member was arrested by the New Brunswick Police Department for obstructing and interfering with the police who were investigating a complaint that wine was being served to minors at CAP headquarters. Petrone stated that based on this incident, CAP is contending that his department is harassing them. Although no formal complaint has been made by CAP on this matter, Petrone stated that Wysoker stated that he wanted to meet with the department officials to discuss this allegation.

Re Bureau airtel, 8/13/65 and Los Angeles airtel to the Bureau, 8/14/65.

On the mid-afternoon of 8/15/65, [redacted] advised b7D that a meeting of the Moranda Smith Section (MSS), Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP), was held earlier that day in a private home in Los Angeles presided over by DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP, with BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary, SCDCP and WILLIAM C. TAYLOR, Vice Chairman, SCDCP, among those present. The group also included representatives from the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs in Los Angeles who are CP members.

HEALEY reported to the meeting that she had received a call from ROBERT THOMPSON, member of the National Committee, CP, USA, instructing her to prepare some articles for publication in "The Worker" concerning the riots in Los Angeles. DOBBS and TAYLOR are to assist her and the articles will be slanted to play up the "police brutality" angle and to place the blame of the riot on Los Angeles Mayor SAM YORTY, Chief of Police WILLIAM H. PARKER and County Supervisor from the riot district, KENNETH HAHN.

Persons present at the meeting were instructed to contact as many CP members and members of sympathetic groups as possible to "pack" the meetings on 8/16/65, the next day, of the Los Angeles City Council and Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. Attempts will be made to get the floor at both meetings and raise the issue of "police brutality." BEN DOBBS was assigned the responsibility of co-ordinating activities at the Los Angeles City Council meeting and WILLIAM TAYLOR is to handle the same duties at the Board of Supervisors meeting.

On 8/15/65, [redacted] advised that the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs in Los Angeles are scheduled to hold a meeting at 8:30 p.m., 8/15/65 at the Venice West Coffee House, Venice, California, which is owned and operated by the DuBois co-ordinator in the Los Angeles area, JOHN HAAG. Purpose of the meeting was to hear a report from someone from the riot area who would give a "true picture of what has really been going on." Also at the meeting, plans will be made to collect food to be distributed throughout the riot area and methods of raising funds would be discussed to insure adequate legal defense for persons arrested for rioting. Also scheduled for discussion was some means of correcting the "horrible distortions" which have appeared in the press and on radio and TV concerning the rioting.

Members of the Committee to End the War in Vietnam have also been asked to attend this meeting.

The Bureau was advised immediately by teletype of the above two meetings and local police agencies and military agencies were advised and an LHM is being submitted.

Pursuant to instructions in referenced Bureau airtel, Los Angeles will keep the Bureau promptly advised of pertinent developments under the CIRM caption.

On August 13, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dora McDonald (Secretary to Martin Luther King, President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) and Stanley Levison were in contact on that day concerning the rioting in Los Angeles, California. In that regard, McDonald said King had been contacted by a radio station in Los Angeles, who urged that he issue a statement appealing to the Negroes to end the rioting. She said that King, in turn, had requested that she contact him (Levison) and request that he prepare a statement dealing with the matter. According to the source, Levison prepared the following statement:

"I know that you have grievances that are hard to live with - I know that any Negro can reach the end of his patience and want to strike out and strike back. But it is not courage nor militancy to strike out blindly. Our enemies have always hoped that we would lose our heads and riot against the guilty and innocent alike. This enables them to argue that we haven't decency or good sense. I speak to you as one who had to march with other Negroes against guns, clubs, dogs and whips and who won victories over cruel and barbarous sheriffs and klansmen. We won victories because we had a greater weapon - disciplined cool heads, and iron determination not to provoke into violence. Our adversaries have always known what to do when we lost our heads - it gave them a chance to beat our heads. They have never known what to do when we refused to be sucked into the trap of violence.

"Tonight the whole world is watching you. If you want all America to respect you, if you want the world to know that you are men, put down your weapons and your rocks. Get a committee together to draw up demands. If you want my help I will sit with you and plan how to improve your conditions.

"Negroes in the South were not less oppressed than you and we have run Jim Crow from thousands of places without using a rock or a bullet. We made millions of white Americans sick and ashamed of their practices and by our discipline won many to our side. You are harming yourselves, not the segregationists. Tonight in the South, the segregationist is delighted. He has made you lose your temper and for a few moments of emotional excitement and relief you are conducting yourself without reason, without a name and without a goal. You are not an army of Negro people if you fight without reason. Our people are not rioters and are not looters. Come back to our ranks where there is room for honest courage and militancy.- where real and permanent victories have been won and will be won in the right way.

"The man who cools off, who puts down his weapon and stands up with only his body is the man of courage. Don't let us down here in the South. Don't discredit brave Negroes in jails in Johannesburg. Don't set yourself back. You can still win a great victory by halting the fighting because there is more honor and dignity in looking the other side squarely in the eye and demanding your rights than there is in struggling in blind fury. In the name of brave Negroes who have died in the South over the past ten years of bitter struggle, I appeal to you to end the hostilities so that together we can march forward for real gains for our people everywhere".

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 14, 1965, that Bayard Rustin (organizer of the March on Washington), and Martin Luther King were in contact on that date. Their contact, according to the source, dealt with the rioting in Los Angeles. King told Rustin that he was on his way to Puerto Rico to deliver a speech, and that upon arrival he would issue a press release dealing with the situation in Los Angeles, therefore, wanted Rustin's suggestions on the matter. Rustin suggested to King that the following points should be contained in any statement to the press:

"That we deplore resorting to violence no matter who is engaged in the violence because it is wrong and socially destructive. That while we deplore violence, we also deplore the concentration of the ghetto life which leads, with the absence of jobs, bad education and slums, to the hopelessness and despair where the Negro youth, out of these conditions, feel that they have no stake in American society". Rustin suggested in reference to that point, that King make mention of President Johnson's conference scheduled to be held in November, 1965, which will deal with the whole ghetto and family life problem, by stating that he hoped new and stirring ideas would emerge from the conference.

In continuing his suggestions, Rustin said that King should point out that, "Rightly or wrongly, whether or not there was, in fact, police brutality in Los Angeles, almost every Negro in every family has, at one time or another, felt that he has been maltreated by the police; therefore, in addition to the social problems, in every city there needs to be a civilian review board. This board is to protect the policeman when he is right and to protect the citizen when the policeman is not right".

King and Rustin both remarked that they had been asked to go to Los Angeles to help suppress the riots, but both opined that they would not be able to be of much assistance since the situation had deteriorated to such a point that it was a job for the National Guard. They ended their contact by speculating on whether or not they would be of any help subsequent to the riots.

The same confidential source furnished information on August 14, 1965, which disclosed that Rustin and Roy Wilkins (Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, NAACP) were in contact on that date concerning, among other things, the rioting in Los Angeles. In that regard, Rustin said a number of Ministers in Los Angeles, who had done nothing (to end the riots), were putting pressure on King to come to Los Angeles to aid in quelling the riots. Rustin said King was going to Puerto Rico to speak, but had airline tickets to travel to Los Angeles on his way back from Puerto Rico. Rustin said King would do nothing but create more confusion and embarrass himself if he went to Los Angeles. Wilkins concurred, adding that if King did go to Los Angeles, he would be regarded as an emissary sent to quiet the rioters.

NY The source advised on August 14, 1965, that Rustin and Harry Wachtel were in contact on above date. During their contact, Wachtel spoke in regard to the rioting in Los Angeles, stating that he was not unhappy because the "power structure acts as if they are only dealing with King and they are not, they are dealing with guys who are easily incited, who live in stinking conditions". Rustin said he had dissuaded King from going to Los Angeles at this time.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

Close contact has been maintained with informants in the security field, particularly those who are in the Communist Party (CP), since the outset of the rioting which started on the night of 8/11/65, and to date, there is no indication of subversive involvement or direction in the rioting or that the CP intends to participate in any way.

[redacted] advised on 8/13/65, that at a meeting of section organizers, Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) held on the evening of 8/13/65, BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary, SCDCP, instructed those present to stay away from the riot area and that the SCDCP would take no action until things had calmed down, at which time "they" would know how to proceed. Two Negro CP members present at this meeting were specifically instructed by DOBBS to stay out of the riot area. b7D the rioting began. [redacted] has been alerted since the outset of the rioting and this informant knows of no domination, direction, or involvement by the CP in the rioting.

[redacted]-PSI advised on the night of 8/13/65, that the Muslim leadership in Los Angeles has issued instructions to their members not to get involved in the rioting and to keep out of trouble. The Muslims are pleased at what is happening in Los Angeles but are not to participate in the rioting.

[redacted] advised on 8/14/65, that the DuBois Clubs, Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, Women for Legislative Action, Women's International Strike for Peace, Socialist Workers Party, and other GROUPS had been called on to start a continuous picket line in front of the police administration building in Los Angeles, commencing 8/14/65. According to another, source, [redacted] the idea originated with the DuBois Clubs in Los Angeles. [redacted] advised on 8/14/65, that the only ones participating in the picket line on that date as of early afternoon were members of the Socialist Workers Party.

Racial sources have been contacted concerning the rioting and none of them have any information that the CP is involved in any way in the rioting.

Logical informants have been given specific assignments to attempt to determine if the CP is in any way involved, or will become involved in the rioting. Close contact will continue to be maintained with sources and the Bureau advised.

A review of the NYC telephone cross directory reflects the following additional listings for 124 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, New York:

Church Army Training Center
Trinity House

Records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, reviewed on 7/21/65, by [redacted] at the request of IC [redacted] reflected only the following information concerning STEIN and no other background data:

b6

WILLIAM S. STEIN
124 Pierrepont Street
Brooklyn (residence)

Church Army
157 Montague Street
Brooklyn, New York (employment)

Pretext inquiry at 124 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, New York, on 8/9/65, reflected that the Church Army Training Center is used to train workers of the Episcopal Church for work in the Metropolitan New York area, and Trinity House is a residence connected with the Holy Trinity Church (Episcopal), located on the corner of Montague Street and Clinton Street, Brooklyn, New York, adjacent to the aforementioned Church Army Training Center.

On 7/31/65, NY 3810-S* advised that an attempt was made to contact the STEIN at NYC telephone number 227-7695. At that time, the caller was told that the STEIN was gone for the weekend and would return on Monday, 8/2/65.

A pretext call to NYC telephone number 227-7695 on 8/5/65, reflected that that telephone number is a NYC number for the Grace Church (Episcopal) (VAN VORST), 268 Second Street, Jersey City, New Jersey.

On 8/9/65, it was determined by inquiry of an unidentified woman at the office of the Church Army in the USA, 157 Montague Street, Brooklyn, New York, a part of the above mentioned Church Army Training Center, 124 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, New York, that WILLIAM STEIN is currently employed at the Grace Church, Erie and Second Streets, Jersey City, New Jersey, and may be reached during the day at NYC telephone numbers BA 7-7695 or 659-2211 or at his residence in the evening at area 201-JO 2-2038. She added that STEIN will be working in Jersey City at the Grace Church "vacation school" until about the beginning of September, 1965, at which time he will return to the Church Army Training Center, Brooklyn, for reassignment.

It is to be noted that telephone number BA 7-7695 is the same as telephone number 227-7695, set forth above, however, as of August 10, 1965, telephone number 659-2211 was listed as a non-working number as of that time.

On 6/21/65, NY 3810-S* advised that STEIN stated on 6/21/65, that he is a commissioned Episcopal lay minister.

A review of the NYO indices failed to reflect any information identifiable with WILLIAM STEIN.

Records of the NYCPD, reviewed on 8/3/65, at the request of SA DAVID A. JENKINS, failed to reflect any arrest record identifiable with WILLIAM STEIN.

Confidential informants of the NYO, who are familiar with certain phases of Communist Party activity in the NYC area, advised during July and August, 1965, that they had no information pertaining to WILLIAM STEIN.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, as have other confidential sources mentioned herein, has advised that on August 16, 1965, Hyman Lumer and Claude Lightfoot conferred regarding a statement to be released.

A second confidential source has advised on March 7, 1963, that Hyman Lumer is National Educational Secretary of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA).

A third confidential source has advised on February 15, 1965, that Claude Lightfoot is Vice Chairman and a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA, and Chairman of the Illinois District.

Lumer proposed a statement reading as follows:

"Once again in the city of Los Angeles and to a lesser degree in Chicago and Springfield, Massachusetts, we witness eruptions of violence in Negro ghettos. And once again we witness the brutal ferocity, this time exceeding all previous bounds, with which these spontaneous protests among a frustrated and desperate people are put down.

Re: Communist Influence in
Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

"In Los Angeles 2500 National Guardsmen, in addition to local police and sheriff's deputies, have poured into the Watts area shooting and killing. At this moment 32 are dead, 26 of them Negroes. 762 are injured, nearly all of them Negroes. 2,225 have been arrested, all of them Negroes. The figures speak for themselves. It is the white Guardsmen and cops who are killing and wounding Negroes, not the other way around. This is the violence historically visited on the Negro people, the violence with which their efforts to secure the treatment due them as human beings has been all too often met. We cannot support rioting as a means of seeking redress of grievances, but we cannot condemn the rioters. Rather, we must condemn those responsible for the inhuman conditions which lead to these outbursts (compelled?) by human anguish. And no condemnation is strong enough for those who meet them by shooting people down in cold blood like animals. These explosions are a consequence of the inhuman poverty and mass unemployment to which the Negro residents of these unspeakable ghettos are subjected for the sake of the extra billions in profits extorted by the big corporations out of the Jim Crow oppression of the Negro. They are a consequence of the fact that despite all the talk of a war on poverty, literally nothing has been done to relieve these conditions. While the Yortys, the Deleys and their ilk use the anti-Poverty program as a means of maneuvering for political patronage and power. In the Watts area more than 30 per cent are unemployed, according to even the official figures. In this and other ghetto areas, as Doctor Conant showed in his study some years ago, 60 to 70 per cent of Negro youth remain jobless. This is what must be remedied if these outbursts against the hunger, degradation and demoralization are to be ended. The policy of brutal repression must be ended at once. What is needed instead is a massive emergency program of jobs and assistance far exceeding the grossly inadequate sums now allotted. At this moment three hundred thousand dollars a day is being spent to maintain the murderous National Guard units in the Watts area. As a beginning the Guard should be removed and this sum spent instead for the relief of its victims. Further, the Watts community must be declared a disaster area and immediate relief provided to its inhabitants who are now unable to obtain food and other necessities of life. We call also for the establishment of appropriate Citizens Committees of Inquiry to investigate these situations and to make full reports with recommendations for

Re: Communist Influence in

"drastic actions to remedy them. President Johnson has called for the cessation of violence. We agree. But we would urge that an appropriate beginning would be to punish the murderers of civil rights workers in the South, murderers who now kill with impunity and on whom not one day of punishment has been imposed. An appropriate beginning would be to end police brutality and the reign of the trigger happy cops in Negro communities, An appropriate beginning would be to end the war of aggression in Viet Nam and to use the money now wasted on armaments for a truly all out war on poverty. Above all, an end can be put to violence by abolishing the ghettos and by doing away with the oppression and segregation of human beings that so disgraces our country today."

Lightfoot regarded it as excellent and suggested a press release in the name of the CP, USA, as well as publication in "The Worker".

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

Lumer thought it should be published over the names of Gus Hall, Henry Winston and Lightfoot, and Lightfoot agreed, adding that it should be sent to every Party district, with a covering letter urging publication of it in leaflet form. Lumer agreed with this, then noted that James Jackson was insistent on deleting the wording, "We cannot support rioting as a means of seeking redress of grievances, but we cannot condemn the rioters," on the ground it gives way to the racists. Lightfoot said it could be deleted and argued about later.

Lumer also conferred with Robert Thompson about this statement, and Thompson suggested addition of a call for police review boards. Lumer noted that this statement was not to be released until the morning of August 17, 1965, and a conference for further discussion was arranged.

Re: Communist Influence in
Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

A fourth confidential source has advised on July 12, 1965, that Gus Hall is General Secretary of the CPUSA, and James Jackson is a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA.

The masthead of "The Worker", August 10, 1965, lists James Jackson as its Editor.

The second confidential source has advised on August 12 and 13, 1965, that Henry Winston, at a meeting of the National Committee of the CP, USA, on August 12 and 13, 1961, was elected a member of that Committee, the National Executive Committee and Vice Chairman of the Party, and also advised on May 16, 1962, that Robert Thompson, at the May 13, 1962 session of a meeting of the National Executive Committee of the CP, USA, was elected Executive Secretary of the Party.

Recent correspondence from your office indicated that one Bill Stein was being considered for employment by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) at New York and that he was being "sponsored" for this employment by Stanley David Levison. The Levison - Stein association therefore made it imperative that Stein be identified and a determination be made as to whether or not there is any subversive information available concerning him. This inquiry has been pending in your office since your airtel 6/2/65 which indicated that your office is attempting to identify Stein.

Your office was subsequently prompted to resolve the matter concerning Stein and in this connection specific reference is made to Bureau airtel 8/5/65.

The Bureau is now in receipt of your letter 8/11/65, copies to Atlanta, captioned "William S. Stein, Aka Bill Stein, Information Concerning; CIRM." Investigation to date discloses that the William Stein, who has been in contact with Levison, appears to be an employee of an Episcopal church group and that he is a commissioned lay minister. On Page 3 of your letter information is reported concerning phone numbers where Stein may be reached during the day and a phone number for his residence where he may be reached in the evening, Area Code 201, JO 2-2038. Re letter fails to indicate any investigation relative to establishing Stein's residence which, it appears from the area code is in New Jersey. Nor is there any indication that any check has been made with the Newark Office. The closing of re letter gave no indication that any further inquiry would be conducted.

Although your office's indices failed to contain any information identifiable with Stein and a canvass of informants failed to uncover any information concerning him, the Bureau believes that further investigation should be conducted for background information concerning Stein. Also, because of the common nature of his name, it is necessary that checks be made of office indices in places of present and former residences.

Immediately undertake appropriate investigation to obtain background data concerning Stein, including investigation by the Newark Office. This matter must be given most expeditious attention; so instruct Newark. It is suggested that the obvious logical investigation by Newark Office should have been initiated without Bureau prompting.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party

JN T-1 advised that on July 27, 1965 a meeting was held at Tougaloo College, Tougaloo, Mississippi, consisting of approximately 400 people representing volunteer workers with Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), Freedom Democratic Party (FDP), and Council of Federated Organizations (COFO). JESSIE HARRIS, Field Secretary, SNCC, and BILL WARE presided at this meeting. LEADER Informant stated the purpose of this meeting was to reorganize and reiterate the principals of the FDP. JESSIE HARRIS said that as of today, July 27, 1965, there would be no more COFO organization. They want to run everything under the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP). The MFDP is made up of volunteer workers and staff people from CORE and SNCC. The people at this meeting do not want to mention the name COFO anymore and said that the volunteer workers who will not agree to work under this arrangement will be sent to Bogalusa, Louisiana or to projects in Arkansas and Alabama.

JN T-2 advised he was in attendance at the meeting held at Tougaloo College on July 27, 1965 and advised the general feeling of all individuals at this meeting was that COFO is completely out of existence in the State of Mississippi and the MFDP is completely in charge.

JN T-2 on June 14, 1965 advised that LAWRENCE GUYOT continues to be Chairman of the MFDP, and HAZEL PALMER is the Office Manager, in Jackson, Mississippi. Informant advised that JESSIE HARRIS continues to work very closely with the MFDP.

JN T-2 on July 27, 1965 stated that HARRIS made the statement that too many of the workers are not working, that they are just engaged in loafing around and having parties. HARRIS stated that everyone was going to have to hold demonstrations in the areas that they were working in and participate in the various voter registration projects going on. Those that did not want to work were invited to return to their respective homes.

Informant stated the main project for the time being is to circulate among Negro neighborhoods throughout the state in an effort to get people to go to Washington, D.C., to be present for the Congressional Challenge. They want to hold demonstrations and do lobbying work there.

Informant stated that GUYOT was present and stated he figures they will not be able to unseat any of the Mississippi Congressmen; however, he stated that this would just signal the beginning of their main work. GUYOT stated they they will make an intensive effort from now until the next Congressional Election with a view toward putting a Negro candidate up for office and electing him with block Negro voting. GUYOT also mentioned they are going to keep up their Northern contacts by which he means keeping them for financial assistance.

Set forth hereinafter are the names of some of the individuals who are working for the MFDP and background information concerning each.

SMITH, SCOTT BIENVILLE

During an interview by Special Agents of the FBI on June 26, 1965, concerning another matter, SMITH advised that he was disillusioned with the present civil rights movement inasmuch as the leaders were disorganized and they are not accomplishing anything for the movement. He stated many of the out-of-state individuals who came to Mississippi are agitators and rather than let things calm down and make advances in the movement, they keep everything in a turmoil. SMITH related that in his opinion, the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party does not have any real leaders and consequently will not accomplish what they set out to accomplish.

He continued that one FRED NEELY who is from Chicago, Illinois, and an ex-minister of the Nation of Islam religion, is presently in Mississippi participating in the demonstrations. FRED NEELY is described as Negro male, 5'11", and weighs 140 pounds. NEELY is a member of the SNCC in Montgomery, Alabama.

He continued he has seen several individuals on the campus at Mount Beulah, Edwards, Mississippi, whom he knows to be members of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) from Chicago, Illinois. He stated some of these individuals left literature on the campus regarding the RAM. He was unable to identify these individuals by name.

A characterization of the Nation of Islam and RAM appears in the appendix of this report.

SMITH continued that STOKELY CARMICHAEL and JO ANN BOWMAN are presently at Edwards, Mississippi, and have participated in the demonstrations, at Jackson, Mississippi.

According to this informant, CARMICHAEL, a Negro, was a close friend to EUGENE DENNIS, Jr., son of the former General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, EUGENE DENNIS, now deceased.

RE Seattle teletypes and airtels to Bureau, 8/19/65 and 8/20/65, captioned Possible Sit-In at the Mayor's Office, Seattle, Washington, 8/19/65, Racial Matters.

On 8/19/65 [redacted], Seattle PD (SPD) advised a group of young people were conducting a sit-in at the Mayor's office in the Seattle City Hall.

On the same date GORDON SHERWOOD, Owner and Manager, Radio Station KYAC, Seattle, which he described as an all Negro station, advised that on the morning of 8/19/65 a group from the Central Area Youth Action Council (CAYAC) furnished a copy of demands which had been served upon the Mayor's office following a rendering of a decision in the trial of 4 Negros on assault charges in an incident which occurred 6/20/65. The Seattle Post Intelligencer of 8/20/65 carried an article on pages 1 and 7 relating that 13 demonstrators between the ages of 15 and 20 appeared at the Office of Seattle Mayor J. D. BRAMAN the afternoon of 8/19/65 and presented a list of 4 grievances. The group was identified with the CAYAC. A copy of the above article has been forwarded to the Bureau with referenced airtel under the Racial Matter caption.

On 8/20/65 [redacted] advised as follows: The meeting of the North Central CP section committee was held 8/19/65. VIVIAN GEORGE, member of the committee, made reference to the recent riots in Los Angeles and noted that the establishment of the "Freedom Patrols" in Seattle had helped to divert a bad situation which might have occurred in Seattle. GEORGE made reference to the above sit-in in the Mayor's office and furnished the following background information. After the returning of a verdict in the case of 4 Negros being charged with Third Degree Assault, 8/18/65, members of CAYAC decided to hold the sit-in. MIKE RUBICZ, CP member and CAYAC leader, contacted GEORGE to relate their plans. GEORGE assented but became apprehensive and later communicated with BURT NELSON, Chairman, Northwest District CP (NWDCP) who made an appointment to see RUBICZ the morning of 8/19/65. GEORGE and NELSON met with RUBICZ and NELSON asked him ~~pertinent~~ pointed questions, following which NELSON gave his assent to the holding of the sit-in demonstation but pointed out that if there were any difficulties, the CP would find it necessary to decline any connection. b7D

RUBICZ was supposed to appear at the section meeting the evening of 8/19/65 but was engaged in a separate meeting that evening with MILFORD SUTHERLAND, organizational secretary, NWDCP. [redacted] was of the opinion the above meeting with SUTHERLAND might also included members of the State Board, NWDCP.

At the section meeting it was made known the sit-in would continue, commencing at 8:00 a.m. on 8/20/65. There was no indication the CP would attempt to ~~authorize~~ utilize the demonstration to cause riots, on the contrary it was indicated that it desired to avoid a situation of such as had occurred in Los Angeles.

On 8/20/65 Captain [redacted], SPD, and [redacted], Region 3, INTC, Ft. Lawton, were advised. b6 b7C

On 8/20/65 [redacted], SPD, identified the following individuals as having taken part in the sit-in on 8/19/65:

CHARLES NICHOLS
LEON GIVENS
LINDA GIVENS
MIKE RUBICZ
ANTHONY WARE
DONALD GLICK
BILL CORR
PETER CORR
TWILA HOPSON.

Of the above, CHARLES NICHOLS, LINDA GIVENS, ANTHONY WARE, BILL CORR, and PETER CORR have all been identified by [redacted] as associated with the Young Political Expdayer's League (YPEL). LINDA and LEON GIVENS are the younger brother and sister of EDDIE C. GIVENS who has been identified by [redacted] as a former member of the CP in Seattle. MIKE RUBICZ has been identified by [redacted] as a current member of the Seattle CP. DONALD GLICK has been connected with the CAYAC group and resides at the residence of CECELIA CORR, Seattle CP member, and mother of BILL and PETER CORR. b7D

LHM will be submitted upon receipt of written report from [redacted].

In addition to the foregoing, [redacted] advised on 8/20/65 BURT NELSON stated on same date the "Youth" (CAYAC) had contacted Negro Ministers and Negro leaders and that the persons contacted did not want any part of the demonstration.

On 8/20/65 former [redacted] advised MARY SUTHERLAND (State Youth Director NWDCP) "was beside herself" because of the above sit-in demonstration which SUTHERLAND described as unauthorized.

The Bureau will be kept advised of developments in the above matter.

Re Jackson rep SA Ernest M. Cochrane 8/19/65.

The following Bureau observations are for the future guidance of your office in preparing reports in captioned and similar matters.

Cover pages C and E lack "Location" column information for several informants. Examples are relative to T-9, T-11, T-26, T-34 and so forth. Include in the future, as required.

Characterizations of numerous individuals mentioned in the report as not indented paragraphs as required.

Page 9 contains a characterization of the American Labor Party as cited by the HCUA. This should have been in the Appendix section of the report. Pages 14 and 15 contain information concerning Ira Grupper and appropriate characterization of this individual. The characterization, however, is much too long and includes information which could be considered "going off on a tangent." The association of Ira Grupper with a communist youth group was sufficient. It should not have been necessary to devote a full page to information concerning Ira's brother, Lewis.

Paragraph 4 of Page 17 contains the term "kids" on two occasions. This is not considered a good choice of a word to describe the individuals involved.

The characterization of Anton Refregier is too long. It would have been sufficient to have included only the information concerning his association with the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, Inc. The information in the third, fourth and fifth paragraphs of Page 19 also falls in the category of "going off on a tangent."

Bring the foregoing to the attention of SA Cochrane and the Supervisor who approved rerep.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Information was previously furnished by memorandum from this Bureau dated August 17, 1965, in the above matter concerning a reported Conference of civil rights leaders which President Lyndon B. Johnson is scheduled to call for November 17, 1965. Several individuals were mentioned in the August 17, 1965, memorandum who are to be either directly or indirectly involved in the Conference. The following supplementary information concerns some of these individuals.

The records of this Bureau's Identification Division, FBI Number 3 808 121, contain the following arrest record for Bayard Rustin. On January 12, 1944, he was arrested for violation of the Selective Service Act and on February 17, 1944, received a sentence of three years. On September 15, 1948, he was arrested in New York City on a disorderly conduct charge and was sentenced to fifteen days. On January 21, 1953, he was arrested at Pasadena, California, for offering to engage in an act of sex perversion of a homosexual nature, which he admitted and for which he was sentenced to serve sixty days.

During recent years, Martin Luther King, Jr., has been arrested on several occasions by local authorities in Alabama and Georgia for such charges as speeding; no driver's license; and in connection with civil rights activities, he has been arrested for refusal to leave premises and other similar charges. In some instances, he was incarcerated for short periods of time in local jails.

During recent years, James Farmer has been arrested on several occasions by local authorities in Mississippi and Illinois on such charges as breach of the peace and failure to obey an officer; and disorderly (demonstration). These arrests were in connection with civil rights activities. One such arrest resulted in a sentence of sixty days, suspended; and a $200 fine.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters

The records of this Bureau's Identification Division, FBI Number 685 011 A, reveal that one Max Shacktman was arrested by the Minneapolis, Minnesota, Police Department on July 25, 1934, for investigation. The "History of American Trotskyism" written by James P. Cannon, a leader of the Socialist Workers Party, was published in 1944 and contains information concerning the development of the Trotskyite movement in the United States and Max Shachtman's connection therewith. It is related on Page 161 of this book that Cannon stated that he and his followers participated in a strike in Minneapolis in 1934. When the Governor of Minnesota proclaimed martial law as a result of the strike, Cannon and Shachtman were placed under arrest and compelled to leave Minneapolis. However, they continued to conduct the strike from a point just outside the city. It is to be noted that Shachtman was reported in this Bureau's prior memorandum of August 17, 1965, as a former member of the Socialist Workers Party, an organization designated as subversive by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 17, 1965, that Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC), and Bayard Rustin (Organizer of the March on Washington), were in contact earlier during that day for the purpose of discussing the Los Angeles, California riots. It was during that contact that King persuaded Rustin to join him in that City on August 17, 1965. King said he and Bernard Lee (King's assistant) would arrive in Los Angeles at 12:45, Pacific Standard Time, aboard National Airlines Flight 41. He said he would be joined by Andrew Young (Executive Director, SCLC), who would arrive before noon. Rustin said he would take American Airlines Flight 37, which arrives Los Angeles at 10:20 AM, August 17, 1965.

The source advised that shortly after Rustin's contact with King, he (Rustin) was in contact with Harry Wachtel, during which time he informed him of King's plans to go to Los Angeles. Rustin said in view of King's plans and at his request, he (Rustin), drew up a five point program for King's use while in Los Angeles. The points, as enumerated by Rustin, were:

1. "To minister to the thousands of Negroes innocent of any wrong doing, and who have lost homes and jobs, and to pledge the SCLC to morally and financially assist these people.

2. "Visit those Negroes in jail in an attempt to find ways in which they can help restore damage they have done, and attempt to redeem themselves.

3. "To keep and maintain sympathy and communication with the white sympathizers and work out programs to prevent future disturbances.

4. "To confer with local government leaders if they so desire.

5. "To present his own plans for immediate and long range action to clergymen and other leaders."

Rustin said that King planned to visit religious leaders, prisons and temporary homes of displaced persons in order to get a first hand report.

The situation regarding King's visit, according to Rustin, "is delicate as we do not want him to be accused of going out there and starting trouble."

Rustin, after talking with Wachtel, was in contact with a confidante, Rachelle Horowitz, on August 17, 1965. He told her of his plans to go to California to be with King and in view of that, instructed her to contact the White House in Washington, D.C., and inform someone there that he would be late in submitting his document which is due on August 20, 1965 (document he is preparing for the conference of civil rights leaders scheduled for November, 1965).

Horowitz, in regard to the Los Angeles situation, suggested to Rustin that he contact Michael Hannon, a former police officer (Los Angeles Police Department), who was suspended for participating in civil rights demonstrations, and William Becker, a former officer, because they "may know things about the situation". Horowitz said both men now work in Governor Brown's office.

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

On June 22, 1958, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Rachelle Horowitz was a member of the New York unit of the Young Socialist League (YSL).

On June 22, 1958, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that information made available to him in June, 1958, reflected that Rachelle Horowitz was a member of the New York unit of the YSL.

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Rachelle Horowitz attended a Lower Manhattan Branch meeting of the Young People's Socialist League on July 8, 1960.

A characterization of the YSL is attached.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

In recent weeks, President Johnson has been meeting separately with civil rights leaders such as Martin Luther King, Jr., head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and Roy Wilkins, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, as an apparent prelude to a President's Conference on Civil Rights scheduled for 11/17/65. NY 4212-S* has reported on lengthy discussions had 8/14/65 by Bayard Rustin (advisor to King with communist background) with Wilkins, and others concerning the Conference; who will be its Chairman; and other Conference matters. Present indications are that the Honorary Chairman will be A. Philip Randolph, head of the Negro Labor Council and that Rustin will be his "stand in" to do the actual planning work. In this connection, it will be recalled that Randolph held a high post, in name, relative to the 8/23/63 March on Washington but that Rustin did most of the planning.

Rustin is also reported as telling some of his associates how well he, Rustin, stands with the President and the Vice President. Rustin also claimed that Lee White of the White House wanted Rustin to suggest the make-up of a committee to run the Conference. From Rustin's discussions 8/14/65, it appears that several of the people who have been conferred with and/or are considered for assistance relative to the Conference are persons with communist or socialist-oriented backgrounds.

RE: POSSIBLE SIT-IN DEMONSTRATION,
MAYOR'S OFFICE,
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON
AUGUST 19, 1965

The following article by reporter RICHARD SIMMONS appeared in the August 20, 1965 issue of the "Seattle Post Intelligencer", a daily newspaper published in Seattle, Washington:

"Seattle police had to step in and break up a civil rights demonstration in Mayor J. D. BRAMAN's office late yesterday afternoon.

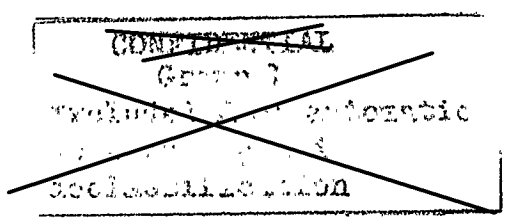
"The 13 demonstrators, all between the ages of 15 and 20, said they would be back at 8 this morning.

"The affair started yesterday morning when a group of Negro and white youths marched into the Mayor's office and presented a list of four grievances. Mayor BRAMAN was not available at the time and the demonstrators said they would return in the afternoon.

"About 2 p.m., they came back. ED DEVINE, the mayor's assistant for public affairs, said the youngsters would have to leave when the building closed at 5 p.m.

"Spokesmen for the group, MIKE RUBICZ, 20, of 1913 East Yesler, white, and LEON GIVEN, 20, of 1913 South Washington Street, said they would wait until 5 p.m. before they decided what to do.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.



ENCLOSURE 100-440529-

"The Mayor never talked with the group. He did talk to newsmen and told them that the demands made by the group, which called itself the Central Area Youth Action Council (CAYAC), were out of his jurisdiction.

"At one point, Y. PHILIP HAYASADA, director of the Human Rights Commission, took RUBICZ and GIVEN down to his office and discussed the situation with them.

"'They were a hard bunch to talk to,' HAYASADA said. 'I told them that they should get at the problem; not judge the symptoms of the problem.'

"Late in the afternoon, Police Chief FRANK RAMON was called back from a vacation at Kingston.

"A little after 5 p.m. ED DEVINE walked into the waiting room packed with newsmen and the 13 demonstrators and said:

"'It's after 5 p.m., you'll have to leave.'

"The demonstrators made no move. DEVINE continued:

"'I'm afraid I'll have to ask the police department to escort you from the building.'

"One of the demonstrators asked:

"'Does that mean being arrested?'

"DEVINE answered:

"'No, it means being escorted from the building.'

"There was nervous laughter from the demonstrators. One asked:

"'Does that mean forcibly being taken out?'

"DEVINE said if necessary, it did. Four of the demonstrators, including spokesman RUBICZ and two girls left. Nine remained seated.

"Police Chief FRANK RAMON then stepped in and said:

"'I'm prepared to take actions necessary to see that the laws are enforced. You're young. Real young. The mayor's office is closed. Now I'm telling you. As a matter of law your presence here is illegal. I'm going to ask each one of you if you will leave.'

"RAMON pointed to each one. There were nine 'no's.'

"'Now you've each knowingly and willingly decided to disobey the law.'

"One of the demonstrators said:

"'We aren't disobeying any law.'

"RAMON shot back:

"'It's not your job to interpret the law.'

"Chief RAMON then called in WARD CROW, chief inspector. CROW was followed by what looked like half the Seattle police force, including policewomen. CROW asked the youngsters:

"'Will you walk out or do we have to take you out forcibly?'

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RE: POSSIBLE SIT-IN DEMONSTRATION, MAYOR'S OFFICE, SEATTLE, WASHINGTON, AUGUST 19, 1965

"The youngsters decided to walk out. They left by the Fourth Avenue entrance to the Municipal Building where they met RUBICZ and others who had left earlier. Some talked about spending the night outside the Municipal Building.

"Outside, RUBICZ said:

"'We don't want to go to jail. We just want to see the mayor.'

"The group was in no way connected with the Student Non-violent Co-ordinating Committee or other civil rights groups in Seattle. RUBICZ did say he himself was affiliated with SNCC.

"The demands the group is making include:

"A new trial for the four Negroes accused of assaulting two police officers in a Chinatown cafe early June 20, on the grounds that the recent trial, which ended Wednesday with a charge of third degree assault against all four men, had a segregated jury and that the defense council had no voice in choosing the jurors.

"Demands that HAROLD LARSON, one of the police officers assaulted, who later shot ROBERT L. REESE, be tried for murder.

"Demands that both patrolmen LARSON and FRANKLYN JUNELL be permanently discharged from the police force this week.

"And finally, demands that a civilian police review board be established."

[redacted], Seattle, Washington, advised at 9:05 a.m. today that the following were among the individuals at the mayor's office yesterday and that the same group returned again this morning at approximately 9 a.m. to the mayor's office, claiming to b6 b7C represent the Central Area Youth Action Council (CAYAC) and that RUBICZ was the leading spokesmen of the group:

MIKE RUBICZ
CHARLES NICHOLS
BILL CORR
PETER CORR

The above information was furnished [redacted], Special Operations Section, 115th INTC Group, Region III, U.S. Army, Ft. Lawton, Washington at 9:25 a.m. today. b6 b7C

On May 3, 1965, SE T-1 advised that MIKE RUBICZ has stated that CAYAC is a club involving Central Area Youth and that its goal was to represent all the Central Area Youth and to belong to all Central Area Youth. RUBICZ stated there were about 25 members with a ratio of three to one Negroes over whites. RUBICZ described CAYAC as a multi-issue organization which grew out of interest in the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party and has also been somewhat involved in the demonstrations around the Viet Nam issue.

This same source advised that during September 1964 MIKE RUBICZ, Seattle, Washington was a member of the "On-Campus" club of the Communist Party, Seattle, Washington. This source advised on May 3, 1965 that RUBICZ was still a member.

On January 5, 1965 SE T-2 advised that CHARLES NICHOLS, Seattle, Washington, attended a YPEL Executive meeting at Everett, Washington on December 15, 1964. This and other reliable sources had advised on various occasions during the pertinent period that NICHOLS attended YPEL summer camps annually from 1960 to 1964 inclusive and has otherwise been active in the YPEL and has had YPEL meetings in his home.

A characterization of the YPEL is attached hereto.

SE T-3 advised on various occasions between 1955 and 1962 inclusive that ANITA MARKEY, formerly ANITA NICHOLS, was an active member of the Communist Party (CP), that she served on the Negro Commission, Northwest District Communist Party (NWDCP) during the entire time and that she was also a member of the District Committee and the State Board of the NWDCP. Files of this office indicate that CHARLES NICHOLS is a Negro, male, the son of ANITA MARKEY, who resides at [redacted].

In November 1960 SE T-3 advised that BILL CORR attended a Young Political Explorers League (YPEL) summer camp, August 19-28, 1960, at Lake Sutherland, Washington. This and other sources have advised CORR has attended numerous other YPEL camps and meetings and that he attended a YPEL executive board meeting at Everett, Washington, Feb. 28, 1965. b6 b7C

In October 1963 SE T-4 advised that CORR's mother, CECILA CORR, was a dues-paying member of the White Center CP Club, King County, Washington.

On January 21, 1964, SE T-5 advised that PETER CORR, brother of BILL CORR, above, is a member of the YPEL.

[redacted], Patrol Division, Police Department, Seattle, Washington, advised at 11:30 a.m. this date that 10 - 12 of the above youths were still in the mayor's office, that the mayor has left town and probably does not intend to see the group and that it was expected that the group would again have to be asked to leave the mayor's office at 5 p.m., the close of business, by members of the Seattle Police Department. [redacted] stated there has been no violence in this matter. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that the CAYAC demonstrators left the mayor's office peaceably and voluntarily at 5:14 pm August 20, 1965. They, the demonstrators, will have an official meeting with the mayor at 2:30 pm Wednesday, August 25, 1965.

I, Karl Prussion, a former counterspy for the Federal Bureau of Investigation from 1947- 1960, do hereby swear under oath and penalty of perjury, that from the years 1954 through 1956 I attended five county committee meetings of the Communist Party of Santa Clara County, California. (A county committee meeting of the Communist Party consists of one delegate representing each Communist cell in a county.) The meetings were held during the aforementioned period in the following locations:

The residence of Robert Lindsey, Communist, in San Jose, California, 1954; the residence of Mary Field, Communist section organizer, Palo Alto, California, 1955; the residence of Isabel and Edwin Gomez, both Communists, Menlo Park, California, 1956; the residence of Gertrude Adler, Communist, Palo Alto, California, 1957; the residence of Karl Prussion, counterspy for the F.B.I., Los Altos, California, 1958; the residence of Myra White, Communist, Mountain View, California, 1959.

I hereby further solemnly state that at each and every meeting as set forth above, one Ed Beck, Communist, who is presently secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People of San Mateo, County, California, and a member of the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), presented the directive from the district office of the Communist Party in San Francisco to effect that:

> "All Communists working within the framework of the NAACP are instructed to work for a change of the negative attitude of the NAACP toward a more militant demonstrative, class struggle policy to be expressed by sit-ins, demonstrations, marches, and protests, for the purpose of transforming the NAACP into an organization for the achievement of Communist objectives."

I further swear and attest that at each and everyone of the aforementioned meetings, one Reverend Martin Luther King was always set forth as the individual to whom Communists should look and rally around in the Communist struggle on the many racial issues.

I hereby also state that Martin Luther King has either been a member of, or within ly has accepted support from, over 60 Communist fronts, individuals, and/or organizations, which give aid to or espouse Communist causes.

Cops and Troops Slay 26 Negroes in Blazing Ghetto

by JAMES E. JACKSON

AFTER YOU HAVE read it all, all about the riot in Los Angeles, that is, you will have to weigh all of the thousands of words of the newsmen's "battle scene" stories against one solid statistic: the head count of the dead. The uncontestable fact is that of the 29 people who died in the four days of wrath, 26 were NEGROES.

In addition to the sum and the division of the dead, other statistics have been dutifully compiled. There were 676 persons hospitalized for injuries of whom 640 were Negroes. Negroes arrested in the Watts area of Los Angeles were jammed into every available space in the city jails — of the 2,157 people who were arrested in the area all were Negroes.

The papers reported in some detail how the National Guardsmen operated in "the field" while another 8,000 in reserve awaited their turn. An AP man wrote that on Sunday morning "about 4:30 a.m., a woman motorist approached a National Guard blockade at 59th Street and Vermont Ave. When she failed to stop on command, guardsmen opened fire with a machine gun. A policeman who helped carry her to an ambulance said, 'Her legs were almost cut off.' She was identified as Mrs. Lerner Cooke, 47, a Negro."

A staff man for the N.Y. Herald Tribune told of the team work between Lt. Richard Bogard's police from the Venice district and Col. Tom Haykin's 1st Battalion, 100th Infantry, 40th Armored Division of the National Guard. The combined force occupied the fire house on 103rd St. (Watts) as their command post.

"The Guardsmen hit two men they figured were snipers. Maybe they were; maybe they were just curious," the reporter wrote. They were dragged into the firehouse and propped against the wall. One resisted as a doctor probed in the hole in his shoulder for the bullet lodged there.

"'Choke him 'till he blacks out,' a policeman said and somebody choked one of the suspects 'till he blacked out. He revived in a minute, coughing blood, and the fight was out of him." Again the reporter told how — "The National Guardsmen shot into the blackness, and a Negro came out, hands up, blood streaming down his face, soaking his clothes red. He was wounded, but he was alive.

"Earlier, one National Guardsman had fired a perfect shot. He hit a man in the middle of the forehead, the shot had ripped off the back of the man's head. He was dead upstairs in the firehouse. 'It was a beautiful shot,' a detective said. 'We've killed two here so far, wounded a lot of others,' someone said."

Who were the white victims of the riot? There was a sheriff's deputy — Ronald E. Ludlow, 27 — and another white man died of a wound that could have come from a police riot gun, also a white fireman died when a wall of a burning building fell upon him.

Most of the 26 Negroes who were killed were gunned to death by police wielding riot guns. The National Guardsmen, of course, also machine gunned a woman driving in her car. Then there was the four-year-old Negro "looter and rioter," Bruce Brown, who was shot to death in his front yard. His riotous 3-year-old brother was wounded by the spray of police bulletts and Guardmen's .30 calibre machinegun fire, but at last reports he was still alive.

Not so with 18-year-old Charles Shortridge who was all set to enter Los Angeles City College in September; he lay there dead as his uncle stared unbelievingly at the huge punched-out places the riot gun shells had left in his nephew's head, neck and check.

THEY SAY IT was a "race war," "an insurrection" etc. But how come it turns out that 26 Negroes were killed to 1 white deputy sheriff?

This was no "race riot."

This was an elemental scream of outrage from a violated people entombed in a prison house of social deprivation and economic impoverishment. No man has a right to expect that those whom the men of power and privilege, the capitalist ruling circle, have rendered relief-less in their wretchedness will forever slumber silently in the lower depths where they have been consigned by this society of bourgeois and billionaire.

Only those ignorant of history, only those blinded to the sight of injustice and the daily degradation of the Negro detainees of the slums of this country's great cities, ringed all about as they are by towering walls of white-supremacy, hatred and exclusion; only simpletons can assume that prisoners will not generate out of the fury of their circumstance the fire with which to ignite their cages. And so they set fire to their prisons, those unattended, denied, abused and degraded ones. They burned their prisons as did the desperate ones who followed Spartacus! Like the ragged ones who marched and sang with Villon. Like the slave chain breakers who lived to hang with Nat Turner.

So they made other statistics — 500 stores of absentee-owners were set afire. Also the sleek cars — symbols of the "American way of life" which the TV commercials gloat about but the establishment conspires to keep out of the reach of the people of Watts and of all the Watts of all the cities of America. Some officials say the fire loss will come to $175,000,000.

One of those who lost a store to the angry uprising of the downtrodden of Watts of Los Angeles (the City of the Angels it says in the Chamber of Commerce ads) was a certain Richard Gold. Mr. Gold has many stores, a chain of furniture stores, so he will simply write that burned one off of his income tax returns next year.

But the point is that Mr. Gold knows more about the time of day in the world we all live in than most of the men of his class and all of the Los Angeles city fathers. Said Mr. Gold:

"I cannot condemn these people. These people should not be shot down like dogs. White people who were as poor as they would burn and loot if they saw the chance. What's behind this is pentup anger over poverty and miserable housing."

Mr. Gold, the Watts businessman, is white and right on this score.

Watts is indeed the most poverty-ridden area of lush, plush, tinsled and glittering Los Angeles. Into its 150 blocks are jammed 67,000 Negroes. They pay high rents for unpet, 25-year old houses. The shop in neighborhood enterprises which employ of themselves.

There in Watts, income is lowest in all of Los Angeles, save the "skid row" district. Unemployment is three times higher in Watts than for the city as a whole. Watts is the city center of a Negro population which numbers some 523,000 in the whole of metropolitan Los Angeles.

The N. Y. Times on Sunday told it as it was when it said that — "The fact is that the new Civil Rights laws — and the related anti-poverty program — have not yet greatly improved the lot of the Negroes in the teeming ghettos of the cities of the North."

The welkin sounds that came from Watts last week-end were loud and angry enough to have shaken the complacent into a wide-eyed confrontation of the reality of the challenge by the slum-confined multi-millions who have come to the point where they were determined not to live longer in the same old way.

The challenge of the Watts explosion can be met only by a truly massive program to extend genuine material equality of opportunity to the Negro masses in particular and to those who dwell in poverty and social deprivation.

It means a vast increase in the investments in the War Against Poverty Program, an increase that can only come about through a proportionate decrease in the expenditures in the criminal diversion of national resources and men to the dirty work the Johnson administration is carrying out in Vietnam, where U.S. soldiers are busy killing people who have risen in behalf of freedom for themselves as did our forefathers in the Revolutionary War.

In Watts itself, what is called for is not only a total economic opportunity program for wiping out unemployment and for proper job-training, but a program for the total reconstruction of the area. All the blight of slum conditions must be eliminated in accord with a plan speedily implemented. Housing, educational, recreational facilities must be provided for in full measure.

In addition, Watts requires that Negroes, who are more than 90 percent of the population, shall be predominant in the police department, fire fighting, and other city service jobs and functions for the area. Also, merchants doing business in the area must employ Negroes in their establishments in a just ratio.

With such an approach for Watts and for all the ghetto cities of the country, guarantees can be established against recurrences of such tragic outbursts of primitive protest and outrage at injustice.

As Rep. Augustus F. Hawkins, Los Angeles Negro Congressman, said, "The trouble is that nothing has ever been done to solve the long-range underlying problems."

Watts means that the time for stalling and demagogic promises and goodwill platitdues has run out. It has come down to this: Either wipe out the conditions that produce the slums; or the slums will wipe out the cities.

Reference is made to memorandum dated August 13, 1965 at Chicago, Illinois captioned "Death of Negro Woman After Being Struck by Fire Truck, Wilcox and Pulaski, Chicago, Illinois, August 12, 1965."

At 8:00 p.m. on August 13, 1965, Deputy Superintendent of Field Services James Riordan, Chicago, Illinois Police Department, advised that at 7:30 p.m. this date approximately fifty Negroes gathered in the vicinity of Wilcox and Pulaski in vicinity of the firehouse located that location. At this time rally sponsored by the civil rights organization ACT under the leadership of Lawrence Landry, Nahaz Rogers and Frederick Douglas Andrews was being held at the corner of Wilcox and Pulaski with speeches made by these three individuals.

At 9:00 p.m., August 13, 1965, Deputy Superintendent Riordan advised that the situation deteriorated into violence in the general area with reports of broken windows in nearby buildings and in passing automobiles and small scale fighting by youths in the neighborhood with Chicago Police on duty. Ten persons, all Negroes, were arrested by the Chicago Police Department including Andrews.

ENCLOSURE

Deputy Superintendent Riordan advised at 10:00 p.m., August 13, 1965 he received reports that several shots were fired at a police car in the area with no injuries reported. Two police van loads of demonstrators were arrested for fighting and causing a disturbance and were removed to Central Detention Lockup, 1121 South State Street, Chicago, Illinois. He received reports that many windows were broken in stores on Madison Street from the 4000 to the 4300 block of South Pulaski. Rocks, sticks, and bottles were thrown at police squad cars operating in the area.

Confidential source number one advised August 13, 1965 Andrews referred to above was released from custody at the request of Sergeant Samuel Nolan, Human Relations Section, Chicago Police Department because of Andrews' cooperation with the police in helping quell the disturbance.

Officer Robert Mc Mahon, Deputy Superintendents Office, Chicago Police Department, advised at 11:30 p.m., August 13, 1965, that it was estimated by police operating in the Fillmore Police District area of the disturbance that fifty to one hundred cars passing the vicinity were hit by rocks and other flying objects. Numerous squad cars and police vehicles were damaged by thrown objects. The fire marshall at the firehouse located in the area reported many false alarms and when fire trucks leave the station they and the firemen were hit with thrown objects. There were reports made that firemen were walking off the job. Approximately forty to fifty persons were being treated for assorted injuries at nearby hospitals.

Officer Mc Mahon advised at 12:30 a.m., August 14, 1965, there have been eighty individuals arrested. Automobiles travelling on the Eisenhower Expressway reported being stoned from overpasses and traffic subsequently rerouted. Occupants of cars in rerouted traffic occasionally pulled from cars and beaten causing traffic to again be rerouted to the Eisenhower Expressway.

Officer Mc Mahon advised at 1:30 a.m., August 14, 1965 that all liquor has been looted from the Goldblatts Department Store display window on Madison Street and that fifty to sixty persons have gathered at the intersection of Cicero Avenue and Adams Street.

Officer Mc Mahon advised that at 2:30 a.m., August 14, 1965 that a small crowd is still milling around the general area and that approximately one hundred are now forming at Eisenhower Expressway and Kildare Avenue Avenue. There has been a report of a small fire in Goldblatts Brothers Department Store on Madison Street and although activity in the area seems to be diminishing 47 civilians, eleven policemen and two firemen have received cuts, bruises and other minor injuries.

Officer Mc Mahon advised at 4:00 a.m., August 14, 1965 that the fire in the Goldblatts Department Store has been extinguished and the demonstrators dispersed. The area is calm and under the control of the Chicago Police Department. Standby police have been released from duty. There has been one hundred adult Negroes arrested and five juveniles taken into custody. Police patrols have been set up in the areas of damage to prevent looting.

Officer Mc Mahon advised at 5:30 a.m., August 14, 1965 that a total of 99 Negro males and one female were arrested in the area of disturbance. The charges vary from mob action to disorderly conduct on the night of August 13, 1965.

Mr. Dave Cohen, Chicago Commission on Human Relations, advised August 14, 1965 that the one hundred adults arrested are now out on bond. He has received information that the 3,000 Illinois National Guard troops have been alerted for duty in Chicago by Illinois Governor Otto Kerner at the request of Chicago Police Superintendent O.W. Wilson.

Lieutenant John Carrol, Youth Division, Chicago, Illinois Police Department, advised on August 14, 1965, that a circular found in the possession of one Jesse Davidson, male Negro, age [redacted], taken into custody August 13, 1965, in the area of the disturbance entitled "Drive the Cops Out" indicates it was made by "SPARTACIST (TROTSKYIST)" and contains inflamatory statements against Chicago Police, President Johnson, Chicago Mayor Daley and Chicago School Superintendent Willis. The circular contains a telephone number [redacted]. This number was found to be listed to John R. Glenn, [redacted]. The circular contains statements referring to the situation as similar to Viet Nam and Santo Domingo and the fact that "the cops and the Daley machine had this coming." The arrestee refused to divulge the source of the circular; however Lieutenant Carrol stated indications are many were passed out in the area of the disturbance.

Regarding John R. Glenn, Mr. Ray V. Hainline, [redacted] on September 1, 1964 furnished a letter in which Marcia Glenn stated that she and her husband John Glenn constituted the Midwest Chapter of "SPARTACIST."

A characterization of the Revolutionary Committee of the Fourth International identifying "SPARTACIST" is an appendix to this memorandum.

At 8:10 p.m., August 14, 1965, Sergeant John Robinson, 11th District (Fillmore), Chicago, Illinois Police Department, advised the Federal Bureau of Investigation that there are many Negroes congregating in the area of previous disturbances; however, there have been no major incidents reported. The Chicago Police are heavily concentrated in the trouble spots.

Officer Milton Blake, Human Relations Section, Chicago, Illinois Police Department, advised that he received information at 7:10 p.m., August 14, 1965, from a source from the Chicago Commission on Human Relations indicating a possibility of a disturbance in the vicinity of Kedzie Avenue and Roosevelt Road on the evening of August 14, 1965. This area, which is approximately fourteen blocks from Wilcox and Pulaski, is in the Fillmore Police District. Blake stated he notified the Fillmore District of this possibility.

In connection with the above information a second confidential source of the Chicago Office advised previously that the general talk on the street on the west side in Chicago reflects that two Negro youth gangs "Roman Saints" and the "Spanish Cobras" have joined forces the reason unknown. This source advised on August 14, 1965, that some of the "Spanish Cobras" were observed during the disturbance August 13, 1965, although they were not organized. Kedzie and Roosevelt is considered to be the stronghold of the "Roman Saints."

The above information was furnished to Officer Blake.

Officer William Day, Deputy Superintendents Office, Chicago Police Department, advised at 10:55 p.m., August 14, 1965 the situation in the disturbance area is generally quiet. Six arrests have been reportedly made in the vicinity of Adams Street and Pulaski and nine men and one woman were reportedly arrested at Wilcox and Pulaski. The police are continuing to breakup all groups as they gather.

Day advised that at 10:45 p.m., August 14, 1965, the Superintendents Office, Chicago Police, received a call from Lieutenant Colonel Kohner, Illinois National Guard, advising the Illinois National Guard has 1500 men "standing by and ready to go." They are now in three assembly points, 2700 West Madison Street; North and Kedzie Street, and near north, all in armories in Chicago.

On August 14, 1965, Officer Richard Becker, Chicago, Illinois Police Department, advised from Central Detention, Chicago Police Department, that he had just brought in one David Page arrested in the general area of the recent disturbance. Becker stated that Captain Miles of the 11th District would sign the complaint against Page and as a consequence he was unable to furnish the identity of the charge. Becker stated that Page was arrested for passing out leaflets captioned "Get the Cops Out" which was signed "SPARTACIST." He stated that he understood the leaflet was similar to the leaflets passed out August 13, 1965. Page indicated that he was from New York, gave his birth date as [redacted] and is a student at the City College of New York and is a white male.

Captain Miles, referred to above, advised on August 14, 1965, that also arrested passing out similar leaflets was one Sharon Dyer, white female, age [redacted]. She was arrested in the vicinity of Wilcox and Pulaski.

"SPARTACIST" has been referred to previously in this memorandum.

Officer James Mc Mahon, referred to previously, Chicago Police Department, advised at 1:15 a.m., August 15, 1965 that the situation in the area of the previous disturbances can be considered quiet and under control. There have been a total of 27 arrests made in the general area throughout this evening and morning, the individuals arrested generally charged with disorderly conduct.

At 10:00 p.m., August 13, 1965, Officer William Day, Deputy Superintendents Office, Chicago Police Department, advised that the general area surrounding Wilcox and Pulaski is quiet and has been quiet throughout the entire day. The area is heavily patrolled by police and no incidents are expected. There has been no agitation by outside groups and no major incidents.

At 8:30 p.m., August 15, 1965, Dennis Mc Donough, Desk Sergeant, Military Police, United States Army, Chicago, advised that the police in the Fillmore District arrested one Joseph R. Rice for failure to report for induction into the armed forces as ordered on November 29, 1963. Rice, who resides in the area, was carrying a .38 caliber loaded revolver and will possibly be charged with "carrying a concealed weapon."

At 10:45 a.m., August 16, 1965, Officer Mackey, Human Relations Section, Chicago, Illinois Police Department, advised that the total number of arrestees has not been completely compiled as of this moment. The unofficial count of those arrested in the Fillmore District are as follows: 18 on August 12, 1965 and resulting morning; 105 on August 13, 1965 and accompanying morning; and 46 on August 14, 1965. There is no tabulation for those arrested Sunday, August 15, 1965. Most arrests were brought to Central Detention Lockup, although some were taken to adjoining districts. This would include all arrested although it would be expected that some arrested in the Fillmore District were arrested simultaneously with those connected in the disturbance. Fillmore normally has a very high crime rate. The charges range as follows: criminal damage to property; resisting arrest; battery; disorderly conduct and mob action.

The information as set out in this memorandum was furnished to Mr. Marco Mancuso, Region I, 113th INTC Group, Chicago, Illinois and to Special Agent James Griffiths, United States Secret Service, Chicago, Illinois, as it was learned on the dates indicated.

Chou Sees Rioting As Suppression of American Negroes

TOKYO, Aug. 17 (AP)—Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai declared today that the Chinese people "stand firmly by the American Negroes and other Americans" fighting for racial justice.

At a reception at the Indonesian Embassy in Peking, Chou took first public note of the racial disorders in Los Angeles. The New China news agency quoted him as saying:

"We Chinese people sternly condemn the United States ruling circles for their bloody suppression of the American Negroes."

Chou said American Negroes are being "subjected beyond endurance to intensified racial discrimination and oppression." He added:

"In the last few days the American Negroes have launched a momentous nationwide fight against tyranny from Coast to Coast and from North to South. . . . They have explicitly linked their struggle for freedom and equal rights against discrimination and persecution with the anti-U.S. imperialist struggle of the peoples of Viet-Nam, the Congo (Leopoldville), the Dominican Republic and other countries.

"These are signs of the beginning of a new stage in the American Negroes' movement for freedom and emancipation."

Soviets Say Riots Show U.S. Lacks Solution

MOSOW, Aug. 17 (AP)—The Soviet press said today the Los Angeles riots show "capitalist America cannot solve the Negro problem," but generally kept the story on the inside pages.

A report from Boris Strelnikov, New York Correspondent of Tass news agency, added that "the news coming in from Los Angeles shows that the actions of the Negro population of that city have been suppressed by the most ruthless means."

Only the Communist Party youth paper Komsomolskaya Pravda gave the rioting wide display on the front page.

East German Press Cites Riot 'Massacre'

BERLIN, Aug. 17 (UPI) The East German press today accused California authorities of carrying out a "massacre" of Negroes in Los Angeles.

The official Communist Party newspaper Neues Deutschland headline read "soldiers murder in Los Angeles."

The Berliner Zeitung headliner "murder orgy by Yankee police."

Neues Deutschland said "the bloody suppression of a large part of the American people, the organized massacre in the streets of American cities is as much a part of the American way of life as the poverty of those without rights and the great riches of a tiny minority.

"This nation that in its own country can rule only with the machine pistol and street battles takes upon itself the right to recommend its 'democracy' and even attempts to impose it by force in Viet-Nam and the Dominican Republic," the paper said.

Total Support Offered To Rioters by Cuba

Reuters

HAVANA, Aug. 17 — Cuba today denounced what it called the "genocide" of Negroes in Los Angeles and declared its total support for what it called Negro demonstrators there.

An editorial in the newspaper Hoy, organ of the Cuban regime, declared:

"The deliberate murder of Negroes in Los Angeles, constitutes genocide, a deed which deserves the unreserved condemnation of all humanity.

"Seeking to justify the crime, the murderers, that is to say the Yankee authorities have accused Negroes of being incendiaries, mutineers and looters . . ."

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

A confidential informant of this Bureau who has supplied reliable information in the past has furnished the following information concerning a reported Conference of civil rights leaders which President Lyndon B. Johnson is scheduled to call for November 17, 1965.

On August 14, 1965, Bayard Rustin contacted Roy Wilkins, head of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and advised Wilkins that President Johnson desires A. Philip Randolph, head of the Negro American Labor Council, to be Chairman of the November 17, 1965, Conference. Wilkins said that he had some additional plans for the Conference and Rustin suggested that Wilkins make them known to the White House. Wilkins said that he would consider it a privilege to take part in the Conference with Randolph as Chairman. Wilkins said that any one of several individuals could be Chairman and named specifically Whitney Young, head of the National Urban League; James Farmer, head of the Congress of Racial Equality; Martin Luther King, Jr., head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; and himself, Wilkins. Rustin agreed with this observation. Wilkins then stated that Randolph is the correct choice. Rustin and Wilkins agreed that Young would also recommend Randolph.

Subsequently, on August 14, 1965, Rustin conferred with one Max Shachtman (phonetic). Rustin related that he had convinced Randolph to be Honorary Chairman of the Conference and that the White House would permit him, Rustin, to "stand in" for Randolph in all planning. Rustin claimed that Randolph went to the White House and told the President that he, Randolph, would reluctantly be the Chairman but that he would have to have someone else close to him do all the work. Randolph was about to mention Rustin when Mr. Lee White, a Presidential aide, turned to the President and said "Mr. President, the Vice President and I feel that of the thirty people who come to the White House, the only person who really made a great deal of sense was a Mr. Rustin." According to Rustin, the President then said "Oh, that is the man who led the March on Washington." White then said "More important, Mr. President, he is the man who wrote the article,'From Protest to Politics,' which I laid on your desk in preparation for one of your speeches." The President said "You know I am very happy to accept Mr. Rustin if Mr. Randolph would like to have him." Randolph then said that Rustin is exactly the person he, Randolph, was going to name.

Rustin then told Shachtman that the reason he is calling is that Mr. Lee White wants Rustin to have on White's desk on August 20, 1965, a list of people Rustin would propose for a committee to run the Conference. Rustin said that he wanted to get a group to talk about his ideas and that he desired the Conference "to deal on a basis of economics." Rustin told Shachtman that Vice President Humphrey is friendly to him, Rustin, personally. Shachtman then said "I hope that you have, like I have, left behind the feeling that if you are on talking terms with someone among the bourgeoise, you have betrayed the proletariat." Rustin then said "Oh, don't worry."

Later on August 14, 1965, Rustin contacted one Tom Kahn, related his conversation with Shachtman, and stated that he desired to have a meeting with Kahn on August 17, 1965, Rustin commented that this is one of the most important opportunities "we" have had. Rustin named as people to get for the August 17, 1965, meeting Norm Hill, Rachelle Horowitz, Tom Kahn, Shachtman and himself (Rustin). Rustin said that they would also like to have Irving Howe present. Rustin concluded by saying that he "wouldn't want some people to know that a socialist caucus met on it."

The following information concerns individuals of the same names as those mentioned above and may relate to them.

In the early 1940's, Bayard Rustin was a member of the Young Communist League, an organization designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Communist Influence in Racial Matters

One Max Shachtman, who was born September 10, 1903, at Warsaw, Poland, and is a naturalized citizen, was a member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, USA, from which he was expelled in 1928 for espousing doctrines of Leon Trotsky. Shachtman later joined the Socialist Workers Party, an organization designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450, but in April, 1940, split from this organization and formed the Workers Party, of which he became National Chairman. He continued as National Chairman of the Workers Party and its successor, the Independent Socialist League, until September, 1958, when the Independent Socialist League merged with the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation. As of 1964, Shachtman was still serving as a member of the National Committee, Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

From 1957 to 1961, one Thomas Kahn was a member of the National Executive Committee of the Young People's Socialist League which is the youth affiliate of the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

In 1960, one Rachelle Horowitz was associated with the Young People's Socialist League.

One Irving Horenstein, also known as Irving Howe, was a member of the Workers Party and the Socialist Workers Party from 1940 to 1946. He was also a member of the Young People's Socialist League from 1934 to 1946.

One Norman S. Hill, Jr., was associated, during 1958 and 1959, with the Young People's Socialist League.

Civil Rights Parade at Springfield, Massachusetts on 8/22/65 was delayed one hour until 3:30 p.m. since only an estimated 350 of expected 1500 demonstrators assembled at start.

Demonstrators carrying posters and singing freedom songs proceeded to City Hall where speakers denounced alleged police brutality and charged mayor and others with lack of concern over charges.

Demonstrators had increased to a total of 750 individuals and no instances of violence reported. No information received indicating subversive involvement.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

On August 24, 1965, confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised he had learned that MARION METELITS, a member of the District Board, Communist Party, Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), attended the convention of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference held in Birmingham, Ala., from August 7 - 12, 1965. This source further advised that the expenses for her trip were paid by the National Office of the CP, USA; however, METELITS had returned to Philadelphia one day before the convention ended because she had not been granted sufficient funds. While in Birmingham, METELITS stayed at Birmingham's largest hotel and claimed she had a wonderful time.

METELITS attended this convention as a delegate, but when she experienced difficulties gaining admission to some of the conferences, she then indicated she was a reporter from the "Independent Citizen," the official publication of the Independent Citizens Committee (ICC) in Philadelphia. This resulted in her meeting members of the press and enabled her to obtain copies of the speeches before they were delivered. She was also able to meet many of the people who were leaders of this group.

A characterization of the ICC is attached.

METELITS claimed she had a discussion with Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING, and during this discussion asked her some questions pertaining to the women question. Mrs. KING appeared to be very interested and indicated she would call METELITS and answer these questions after she had given them further thought. METELITS stated that in addition to the reporter from "The Evening Bulletin," a local Philadelphia newspaper, she was the only one from Philadelphia in attendance at this convention.

According to METELITS, the key to civil rights is the Voting Rights Bill which should stimulate much political action in the South, as well as in the North. While demonstrations will continue, they will not be on the same scale, but political action will become the weapon. METELITS claimed she was able to influence this thinking among some of the committees with which she met.

As a result of her attendance at this convention, METELITS is requesting a reorganization of the ICC because this organization is in line with the thinking of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). METELITS intends to use this to keep the ICC alive in Philadelphia.

METELITS has indicated that she plans to travel to New York City to meet with some of the leaders in the National Office of the CP, USA, at which time she will discuss certain parts of this convention with them. METELITS, however, did not indicate what these were, except she indicated they should be kept secret.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN

According to this source, MARION METELITS on August 21, 1965, appeared before a group of people to discuss her recent Southern trip. The theme of her speech was political action, and she requested the ICC to use the Voting Rights Bill in its future political activities. This meeting was sponsored by the ICC.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On May 19, 1965, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that during the first part of May, 1965, LONNIE HEALY, member of the CP in Seattle, Washington, stated the Des Moines CP Club was going to sponsor an affair on May 16, 1965, which would feature a speech by ELLEN FAWCETT (wife of JOHN FAWCETT). HEALY stated JOHN FAWCETT was due back from Mississippi during the second week of June. HEALY advised she had been assured by members of the Des Moines CP Club that proceeds from the above affair would go to the "People's World" (PW), even though the people attending would believe the money was going to civil rights work.

The PW is noted as a West Coast Communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

"The Seattle Times" of February 14, 1965, carried an article on Page 16 relating that JOHN FAWCETT was leaving his job and family at 11819 - 19th Avenue SW to participate in civil rights causes in Mississippi. It was stated he would be gone about five months. FAWCETT was described as an ordained elder of the Boulevard Park Presbyterian Church, (Seattle).

On May 18, 1965, a second source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised a meeting of the Des Moines CP Club was held during the first part of May, 1965, at which time GEORGE RUSSELL, member of the Club, stated he had talked with Mrs. FAWCETT and that she had agreed to talk to a group on May 16, (1965). VI RUSSELL, wife of GEORGE RUSSELL and also a member of the Des Moines CP Club, stated she had some friends and neighbors that would love to attend but that there could be no mention of the PW or (Communist) Party and that she would not invite them unless this was well understood. The group voted that this could be done, and to invite, but not split with other groups. It was decided that coffee and cake would be served with a conscience cup on the table and that guests could assume the money would go for the South as long as Mrs. FAWCETT understood that it was going to support the PW.

On June 7, 1965, the second source advised a PW fund raising meeting sponsored by the Des Moines CP Club was held on May 16, 1965, at 801 S. 219th, Des Moines, Washington. Mrs. ELLEN FAWCETT told of visiting her husband who is in Mississippi as a civil rights worker. There was a conscience cup on the table with the proceeds going to the PW. This was done with Mrs. FAWCETT's knowledge and approval.

On June 7, 1965, a third source who has furnished reliable information in the past also reported Mrs. ELLEN FAWCETT gave a talk at a PW fund raising meeting sponsored by the Des Moines CP Club on May 16, 1965.

On June 7, 1965, the second source advised a regular meeting of the Des Moines CP Club was held during the latter part of May, 1965, at which time it was stated $19 was made on the FAWCETT meeting.

On August 17, 1965, the first source above advised upon recontact that the affair at which ELLEN FAWCETT was to talk was sponsored by the Des Moines CP Club. Source did not attend the May 16, 1965, affair and was unable to furnish any further information.

On August 16, 1965, the third source above was re-contacted and could furnish no further information regarding the above matter.

On August 20, 1965, the second source above advised that the proceeds of the May 16, 1965, meeting were to go to the PW with the knowledge and consent of Mrs. FAWCETT. The proceeds would not be shared with another (CP) Club. Source noted VI RUSSELL had said she had friends and neighbors outside the PW and Communist (Party) activities that she would like to invite and she wanted to be sure there would be no mention of any Party activities or any mention of the PW at this meeting. Mrs. FAWCETT, according to the second source, spoke to a group at the RUSSELL residence on May 16, 1965, with no mention of Party activities or of the PW. She spoke solely of civil rights activities and the progress being made in the South. A cold lunch was served with a conscience cup on the table, and no mention was made of where the money was to go. At the earlier Club meeting, it was hoped that people would assume that the proceeds would go to the civil rights movement. At a meeting of the Des Moines CP Club subsequent to the May 16, 1965, affair, it was reported that $19 was taken in at the FAWCETT meeting and this would be used as a turn-in to the PW drive by the Des Moines CP Club with the knowledge and consent of Mrs. FAWCETT.

RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Reurlet 8/16/65, which submitted explanations from personnel involved in an error which occurred in your office relating to the report of SA Francis J. Walsh, dated 7/29/65, in captioned matter. The error consisted of dispatching this report to local military agencies by regular mail, although the report was classified ~~"Confidential,"~~ thus requiring that it go by registered mail.

Among the explanations submitted were those of Clerk [redacted], who noted that although he did not recall dispatching this specific report, he found that there appeared no designation to send it by registered mail. He therefore apparently dispatched the report by regular mail, inasmuch as he relies on the designation relative to mailing, which appears after the copy count, and because he does not read or analyze each piece of outgoing mail.

Your letter stated that all of the employees involved (SA Walsh, approving supervisor, stenographer, and Clerk [redacted]) shared responsibility for the error and that it would be considered in the next performance ratings of these personnel. The Bureau does not believe that Clerk [redacted] has the responsibility in this matter that the other three employees do, and that this matter should not be charged against [redacted] for consideration in his next performance rating. [redacted]'s job description does not require his going beyond the designation for means of mailing, which is indicated after the copy count in reports, and to go beyond this step would necessitate wasteful effort on his part. The Bureau agrees with your action concerning the other three employees.

ReBulet 8/9/65 calling attention to the report of SA FRANCIS J. WALSH dated 7/29/65, which did not bear the indication that copies disseminated to the military were sent by registered mail.

Attached are the original and one copy each of memoranda from the following employees: Supervisor [redacted], SA FRANCIS J. WALSH, Steno [redacted] and CLERK [redacted].

It is quite clear that dissemination to the military was not by registered mail. All of the employees whose memoranda are attached share responsibility for this error, and it will be considered in the next performance rating of the personnel involved. Each has been impressed with the seriousness of the situation and this will have, I am sure, a salutory effect on these employees in the future.

I do not in any way minimize the seriousness of this error, but I feel that the action taken thus far, plus placing copies of the memoranda and this letter in the personnel files of these employees, will have the desired effect. In view of this, I recommend no additional administrative action.

ADDENDUM - DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE DIVISION -
8/18/65, SFP:alt

Error:

SOG detected error relating to ~~"Confidential"~~ report of SA Francis J. Walsh, dated 7/29/65, at Baltimore, re "Communist Infiltration - Racial Matters," in that it was mailed to three local military intelligence agencies by regular mail rather than registered mail as required. SA Walsh; SA [redacted], who approved report; and stenographer [redacted], who typed report all attributed error to inadvertence. They knew it should have gone by registered mail, are sorry for the dereliction, and insure there will be no recurrence. In addition, Clerk [redacted], who actually dispatched the report, stated that he did not recall this specific report and that in dispatching mail he relies on the designation after the copy count in order to determine the means of dispatch. Because "registered mail" was not indicated the report went out by regular mail because [redacted] does not read or analyze each piece of outgoing mail.

SAC's Recommendations:

b7C

SAC Tully advised that he has impressed each of the above-named employees with the seriousness of the error, and that he believes it will have a salutory effect on them in the future. He will consider this matter in the next performance rating of each employee involved and believes that the action taken thus far will have the desired effect. He recommends no additional administrative action.

Domestic Intelligence Division's Observations:

DID concurs with SAC Tully in that no further administrative action appears warranted, as our investigation was in no way hampered, nor was any embarrassment caused to the Bureau. We do not agree with Tully's statement that all of the employees, including [redacted], share responsibility for the error to the extent that this matter should be considered in the next performance rating concerning [redacted]. This Clerk's responsibilities for properly dispatching outgoing mail does not extend beyond checking the appropriate place after the copy count to note means of dispatch. To go beyond this would have our clerks performing needless functions. Also, [redacted]'s job description does not call for going beyond what is indicated after the copy count.

Recommendations of DID:

1. No further administrative action relative to employees involved. b6 b7C

2. Attached for approval is a Personal Attention letter to SAC Tully, advising him that no dereliction should be charged to Clerk [redacted] relative to this matter.

ReBUlet 8/9/65, and report of SA FRANCIS J. WALSH, at Baltimore, dated 7/29/65.

As Supervisor, I approved the outgoing report of SA WALSH. I am familiar with the instructions in the Manual of Rules and Regulations that if a report is to be sent by registered mail, the Agent should so dictate, and that the Manual specifies that all material of a security nature, including all classified information transmitted through the U. S. mail, must be sent by registered mail. I am also familiar with the provision of the Manual for Field Stenographers, Section 4, p. 18, which sets out that in all communications containing security information, the method of mailing to be used must be indicated following the designation of copies.

This report should have had "registered mail" on the FD 263 and also on the FD 204.

In reviewing this report, I inadvertently overlooked the fact that these designations were not so listed. Every effort will be made in the future to prevent a recurrence of the same.

RACIAL MATTER; COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to memorandum dated August 16, 1965.

Referenced memorandum set forth information concerning arrest of David Page on August 14, 1965. Information set forth below reveals Page's correct name to be Daniel Paige.

On August 19, 1965, [redacted], Human Relations Section, Chicago, Illinois Police Department, made available the arrest record of Daniel Paige, also known as David Page, Chicago Police Department C. B. number [redacted]. Paige was arrested by the Chicago Police Department at 10:30 p.m. on August 14, 1965, at Kostner and Jackson, Chicago, where he was passing out copies of the following leaflet: b6 b7C

"Get the Cops Out!"

"The cops and the Daley Machine had this coming. The people are in the right, the cops in the wrong.

"The press informs us that Daley and his flunkies had to mobilize their National Guard today to enforce 'Law and Order' if necessary. 'Law and order' to these modern day taskmasters means the same treatment black folks have received for the last 400 years. Their 'law and order' is the conduct of the rioting cops in Chicago, and Los Angeles as well as the U. S. Troops in Vietnam.

100-439579

Their 'law and order' has nothing in common with the black working people. For when a people assume what is their civil rights to start with, the Daleys and Wilsons invoke 'law and order' to take it away.

"After years of oppression and smashing of popular movements, such as the anti-Willis movement here and numerous struggles in ghettos across the country, the people are giving their slave masters their due reward. Already in Los Angeles the Negro people are successfully battling off the shock troops of the ruling class, using only stones and small arms against helicopters and automatic weapons.

"No one can fail to note the similarities between Los Angeles (Rochester last year) and Vietnam; helicopters are the only way the forces of oppression can penetrate the liberated areas; and the people, strong and full of confidence in the justice of their cause, knock those helicopters out with their inferior arms!

"We must organize to defend the ghetto from cop terror!

"Remove the cops! Send the troops back home! Organize neighborhood patrols by neighborhood people!

"Free all persons arrested in the 'riot' ! Free all those jailed for 'crimes' against capitalist property!

"Call for dismissal of charges against those who opposed House Un-American Activities Committee attempt to witch hunt and intimidate civil rights forces!

A characterization of the Revolutionary Committee Of The Fourth International identifying "Spartacist" is an appendix to this memorandum.

Paige was charged with "mob action", inciting to riot, and disorderly conduct.

On August 15, 1965, Paige was released and he is to appear in Court Branch 46A on August 26, 1965, on the above charges.

[redacted] advised that when arrested Paige admitted to being a Communist and a member of the "Spartacist" group in New York City. Paige also admitted that he helped prepare the above-mentioned leaflet.

REVOLUTIONARY COMMITTEE OF THE FOURTH INTERNATIONAL

A source advised on September 9, 1964, that the Revolutionary Committee of the Fourth International (RCFI) was also known as the Spartacist Committee and the Spartacist Group. This source described the RCFI as being composed of former members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) who had split from the SWP and who were led by JAMES ROBERTSON. This source stated that this political unit has its main center in New York City, where it publishes "Spartacist" on a very irregular basis, but their formal meetings are held at least once a week.

A second source advised on March 4, 1964 , that FARRELL DOBBS, National Secretary of the SWP, sent a letter to all SWP branches in February, 1964, in which he advised that the expelled leader of a minority faction of the SWP, JAMES ROBERTSON, announced on February 10, 1964, that his faction would publicly criticize the SWP and had followed this with a public organ called "Spartacist" in which they attacked the SWP.

The July-August, 1964, issue of "Spartacist," in its masthead describes this publication as follows: "... published bi-monthly by supporters of the Revolutionary Tendency expelled from the Socialist Workers Party." This masthead sets forth that the editor of the publication is JAMES ROBERTSON, and its main address is Post Office Box 1377, General Post Office, New York, New York.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN
RACIAL MATTERS

On August 23, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that at a Communist Party (CP) meeting held on August 22, 1965, IRVING GOFF, District Organizer, Communist Party, Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), discussed the recent riots in Los Angeles and placed the entire blame for the riots on the white people. According to GOFF, the Chief of Police in Los Angeles is anti-Negro and is responsible for the acts of police brutality in that area.

GOFF stated the CP should take advantage of these riots wherever they occur as they will eventually lead the United States to socialism. He explained that the monopolistic capitalists will have to modify their capitalistic system in order to stop the rioting. This can be accomplished by creating more jobs and better housing. The CP will have to instigate for more jobs and better housing through the various anti-poverty organizations and groups. He also indicated that there are other things the CP should do in this regard, which he will discuss at a later date.

GOFF then mentioned the war in Viet-Nam, and stated that Negroes cannot rightfully go abroad and fight when they have their own problems at home. The United States should not be fighting for the freedom of the Viet-Namese when some of its own people are not free. According to GOFF, the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) are beginning to realize this. The Congress

DECLASSIFIED BY SP4 CW/KCA ON 6/10/85 #253760

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 25, 1965, that Bernard Lee (Personal Assistant to Martin Luther King) was in contact with Stanley Levison on that date. Lee stated that he was contacting Levison in behalf of King, who desired Levison review an article which he (King) was writing for "The New York Times" magazine (Sunday's edition). Lee said that King wanted to determine whether or not the article was perceptive enough and if not, wanted him to make the necessary changes. Levison agreed to the request and said that he would make whatever changes were necessary.

Later, on August 25, 1965, the same source advised that Martin Luther King contacted Levison concerning the article which is to appear in "The New York Times", and also in regard to other matters. After discussing the article, they concurred that the article would receive nationwide attention, prompting King to comment that the article should contain a message to the effect that one way to respond to "that" (Los Angeles riot) was to take a completely negative attitude, whereby the civil rights leaders and everyone else would be blamed for the trouble. King said he had been accused since he had urged people to break laws during the civil rights demonstrations. In an effort to explain his position more clearly, King said that he was trying to get across the fact that a crisis like "that" (Los Angeles riot) could be both a danger point as well as an opportunity. "This is the time", King said, "to seek the causes and face the fact that we haven't done enough to right wrongs". He said, "Now is the time to make a new national commitment on the whole question of civil rights."

Communist Infiltration
in Racial Matters

Levison, commenting on King's belief that a new national committment should be made, said "such a statement could be expressed in the form King had used before, that non violence can make its effective contribution only when there is a creative and cooperative response on the other side from the power structure".

According to the source, one other important matter was considered before King and Levison ended their conference. King said he had a feeling that there was a need to re-evaluate "our whole programmatic thrust" in the next few months, particularly their work in the North. He said that was necessary since there had been accusations that the Los Angeles riot had been caused because civil rights leaders had not carried their program to the isolated people.

It was agreed that in view of King's feeling that an urgent consultation with his advisors was needed, specifically Young, Bayard Rustin, Levison and Clarence Jones; that a meeting be held in Atlanta at the Hilton Inn on August 26, 1965, through the morning of August 28, 1965.

The conference ended with a promise by Levison that he would contact Rustin and Jones to see whether or not they could attend the meeting.

The source advised on the night of August 25, 1965, that Stanley Levison made arrangements to fly to Atlanta, Georgia on August 26, 1965, aboard Eastern Airlines Flight 101Y, which was scheduled to leave Kennedy International Airport at 9:30 a.m. and arrive in Atlanta at 10:38 a.m. The source said Levison would be met at the Atlanta airport by Andrew Young (Executive Director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference).

Re: Communist Infiltration In
Racial Matters

On August 26, 1965, at 9:30 a.m., Special Agents of the New York Office observed Stanley Levison board Eastern Airlines Flight Number 101Y and depart Kennedy International Airport for Atlanta, Georgia.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (S) (U)

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

BEATING OF HERMAN SPAHR;
AUGUST 15, 1965, YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO
RACIAL MATTERS - YOUNGSTOWN

CV T-1, another governmental agency that conducts security-type investigations, advised on August 26, 1965, that it learned from one of its sources that Nathaniel C. Lee is allegedly attempting to stir up the Negroes in the Youngstown area into a show of violence, but it is suspected that his aggressive action has caused a resentment against him by a majority of the Negro population. CV T-1's source stated that because of this, it is anticipated that Lee will wait until the outcome of legal proceedings against Herman Spahr before taking further action, for fear of losing popularity and prestige with the Negro population.

The "Youngstown Vindicator," daily newspaper of a general circulation in the Youngstown area, issue of August 24, 1965, carried an article stating that "The NAACP of Youngstown entered the Theodore Robinson slaying to try to calm the Negro community and prevent authorities from whitewashing the incident, said Nathaniel Lee, President of the Ohio and Youngstown units of the NAACP, Monday night (August 23, 1965). Lee reported to an overflow crowd of some 125 at the W. Federal Street YMCA on an investigation by a NAACP special committee into the killing.... Lee said rumors, many erroneous, were rampant among Negroes following the slaying and that ill will was mounting. He praised cool heads among both Negroes and whites for preventing a riot..... Lee told his audience that the NAACP will now act as a watchdog on the case. 'We will do all within our power to see that all the evidence in this case is presented for the court's consideration,' said Lee. ...Lee said the NAACP recognizes it has a responsibility, but it also demands the community realize its responsibility to remove the causes of riots and civil disorder. In a breakdown of law and order, Lee said, Negroes themselves would suffer the most."

This same article in the "Youngstown Vindicator" stated that at the gathering at the W. Federal Street YMCA, "a member of the audience, Ted Dostal, urged the Negro community to pack the courtroom September 2 to 'let the judge see we are vitally concerned.'"

CV T-1 stated that Chief of Police John Terlesky, Youngstown, Ohio, reported on August 25, 1965, that he considers the threat of a racial riot to have subsided, although he has had his officers on a twenty-four hour alert until this past weekend. He feels that the absence of ghettos and the opportunity of employment in Youngstown have instilled a feeling of content within the Negro population, which would be difficult to overcome, even by the present cause.

CV T-2 advised on March 9, 1947 that Nathaniel Lee attended the National Convention of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) held in Cleveland, Ohio that date, and that he was appointed as a representative from the Youngstown Branch on the moninating committee of the convention.

When interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on February 1, 1962, Lee stated that he had attended many meetings of the SWP during the period 1941 to 1946 or 1947, but had not considered himself to be a member of the group. He stated that he discontinued attending meetings because he disagreed with certain economic beliefs of the SWP and that his main interest was in the SWP's program in connection with Negroes in this country.

RE: BEATING OF HERMAN SPAHR;
AUGUST 15, 1965, YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO
RACIAL MATTERS - YOUNGSTOWN

CV T-3 advised on April 28, 1954 that Nathaniel Lee had been present at a meeting of the Youngstown, Ohio branch of the SWP, held on April 23, 1954, which meeting was open only to SWP members and sympathizers.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

CV T-4 advised on September 2, 1963 that the Workers World Party Labor Day Conference convened at Workers World Party (WWP) headquarters in New York City on August 31, 1963. The convening of the conference was preceeded by a meeting of the presidium composed of the WWP National Committee members, which group included Theodore Dostal. Dostal is of the white race.

A characterization of the WWP is attached hereto.

The editorial comments on the growing opposition to law and order and states "This does not mean racial matters alone; it applies to all forms of crime, but much of the increase in crime is racial and stems from racial troubles. COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

On August 24, 1965, confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised he had learned that MARION METELITS, a member of the District Board, Communist Party, Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), attended the convention of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference held in Birmingham, Ala., from August 7 - 12, 1965. This source further advised that the expenses for her trip were paid by the National Office of the CP, USA; however, METELITS had returned to Philadelphia one day before the convention ended because she had not been granted sufficient funds. While in Birmingham, METELITS stayed at Birmingham's largest hotel and claimed she had a wonderful time.

METELITS attended this convention as a delegate, but when she experienced difficulties gaining admission to some of the conferences, she then indicated she was a reporter from the "Independent Citizen," the official publication of the Independent Citizens Committee (ICC) in Philadelphia. This resulted in her meeting members of the press and enabled her to obtain copies of the speeches before they were delivered. She was also able to meet many of the people who were leaders of this group.

A characterization of the ICC is attached.

METELITS claimed she had a discussion with Mrs. MARTIN LUTHER KING, and during this discussion asked her some questions pertaining to the women question. Mrs. KING appeared to be very interested and indicated she would call METELITS and answer these questions after she had given them further thought. METELITS stated that in addition to the reporter from "The Evening Bulletin," a local Philadelphia newspaper, she was the only one from Philadelphia in attendance at this convention.

According to METELITS, the key to civil rights is the Voting Rights Bill which should stimulate much political action in the South, as well as in the North. While demonstrations will continue, they will not be on the same scale, but political action will become the weapon. METELITS claimed she was able to influence this thinking among some of the committees with which she met.

As a result of her attendance at this convention, METELITS is requesting a reorganization of the ICC because this organization is in line with the thinking of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). METELITS intends to use this to keep the ICC alive in Philadelphia.

METELITS has indicated that she plans to travel to New York City to meet with some of the leaders in the National Office of the CP, USA, at which time she will discuss certain parts of this convention with them. METELITS, however, did not indicate what these were, except she indicated they should be kept secret.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN

According to this source, MARION METELITS on August 21, 1965, appeared before a group of people to discuss her recent Southern trip. The theme of her speech was political action, and she requested the ICC to use the Voting Rights Bill in its future political activities. This meeting was sponsored by the ICC.

Communists Cite 'Inhuman Poverty' And 'Brutal Ferocity' in Watts

The following statement was issued Tuesday on behalf of the Communist Party, U.S.A. by Gus Hall, Henry Winston and Claude Lightfoot:

ONCE AGAIN — In the city of Los Angeles and to a lesser degree in Chicago and in Springfield, Massachusetts — we witness eruptions of violence in Negro ghettoes. And once again we witness the brutal ferocity, this time exceeding all previous bounds, with which these spontaneous protests among a frustrated and desperate people are put down.

In Los Angeles, 2,500 National Guardsmen in addition to loial police and sheriff's deputies have poured into the Watts area, shooting and killing. At this moment, 32 are dead — 26 of them Negroes; 762 are injured — nearly all of them Negroes; 2,225 have been arrested — all of them Negroes. The figures speak for themseves. It is white Guardsmen and cops who are killing and wounding Negroes, not the other way around.

This is the violence historically visited on the Negro people, the violence with which their efforts to secure the treatment due them as human beings has been all too often met. Those to be condemned for these outbursts are those responsible for the inhuman conditions which lead to these outbursts impelled by human anguish. And no condemnation is strong enough for those who meet them by shooting people down in cold blood like animals.

THESE EXPLOSIONS are a consequence of the inhuman poverty and mass unemployment to which the Negro residents of these unspeakable ghettoes are subjected, for the sake of the extra billions in profits extorted by the big corporations out of the Jim Crow oppression of the Negro. They are a consequence of the fact that despite all the talk of a war on poverty, literally nothing has been done to relieve these conditions, while the Yortys the Daleys and their ilk use the anti-poverty program as a means of maneuvering for political patronage and power.

In the Watts area, more than 30 percent are unemployed according to even the official figures. In this and other ghetto areas, as Dr. Conant showed in his study some years ago, 60-70 percent of Negro youth remain jobless. This is what must be remedied if these outbursts against hunger, degradation and demoralization are to be ended.

The policy of brutal repression must be ended at once. What is needed instead is a massive emergency program of jobs and assistance, far exceeding the grossly inadequate sums now allotted. At this moment $300,000 a day is being spent to maintain the murderous National Guard units in the Watts area. As a beginning, the Guards should be removed and this sum spent instead for the relief of its victims. Further, the Watts community must be declared a disaster area and immediate relief provided to its inhabitants, who are now unable to obtain food and other necessities of life.

WE CALL ALSO for the establishment of appropriate citizens' committees of inquiry, consisting of leading labor, religious profesisonal and other civic figures including representatives of the communities involved, to investigate these situations and to make full reports with recommendations for drastic action to remedy them.

President Johnson has called for the cessation of violence. We agree. But we would urge that an appropriate beginning would be to punish the murderers of civil rights workers in the South —murderers who now kill with impunity and on whom not one day of punishment has been imposed. An appropriate beginning would be to end police brutality and the reign of trigger-happy cops in Negro communities. An appropriate beginning would be to end the war of aggression in Vietnam and to use the money now wasted on armaments for a truly all-out war on poverty.

Above all, an end can be put to violence by abolishing the ghettoes, by doing away with the oppression and segregation of human beings that so disgrace our country today.

A Professional Revolutionary Job

By WILLIAM R. MATHEWS

An Editorial

As a prelude to any discussion of the awful race riot in Los Angeles, the Star continues to proclaim its oft-stated policy that every American citizen must be treated just the same as any other one regardless of his race, color or religious beliefs.

If a group of white people proclaiming a just grievance takes the law into its own hands, that group must be suppressed. But the same rule applies to any group of Negroes, Mexicans or other minority. Otherwise anarchy will prevail.

It is the duty of every police force to resist with all of its power lawless mobs, no matter who they are, who refuse police orders to disband. When the members of the mob refuse, the police are duty bound to use whatever force is necessary or that they have at their command. This will frequently mean that police will get killed or injured and that members of mobs will also suffer death and injury.

It is also well to bear in mind that riots don't just happen. There are few if any that erupt spontaneously. Not more than six people are necessary to start a riot, provided there is a deep-seated, widely prevailing grievance that unites a homogeneous group of people.

Professionally-trained revolutionaries make use of this basic unifying spirit, but they know that they must wait for some minor, unknown kind of incident which they can quickly dramatize to set off a riot.

A few riot-makers have been doing a highly successful job in Los Angeles. They have been preaching hatred of the white man. They use the same slogan that was used in the Congo in 1961 and 1963:

"Get the whites!" or "Get the whitey!" That slogan must have been repeated many times in the past months in the big Negro community in Los Angeles. It was repeated so often that it filled the minds and hearts of the younger Negroes particularly

An expected but unknown incident happened. A California highway patrolman in his car chased a Negro in a car through the Negro district and put him under arrest. He was charged with drunken driving and reckless driving. The scene of the arrest attracted a crowd. The professional revolutionaries saw their opportunity. It took no more than one of them, shouting a slogan like "Get the whitey!" to set off this riot. The tinder was dry. All that was needed was a spark.

The riot was on. The professional revolutionaries succeeded beyond their fondest hopes. Diligently they supplied the Molotov cocktails which had been made in advance and stored ahead of time. They spurred small groups of Negroes to go out and set the fires. One thousand fires cannot be made by a few people on the spur of the moment. It takes planning that reflects professional revolutionary training.

There is only one organization in the United States that offers this training. It is the Communist Party U.S.A. It has its intellectuals as it proved at Berkeley; it has its trained Negroes as it proved at Los Angeles. It knows the value of anonymity. There were probably not more than a thousand or so Negroes who know who the riotmakers are. The riotmakers simply capitalized on an incident that they had good reason to believe would erupt.

The idea of setting fires in many widely separated places in our big cities is a new development in revolutionary tactics. Its effectiveness in large cities forecasts it will be used increasingly in the future.

Most of the Negroes who participated in the riot have been used as mere stooges which will harm them rather than help their welfare.

On August 20, and August 26, 1965, this office furnished memoranda captioned as follows:

POSSIBLE SIT-IN DEMONSTRATION,
MAYOR'S OFFICE,
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON,
AUGUST 19, 1965

The above memoranda furnished information concerning a group of youths who appeared in the office of Seattle Mayor J. D. COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to the memorandum dated August 16, 1965, at Chicago, Illinois, captioned Demonstrations and Disturbance, Wilcox and Pulaski, Chicago, Illinois, August 12, 1965, Racial Matters and Communist Infiltration in Racial Matters.

At 7:05 p.m., August 12, 1965, Officer [redacted], Deputy Superintendent's Office, Chicago Police Department, advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that the civil rights organization ACT passed out handbills on August 12, 1965, calling for a rally to be held at 8:30 p.m., August 12, 1965, at Oakley and Jackson Streets, Chicago, to protest the Board of Education and Welfare Department.

Chicago T-1 advised that at 8:30 p.m., August 12, 1965, the above protest meeting was being sponsored by the West Side ACT against practices made by the Chicago Board of Education and Cook County Public Aid Department. The source stated that the leaders intend to make speeches denouncing these practices against the Negro, and have enlisted members of West Side youth gangs, particularly the Spanish Cobras to swell the ranks. The source stated that at this time there were only about fifteen individuals present at the meeting.

Agents of the Chicago Office of the FBI observed that approximately fifty people from 9:00 p.m., to 9:50 p.m., were in attendance at the rally. The rally was headed by Lawrence Landry, National Chairman of ACT. The group dispersed at 9:50 p.m., and were told to return in the evening of August 13, 1965, for a closed meeting at 4229 West Wilcox and to bring all mothers receiving Aid to Dependent Children.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

At 11:30 p.m., August 12, 1965, Lieutenant [redacted], Fillmore District, Chicago Police Department, advised the Chicago Office of the FBI that at approximately 9:15 p.m., a Negro woman, who was subsequently identified as Dessie Mae Williams, 4047 Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, was killed when a fire truck gone out of control hit a stop sign, which sign in turn struck her. Lieutenant [redacted] stated that the tillerman who steers the vehicle from the back seat of the hook and ladder was not on the truck at the time it left the fire station, and because of this, the fire truck hit several objects after pulling out of the fire station at 4001 Wilcox Avenue. Lieutenant [redacted] stated that shortly after the accident a crowd of approximately 100 Negroes gathered in the area.

At 12:30 a.m., August 13, 1965, Lieutenant [redacted] advised the Chicago Office of the FBI, that the crowd at Jackson and Pulaski Streets had become violent and were breaking car windows in the area.

b7C

[redacted] of the Chicago Police Department advised the Chicago Office of the FBI on August 13, 1965, that immediately after the accident a crowd of approximately 200 Negroes were throwing bottles and bricks, but the damage was confined to automobiles, both parked and passing in the area. He stated that some glass damage was done to two police department vehicles but no damage was done to any of the stores or other property in the area. He stated that the disturbance was brought under control by about 2:00 a.m., August 13, 1965, and two police officers received slight injuries.

[redacted] advised that several members of ACT were at the scene of the disturbance and were trying to calm the demonstrators.

Chicago T-2 advised that he had learned that Frederick Douglas Andrews and approximately five other individuals were successful in attracting approximately 200 individuals at the scene of the above accident. Andrews stated they attempted to attract additional individuals to continue protest demonstrations during the evening of August 13, 1965. In addition, he stated that Nahaz Rogers of ACT was in the process of preparing a leaflet for distribution concerning the death of the Negro female and for failure to integrate the fire houses in the Negro neighborhoods. The source stated that it was his belief that Andrews was a motivating force in initiating the disturbance.

On August 13, 1965, Chicago T-1 advised that during the evening of August 12, 1965, information concerning the disturbance was being furnished to Nahaz Rogers since he was not present at the scene and because he was to prepare a flyer which would be distributed on the West Side of Chicago on August 13, 1965. The source stated that the flyer will state that the cause of the woman's death allegedly was due to drunkenness on the part of the fireman, and therefore inexcusable. The flyer will also demand integration of fire stations on the West Side of Chicago. The source further advised that the people leaving the scene of the disturbance during the early morning of August 13, 1965, were requested to return again the night of August 13 for further demonstration. One of the main promoters of this request was Andrews. The source stated that the crowd during the morning of August 13, 1965, was extremely "ugly" and that the situation was a "tinder box" ready to explode at any time. The crowd consisted of both adult and teen-age individuals and many of the teen-age individuals present were members of Negro teen-age gangs, but to the best of source's observation, these gangs were not present in any organized manner.

On August 13, 1965, Chicago T-3 furnished substantially the same information as Chicago T-1. The source stated that it was his opinion that Andrews had been active in leading the demonstrators during the disturbance.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

Chicago T-4 advised on August 20, 1965, that the Communist Party of Illinois (CP) is very much against the recent outburst in the vicinity of Wilcox and Pulaski Streets in Chicago and the Party had in no way interjected itself into the disturbance. The uprising was at the instigation of Lawrence Landry and his civil rights group ACT, and the CP has stayed away from any relationship whatsoever with that group.

A Chicago T-5 advised on August 19, 1965, that on August 16, 1965, Richard Criley, Executive Secretary of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR), indicated that Negro riots in both Los Angeles and Chicago were inevitable. He said that after years of police brutality and being ignored by the city governments, the Negroes were voicing their pent-up frustrations; that for seven years the Negro in Chicago has been attempting to improve his school conditions but no one would listen to him; however, he will be heard since the riots. He said the riots were bound to happen and could not be avoided.

Criley stated further that another motivating factor behind the riots was the Viet Nam situation; i.e., the Negro was expressing his opposition to the United States involvement in the Viet Nam war which is bringing a threat of total war which could result in total war to both sides.

Criley gave no indication that the CCDBR or any other group was in any manner involved in the riots which erupted in Chicago last week.

Richard Criley

A Chicago T-6 advised that as of March, 1963, Criley was a member of the CP of Illinois.

A characterization of the CCDBR is an appendix to this memorandum.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

A Chicago T-7 advised on August 19, 1965, that Ted Pearson, area coordinator of the West Side Section of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of Chicago (DCC), the Chicago area affiliate of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA), advised that the DCC had not participated in the recent civil rights riots held on the West Side of Chicago. Pearson felt that the West Side Chapter of the DCC should prepare a leaflet to be distributed which would neither condone nor condemn the riots but simply set forth the facts as to why it was believed the said rioting occurred.

According to source, the West Side DCC members were instructed to stay away from the area in which the riots were occurring, and source personally surveyed the area during the time the riots were being held and none of the members of the DCC were observed in the area during this period.

Ted Pearson

A Chicago T-8 advised on April 30, 1965, that Ted Pearson was currently chairman of the Communist Party Youth Club, CP of Illinois, and in charge of CP youth work for the Illinois district.

Characterizations of the DCC and DCA are appendixes to this memorandum.

The aforementioned information was furnished to Secret Service and 113th INTC Group on a continuing basis and to the Chicago Police Department, where appropriate.

HE SAID NOW IS TIME TO MAKE A NEW NATIONAL COMMITMENT ON THE WHOLE QUESTION OF CIVIL RIGHTS.

THE OTHER MATTER DISCUSSED WAS KING-S FEELING THAT THERE IS NOW A NEED TO RE- VALUATE "OUR WHOLE PROGRAMATIC THRUST" FOR THE NEXT FEW MONTHS, PARTICULARLY THEIR WORK IN THE NORTH. HE SAID THIS WAS NECESSARY SINCE CIVIL RIGHTS LEADERS WERE BEING ACCUSED FOR THE LOS ANGELES RIOTS BECAUSE THEY HAD NOT CARRIED THE MOVEMENT TO THE ISOLATED PEOPLE.

LEVISON AND KING AGREED THAT DISCUSSION WAS SO URGENT THAT LEVISON, RUSTIN, JONES AND OTHER ADVISORS, SHOULD MEET IN ATLANTA TOMORROW AFTERNOON AND CONTINUE UNTIL SATURDAY AFTERNOON /AUGUST TWENTY SIX - TWENTY EIGHT, SIXTY FIVE/. IT WILL BE HELD AT THE HILTON INN, ATLANTA. LEVISON AGREED TO CONTACT RUSTIN AND JONES ABOUT ATTENDING.

Re Bureau airtel 8/13/65 and Los Angeles airtels to Bureau 8/14/65 and 8/16/65.

[redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on 8/24/65 that BILL TAYLOR, Vice Chairman of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP), [redacted] to get CORE to work for the defense of those persons who had been arrested in the riots and to line up people who had been brutalized by the police, or had had their homes entered illegally, so that these cases could be presented to whatever governmental committee would subsequently be set up as well as to the City Council of Los Angeles.

[redacted] also advised on 8/24/65 that at a meeting of the SCDCP Negro Commission held 8/18/65, the Los Angeles riots were discussed and it was agreed that with the attitude of the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) following the riots there would probably be a bigger flare up in the near future. BILL TAYLOR said that the riots, which were of a class nature rather than a race nature, were not channelled in any way but were spontaneous. After the first two days, however, a number of gangs moved in and it became obvious that the local criminal element had taken over because of the planned pattern which evolved in the looting and burning. TAYLOR called for those present to do their best to help set up adequate legal defense for those who had been arrested, many of whom were actually innocent but had been arrested simply because they had been in the area. Every effort has been made to set up community organizations, and where possible bring out the socialist approach.

[redacted] also advised on 8/24/65 that a meeting of the West Adams Club, Moranda Smith Section, SCDCP, was held in Los Angeles on 8/23/65, and that this meeting had been postponed from the previous week because of the riot curfew. Discussion was held on the Los Angeles riots and one member, FAY MUKES, said that it was time the leadership of the Party be shown by a local statement on the riots and on work in the Negro community, that conditions would never be changed until the system of oppression be changed, that all other measures were just stopgap measures to help a little until that time. A motion was made and passed that the Moranda Smith Section for the National Office Communist Party, U.S.A., should make an immediate socialist-oriented statement relating to Negro work and conditions. b7D Another club member, HILDA SCHNECK, agreed and said that the statement made by the Communist Party "People's World" was not as strong as one that many Social-Democrats had made.

[redacted] was advised on 8/24/65 that on that date BILL TAYLOR [redacted] at least five good "blue ribbon" cases of police brutality, get them well documented, and ready to appear with legal counsel before the committee set up by Governor BROWN.

Los Angeles has canvassed logical CI, PCI, PSI, and SI's concerning this matter. These sources had no additional information which would indicate that subversives were involved in the recent Los Angeles riots. Several PCI's had the feeling that the Muslim movement was involved in these riots but these PCI's could furnish no information that Muslims had actually participated.

On August 28, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stanley Levison was in contact with Ann Jones (wife of Clarence Jones) on that date, to relate that a meeting of the "Research Committee" would be held on Monday, August 30, 1965, at noon time, at the office of Harry Wachtel. Ann said she would tell Clarence about the meeting. (U)

In the past, when reference was made to a meeting of the "Research Committee" it meant a meeting of Martin Luther King and his advisors.

On August 30, 1965, at 12:55 p.m., Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), observed Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and Bernard Lee (Assistant to King) enter the building at 575 Madison Avenue, New York, New York (the building wherein Harry Wachtel has his law offices); and at 1:02 p.m., Bayard Rustin entered the building, followed by Stanley Levison, who entered at 1:15 p.m. At 1:32 p.m., John Lewis (Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, SNCC) entered, followed by Clarence Jones, who entered at 1:38 p.m.

On August 30, 1965, at 5:35 p.m., Cleveland Robinson (Secretary - Treasurer of District 65, Retail, Wholesale, and Department Store Union, American Federation of Labor, Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO)) was observed leaving the building at 575 Madison Avenue, New York City. At 6:18 p.m, King, Lee, Rustin, and John Lewis, departed from the building. At 6:24 p.m., Stanley Levison and Clarence Jones left the building together.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League.

The Labor Youth League has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Harry Wachtel is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, New York, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild.

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto.

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP.

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC.

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. 4(4)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

Re: Communist Influence

On the night of September 6, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)) was in conference with Stanley Levison on that date. Their contact, according to the source, was in regard to an article which is scheduled to appear in "The New York Times" magazine in the future. The article, which will be attributed to King, will deal with the civil rights movement in general and the Los Angeles riot in particular. Levison, the source advised, wanted King's comments regarding the draft of the article he had prepared at King's request. King said he thought it was good, but said he desired to change a couple of points, specifically: the statement at the end of the article which inferred that the only way to solve the problem (Negro) was to have a march of 100,000 people; the statement that none of the major cities have good mayors should read that, "only a few major cities have good mayors, Allen being one of them" (Mayor Allen of Atlanta, Georgia) and the statement that the riots cast light on the imperfections of the civil rights movement. King said the last enumerated statement was too strong and would expose him to the criticism of other civil rights leaders. They agreed to modify the statement by saying that the riots exposed the imperfections of the civil rights movement as well as those factions in the "social-economic" life of the community.

Re: Communist Influence in

Another matter considered by King and Levison was a report that the headquarters of the SCLC had been burglarized. Levison said he had not been able to verify the story, thereby prompting King to volunteer that during the SCLC Convention (in Birmingham, Alabama, August 9-13, 1965) the safe was burglarized. According to King, checks amounting to $6,000, which had been contributed to the SCLC, checks in the amount of $10,000, which were to pay their bills, and a $190,000 check representing funds of the SCLC which were being transferred to another SCLC account, were taken. Levison suggested to King that he "scotch" the rumor that one quarter of a million dollars was stolen because it could adversely affect donations. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

MAYOR, RIGHTS GROUP TALK THINGS OVER

Mayor J. D. Braman yesterday made good his promise to meet with a youthful protest group that sat in his outer office for a day and a half last week demanding an audience.

"You didn't learn anything new," the Mayor said near the end of a 40-minute session that appeared to accomplish little.

"When you did ask for an appointment you got it, and you're here," the Mayor declared. "What do you suggest?" he asked.

THE GROUP reiterated criticisms of Braman and the Police Department expressed last Thursday and Friday during a sit-in.

The Mayor sat down with the group in a conference room just off the area where the demonstrations took place. He was faced by one white youth, Mike Rubicz, 20, and about nine Negroes, mostly in their teens.

Braman repeatedly told the group he was powerless to order new trials for four Negroes convicted of assault in an incident June 20 which resulted in the slaying of a Negro by a policeman. He pointed out that they or their attorney would have to initiate any such action.

"We don't petition courts for new trials," the Mayor said.

RUBICZ, who did most of the talking but declined to be identified as a spokesman for the group, said he didn't know Braman's attitude towards a police review board.

"Well, I think it's pretty well known," the Mayor insisted. "I've said it through the papers. I've said it on television. How many more groups do I have to tell it to?"

He reminded the group of his role in establishment of a community relations group within the Police Department.

AT MORE THAN one point the Mayor's patience appeared a bit thin after repetition again and again of the same queries and charges.

"I don't want to be cross-examined," he snapped at one juncture when several questions came in rapid-fire order.

Braman declined to set a date for a future meeting, insisting that it was impossible for him to speak personally with any and all groups who wanted interviews:

"There are ways for people to find out things. I can't break 570,000 people into groups of eight. . ." the Mayor said. "This would be ideal" he added, "but let's be realistic."

RUBICZ maintained that the Central Area Youth Action Council deserved another hearing because its feelings were shared by many.

"I want a little more assurance that I am talking to responsible representatives of the community," the Mayor said.

The Mayor told the group their sit-in had not aided race relations. He said the general situation was improving but that C.A.Y.A.C and some others were not willing to acknowledge this.

"Progress is being made," he said.

Some of the youngsters questioned whether Braman was sufficiently interested in race relations. "Do you think it takes a group like this coming in here, to make me concerned?" Braman replied. "Of course I'm concerned," he said.

AFTER THE Mayor's departure many of the group remained in the conference room for about 20 minutes, talking to two of Braman's assistants, Edward J. Devine and John K. Taylor. These discussions raised few points not discussed with the Mayor.

Rubicz was asked what C.A.Y.A.C planned to do next:

"We'd like to talk that over with our group," he said, and did not elaborate.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE

On August 19, 1965, Inspector WARD CROW, Seattle Police Department, Seattle, Washington (SPD), advised a group of young people were conducting a sit-in at the mayor's office in the Seattle City Hall.

The Seattle Post Intelligencer of August 20, 1965, carried an article on pages one and seven relating that thirteen demonstrators between the ages of fifteen andtwenty appeared at the office of Seattle mayor, J. D. BRAMAN, the afternoon of August 19, 1965, and presented a list of four grievances. The group was identified with the Central Area Youth Action Council (CAYAC).

On August 20, 1965, CHARLES ROUSE, Assistant Chief, SPD, identified the following individuals as having taken part in the sit-in on August 19, 1965:

CHARLES NICHOLS YOUNG POLITICAL EXPLORERS LEAGUE

ENCLOSURE

During the early part of 1965, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past identified CHARLES NICHOLS as a member of the Young Political Explorers League (YPEL). The YPEL is characterized in the appendix section attached hereto.

During July, 1963, a second source who has furnished reliable information in the past identified CHARLES NICHOLS as the son of ANITA MARKEY.

During February, 1960, a third source who has furnished reliable information in the past identified ANITA MARKEY as a member of the Communist Party (CP).

During August, 1965, a fourth source who has furnished reliable information in the past described LEON and LINDA GIVENS as a younger brother and sister of EDDIE C. GIVENS who was formerly a member of the CP in Seattle, Washington.

During August, 1965, a fourth source described MIKE RUBICZ as a current member of the CP in Seattle, Washington.

On May 3, 1965, the fourth source advised that MIKE RUBICZ has stated that CAYAC is a club involving Central Area youth and that its goal was to represent all the Central Area youth and to belong to all Central Area youth. RUBICZ stated there were about twenty-five members with a ratio of three to one Negro over White.

RUBICZ described CAYAC as a multi-issue organization which grew out of interest in the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party and has also been somewhat involved in the demonstrating around the Viet Nam issue. During August, 1965, the fourth source stated CAYAC had lost approximately 15 of its members recently and that there are approximately fifteen persons left in the group.

During the early part of 1965, the first source above identified ANTHONY WARE as a member of the YPEL.

During August, 1948, the fifth source who has furnished reliable information in the past described JOHN WARE, father of ANTHONY WARE, as a member of the CP in San Francisco, California.

On June 8, 1965, DONALD ALAN GLICK was observed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to be residing at [redacted] Seattle, Washington, which is the residence of CECELIA CORR. CECELIA CORR is described below.

During February, 1965, the fourth source identified BILL CORR has a member of the executive board of the YPEL.

On February 14, 1963, the fourth source identified PETER CORR as a member of the Financial Committee of the YPEL.

On January 14, 1963, the sixth source who has furnished reliable information in the past, identified BILL and PETER CORR as sons of CECELIA CORR who was described by the source as a member of the CP.

On August 23, 1965, the fourth source advised that following the initial CAYAC sit-in of August 19, 1965, a leading member of the Seattle CP described the sit-in and developments which had taken place before hand as follows:

It was stated that CAYAC members are rather close to the defendants in the assault case which grew out of the altercation between four Negroes and two off-duty Seattle policemen on June 20, 1965. Mrs. WILLIAMS, the mother of one of the defendants, was stated to have been acting as an advisor to them (CAYAC) since the incident.

The Seattle Times of August 19, 1965, carried an article relating that on the previous day, four defendants charged with third degree assault in the June 20 beating of two Seattle off-duty policemen had been found guilty by a jury in Seattle Justice Court. Named as one of the defendants was JAMES WILLIAMS, age DOB [redacted] b6 b7C

Continuing, the fourth source advised it was stated that after leaving the trial of the defendants in the assault case CAYAC members went to the CAYAC headquarters (1913 East Yesler, Seattle) and after some discussion they decided to have a sit-in at the mayor's office the following day. MIKE RUBICZ and BILL CORR were stated to have been the only white persons present at this discussion.

MIKE RUBICZ called VIVIAN GEORGE, member of the North Central Section of the CP, Seattle, the same evening (August 18, 1965) telling her of the CAYAC discussion and asking if it would be in keeping with the policy of the CP. GEORGE gave RUBICZ her assent and arranged for a meeting of RUBICZ with BURT NELSON, Chairman of the Northwest District CP (NWDCP), the following morning (August 19, 1965). NELSON told RUBICZ that this sort of activity should not be done on the spur of the moment. He said that it may be necessary for the CP to deny any responsibility in connection with the sit-in in case it did not work.

According to the fourth source, discussion among Seattle CP members indicated that those concerned with activities in the Central Area had serious doubts as to the wisdom of the sit-in. It was felt that the sit-in could cause CAYAC to be isolated from the rest of the community. The opinion was expressed also that several of the demands prepared by CAYAC had no place in a presentation to the mayor.

Members of the CP close to the Central Area recommended that no white, left, non-Central Area people be allowed to take part in the sit-in the following day, according to the fourth source. The fourth source advised that MIKE RUBICZ was reported to have met with MILFORD SUTHERLAND, Organizational Secretary, NWDCP the evening of August 19, 1965.

On August 20, 1965, the seventh source advised that MARY SUTHERLAND "was beside herself" because of the above sit-in demonstration which SUTHERLAND described as unauthorized. The seventh source advised that SUTHERLAND was concerned because a number of individuals involved in the sit-in were also scheduled to act as counsellors at the annual summer camp of the YPEL which would commence during the weekend of August 21-22, 1965.

During July, 1965, the fourth source described MARY SUTHERLAND as a member of the state board, NORTH WEST DISTRICT CP NWDCP. WASH.

The Seattle Times of August 20, 1965, carried an article on page seventeen relating that nine demonstrators from the CAYAC group sat outside Mayor BRAMAN's office on that date.

The Seattle Post Intelligencer on August 26, 1965, carried an article on page six relating that members of the CAYAC group met with Mayor J. D. BRAMAN on August 25, 1965. MIKE RUBICZ was shown as spokesman for the group which included in addition to RUBICZ about nine Negroes, mostly in their teens. The artucle contained the following in part:

> "'There are ways for people to find out things. I can't break 570,000 people into groups of eight...' the Mayor said. 'This would be ideal' he added, 'but let's be realistic.'
> "RUBICZ maintained that the Central Area Youth Action Council deserved another hearing because its feelings were shared by many.
> "'I want a little more assurance that I am talking to responsible representatives of the community,' the Mayor said.
> "The Mayor told the group their sit-in had not aided race relations.

Sources noted in the appendix section have furnished reliable information in the past.

Dear Mr. Watson:

The following information which was furnished by a source who has supplied reliable information in the past may be of interest to the President as indicative of the continuing relationship between Martin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and Stanley David Levison. Levison, a frequent advisor of King's, is a long-time communist whose secret membership in the Communist Party, USA, has been established as recently as July, 1963.

On September 6, 1965, King conferred with Levison regarding an article which is scheduled to appear in "The New York Times Magazine" some time in the future. The article which will be attributed to King will deal with the civil rights movement in general and the recent riot in Los Angeles, California, in particular.

Levison requested King's comments regarding the draft of this article which he had prepared at King's request. King stated that he thought the article was good but he indicated that he desired to change a few points. Specifically, King mentioned the statement at the end of the article which inferred that the only way to solve the Negro problem was to have a march of 100,000 people and the statement that none of the major cities have good mayors. King felt that the latter statement should read "Only a few major cities have good mayors, Mayor Allen of Atlanta, Georgia, being one of them." King further referred to the statement that the riots cast light on the imperfections of the civil rights movement. King commented that this statement was too strong and would expose him to the criticism of other civil rights leaders. King and Levison agreed that this statement should be modified and should read that the riots exposed the imperfections of the civil rights movement as well as those factions in the "social-economic" life of the community.

The above information is also being furnished to the Attorney General and interested officials of the Department of Justice.

PICKETING OF ALLEN-BRADLEY COMPANY, MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.

136 West Greenfield Ave

On September 7, 1965, a source advised that the members of the Milwaukee Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) plan to instigate a picket demonstration against the Allen-Bradley Company, 136 West Greenfield Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, protesting a hiring practice of the company's, described as "tokenism" by the SWP. According to the SWP, the Allen-Bradley Company has hired only a small number of Negroes for the purpose of token compliance with the demands of civil rights groups. (U)

The SWP is an organization designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN OTHERWISE

In a leaflet signed by James E. Boulton, Chairman of the Milwaukee Branch of the SWP, issued May 30, 1965 and publicly distributed by the SWP, a recommendation was made that civil rights groups demonstrate against the Wisconsin State Industrial Commission located in the State Office Building, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for failure to take action against Allen-Bradley. Civil rights groups were also urged to establish motorcades with job applicants to go directly to all-white plants throughout the whole city.

The source furnishing information on September 7, 1965, further stated that the SWP planned on taking action against the Allen-Bradley Company some time during September, 1965 and hoped to receive assistance from civil rights groups operating in Milwaukee. (U)

Enclosed LHM is classified confidential inasmuch as it contains information received from this informant as well as CG 5824-S*, both of whom are confidential informants of continuing value and the unauthorized disclosure of this information would tend to identify these informants and compromise their future effectiveness.

Enclosed LHM was not disseminated locally to Secret Service, the USA and the intelligence agencies because it contains information received from two confidential informants, one of whom is a highly placed informant, and because the information itself does not indicate future racial activities or incidents.

A source on September 9, 1965, advised that a meeting between Mike Zagarell, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) National Youth Director, and west side of Chicago Negro youth gang leaders, whose identities are unknown, was scheduled to be held the evening of September 8, 1965, in Chicago, Illinois, at the residence of Jean Lewis, a former aldermanic candidate from the 28th Ward on the west side of Chicago Ill.

Source advised that this meeting was arranged by Claude Lightfoot, leader of the CP of Illinois, who is a close friend of Lewis and was for the purpose of introducing Zagarell to these Negro west side gang leaders so that Zagarell could obtain from these gang leaders their attitude toward racial problems and the recent race riot which occurred on the west side of Chicago.

Communists in Civil Rights Struggle Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow

By CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

FROM THE PRECEDING articles, it is clear that my evaluation of the 56th convention of the NAACP is mainly negative. And, as indicated in the first article, this negative evaluation is not based on subjective or wishful thinking. Rather it is based on the rate of progress that the conservatively led NAACP has been making in recent years.

We showed in previous articles that the most serious shortcoming of the convention was its failure to come to grips with the issue of peace, civil liberties and other related issues, and, of course, redbaiting.

Mainly because of the persistent effort by this leadership to exclude Communists from participation in the civil rights struggle, the next two articles in this series will be devoted to the role of the Communists yesterday, today and tomorrow.

This subject requires a much more comprehensive review than I shall be able to give in these articles. However, if as a result of them we contribute toward creating an atmosphere leading to a more basic review, a useful purpose will be served.

THE RECORD

History will one day record that there has never been in the U.S. a group or organization which has been lied about, vilified, persecuted as has been the Communist Party. Some day, to paraphrase the immortal Wendell Phillips, "when the truth gets a hearing," the historian will pick up his pen and record that no finer contribution has been made to the cause of freedom in general and Negro freedom in particular than that made by the American Communist Party.

In the struggle to obtain first class citizenship for black Americans, American Communists, black and white, HAVE MUCH TO BE PROUD OF AND NOTHING TO BE ASHAMED OF, for ours is a glorious record of achievements.

Communists made contributions which to this day illuminate the path to Negro freedom, e.g., the growth and extension on varying levels of Negro and white unity which is being manifested today in the trade union movement, in the churches and on college campuses came directly as a result of the Communists' pioneering efforts.

TRIBUTES

In this respect, there are some who have already taken note of this contribution.

Prof. Sinclair Drake and Horace Cayton documented this point in their celebrated work, "Black Metropolis," when they wrote:

"THUNDER ON THE LEFT: The accepted leaders not only had to maintain their ties with the sources of white economics and political power in Midwest Metropolis. They also had to adjust to the moods of racial radicalism, and were forced to take cognizance of pressure from the Left.

"Prior to the Depression, interracial cooperation had meant the contact between Race Leaders and 'best white people' or between Negro and white politicians. Now something new was added.

"During the early Thirties, marchers in left-wing demonstrations in Midwest Metropolis frequently carried placards bearing the slogan, BLACK AND WHITE UNITE! Close interracial cooperation became associated in the popular mind with 'the Reds.' Of course, Negroes and a few whites, as we have seen, have always 'cooperated' in Midwest Metropolis, but usually in white employer-Negro employe relations; or as Negro leader-white patron. These Communist slogans, however, signified something that was new to the city: a small band of white men proclaiming as a goal complete unity of Negro and white workers in a joint struggle to build a new society. Not even the Abolitionists had stood for that."

PRIEST'S COMMENT

Also in this connection, Msgr. J. D. Conway, a courageous Catholic priest, dared to confront the inquisitors of our time and declare out loud, not under his breath, in the St. Louis Review, official organ of the St. Louis diocese of the Roman Catholic Church:

"The Communists were 26 years ahead of the U.S. Supreme Court, 35 years ahead of the New Frontier, aeons ahead of some prejudiced politicians and who knows how much ahead of the Congress and some of our reluctant bishops."

He further said that "it should be a source of deep shame, humility and repentance for us Catholics that the Communists were demanding 35 years ago the justice and the basic human and civil rights which many of us are still denying to our Negro neighbors. Isn't it a wonder that the Negroes have not become Communists?"

These writers display a great deal of courage in speaking the truth as they see it; and also they show a deep insight into social problems. Today their numbers are few. Tomorrow they will be many.

PIONEERS

Through the 1930's and 1940's the Communists were pioneers in interracial organization. They carried the fight against the jimcrow in every aspect of American life. They blazed the trail in discerning the real nature of Negro oppression, the real perpetrators and the real reasons, and more important the class alignment needed to put an end to racial injustice.

They introduced a new militancy into freedom's fight reminiscent of the Abolitionists and Frederick Douglass.

They brought the nature of Negro oppression to the attention of the entire world and thereby made it a worldwide fight.

They helped train a new group of Negro leaders totally dedicated and totally committed to whatever is required to free their people, personal sacrifices notwithstanding. Of these we shall speak later.

Drake and Cayton write:

"With the Depression, 'the Reds' emerged as leaders, fighting against evictions, leading demonstrations for more adequate relief, campaigning to free the Scottsboro Boys. Their reservoir of goodwill was filled to overflowing, with even the Defender writing an editorial on WHY WE CANNOT HATE REDS . . . Negroes joined the parades, attended the picnics and fought bailiffs and policemen. As they did so they found white men marching and fighting beside them. Together they carried signs, BLACK AND WHITE, UNITE, and demonstrated for more relief and better housing, but most of them were attracted to the Communists primarily because the 'Reds' fought for Negroes as Negroes.

"Thousands of Negro preachers, doctors and lawyers as well as housewives gave their money and verbal support to the struggle for freeing the Scottsboro Boys and for releasing Angelo Herndon. Hundreds too voted for Foster and Ford, Browder and Ford, for what other party since Reconstruction days had ever run a Negro for vice-president of the United States? And who had ever put Negroes in a position where they led white men as well as black?

"Everytime a black communist appeared on the platform or his picture appeared in a newspaper Negroes were proud and no stories of 'atheistic Reds' or 'alien Communists' could nullify the fact that here were people who accepted Negroes as complete equals and asked other white men to do so.

"Some of the preachers opposed the Reds publicly, but remarked privately, 'If the Red can feed the people, let 'em.' Politicians dutifully denounced them, but privately admired their spunk. A few Negroes sincerely hated them.

"The Reds won the admiration of the Negro masses by default. They were the only white people who seemed to really care what happened to the Negro."

The accepted leaders that Drake and Cayton referred to all during this period fought and resisted these struggles led by the Communists. They did so in a thousand and one ways. These so-called respectable leaders who in large part owe their leadership to the sufferance of the white ruling class, denounced the techniques employed by Communists, such as demonstrations, sit-ins, etc., as harmful actions.

METHODS ADOPTED

Today some of these same leaders are forced by the circumstances of the times to adopt the same techniques and methods which only yesterday they condemned.

The rationale of these leaders of opposing Communist participation in the civil rights struggle has been and is the theory that the Communists are not interested in advancing Negro rights; that the Communists only inted to use the discontent of the Negro for the purpose of advancing the interests of a "foreign power." In this instance the "foreign power" is the Soviet Union.

Hence they claim that the Communist interest in the Negro question is secondary. In order to bolster up this point some take advantage and exploit some tactical errors made by the Communists during World War II. At a certain point during World War II we Communists declared that the central problem in the world was to defeat Hitler, who represented the most reactionary, the most chauvinistic, the most rotten and the most decadent forces. We further stated that the emergence of a strong Soviet Union in the post-war world would be a key pillar in erecting a new world order based on social and racial justice.

Now in the pursuit of this general truth there was a time on the part of Communists a failure to push vigorously enough the struggle for Negro rights out of a fear of jeopardizing the war effort. And wherever Communists made such tactical errors, we Communists will join in criticism. But it is one thing to criticize a tactic and another to use it to destroy the validity of a broad general principle.

What the Communists said during the World War II was correct. And their far-sightedness in regard to the Soviet Union and the post-war world was prophetic and the historian of tomorrow will applaud it.

ROLE OF SOVIET UNION

Today, 20 years after World War II, the Soviet Union has emerged as the main force, generating enough power to give to peoples of color the world over the confidence that they could shake off the shackles of world imperialism. Were it not for Soviet power offering an alternative to capitalism and imperialism it is doubtful that over one and a half billion people would have been able to free themselves from colonialism and imperialism.

We ask were it not for Soviet power, could Nasser have seized control of the Suez Canal without the British lion breathing down his back. We ask, were it not for Soviet power could little Cuba defy the might of the colossus of Western imperialism — our own imperialists. We ask, without Soviet possession of the means of destruction comparable to that possessed by the West, would the imperialist powers have acceded freedom to former colonial countries without military intervention? Of course not! Without the threat or potentiality of the Soviet coming to the aid of the peoples' struggle for independence and freedom, their movements would have been crushed in blood baths as was the case in centuries gone by.

And the existence of Soviet power, therefore, has helped to provide the setting out of which Negro demonstrators can now march through the streets of the big metropolies of our nation chanting slogans such as "FREEDOM NOW!"

Whatever or however one views the system of the Soviet Union, these are historical facts which will stand the investigation of time.

COLD WAR

During these cold-war years, when the ruling circles of our country, having become possessed and obsessed by the fear of Communism, a period in which many of them have gone stark raving mad, they have demanded the expulsion of Communists from all areas of American life.

The word, "Communism," has been made synonymous with the devil. Hundreds of Communist leaders have been jailed. Many have been deported. Many more have lost jobs and were not allowed to participate in their chosen fields.

During this period, many former Communist sympathizers and friends were forced to run for cover. The assault of reaction induced many weaker ones to "cry for mercy." Never in the annals of American history has an organization been faced with such persecution. It is doubtful if any other organization could have existed through these attacks. And yet an organization which was compelled to spend millions to defend itself had the capacity to strike some decisive blows against jimcrow and segregation, at a time when its enemies and some of its friends were proclaiming it was impotent.

ELECTION ISSUE

Today the Freedom Democratic Movement of Mississippi is leading a struggle to unseat Democratic Congressmen on the ground that they were elected in violation of the U.S. Constitution. And this is precisely the issue upon which Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Communist Party of the U.S., went to jail in 1949. When subpenaed to appear before the House Committee on UnAmerican Activities, Dennis refused to testify on the ground that several committee members sat in violation of the Constitution. He chose jail to dramatize a situation that had never before been challenged.

His case was carried to the U.S. Supreme Court by the eminent Negro lawyers, Earl B. Dickerson and the late Richard Westbrooks.

William L. Paterson, veteran Communist leader, at a time when he himself faced jail and had the job of providing legal and mass defense for thousands of his Communist co-workers, struck telling blows against jimcrow and segregation. He organized and led many historic civil rights struggles.

As during the Thirties when he organized a campaign to free the Scottsboro Boys and Angelo Herndon, he took to the bar of world opinion the cases of court frameups of Willie McGhee in Mississippi and the Martinsville Seven of Virginia.

In the early 1950's, Patterson presented in Paris a petition to the UN against genocide, documenting cases of lynching in the South, both in courtrooms and public squares. This was one of the most daring and comprehensive presentations of the lynch system in the U.S.

The change of tactics in the South from the mass public forms of lynching to more subtle forms is attributable in no small part to William L. Patterson, Communist.

This whole period of McCarthyite terror is still to be written in the history books. One may, using the words of the late Winston Churchill, say of the Communists in that period, "This was their finest hour."

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on the night of September 12, 1965, disclosing that a conference took place on that night between Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) and his advisers, specifically: Stanley Levison, Harry Wachtel, Clarence Jones, Andrew Young (Executive Director of the SCLC), Cleveland Robinson (Secretary - Treasurer of Local 65, Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Workers, American Federation of Labor - Congress of Industrial Organizations, AFL-CIO), and an unknown male. King said he wanted the advice of these advisors in regard to his position on Vietnam, which he said was stated on September 10, 1965, following a conference with United Nations Ambassador Arthur Goldberg.

Since making his statement, he has been subjected to criticism, King said. He said he had in mind the criticism of Senator Thomas Dodd, Democrat of Connecticut. In that regard, King said he was convinced that President Johnson had persuaded Dodd to criticize him since it was his opinion that the Administration feels that he is going too far (in urging the seating of Red China and ending the bombings in Vietnam).

The "New York Herald Tribune," September 12, 1965, reported on page 25, that Senator Thomas Dodd, Democrat, Connecticut, "a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, snapped back at Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s suggestion to admit Red China to the United Nations." Dodd said: "King is a man of unquestioned competence in the field of civil rights, but he has absolutely no competence to speak about complex matters of foreign policy. And it is nothing short of arrogance when Dr. King takes it upon himself to thus undermine the policies of the President of the United States."

King said he was convinced that the press was also being stacked against him. He said he had already received unkind editorials on what he said; one, King said, went so far as to say that he was "power drunk"; another went on to say that since he received the Nobel Prize, he had "let it go to his head." S U

According to the source, King was very distraught over the bad publicity and criticism and as a consequence, said he was not strong enough to carry on two struggles at the same time: the civil rights struggle, and the Vietnam peace struggle. He said the fact is that the public is not ready to digest the truth (on Vietnam and China), therefore, "they are going to cut me down." He said in view of this, he wanted their opinions on three things, specifically: on how to get across to the public that he is not alone in his position (on Vietnam and China); on how to deal with the Dodd statement; and his plan to write letters to the heads of States involved in the Vietnam struggle. S U

Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

With reference to the letter writing campaign, King said he had to conceive some graceful means whereby he could withdraw, since he was convinced that his plea for peace would be rebuffed by Ho Chi Minh. He said he must forget the peace issue and get back to work in the civil rights field. He said he had concluded that he "cannot battle these forces who are out to defeat my influence." "They," King said, "will take the Communist China thing and what Dodd said and use it to say I am under the influence of Communists, which may confuse some of our supporters and contributors."

Following King's statement, all expressed their opinions on the course of action to follow. However, it was the opinions of Levison and Wachtel which were favorably received. They said King should answer by stating that "he had spoken his piece and had never purported to lead this struggle and now I'm going back to my regular work." (U)

With reference to the criticism of Senator Dodd, all of King's advisers concurred that he should be answered. It was felt that Dodd should be taken to task by someone from Connecticut, preferably the Dean of the Yale Law School, and others from Yale.

King said the average mind is not sophisticated enough to analyze Dodd's statement and what it means. If they were sophisticated enough, they would know that Dodd is the "strongest supporter of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and its invasion of privacy, and the House Un-American Activities Committee," King remarked.

According to the source, the conference ended with an agreement that a national campaign would be started to enlist the aid of prominent Government, church and civil rights leaders to answer Dodd's criticism of King. Furthermore, it was felt that additional discussion should be had in this matter, prompting King to schedule another conference for the night of September 13, 1965.

RE: PICKETING DEMONSTRATION

TACOMA, WASHINGTON
SEPTEMBER 7, 1965

On September 7, 1965, FRANK L. MORRIS, [redacted], Tacoma, Washington, President of the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), advised that approximately five officers and members of the local chapter of the NAACP, including himself, would picket the offices of the Tacoma School Board at the Central School, Tacoma, Washington in protest of the alleged failure of the School Board members to take action concerning "de facto" segregation in Tacoma schools.

Mr. MORRIS advised later on September 7, 1965 that the picket line commenced at 2:00 PM at the Central School, Tacoma and continued until approximately 5:00 PM. He stated that approximately fifteen persons participated intermittently, 75% of whom were Negro, but no more than eight or nine persons were marching at any one time, as persons were arriving and leaving throughout the period of the march. He also advised that there were two Negro Ministers and a Jewish Rabbi participating and most of the rest of the participants were other officers or members of the NAACP. Mr. MORRIS stated that there was no disturbance or violence in connection with this activity and the demonstration was carried on entirely without incident.

All confidential sources utilized in this communication and in the Appendix have furnished reliable information in the past.

Confidential Source Number One furnished the following information on August 18, 1965:

William Davis of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania was in New York City on August 18, 1965, and in contact with Maxine Green who resides in Long Island City, New York, and is the girl friend of Jesse Gray. Maxine stated that Jesse Gray was in Chicago on that date but would return later. Davis discussed with Maxine business and activity involving the Organization for Black Power (OBP). He referred to a scheduled meeting of the OBP in Philadelphia for the weekend of August 21, 22, 1965, and stated that Stanley Branch of Chester, Pennsylvania, and Lawrence Landry of Act, Chicago, had gotten together and were calling everybody with reference to that meeting. However, Landry did not call Jesse Gray since he was eluding Gray; but he did call Julius Hobson in Washington, D.C. Hobson checked with Davis in Philadelphia. Davis stated that Jesse Gray was supposed to call him but instead he disappeared. The "cats" who are involved in the OBP were complaining that Jesse Gray is not paying attention to business; that he is wandering around and not taking care of important business.

ENCLOSURE

Organization For Black Power

Davis stated that they had planned a program supposedly for the end of August; that if Jesse Gray did not wish to get involved, it was all right with Davis, but he wanted to know. Davis stated they had to make up placards; that they had now moved the program up to the second week in September and that was the last date they could use because they had to give it before the kids went back to school.

Davis further stated that Julius Hobson was upset too; that Hobson wanted to find out what Jesse Gray was doing and he had not heard from Jesse Gray. Davis stated there should be some constant communication and there is none. Maxine Green was of the opinion that a lot of things that were happening were not Jesse Gray's fault.

Davis stated his position was that they had to sit down and talk these things out together because Jesse Gray cannot work them out himself. Davis stated that if Lawrence Landry is in the group, then he (Davis) is out. Davis indicated that Landry had changed his position with reference to the Poverty Program, that he once said he was against it and two days later decided to go and get funds. Davis stated he did not operate that way.

Maxine Green stated that James Boggs and Grace Boggs of Detroit were in New York City over the weekend of August 14, 15, 1965, and that Nahaz Rogers and Mary Rogers had also been in and they all discussed how best they were going to cancel the deal "with this man in Chicago".

Jesse Gray

Confidential Source Number Two advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been organizer for the Harlem Region of the Communist Party (CP) but this position terminated during November, 1958.

Organization For Black Power

Confidential Source Number Three advised in January, 1964, that at a meeting of the CP, New York District Board, held in New York City on January 20, 1964, William Patterson, Chairman of the New York District CP, made the statement that although Jesse Gray is not now a member of the CP he is still friendly to the CP. Patterson further stated that Jesse Gray got out of the CP about five years ago.

Grace Boggs

Confidential Source Number Four on April 4, 1962, advised that as of March 10, 1962, Grace Boggs was a member of the Correspondence Group of the Johnson - Forest Group.

The Johnson - Forest Group has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A characterization of the Correspondence Group is contained in the Appendix attached hereto under the heading of Facing Reality Publishing Company.

Confidential Source Number Four on May 8, 1962, advised that as of that time James Boggs was the National Chairman of the Correspondence Group.

On April 2, 1965, James Boggs advised Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that he is a Marxist and Theoretician; however, he feels that the Marxist theory would not work in the United States inasmuch as the United States has outgrown the Marxist theory.

APPENDIX

FACING REALITY PUBLISHING COMPANY OR COMMITTEES

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past on August 1, 1958, stated that as a result of the split in the Johnson-Forest Group (FJG), which occurred in 1955, two factions emerged, the Johnson Faction and the Forest Faction. According to the source, the Johnson Faction was composed of the followers of C. L. R. JAMES, also known as JAMES JOHNSON, and the Forest Faction was composed of the followers of RAE DWYER, also known as FREDDIE FOREST. The co-founders of the JFG were C. L. R. JAMES, known as JOHNSON, who was deported from the United States as an undesirable alien in 1953, and RAE DWYER, known as FOREST.

The JFG has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A second source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 26, 1962, that subsequent to the split in the JFG, the Johnson Faction took the name Correspondence Group, which continued until February, 1962, when this group again split with the majority aligning themselves with JAMES behind the leadership of MARTIN GLABERMAN of Detroit, Michigan, and the minority group aligning themselves behind the leadership of JAMES BOGGS.

On February 18, 1965, this source advised that on February 8, 1965, he had learned that the Correspondence Group, whose national Chairman was JAMES BOGGS, had ceased operations completely and no longer maintains headquarters at 7737 Mack, Detroit.

This source reported on July 18, 1962, that the majority of individuals under leadership of MARTIN GLABERMAN at Detroit, Michigan, who formerly belonged to the Correspondence Group there had taken the name Facing Reality Publishing Company or Committee, while the three former members of the Group at New York had met informally in support of the Detroit group, which had issued neither directions nor instructions. The New York Group has no officers or headquarters.

On March 7, 1963, the same source advised that the Facing Reality Publishing Company or Committee seeks to create a Marxist society based on the dialectical concepts of Marxism-Leninism as interpreted by C. L. R. JAMES, establishing government by workers rather than government by a Marxist political party. The prime movement in securing the support of the people is considered to be a publication to be used by the workers in their daily fight against capitalism. This group rejects the vanguard party concept of Marxism and has established the theory that trade unions keep the workers under subjugation by preventing their channeling of their own efforts to take over the means of production and through this to in turn take over governmental processes. This group rejects all present forms of governments, except those new nationalist governments, as capitalist, or in the case of Russia, State Capitalist.

On May 4, 1965, the same source advised that the Facing Reality Publishing Committee continues to meet at 3513 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Wood and Mr. Jones,

My colleague, Carl Bradne, had placed in my hands the letter which you wrote to him a fortnight ago, and has asked me to answer it in his behalf.

This office is arranging a tour for him and Miss Carol Stevens, coordinator of the Appalachian Economic and Political Action Conference, which SCEF is assisting in Tennessee.

Tentatively, the two will speak in the Boston area Sept. 23-24; in the Providence area Sept. 25-26; in the Hartford and New Haven area, Sept. 27-28; in the New York area, Sept. 2- - Oct. 2; and in New Jersey, Oct. 3-5; after which Miss Stevens must return to Knoxville and the project.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

It would seem a possibility for Mr. Braden to consider an engagement the week of Oct. 4-9 and preferably in the latter part of the week.

He would require his transportation from where he will be last speaking, overnight hospitality, and either a contribution towards the work of SCEF in terms of a fee or an opportunity to make an appeal for contributions in support of SCEF.

As you may know, he welcomes--when he comes to a community--opportunity to meet with student, ministerial, labor or community groups, to speak on local radio or TV programs, and the willingness of a group inviting him to make an attempt to utilize his presence to the fullest would have a bearing on his interest in coming. (X) (U)

He is well equipped to speak on all phases of Civil Rights Movement but has a special interest in the combination of Civil Rights and Civil Liberties, and is concerned that the Movement should involve itself inceeasingly with bread and butter realities and with the issue of peace. His experiences this spring and summer in Appalachia support this orientation.

If you are interested in considering his coming in early Octobe_, I hope you will correspond immediately with me, as he has empowered me to finalize this tour. Details can always be wotked out more leisurely once the basic schedule has taken shape.

I hope to hear further from you.

Cordially,

WM. HOWARD MELISH"

For the information of the Bureau and offices receiving copies of this airtel, ROY H. WOOD and WILLIAM JONES are CP members.

On September 15, 1965, [redacted] in a written report advised that he had recently contacted ROY WOOD and the two had discussed the coming visit of CARL BRADEN to Baltimore, Maryland. WOOD is planning to obtain the use of the College Club on West 40th Street in Baltimore, Maryland, on October 8, 1965, as a place in which BRADEN will speak. (U) b7D

The appearance of BRADEN in Baltimore, Maryland, will be covered by informants and other sources and a letterhead memorandum will be promptly submitted at the conclusion of BRADEN's visit. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on September 13, 1965, disclosing that a conference between Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) and his advisors, took place on that night. Those in attendance according to the source were: King, Stanley Levison, Harry Wachtel, Clarence Jones, Bayard Rustin, Cleveland Robinson (Secretary-Treasurer of Local 65, Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Workers Union, American Federation of Labor - Congress of Industrial Organizations, AFL-CIO), Andrew Young (Executive Director of the SCLC) and Walter Fauntroy (Washington, D.C., Director of the SCLC). The conference concerned King's position on Vietnam.

The conference opened with an agreement that King would not write letters to the leaders of various world powers.

Re: Communist Influence in

The letters he had planned to write would have urged negotiations to end the war.

However, the conference in the main, dealt with getting statements from persons of influence backing King's right to speak out as he did and counteracting the criticism he has received.

According to the source, discussion was had on the possibility of getting "The New York Times" to print an editorial supporting King's right to speak out on Vietnam. It was agreed that Harry Wachtel should make every effort to persuade the paper to print the editorial.

Bayard Rustin, the source said, was designated to see Senator Paul Douglas of Illinois in an effort to persuade him to make a statement supporting King's right to speak out on the war in Vietnam. Although it was acknowledged that Douglas has opposed the seating of Red China in the United Nations, it was believed that he would support King since the issue of Vietnam was a moral one.

D.C.(W)

It was decided that various publications, specifically, "The Nation," the "Saturday Review," and the "Christian Century", would be requested to print articles and editorials supporting King.

King, after listening to the various opinions and decisions of his advisors, said it should be made clear that he was not turning his attention from the civil rights movement. He said, however, he realized that his "star is waning" because of his statements on Vietnam; that he wants to temporarily put the Vietnam issue behind him; that the central issue for him is civil rights, but that he would speak out when he considered it necessary.

The source advised on September 13, 1965, that Harry Wachtel and Bayard Rustin were in contact on that date, concerning King's dilemma over Vietnam. It was agreed that the country needs a voice to speak on the subject but not in the person of King. Wachtel thought King's statements on the subject were wholesome, stimulating and valuable. Rustin concurred, adding, however, that he (King) could not continue to make statements on foreign policy because "they are going to come down on him like a house on fire (his opponents)."

Wachtel said it was imperative that King come out with some dramatic domestic issue in order to off set the bad publicity he has received. He suggested a program be instituted to defeat Governor George Wallace of Alabama in 1966, and a program to enroll more Negroes to vote in the South.

Rustin said in regard to King's remarks on Vietnam and foreign policy that Negroes were saying, "China is not our problem-we have no freedom here. He had better get off the China issue and help us solve our problems." Rustin said he was not concerned about the criticism of King by Roy Wilkins (Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, NAACP) and James Farmer (Director of the Congress of Racial Equality, CORE), but was very much concerned about what the simple Negroes feel.

July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (U)

On December 19, 1948, a fifth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information that on June 15, 1947, June Thomson informed Martha and Alfred Stern that she was getting married at the end of the month. An item on page 21 of the September 10, 1957 edition of "The New York Times" revealed that Martha Dodd Stern and her husband, Alfred K. Stern, were indicted in New York City on September 9, 1957, for espionage. The article stated that the Sterns, who had been residing in Mexico, were subpoenaed several months before by the grand jury which indicted Jack and Myra Soble. They fought the subpoenaes in court, failed to appear, and were cited for contempt of court and fined $50,000. During late July, 1965, JAMES JACKSON, editor of "The Worker" remarked that Mezhunarodnaja Kniga (MK), official Soviet publishing organ in Moscow, should be asked if they would be willing to negotiate with Freedomways Associates, Inc., New York City, regarding the publication in Russian in book form of three issues of "Freedomways" which would constitute a good book and study in depth of the Negro problem in the U.S. The three issues of "Freedomways", which JACKSON referred to, which he desired translated and published in book form, were the DuBois Memorial issue, the Mississippi special issue, and the Harlem special issue. JACKSON also noted that he, himself, would be willing to prepare an up-to-date introduction for this book if MK agreed to translate and publish it. He suggested that any negotiation in this matter should be carried on directly with ESTHER JACKSON, his wife, who is managing editor, Freedomways Associates, Inc., 799 Broadway, New York, New York 10003.

Negro Equality Not Possible Without Communists

By CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

Fifth in a series

AS WE POINTED OUT previously, the rationale for the exclusion of Communists from participation in civil rights struggles by the NAACP leaders and some civil rights forces has been the theory that "the Negro cannot add to the burden of being black the burden of being red." Underlying this theory is the concept that freedom's fight can be won without communists.

In this article we propose to show that this is not so. To obtain full equality for Negro citizens, that is, economic, political and social, requires not only communist participation in civil rights struggles, but a strong influential communist party as well. For Communist and left progressive forces are prepared to do all that is required to win freedom for Afro-Americans or black peoples. No other force outside of the Negro movement itself is prepared to do that and, in some instances, there are Negroes who are not prepared to do all that is required. There are those who are prepared to wage the struggle only for neckbones for themselves and couldn't care less for what happens to the masses.

HIGH STANDARDS

Communists in the early thirties and forties set standards of conduct for white communists that down to this day no other force in American society has emulated. Typical is the editorial referred to by Drake and Cayton in "Black Metropolis." This editorial was written by the Chicago Defender in reference to the expulsion of a white member by the Communist Party for racist remarks. The editorial under the caption, "Why We Cannot Hate the Reds," reads:

"The cause for which he was expelled was that he had made some uncomplimentary remarks about workers of the race. He didn't call us criminals or rapists. He said merely that we are dumb, cowardly and can't be organized.

"And for those words, things which we have said about each other numbers of times he was expelled from the organization to which he belonged and for which he had a high regard. A white man made that statement and for it he was penalized. How under such circumstances can we go to war with the Communist Party?

"Is there any other political, religious or civic organization in the country that would go to such lengths to prove itself not unfriendly to us? Is there any other group in the country that would not applaud the sentiments expressed by the man who was ousted in this instance? We may not agree with the entire program of the Communist Party, but there is one item with which we do agree wholeheartedly and that is the zealousness with which it guards the rights of the Race."

NEW FORCES

Since the early thirties, when white communists almost alone advocated and fought for full equality, economic, political and social, increasingly other white forces have come into the struggle. In the latter part of the thirties and through the forties and fifties a new force consisting of labor, especially the CIO and New Deal liberals emerged as advocates of Negro and white unity. In recent years this force has been augmented by students and educators on college campuses and by a decisive section of the American church.

The emergence of this force in its entirety is what engenders the possibilities for registering some basic and decisive gains in the fight against the jimcrow system in the near future. However, the rise of this force in no way negates the necessity for Communist participation in civil rights activities. For, great as this force is, it is not yet prepared to do all that is required to win full freedom and to promote full equality for citizens of color.

Yes, there are many staunch and dedicated people who have emerged in recent years. They are symbolised by the Moores, the Reebs and the Liuzzos, who have paid for their convictions with their lives.

ULTIMATE GOAL

But being dedicated and courageous is not enough. A willingness to make changes in our economic and political system is also necessary.

Broad white forces outside of left progressives and Communists are not prepared to do that. They are prepared and are working to partially solve the problems. They are prepared to make adjustments in the system that bore and nourished jimcrow and segregation. But they are not ready to uproot that system. They are not prepared to change the economic and political power structure of the country as a whole. And, until they are prepared to do just that, we cannot conceive of the Negro securing his full equality and hence freedom.

The foregoing in no way must be construed as an attack on forces who are prepared to fight on one level and not on others for, in freedom's fight, the contribution of all, large and small, limited or unlimited, is required.

The point is being made only to point up the necessity of communist and left progressives playing a vital role in today's struggles in order to set the stage for the final struggle.

And in this regard, the present combination of liberal, labor, church and youth forces at their present level of understanding or willingness is inadequate.

Thus, those who say that other white forces have preempted the line of the Communists and hence there is no need for Communists miss the point.

REQUIREMENTS

What, then, are some requirements on the road to Negro freedom?

First, there is the necessity to understand why Negroes are persecuted in America. Second, at least in broad outline, it is necessary to know what must be done to realize complete equality.

There are those who say that the Negroes' plight is traceable to racist ideology. The poison is a major factor in this regard but is not the main factor. Those who operate on this theory would have us turn our attention as a primary source to the hearts of men. Such an approach, therefore, covers up the economic, political and social structure of our society. Hence it is misleading.

It is necessary to wage the struggle in the realm of ideas but, as a supplement to more basic and fundamental causes, the Negro for more than three centuries has been exploited, persecuted, and brutalized for the purpose of enriching a small minority of American whites.

EXPLOITATION

The purpose of Negro slavery and semi-slavery was and is to make more money for the rich white folks. It is as simple as that. The superexploitation of the American Negro coupled with the general exploitation of white workers has constituted the base for building up what is at present the richest country in the world.

Extra billions of dollars each year for the last 300 years have been poured into the coffers of the white ruling class out of the sweat, tears and toil of the Negro people.

Negro oppression beginning with slavery and down until today has been profitable and this has been and is the main reason for the continuation of the system of Jim Crow.

Racism is the moral justification used to try and cover up some of the most brutal and exploitative pages in human history. The economic system which inaugurated the slave trade, which built and extended this whole system of superexploitation, is capitalism, the system of free enterprise, freedom in this instance meaning to consign over 20 million black Americans to a living hell. Thus, the destruction of capitalism is a fundamental prerequisite to Negro freedom.

GAINS POSSIBLE

It is true that vast improvements can be made within the framework of the system.

It is possible to destroy the legal superstructure of jimcrow under capitalism. It is possible to wrest some important concessions from the power structure in the areas of politics, economics and social conditions but all such gains are imperilled by the continuation in power of the very people or class which originated jimcrow and segregation in America.

Moreover, only with the change of the system can the problem of inequality be seriously tackled.

In regard to the permanence of gains made under capitalism, one need only look at what happened in the Reconstruction Period. The irony of this is that after almost 100 years we are now struggling to reach the level of that period. The gains made in that period could be easily cancelled out when it suited the purposes of the powers that be because they remained in power. Freedom cannot come as a gift because the giver will always have the power to take back what has been given. The old folks have a saying, "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away."

POWER

Freedom requires power and it is in this area that the most stubborn battles are yet to be waged. For power concedes nothing except to greater power. So a fundamental consideration on making basic and permanent changes in the status of the American Negro requires an alteration in the power structure in our country. Anything short of this objective leaves the Negro at the mercies of the class which has historically robbed him.

Now what is the nature of the power structure which must be changed before the Negro can be considered free and equal to anyone "free, white and 21?"

C. Wright Mills in his "Power Elite" showed three sources of power. They were: 1) those who run the industrial establishment; 2) the politicians; 3) the military.

He pointed out that the interplay between the three sources represents the substance of power in our country.

PIVOTAL FORCES

We must add by pointing out that the pivotal forces in this struggle are those in charge of the economic organization, those who own, run and control the factories, mines and mills, the banks and the insurance companies. This is the primary source of power, for what politician would seriously think of having the ability to win an electoral contest without access to large sums of money?

And so, to speak of altering the composition of the power structure and to provide the Negro with the means of participating in every phase of American life on an equal basis requires basic changes, not only reforms in the economic machinery. Only a revolutionary upheaval will bring about such conditions.

The present ruling class under pressure will concede a wider area of political representation. It will enlarge considerably appointed positions in its establishment. But it cannot and will not work to undo what has been done to the Negro to the past 300 years. And unless this is done, we cannot talk of Negroes being free or equal.

ECONOMIC SPHERE

If there is any area where Negroes are important, it is in the productive machinery. This is the area where the least progress was made in the last 100 years. During the Reconstruction Period the powers that were gave Negroes political representation, but the economic side of the question remained untouched as the slogan of "forty acres and a mule" was ignored.

Even today, as progress is being noted in many fields, progress in the sphere of economics remains the place where we not only have not advanced but contrarywise we have retrogressed, relatively speaking. To this day Negroes' voices can be heard in Congress and at other levels of government but not a single voice of authority exists in the economic establishment, the primal source of power.

For 300 years the sweat and toil of Negroes was taken to build this powerful complex of industry, agriculture, banks and insurance companies. And now to talk of creating a condition of freedom and equality and not take into account this background of inequality and not to strive to rectify the past is a cruel hoax being played on very simple and in some cases corrupt minds.

Negro equality today requires a parity of influence in ownership and management in the economic establishment as well as in the political and military aspects of government. When this has been achieved we can talk of freedom and equality.

It would stand to reason that those who own and control the major industries of our country aren't going to say to the Negro, "Dear brother, you didn't have an opportunity to acquire any ownership in our plants, because when they were being built from the ground up we had you in slavery for 200 years and later in semi-slavery for over a hundred years.

"During this period we took from your labor hundreds of billions of dollars and now as we face our Maker we want to make retribution. Instead of just placing a Negro here and there in a position of window dressing we are going to recapitalize these plants and make sure that every son and daughter of a slave will be given a sum of money with which to buy into the ownership of them."

Only an idiot could conceive of such a possibility.

How then can the Negro become a co-partner in ownership of the major industries? This can be done only in a socialist reorganization of our entire society, only in concert with the working class taking control over the basic means of production. In this way the Negro can gain a measure and share in the most significant side of our power structure, the economic.

It is in this context that only communist or advanced progressives can and will do all that is required for complete Negro equality. And because Communists have such an advanced perspective, they can help illuminate today's struggle for lesser demands.

Communist Links Between

On August 27, 1965, NY T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, and who previously furnished data concerning an alleged Communist link between Harlem and Africa, principally through the country of Tanzania, was recontacted.

NY T-1 related that the Communist link in Harlem appears to be coming in through the various African countries. He explained that in December, 1964, close contact was made through Minister Babu of Tanzania with William Epton and also Che Guevara. According to the informant, these contacts and meetings were set up by Robert (Bob) Collier, who was recently convicted in the United States of trying to bomb the Statue of Liberty, New York City.

NY T-1 advised that up until the December, 1964 meeting, William Epton was hard pressed for money and after these meetings, his money problems appeared to have eased off. Informant added that William Epton still maintains close contact with Tanzania.

Informant advised that the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM), headed by Max Stanford, is known to handle printed matter from Cuba by Robert Williams. Further, that RAM leaders have close contact with William Epton, James Shabazz , Daniel Watts and Leroi Jones (Negro playwright) in Harlem, New York City. It was the opinion of NY T-1 that RAM is supplying money to the Black Arts Theater and the "Liberator" magazine, both of which, until the RAM group came upon the scene, were having money problems. According to the informant, RAM's money may be coming into the United States from Cuba, by way of Canada. Informant stated that RAM handles the publication "Revolution" from Cuba via Canada.

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED (MMI)

The March 13, 1964 edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article, would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement, MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in time of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be locaed in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

The May 23, 1964 edition of the "New York Amsterdam News," a weekly Negro newspaper published in New York City, contained an article by columnist JAMES BOOKER in which he indicated that he had heard that the visit by MALCOLM X with Muslim leaders during his African tour has changed him to become more religious.

On October 6, 1964, a confidential source advised that the MMI is apparently affiliated with the true orthodox Islamic Religion through its affiliation with the Islamic Foundation (of New York), 1 Riverside Drive, New York City. The only teachings of the MMI are on the Islamic Religion.

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto," the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of RAM.

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the winter of 1963 by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, now residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto reflected that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would sieze power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, above, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the Crime of Kidnapping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he now publishes a monthly newsletter entitled "The Crusader," from Havana.

This source, in September, 1964, advised that RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World," that is, the non-white races of the world, rather than to any national entity, as such.

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised that he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization was begun in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin." FREEMAN served as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD, now of New York City, formerly of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, serving as RAM Field Chairman.

This source stated, in May, 1965, that there has been no formal headquarters, as such, for RAM, but that headquarters have been with FREEMAN since he has played such a dominant role in the leadership of and has directed the policies and activities of the organization.

Within recent months, according to the second source, dissension within RAM has become evident and some dissatisfaction with FREEMAN's leadership has arisen. So far as is known, however, he remains the titular leader of RAM.

To date, according to the second source, in May, 1965, RAM has organized units and membership in several of the larger cities in the United States east of the Mississippi River, and the organization is currently active, attempting to recruit new members and expand its sphere of influence.

WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND FREEDOM

O CIRM

Reurairtel and LHM 9/20/65 which reported on a connection of one Wally Albertson with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and included a characterization of this woman whose full name is Mrs. Wallace Thomson Albertson.

Paragraph 1 of Page 3 records that according to marriage records, Mrs. Albertson was first married to one Sam Locke on 5/9/47 at New York City. At the top of Page 4, it is reported that on 6/15/47 she informed some associates that she was getting married at the end of the month to Sam Locke. It appears that either the date of 5/9 or 6/15 is in error inasmuch as if she were married on 5/9 she would not have indicated on 6/15 that she was yet to be married.

Recheck dates and advise as to corrections necessary. Also advise other offices which received referenced communications.

Re New York airtel to Bureau 9/3/65.

On September 9, 1965, MARJORIE CUTLER, Registrar, University of Denver, Denver, Colorado, advised that she had an academic record regarding subject's attendance at the University of Denver in March, 1946, for one quarter and he re-entered that University in April, 1948, for two classes and received an incomplete in each.

Miss CUTLER advised that STEIN was allowed to enter the University of Denver after World War II by passing a General Education Development Test in lieu of high school. She stated that he had no high school diploma. She stated he evidently was unable to do college work and they had no background information on him, even as to his date of birth, where he came from, or where he went after his attendance at the school. She stated she could not recall him inasmuch as he was at the University when there was a tremendous influx of students under the GI Bill.

PROTEST DEMONSTRATION BY NAACP, PHILADELPHIA, PA., AGAINST GIRARD COLLEGE, PHILADELPHIA, PA., ALLEGING DISCRIMINATION, SPRING OF 1965

Reference is made to Philadelphia communication dated September 22, 1965.

On September 22, 1965, Lieutenant ANSIL, Philadelphia Police Department Radio, advised that the demonstration at Girard College commenced on that date at 10:45 p.m., with five demonstrators. He later advised that the demonstration ceased at 12:15 a.m., September 23, 1965. The demonstration was orderly with no incidents.

Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised on September 22, 1965, that he had learned that at a meeting of the Philadelphia Branch of the NAACP held on or about September 14, 1965, the subject matter of Communists participating in the Girard College picket line was discussed. Some of those present at the meeting resented the fact that the Philadelphia Police Department had identified Communist individuals to the NAACP, who were put out of the demonstration and that this amounted to the Philadelphia Police Department determining who should and should not participate in the demonstration.

CECIL MOORE, President, Philadelphia Branch NAACP, then commented that this must have been in reference to the "white trash" and "that other guy" who visited him in his office recently and insisted on certain things being done on the line. He said he had "kicked" these two Communists out of his office and he would not tolerate any Communists in the line at Girard College. He said the Negroes do not need Communists and that the Negro population, except for a few fools, have not accepted Communism and that he would not allow them in the line. He said if any more appeared at Girard College to demonstrate, he would bodily remove them himself from the demonstration.

Confidential Informant PH T-1 advised that MOORE was referring to SANDY PATRINOS as the "white trash" and JARVIS TYNER as "that other guy." Both are members of the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware.

The "Philadelphia Inquirer," final edition, dated September 23, 1965, carries a story on page one headlined "State Plans New Girard Court Fight; SCRANTON to Name Special Aides to Work with City." The story states that Governor WILLIAM W. SCRANTON, when in Philadelphia September 21, 1965, announced that the racial controversy at Girard College will be taken off the streets and into the courts. He was quoted as expecting to be able to appoint one or more special Deputy Attorney Generals by the end of the week to work on the Girard case with the special counsel to be retained by the city of Philadelphia. The Governor refused to confirm rumors that the appointees would be CHARLES J. BIDDLE and WILLIAM T. COLEMAN, JR., prominent Philadelphia attorneys.

RE: VIGIL FOR MISSISSIPPI
FREEDOM DEMOCRATIC PARTY,
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON
SEPTEMBER 20, 1965

On September 17, 1965, this office furnished a memorandum captioned as above, which indicated that a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on that date that a "vigil" for the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP) would be held in front of the Federal Building, First Avenue and Madison Street, Seattle, Washington from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM, September 20, 1965. This source was unable to advise the identity of the sponsors, but stated that the vigil would probably be similar to that held outside the Capitol Building in Washington, D.C. on September 16, 1965 protesting a recommended dismissal of the MFDP's challenge to the election of the State's five Congressmen.

"The Facts", a Negro newspaper published weekly in Seattle, Washington, in its September 16 - 23, 1965 issue, contained an article as follows:

"The move to unseat the five Congressmen from Mississippi by the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party will be supported in Seattle by a vigil to be held Monday September 20 in front of the Federal Office Building, 909 First Avenue, 10 AM to 6 PM. This vigil will be in sympathy with the one being held in Washington, D.C. by MFDP members from Mississippi during the week of September 16 to 23.

"The challenge to the Mississippi congressional delegation, now being heard in closed sessions of the subcommittee on elections of the House committee on administration, is based on the illegality of the election of the Congressmen. More than 15,000 pages of sworn testimony support the allegation that many citizens of Mississippi are denied their right of franchise through force, intimidation, and economic reprisals.

"On September 21, WILLIAM FITTS RYAN, Congressman from New York, is due to introduce a resolution to force the challenge out of committee and to the House floor for a vote. If the challenge is successful, Congress will call for new, free elections in Mississippi.

"The Seattle Ad Hoc Committee for the MFDP, sponsors of the local vigil, are calling for those who sympathize with their cause to wire their Congressmen urging support of the challenge and to join in the vigil."

The Ad Hoc Committee for the MFDP is possibly identical with the Seattle Ad Hoc Committee of the MFDP, which according to an article in the June 11, 1965 "Seattle Post Intelligencer", a daily newspaper published in Seattle, Washington, was formed by KAREN MORGAN and EVELYN MARSHALL, age 20 and 22 respectively, students at the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington.

On July 30, 1965, a former employee of this office was furnished a leaflet which was being distributed at the Seattle Center, Seattle, Washington. This leaflet, which concerned the support of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party, was issued by the Ad Hoc Committee for the MFDP challenge. The members of this committee were indicated as Mrs. JOHN FAWCETT, telephone number [redacted], JOHN CAUGHLAN, [redacted] KEN APPLEGATE, [redacted] and KAREN MORGAN, [redacted].

With regard to Mrs. JOHN FAWCETT, a second source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 10, 1965 that a "send-off party" was held on February 6, 1965 at the home of JOHN and LONNIE HEALY, White Center, Washington, for JOHN FAWCETT who was going to go to Mississippi. This source stated that JOHN and LONNIE HEALY are members of the White Center Communist Party Club and that of the 21 persons present at this "send-off party" more than half were Communist Party (CP) members. This source stated that JOHN FAWCETT and his wife ELLEN, who was also at the party, are not known to be CP members, but are "contacts" of JOHN and LONNIE HEALY. This source further stated that the FAWCETTs have four children and that if someone could be found to take care of these children, Mrs. FAWCETT would probably accompany her husband to Mississippi. (C) (U)

(U)

With regard to JOHN CAUGHLAN, above, at hearings conducted by the Washington State Un-American Activities Committee in 1948, the following witnesses testified that they knew JOHN CAUGHLAN to be a member of the CP:

Mrs. ISABELLE HARRIS COSTIGAN, Tranquility, Fresno County, California;
Mrs. KATHRYN FOGG, Seattle, Washington;
WARD F. WARREN, Seattle, Washington;
SARAH MARY ELDREDGE, Seattle, Washington.

With reference to KEN APPLEGATE, above, a third source who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised periodically between August 26, 1964 and August 20, 1965 that APPLEGATE receives material from the Seattle, Washington Branch of the Socialist Workers Party. (U)

A characterization of the Socialist Workers Party, Seattle Branch, is attached hereto.

An Agent of this office observed individuals in front of the Federal Building, First Avenue and Madison Street, Seattle, Washington, shortly after 10:00 AM, September 20, 1965 and at various times thereafter during the day. These individuals, ranging from four to twelve in number, marched peacefully in front of the Federal Building carrying hand painted signs with various slogans, such as, "Challenge Dismissal is Dangerous Blow to Government by the People", "Get the KKK Out of Congress", "Support the Free Elections in Mississippi", "U.S. Congress Neglects to Put Own House in Order", and "Presence of Mississippi 'Representatives' in U.S. Congress is a Fraud and is Contrary to the Constitution".

These signs did not indicate the identity of the sponsoring group.

The first source advised at 4:00 PM on September 20, 1965 that pickets numbering from approximately four to ten at various times carried placards similar to those listed above while parading in front of the Federal Building. This source stated that he observed CECELIA CORR, a Communist Party member, amongst the group. This source advised that ANN CARLSON seemed to be one of the persons in charge of the demonstration. (C) (U)

A fourth source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on October 13, 1958 that ANN CARLSON attended CP meetings during 1957 and 1958 and resigned for temporary personal reasons. Other sources who have furnished reliable information in the past have advised on various dates that ANN CARLSON has participated in CP and CP front group functions in 1964 and 1965. (C) (U)

At 5:00 PM, September 20, 1965, an Agent of this office observed the above demonstrators leaving the vicinity of the Federal Building with their signs, terminating their activity.

September 25, 1965

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, leading functionary, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, advised late September 24, 1965, that because of some change in plan he would not depart New York until either late that PM or early AM, September 25, 1965. He noted also that the meeting of the New York State functionaries which he was to address would now be held Saturday evening, September 25, 1965.

At the same time LIGHTFOOT stated that when he gets to New York he would stay at the residence of HENRY WINSTON. WINSTON wants LIGHTFOOT to remain at his residence until the forthcoming National Board meeting and during this time the two of them would work together on the draft resolution dealing with the Negro question. According to LIGHTFOOT he could not stay in New York as long as WINSTON desired and that a week would probably be the maximum since he has to get back to Chicago to place his boy in school.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on the afternoon of September 28, 1965, which disclosed that Stanley Levison's wife was in contact with Clarence Jones on that date. During their contact Mrs. Levison stated that Stanley Levison had to go to Washington, D. C., that afternoon to attend a conference of the Inter-Racial Business Men's Committee on September 29, 1965, with Humphrey (Vice President Hubert Humphrey). Mrs. Levison said Stanley was at the Willard Hotel, Washington, D.C., but would return to New York on the night of September 29, 1965.

Re Bureau letter to New York, 9/24/65; New York airtel and LHM, 9/20/65.

In accordance with the instructions contained in referenced letter, the pertinent dates were rechecked, and it was determined that the dates in the referenced LHM are correct as they appear.

It is to be noted that when JUNE THOMSON invited MARTHA and ALFRED STERN to the wedding reception, she mentioned that her future husband's sister is KATHERINE LOCKE, who was married to NORMAN CORWIN. Marriage records reflect that when JUNE THOMSON and SAM DAVID LOCKE were married on 5/9/47, KATHERINE LOCKE CORWIN was one of the witnesses.

JUNE THOMSON, who was married to SAM LOCKE, is identical with Mrs. WALLACE THOMSON ALBERTSON, who accompanied STANLEY LEVISON ~~to Atlanta on 7/11/65~~. It is not quite clear why JUNE THOMSON informed the STERNS on 6/15/47, that she was getting married at the end of the month when, in fact, she was married on 5/9/47, but perhaps she had a personal reason for doing so. For the information of the Bureau, New York rechecked the original information furnished by NY 1181-S*, and it was determined that JUNE THOMSON advised the STERNS on June 15, 1947, that she was getting married at the end of the month.

been approached by two men who were advocating communism and she was frightened, and did not know what to do.

Mrs. HARRIETT WELLINGTON, [redacted] on 9/14/65, furnished the following information to SA FRANK S. PERRONE. Hunters Point Housing Project is made up predominantly of Negroes.

Mrs. WELLINGTON related that some time during the latter part of July or the early part of August, 1965, two Negro men, one of whom identified himself as Mr. SHERMAN, and a white woman visited her residence. SHERMAN commented to Mrs. WELLINGTON's husband, WILFRED, that inasmuch as he was the block chairman in a community betterment program, he would like to discuss a few things with him. The three individuals then referred to the events in Watts, Los Angeles, California, and referred to how the Negroes in the Watts area were exploited by the white merchants and how the Negroes in Watts were also subjected to "police brutality." SHERMAN then went on to explain that the way things were going, the future was shaping into the Marxist-Leninist program and they were contacting Mr. WELLINGTON to explain to him the Marxist-Leninist program. According to Mrs. WELLINGTON, the unknown female injected the comment that only in the United States was the Indian put on a reservation, whereupon Mr. WELLINGTON answered that this was what the Indian wanted. Upon hearing this, the three individuals decided to leave; however, prior to doing so, left the below-described items with Mr. WELLINGTON to read. These items were turned over to SA PERRONE.

(1) July, 1965, issue of "Black Flag."

(2) June-July, 1965, issue of "The Marxist-Leninist Vanguard."

(3) May 7, 1965, issue of "Peking Review."

(4) May 14, 1965, issue of "Peking Review."

(5) May 22, 1965, issue of "Peking Review."

(6) June 4, 1965, issue of "Peking Review."

The above issues of "Peking Review" had stamped on them, "Vanguard, P. O. Box 72112, Watts Station, L. A. 2, California, 90002."

Photographs of AARON CHAPMAN and VIOLA BEESON were displayed to Mrs. WELLINGTON. She identified the photograph of AARON CHAPMAN as the other Negro who accompanied SHERMAN, and remarked that the photograph of VIOLA BEESON resembled the white woman; however, she was not sure.

Mr. WILFRED WELLINGTON related the following information on 9/16/65:

He stated that some time during the latter part of July or the early part of August, 1965, two Negroes, one of whom identified himself as Mr. WILLIAM SHERMAN, and a white woman, visited his residence.

A photograph of AARON CHAPMAN and VIOLA BEESON were displayed to Mr. WELLINGTON and he identified AARON CHAPMAN as the other Negro who accompanied SHERMAN and stated that the photograph of VIOLA BEESON resembled the white woman, however, he was not sure.

Continuing, Mr. WELLINGTON went on to say that SHERMAN had come to the door with the remark that he understood Mr. WELLINGTON was a block leader in the Community Betterment Program and for this reason permitted SHERMAN and the two other individuals to enter his home. During the discussion, SHERMAN commented to Mr. WELLINGTON that inasmuch as he was the block leader, he was involved in politics whether he liked it or not. WELLINGTON remarked that he was only trying to contribute to man's welfare, whereupon SHERMAN replied, "Good, we have something here we want to discuss with you, and also discuss with you some recent events." SHERMAN then referred to the Watts, California, incidents to show how the Negroes were being exploited by the white merchants and commented that the Negroes in Watts had been subjected to "police brutality." SHERMAN then went on to say that the way things were going, the future was shaping into the Marxist-Leninist program, and they were contacting Mr. WELLINGTON to explain to him the Marxist-Leninist program. SHERMAN then discussed Marxist-Leninist theories on world revolution, and said the only way people could be satisfied with their own government would be to run it their own way as is done in the People's Republic in Red China. SHERMAN related that the Soviet Union's form of communism did not have a strong enough revolutionary idea. Mr. WELLINGTON, after hearing what SHERMAN had to say, remarked to him he was not in favor of what he was saying since he, WELLINGTON, had come from an Indian background where the Indian wanted to be left alone. At this point, according to Mr. WELLINGTON, the unknown female remarked that the United States was the only country which put the Indian on a reservation and WELLINGTON replied that this was what the Indian wanted--he wanted to be left alone to enjoy his hunting and fishing rights.

WELLINGTON went on to say that during the conversation with SHERMAN, he asked SHERMAN what he wanted him to do or what was he suggesting, however, SHERMAN would never commit himself except to say he would see him again in the near future. SHERMAN then left various pieces of literature with Mr. WELLINGTON which Mr. WELLINGTON understood had been given previously by his wife to interviewing Agent.

WELLINGTON remarked that about three weeks after the first contact by SHERMAN, SHERMAN again appeared in the neighborhood with another Negro. Upon seeing them, WELLINGTON stated he immediately called the family together and departed. While he was departing, SHERMAN spotted him and said, "Oh, you're leaving?" WELLINGTON replied that he was in a hurry since he had an appointment and had to leave right away.

On 9/16/65, Mr. WELLINGTON identified a photograph of VINCENT LYNCH as the unknown Negro who accompanied SHERMAN on his second visit.

Mention was made to Mr. and Mrs. WELLINGTON to attempt to obtain the names of any others in the neighborhood who might have been contacted by the above-mentioned individuals, without divulging the FBI's interest in the case. They stated they would do this.

[redacted] on 9/7/65, furnished the following information concerning individuals mentioned herein: b7D

WILLIAM SHERMAN--Member of the Central Committee, top ruling body of the Communist Party (CP), USA, Marxist-Leninist. Is also a member of the Standing Committee which carries out CP, USA, Marxist-Leninist policy established by the Central Committee.

VIOLA BEESON--Member of the Central Committee, CP, USA, Marxist-Leninist.

AARON CHAPMAN--Alternate member of the Central Committee, but has no vote.

VINCENT LYNCH--San Francisco cell member of the CP, USA, Marxist-Leninist.

The CP, USA, Marxist-Leninist was founded at a National Conference of former members of the POC held over the 9/4-5/65 weekend in Los Angeles, California.

The aims and purposes of the CP, USA, Marxist-Leninist are as follows:

1. To conduct guerrilla warfare training, including the use of firearms.

2. To organize CP, USA, Marxist-Leninist cells in the South to exploit all "racial situations" that might arise there, to agitate the population, and create situations which would require the use of federal troops so that Americans would be fighting Americans.

3. To establish and maintain an accelerated recruiting program to include the acceptance of anyone who is an anti-imperialist.

[redacted] went on to say that the CP, USA, Marxist-Leninist, constitution which had not as yet been drawn up would be patterned after the constitution of the CP of China which would be used as a guide line. b7D

On September 28, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)) conferred with Stanley Levison, Andrew Young (Executive Director of the SCLC), Bayard Rustin, John Barber and Harry Wachtel on that date. King introduced John Barber as his new executive assistant. Wachtel and Levison said they did not know him. (4)

According to the source, King said the main thing he wanted to discuss was the Viet Nam situation and the whole question of letters (the letters King had planned to write to various world leaders urging an end to the Viet Nam war). King indicated that if he did not write the letters, he would need a reason for not doing so. He said he had several reasons for not writing the letters; he felt that they should be made known to a press release rather than through a press conference. He said he could say that after consulting with his attorneys about the Logan Act, it was felt that he should not write the letters because he would not want to violate the Logan Act, an act which he knew absolutely nothing about at the outset. He said that the other reason was that the letters would not serve any useful purpose. (4)

King said he was trying to avoid criticism that he was being forced to back up. He said that some of the criticism would be that Goldberg (United States Ambassador Arthur Goldberg) (4) or the President had gotten him to abandon the idea of writing the letters. Levison advised King that he could state that in his judgment he felt the time was not right and that King should also wait and send the letters later if the occasion should arise in the future. (4)

Levison felt that King would not be backing up at all, but would be waiting to determine if the right time should arrive. (4)

Rustin said he did not like the Logan Act, which he described as stupid and said it should be broken by someone. (4)

Wachtel opined that for King to say he did not know about the law would cause people to snicker at him. He felt that what King said originally expressed his views fully and that he has carried out his original purpose. (4)

Rustin said that if the question of the letters were brought up at a future press conference, it should be pushed aside. He said to have a press conference or release on Viet Nam would be a mistake because it does not relieve the pressure they want to release: "We want him to be a civil rights leader" (4)

At that point, King mentioned that he is scheduled to make a speech in Philadelphia on October 15, 1965, in celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Women's International League of Peace and Freedom. He said he did not see how he could avoid talking about peace and Viet Nam and Pakistan. He said newsmen from Philadelphia had called him pressuring him for statements. Rustin told King that his real problem in that regard was Staughton Lynd's presence on the platform with King. He said King should not be in attendance and stated that he, Rustin, was to have been on the platform but was indisposed and so should King. It was agreed by those participating in the conference that Lynd was not the kind of person to be seen with. King indicated that he did not want to be held in a bad light by Lynd because Lynd was a friend of his. (4)

Harry Wachtel suggested that King might get someone to read the speech, prompting King to remark that he might get Coretta (King) to read it. (4)

The conference ended on a note from Levison that King should remain basically a civil rights leader and not a peace leader. (4)

Communist Influence in Racial Matters

Stanley Levison

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964 that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (S)(X)

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP.

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC.

CARL JAMES BRADEN

The "Sunday Herald," a weekly paper published at Bridgeport, Connecticut, in its issue for September 26, 1965, on page 4, contained an article which reflected that CARL BRADEN, Field Director of the Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF), was to speak on "The House Un-American Activities Committee and Civil Rights" on Wednesday (September 29, 1965), at 2 p.m. in the new classroom building of the University of Bridgeport. The meeting was being sponsored by the Student League for Human Rights (SLHR).

The article further reflected that BRADEN is a member of the Advisory Board of the (National) Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee, and is presently conducting an anti-poverty program of SCEF in Appalachia.

Characterizations of the Southern Conference Education Fund, Inc., the Student League for Human Rights, and the National Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities are included in the Appendix.

On September 30, 1965, a source advised as follows:

On September 29, 1965, CARL BRADEN spoke on the topic, "The House Committee on Un-American Activities and Civil Rights" in the lecture hall of the new classroom building at the University of Bridgeport (UB), Bridgeport, Connecticut, from 2 p.m. to approximately 3:30 p.m. under the sponsorship of the Student League for Human Rights of UB. There were approximately fifty people present with about ten supporting BRADEN and the remainder being either non-committal or openly hostile. The source noted that a number of students present had brought with them already prepared written questions and that the student who supported BRADEN were known to the source as members of the SLHR.

BRADEN was introduced by the faculty advisor of the SLHR, who stated that BRADEN is the Information Director for the SCEF. In his lecture, BRADEN discussed the following points:

At the outset he stated that one copy of a pamphlet entitled, "House Un-American Activities Committee: Bulwark of Segregation," published by the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee was being given free to each person in the audience but that any additional copies would cost 25 cents each.

BRADEN explained that in May, 1954, he helped a Negro family buy a house in Louisville, Kentucky, and was arrested on a charge of creating racial strife and sedition. The prosecution introduced witnesses to prove that there was a "Red plot" to establish a Negro republic in the South. BRADEN was convicted, fined $5,000, and sentenced to 15 years at hard labor. After the trial, the prosecuting attorney shot himself. BRADEN served eight months in prison before the Supreme Court held the Kentucky sedition laws invalid.

BRADEN then went to work for the SCEF in order to get white people to join in the civil rights movement and break down segregation. He was subpoenaed by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, which he referred to as HUAC, was asked if he was a Communist and stood on the First Amendment. He was charged with contempt of Congress on a 9 - 0 vote by the Committee and the Supreme Court, in a 5 - 4 decision, upheld the conviction on the grounds that the welfare of the individual had to give way to the State in a national emergency.

RE: CARL JAMES BRADEN

BRADEN said his office in New Orleans, Louisiana, has been raided by the State of Louisiana Committee on Subversive Activities. BRADEN declared that the HUAC in order to clean itself up was investigating the Ku Klux Klan (KKK) but he saw no difference between the HUAC and the KKK. He said that the investigation of the Klan will be an attack on civil rights. He claimed the HUAC polices men's minds rather than their acts.

During the question and answer period, when asked if he were a Communist, BRADEN refused to answer. BRADEN urged the students to study the HUAC in order to see the damage it has done, claiming that 25 - 30 thousand people are vicitms of the HUAC. He claimed that the HUAC violates the United States Constitution and that the greatest threat to the security of the United States is the suppression of ideas. He asked the students to sign a petition calling for the abolition of the HUAC which petition was being circulated in the lecture hall. About ten students whom the source recogniżed to be SLHR members signed the petition.

BRADEN avoided answering questions on whether Communists are a danger to the security of the United States, but instead said the real danger to the United States are the Nazis, the Fascists and the Birchers. He also avoided questions about Communist influence in the South. He said that anyone who tries to overthrow the Government violently is wrong. He used glib phrases to avoid questions on Communism by such statements as "most people don't know Communism from rheumatism."

The source advised that a review of the pamphlet entitled, "House Un-American Activities Committee: Bulwark of Segregation," published by the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee disclosed that CARL BRADEN was listed as a member of the Southern Region Committee of the National Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The Ku Klux Klan has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

RE: CARL JAMES BRADEN

On September 30, 1965, a second source furnished substantially the same information concerning BRADEN's lecture as is set out previously. In addition, he advised as follows:

In his introduction, the faculty advisor of the SLHR stated that BRADEN had been convicted of sedition at Louisville, Kentucky, but was later freed and sometime thereafter in 1957 joined the SCEF.

BRADEN claimed that HUAC citations are used by newspapers and individuals in order to deter people from becoming involved in the civil rights movement with people who are cited by the HUAC. He said that Senator EASTLAND of the Senate Internal Security Committee is using his office to interfere with people who are trying to help the Negroes on Senator EASTLAND's plantation in Mississippi in the efforts of these Negroes to register as voters.

plight of the Negro and an awareness was developed concerning the economic problem which is inherent in the civil rights movement. (U)

Lightfoot went on to state that it was now quite possible to influence the NAACP through direct pressure on its membership and to force this membership to become directly involved in various civil rights issues, not just those that are initiated by the NAACP itself. (U)

Lightfoot also stated that the object of this meeting was to map out a program for decisively influencing the NAACP in the future. He stated it was no longer sufficient for the CP to just be in attendance at functions of the NAACP. The Party must now be in a position wherein it is possible to influence the activities of the NAACP. Along this line, Lightfoot stated that the CP hopes to institute this influence in three areas, namely:

1. Give leadership to economic problems and in this manner push the peace issue, pointing out that economic problems can only be solved through expenditures of funds and these funds could be obtained by a reduction in war spending. It must be suggested that the government cut back on its spending for armaments and use the funds available as a result of these cut-backs to alleviate economic problems.

2. Force the NAACP to become active in all civil rights struggles, not just those struggles that are initiated and run by the NAACP. Lightfoot added that in the past the NAACP leadership has been hesitant to throw its forces behind struggles that have not been begun by the NAACP. (U)

3. Force the NAACP to become more firmly involved in political activity (C) (U)

Lightfoot questioned the group whether they thought it would be feasible to develop a "left caucus" in various branches of the NAACP and the group felt that this was possible. It was stated that there were 13 branches of the NAACP in New York and possibly a "left caucus" could be developed within these branches. Also, it was stated that it might be possible to develop such a caucus within the Chicago NAACP. Lightfoot stated that he felt he could develop such a caucus on the west coast, in Baltimore, and in Detroit. Lightfoot mentioned to the group that he thought the group should again meet some time in the early part of 1966, in order that a planned program can be developed, in connection with the next NAACP National Convention, in order that the impact of the Party program might be felt at the next NAACP National Convention. President's Conference On Rights Set Nov. 17-18

PRESIDENT Johnson announced yesterday that planned White House Conference on Civil Rights will be held Nov. 17 and 18 and named lawyers Morris B. Abram and William T. Coleman Jr. co-chairmen. A. Phillip Randolph, President of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and an AFL-CIO Vice President, will serve as honorary chairman.

Mr. Johnson said he was "especially fortunate" in having men with such "impressive credentials" devoting their energies to the Conference and civil rights problems. Abram is a Rhodes scholar who helped prosecute German war criminals. Coleman is a Harvard Law School graduate and a well-known Philadelphia lawyer.

Meanwhile, the National Leadership Conference on Civil Rights met here and considered pressuring Congress in January for new criminal legislation, counsel Joseph L. Rauh said. The goal is to try criminal cases in civil rights issues in Federal, not state, court.

Krebiozen Case

CHICAGO — The Government rested its case against physiologist Andrew C. Ivy and three associates charged with fraud in promoting the "cancer drug" Krebiozen. They have contended since the early 1950s that the substance, produced from horse blood, was valuable in cancer control. The Government has now labeled it worthless, and it has lodged 49 charges against them including conspiracy, mail fraud and false statements.

King to Intercede

ATLANTA—The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. announced he is stepping into the deepening racial crisis in Crawfordville, where a school segregation issue threatens to touch off a Negro march on the Capital.

Dr. King made his announcement shortly after state troopers again barred Negro students from white school buses. He said he would arrive next Monday.

Peace Through Law

DUBLIN, N.H.—Fifty-two prominent Americans, including the president of Yale University, called for a super world government with police power to block any threat to peace. Two of the conferees at a five-day meeting on "Peace Through Law" refused to sign the proposal but were not identified. The conference, chaired by Kingman Brewster Jr., called on nations to disarm completely and join the new organization, which would include Communist China. The conferees said the United Nations may be strengthened eventually to perform the task but presently has neither effective nor reliable means to prevent war.

United Press International

Reno, Nev., police revealed yesterday that they are seeking Marghurite Mays, former wife of baseball star Willie Mays, for questioning in a jewelry theft. Mrs. Mays was divorced from the San Francisco Giants outfielder in 1962.

Sentence Reduced

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—A court-martial sentenced Pfc. Winstel R. Belton to a five-year prison term for evading Vietnam duty. However, the Army agreed to reduce the sentence to a suspended one-year term. Belton, claiming the U.S. intervention was illegal, went on a hunger strike when his outfit shipped out. Army officers refused to discuss the case, but said "the whole idea was to play this thing as low-key as possible and avoid publicity."

ReBuairtel 10/4/65 which authorized [redacted] b7D b7E

You were instructed "Insure prompt advice to Bureau of results of meeting."

Having not received any advice from your office concerning the results of the meeting, and particularly since [redacted] was the lone source available to the Bureau concerning this meeting, your office was followed by Bureau airtel 10/12/65. Your airtel of 10/13/65, replying to that of the Bureau 10/12/65, advised that the informant's report was included in an airtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM) dated 10/12/65. b7D

The Bureau is now in receipt of your airtel and LHM dated 10/12/65. These two communications were included in mail from your office which was postmarked at Baltimore 10/14/65 and received at the Bureau on the morning of 10/15/65, registry number 909983.

The foregoing detailed chronology of correspondence between the Bureau and your office is set forth to illustrate the apparent dilatory manner in which this matter was handled by your office notwithstanding the initial Bureau instruction that prompt advice to the Bureau concerning the meeting in question be insured.

The event concerned took place on 10/7/65 and informant's advice to your office was on 10/12/65. It appears that information in such an important matter should have been obtained by your office more promptly.

Once the information was received from the informant on 10/12/65 and included in correspondence of that date, such correspondence should have been dispatched by your office on 10/12/65 rather than two days later.

It can clearly be seen from the foregoing that not only was there an apparent delay on your office's part, but the situation was further aggravated by causing needless correspondence, including instant communication.

You are instructed to bring the foregoing to the attention of appropriate Agent and Supervisory personnel and impress upon them the necessity for more prompt handling of matters of this nature. You should make particular effort to insure that as a regular procedure of your office, airtels are dispatched by mail on the same day as dated. A review of pertinent Manual and Handbook citations will reveal that airtels should be handled as expeditiously as teletypes, both at the receiving and sending points. This was obviously not done in this instance.

Reurairtel 10/13/65 captioned "CIRM" which enclosed copies of a letterhead memorandum (LHM) of same date captioned "Affair Sponsored by the Maryland Committee for Democratic Rights, 601 West 40th Street, Baltimore, Maryland, 10/8/65."

The following corrective action is being taken relative to referenced LHM.

Although the affair reported upon was sponsored by the Maryland Committee for Democratic Rights and your office is origin concerning the Bureau investigation of that organization, the LHM failed to contain an appropriate Appendix characterization. Such characterization is being added as a new page 6* to the LHM. In addition, a statement is being added to paragraph 1, page 1 of the LHM to the effect that the organization is characterized in the Appendix.

On page 2, paragraph 1, line 2, "given" is being changed to read "give." A hyphen is being added after "newspaper" in line 3, paragraph 2, page 2. A statement is being added at the end of paragraph 2, page 2 to the effect that a characterization of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., is included in the Appendix.

COMM-FBI

It is noted that the Appendix characterization of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF) is not up to date. Although no corrective action is desired, it should have been obvious to your office that the characterization is not up to date and your office is aware that New Orleans is origin concerning that organization and there is available from that office the up-to-date characterization.

Inasmuch as the affair reported upon was sponsored by an organization which is under active investigation by your office, it is suggested that it would have been more appropriate to have handled this matter, including the cover communication, under the title of the Maryland Committee for Democratic Rights. A secondary caption of "CIRM" would have, of course, been permissible. In this connection, it is noted that referenced airtel did not show a designation of copies for either the Bureau file or your office's file concerning the Maryland Committee for Democratic Rights.

Inasmuch as referenced LHM concerns the activities of Carl Braden and he spoke about the SCEF, copies of referenced communications should have been designated for New Orleans which is origin concerning the Southern Conference. Do so now.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTER

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

On August 24, 1965, ~~confidential~~ source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that MARION METELITS, a member of the District Board, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), attended the convention of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) held in Birmingham, Ala., from August 7 - 12, 1965. The expenses for this trip were paid by the National Office of the CPUSA, but METELITS had to return to Philadelphia one day before the convention ended because she had not been granted sufficient funds. METELITS indicated that she had planned to travel to New York City to give a report on this convention to some of the leaders in the National Office of the CPUSA. (C) (U)

On October 5, 1965, same source reported that MARION METELITS had traveled to New York City on September 24, 1965, to keep an appointment with GUS HALL, General Secretary, CPUSA, relative to her attendance at the SCLC convention; however, HALL was not in New York City at the time and METELITS demanded to see HENRY WINSTON, Vice-Chairman, CPUSA. METELITS had indicated that although she intended to give a report on the SCLC convention she made very critical remarks of the activities of IRVING GOFF, District Organizer, CPEPD, ALA. (C) (U)

This source subsequently advised that METELITS had traveled to New York on October 4, 1965, and met with GUS HALL. (C) (U)

Mr. KENNETH COUGHLIN, [redacted] b6 b7C
[redacted] self-employed in the mortgage-finance business, on 10/13/65 advised SA WEST that he had listened to FRED GALE's radio show called "Comment" which was broadcast on Boston Radio Station WNAC on 9/23/65.

COUGHLIN stated that he formerly lived in Jeffersonville, Indiana and worked in nearby Louisville, Kentucky. While located there he had read about CARL BRADEN and when BRADEN's name was mentioned over "Comment" as being the speaker on the night in question he had listened from about 10 p.m. until it went off. During the show he telephoned to the radio station and spoke to BRADEN inquiring of him as to whether or not he was still preaching the same philosophy which he previously did in Louisville. BRADEN, in reply, affirmed that he was.

Mr. COUGHLIN said he could not recall in detail what BRADEN had said during this radio program other than that he talked about the racial issue in Mississippi and did not touch on the local Boston situation. Many people called into the radio station opposing BRADEN but the latter was outspoken in his replies refusing to answer many of the questions put to him. BRADEN also mentioned he had written a book opposing the HCUA.

Mr. COUGHLIN said a woman named CAROL STEVENS appeared on the same program with BRADEN and joined BRADEN in answering some of the questions received from callers. The only thing he could recall about STEVENS was that she was affiliated with some "Appalachian group".

Mrs. KENNETH COUGHLIN, [redacted] b6 b7C on 10/13/65, advised SA [redacted] that she too had listened to a portion of the FRED GALE Show when CARL BRADEN spoke. She said she recalled someone in the radio audience had called in to WNAC and asked BRADEN whether or not he was a communist. In reply BRADEN replied he did not have to answer and that since it was his own business.

The "Boston Herald", a daily newspaper published at Boston, in its issue of 9/27/65, carried an article entitled, "Integrationist Editor Says No Democracy In The South".

In the above article it was set forth that CARL BRADEN, editor of the "Southern Patriot" had spoken in Providence, Rhode Island at the Church of the Mediator on Sunday (9/26/65) and told the audience there was no democracy in the south. "This is because the people who dominate Southern society control all the economic and political structures in the community", he told the congregation of the Church of the Mediator.

"They do this," he continued, "by perpetrating racial strife, by telling the poor white man that he is better than any Negro".

According to the article, BRADEN said, "I am a revolutionary, not because I am working for the violent overthrow of the government, but because I am working for the economic and political unity of all downtrodden groups in the South, be they Negro, Indian or Jewish".

KING STATED THE MAIN THING HE WANTED TO DISCUSS WAS THE VIET NAM SITUATION AND THE WHOLE QUESTION OF THE LETTERS /ON PEACE IN VIET NAM/. KING INDICATED THAT IF HE DOES NOT WRITE THE LETTERS HE WOULD NEED A REASON FOR NOT WRITING IT. KING SAID HE HAS SEVERAL REASONS FOR NOT WRITING THE LETTERS, AND HE FELT THAT THESE SHOULD BE MADE KNOWN BY A RELEASE RATHER THAN A PRESS CONFERENCE. KING INDICATED THAT HE COULD SAY THAT AFTER CONSULTING WITH HIS ATTORNEYS ABOUT THE LOGAN ACT, IT WAS FELT THAT HE SHOULD NOT WRITE THE LETTERS BECAUSE HE WOULD NOT WANT TO VIOLATE THE LOGAN ACT WHICH WAS A LAW ABOUT WHICH HE KNEW NOTHING AT THE OUTSET. KING STATED THAT THE OTHER REASON IS THAT THE LETTERS WOULD NOT SERVE ANY USEFUL PURPOSE.

KING INDICATED THAT HE WAS TRYING TO AVOID CRITICISM THAT HE WAS FORCED TO BACK UP. HE SAID SOME OF THE CRITICISM WILL BE THAT /ARTHUR/ GOLDBERG OR THE PRESIDENT HAD GOTTEN HIM TO ABANDON THE IDEA OF WRITING LETTERS.

LEVISON ADVISED KING COULD SAY THAT IN HIS JUDGMENT HE FELT THE TIME WAS NOT RIGHT AND THAT KING MIGHT WAIT AND SEND THE LETTERS LATER IF THE OCCASION ARISES IN THE FUTURE.

LEVISON FELT KING WOULD NOT BE BACKING UP AT ALL BUT JUST WAITING TO DETERMINE THAT THE TIME WOULD BE RIGHT. RUSTIN SAID HE DID NOT LIKE THE LOGAN ACT WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS A STUPID LAW, AND THAT IT SHOULD BE BROKEN BY SOMEONE.

WACHTEL OPINED THAT FOR KING TO SAY HE DID NOT KNOW ABOUT THE LAW WOULD CAUSE PEOPLE TO SNICKER AT HIM. HE FELT THAT WHAT KING SAID ORIGINALLY EXPRESSED HIS VIEWS FULLY AND HAS CARRIED OUT HIS ORIGINAL PURPOSE.

RUSTIN SAID THAT IF THE QUESTION OF THE LETTERS IS BROUGHT UP AT SOME FUTURE PRESS CONFERENCE, IT SHOULD BE BRUSHED ASIDE. RUSTIN STATED TO HAVE A PRESS CONFERENCE OR RELEASE ON VIET NAM IS A MISTAKE BECAUSE IT DOES NOT RELIEVE THE PRESSURE THEY WANT TO RELEASE.....

END PAGE TWO

" WE WANT HIM TO BE A CIVIL RIGHTS LEADER."

AT THIS POINT, KING MENTIONED HE HAS TO MAKE A SPEECH IN PHILADELPHIA ON OCTOBER, FIFTEEN SIXTYFIVE, IN CELEBRATION OF THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE WOMENS INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE OF PEACE AND FREEDOM. KING SAID HE DID NOT SEE HOW HE COULD AVOID TALKING ABOUT PEACE AND VIET NAM AND PAKISTAN. HE SAID NEWSMEN FROM PHILADELPHIA HAVE CALLED HIM PRESSURING HIM FOR STATEMENTS. RUSTIN TOLD KING HIS REAL PROBLEM IS THAT STAUGHTON LYND IS ON NY THE PLATFORM WITH KING. RUSTIN STATED KING SHOULD NOT BE IN ATTENDANCE AND STATED HE /RUSTIN/ WAS TO HAVE BEEN ON THE PLATFORM BUT WAS INDISPOSED AND SO SHOULD KING. IT WAS AGREED BY THOSE PARTICIPATING IN THE CONFERENCE THAT LYND WAS NOT THE KIND OF PERSON TO BE SEEN WITH. KING INDICATED HE DID NOT WANT TO BE HELD IN A BAD LIGHT BY LYND BECAUSE LYND WAS A FRIEND OF HIS. HARRY WACHTEL SUGGESTED THAT KING MIGHT GET SOMEONE TO READ THE SPEECH AND KING SUGGESTED HE MIGHT GET CORETTA /KING/ TO READ IT.

LEVISON COMMENTED KING SHOULD REMAIN BASICALLY A CIVIL RIGHTS LEADER AND NOT A PEACE LEADER.

LETTERHEAD MEMORANDUM LHM FOLLOWS.

B. Public Rally at Cleveland Arena, July 28, 1965, Picketed by NAAWP

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

An article in "The Plain Dealer," daily Cleveland newspaper, issue of July 28, 1965, stated that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was in Cleveland to support the voter registration campaign, the purpose of this campaign being to remove, by the ballot, all city officials and Cleveland Board of Education members who are considered unfriendly to the civil rights movement.

The article stated that Dr. KING made numerous appearances in Cleveland and ended at a public rally at the Cleveland Arena held on the evening of July 28, 1965.

Sergeant JOHN UNGVARY, Cleveland Police Department, stated he had learned that the National Council of Churches had paid $1,000.00 for the rental of the Arena and that a capacity crowd of approximately 10,000 persons was expected. Although they expected to begin at 8:00 PM, KING and the personnel accompanying him did not arrive until about 9:20 PM, and Sergeant UNGVARY estimated that the Arena was not more than one-third filled.

Sergeant UNGVARY advised that an estimated 45 pickets sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of White People (NAAWP) marched on the sidewalk outside the Arena, but there were no arrests and no incidents of significance.

Sergeant UNGVARY advised that he observed the following-listed people entering the public rally at the Cleveland Arena. He advised that these people did not take an active part in the proceedings and served only as spectators, except for those who sold newspapers as set forth below:

On August 18, 1965, Chief of Police JOHN TERLESKY, Youngstown, Ohio, Police Department, advised that on August 15, 1965, HERMAN SPAHR, a Youngstown Chamber of Commerce Law Enforcement Special Deputy, attempted to stop a street fight in Youngstown, during the process of which his revolver discharged and killed THEODORE ROBINSON.

[redacted]

The "Youngstown Vindicator," daily newspaper of a general circulation in the Youngstown area, issue of August 24, 1965, carried an article stating that "The NAACP of Youngstown entered the THEODORE ROBINSON slaying to try to calm the Negro community and prevent authorities from whitewashing the incident, said NATHANIEL LEE, President of the Ohio and Youngstown units of the NAACP, Monday night (August 23, 1965). LEE reported to an overflow crowd of some 125 at the W. Federal Street YMCA on an investigation by a NAACP special committee into the killing... LEE said rumors, many erroneous, were rampant among Negroes following the slaying and that ill will was mounting. He praised cool heads among both Negroes and whites for preventing a riot... LEE told his audience that the NAACP will now act as a watchdog on the case. 'We will do all within our power to see that all the evidence in this case is presented for the court's consideration,' said LEE. ...LEE said the NAACP recognizes it has a responsibility, but it also demands the community realize its responsibility to remove the causes of riots and civil disorder. In a breakdown of law and order, LEE said, Negroes themselves would suffer the most."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

This same article in the "Youngstown Vindicator" stated that at the gathering at the W. Federal Street YMCA, "a member of the audience, TED DOSTAL, urged the Negro community to pack the courtroom September 2 to 'let the judge see we are vitally concerned.'"

Chief of Police JOHN TERLESKY, Youngstown, Ohio, reported on August 25, 1965, that he considers the threat of a racial riot to have subsided.

He stated that he discontinued attending meetings because he disagreed with certain economic beliefs of the SWP and that his main interest was in the SWP's program in connection with Negroes in this country.

CV T-17 advised on April 28, 1954, that NATHANIEL LEE had been present at a meeting of the Youngstown, Ohio, Branch of the SWP, held on April 23, 1954, which meeting was open only to SWP members and sympathizers. (U)

First Session
October 8, 1965 (S) (U)

The first session opened at 10:00 AM, October 8, 1965. Daniel Rubin read the following agenda: (S) (U)

1. Discussion of a draft document of the CPUSA Party Program. (S) (U)

2. The struggle for peace, the war in Viet Nam. (S) (U)

3. Preparation procedures and timing of a Party Convention. (S) (U)

Daniel Rubin gave each person in attendance a copy of the draft document of the Party Program with instructions that this document, under no circumstances, should be given to anybody for any purpose. Rubin instructed that the document be carefully read and that those present should be prepared to discuss it during the October 9, 1965 session. (S) (U)

This document contained a Table of Contents reflecting the document is a discussion of: (S) (U)

1. A Society in Crisis.
2. The World Setting.
3. The Path Ahead.
4. The Socialist Goal.
5. Our Relationship With Others.

(S) (U)

Al Richmond introduced the Party Program document. He stated that last July, instructions had been issued for the preparation of a CPUSA Party Program, but that nothing of importance had been produced until September 25th. Prior to that, only a document concerning the "new left" had been prepared. Richmond added that the Party Program document, as presently prepared, was the work of a subcommittee consisting of Gus Hall, Al Richmond, Gil Green, Hy Lumer, and James Jackson, who devoted all their recent time and attention to the preparation of the document. Richmond stated the Party Program should be effective for several years to come and added that a section on farmers and small business would be incorporated at a later date into the document. Richmond commented that a section in the document relative to trade unions and labor is "particularly good". (U)

Richmond remarked that while tactical considerations enter into the making of a Party Program, it must be remembered that the main object is strategic - that the Party Program must have a "long range view". (U)

Second Session
October 9, 1965 (S) (U)

William L. Patterson acted as Chairman of this session. Gus Hall delivered the main speech on the subject of the war in Viet Nam. His theme was that it is imperative that the North Viet Namese be convinced that they must negotiate peace. Hall said the Chinese position advocating victory and complete withdrawal of the United States troops from Viet Nam is untenable. A realistic appraisal of the situation should [illegible] convince the North Viet Namese that sooner or later they must negotiate peace. (S) (U)

Hall continued that the peace forces, including the CPUSA, are in an embarrassing position in that logically they must support the United States of America in efforts to secure a negotiated peace and yet must not create the impression that they are supporting [illegible] United States imperialism. He said it will be most difficult to solve this problem, but some solution must be found as soon as possible. Hall said that talking generalities about peace is merely a diversionary tactic. If the Party has no solution he said then it should be honest enough to say so. Following Hall's remarks, a general discussion ensued. With the exception of Gilbert Green, Albert "Mickie" Lima and Robert Thompson, everyone present was in agreement with Hall's comments. (S) (U)

Gilbert Green expressed himself as opposed to compromise on the part of North Viet Nam. Albert "Mickie" Lima complained that the CPUSA, pursuing Hall's suggestions, would involve itself in a sectional dispute with the Chinese. Robert Thompson, to a lesser extent than Green and Lima, also opposed Hall's position on the necessity of negotiating peace. (S) (U)

Carl Winter, who recently had returned from abroad, said that he had talked to representatives of the CP in both North and South Viet Nam. According to Winter, Hanoi is publicly insisting that it will fight to the bitter end and will not negotiate unless there is a withdrawal of United States troops. He said that such is not the actual intent of Hanoi. (S) (U)

Re: Communist Party, United States of America - Organization Internal Security - C

SECRET (U)

It was Winter's opinion, based on the information he received, that North Viet Nam will not press indefinitely for the withdrawal of United States troops.](S) (U)

Carl Winter also stated that, according to John Gollum of the CP of Great Britain, Gollum, as a result of discussions with the Communist Party in Viet Nam, is convinced that North Viet Nam has no desire to escalate the war.](S) (U)

Source advised that this session ended with the agreement that the CPUSA, together with the rest of the world Communist Parties, must find some way to induce North Viet Nam to negotiate peace. It was announced that the CPUSA program would be the subject of discussion at the next session of the meeting scheduled for October 10, 1965.](S) (U)

Re: Communist Party, United States of America - Organization Internal Security - C

Third Session
October 10, 1965 (C) (U)

The third session commenced at 10:05 AM, October 10, 1965, at the Vanderbilt Hotel. Gus Hall opened the meeting by setting down the guide lines for the meeting. The meeting would be devoted to the general reaction of the members to a document setting forth the program of the CPUSA, which had been read previously by those present. Hall explained that the membership would have an opportunity at a later session to speak in more detail regarding specific sections of the document. (C) (U)

William Weinstone praised the document, but stated it does not use the terms Marxism-Leninism as they should be used. Weinstone also raised questions dealing with the role of the Party and specifically as to how it can explain its accomplishments to the American people. (C) (U)

Mike Davidow said the document was good but he said there was a serious weakness in its failure to deal with the transitional period from the present capitalistic system to socialism. Davidow questioned whether the present federal-state-city relationship was adequate to deal with the fight for civil liberties and civil rights, school problems, automation, et cetera. Davidow recommended that the document contain a statement that within the present political relationship there is room for flexibility forcing changes to bring on socialism. Davidow also recommended that the document contain a stronger statement concerning the Party's position on war and peaceful coexistence. (C) (U)

Claude Lightfoot said the document was one of the best ever developed by the Party. However, Lightfoot thought the section of the document relating to the Negro question had been "filtered" and that it failed to adequately show the impact of the Negro movement in America. Lightfoot recommended that the beginning of the document strongly set forth the Party's position to the effect that although vast technological accomplishments have been made in America, the many unsolved problems in the country can be solved only through socialism. (C) (U)

SECRET (U)

Re: Communist Party, United States of America - Organization Internal Security - C

~~SECRET~~ (U)

William Patterson also said the Party should more clearly and concisely outline its position regarding constitutional liberties and show the people the Party is concerned for the rights of people. Patterson criticized the document's readability, stating it contained too many phrases and words which had no meaning for the average person. Patterson said if people won't read the document, it is not worth the paper upon which it is written. ~~(C)~~ (U)

James Allen, Anton Krchmarek, and Betty Gannett praised the document but expressed the opinion that the document could be shorter or strengthened in sections dealing with socialism or anti-monopoly. Dorothy Healey noted a weakness in relating monopoly capitalism to the ultra-right. Healey also complained about the readability of the document saying the Party must communicate with the people and explain to them political forces and why the Party arrives at certain conclusions. ~~(C)~~ (U)

George Meyers thought that this was an excellent document. He recommended that the section dealing with coexistence be upgraded, noting that socialists seek peace. Meyers blamed the Red Chinese for giving the impression that communists are advocates of war. Gil Green hoped the section dealing with the "Left" and approaches to other groups would be coordinated and tied in to the "Path Ahead" section of the document. ~~(C)~~ (U)

Other speakers including Mike Stein, Hyman Lumer, James Tormey, Arnold Johnson and Phil Bart commented favorably concerning the document, each expressing a desire to improve the document in various areas. ~~(C)~~ (U)

Fourth Session (C) (U)
October 11, 1965

Mike Zagarell acted as Chairman and announced this session would primarily be devoted to a discussion of Part One of the Party Program document (Part One - A Society in Crisis). Each person was allowed ten minutes to present his views. (C) (U)

James Allen noted there is a socialist trend in the United States, but it needs to be made more Marxist in nature. Allen said monopoly dominates American economy and farmers and small business men are the victims of monopoly. William Patterson said the Negro people feel a need for a change in the social structure in America. (C) (U)

Betty Gannett said peaceful coexistence is the most radical change that can be given to the people and to secure this there is a need for a democratic transitional change in government. Gannett stated socialism is the proper form of government for people and that capitalism is holding back the initiative of the people. (C) (U)

Irving Potash, Mickie Lima, Phil Bart and Arnold Johnson also made comments which were largely confined to changes in the wording of the draft. (C) (U)

Will Weinstone said the United States is at the last rung in the ladder of capitalism and the next step is socialism. The Party must consider the fact that there is a substantial amount of capitalism outside of monopoly, such as farmers and small business men. Weinstone said that if monopoly is abolished, the transition to socialism will be made much faster. (C) (U)

George Meyers noted that in the transition from capitalism to socialism, there will remain certain small nonmonopolistic capitalistic forms such as small business men. (C) (U)

Re: Communist Party, United States of America - Organization Internal Security - C

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Gus Hall said the question of the anti-monopoly struggle is fundamental. Monopoly has developed to an unprecedented level in this country. The anti-monopoly struggle is for the present self interest of the victims of monopoly, such as farmers and labor. Hall said the Party has to view the anti-monopoly question in such a way that it reflects the level of political and ideological thinking of masses who are not yet ready to completely overthrow capitalism. ~~(C)~~ (U)

Gil Green said the Party should concentrate on what is necessary to break up the military-industrial complex in this country. He said it is a tremendous task to curb this monopoly. ~~(C)~~ (U)

Daniel Rubin said the necessary question is what is the strategic objective and the next possible qualitative change in society. Once the next possible change is proposed, the Party should then strive to get the maximum number of allies to work toward that goal. ~~(C)~~ (U)

Robert Thompson complained about the amount of time being consumed in discussing Part One of the document, but Gus Hall stated everyone should have an opportunity to express himself on such an important topic. ~~(C)~~ (U)

Daniel Rubin, at this time, gave the following proposals relative to a forthcoming National Convention of the CPUSA: ~~(C)~~ (U)

1. Hold it in April and call it a National Assembly. ~~(C)~~ (U)

2. The first period of the pre-Convention discussion should be concerned with the Party Program to be followed by discussion of other topics. ~~(C)~~ (U)

3. Pre-Convention discussion periods should be held through December, January and February, and articles should appear in Party periodicals. ~~(C)~~ (U)

4. Districts should decide what kind of pre-Convention meetings should be held below the District level during February and March. ~~(C)~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Re: Communist Party, United States of America - Organization
Internal Security - C

Rubin said each District should go through an election procedure of delegates in a normal manner. July 1 through December 1, 1965, is the period for entitlement to Convention representation on the basis of dues payment within that period. (C) (U)

It was proposed that the next meeting be a National Committee meeting to be held during November or December. The agenda would be the main political resolution. (C) (U)

Mickie Lima wondered how public can the Party be regarding the preparations for the Convention. Rubin said it was all right to have public meetings on the program. Gus Hall said he did not favor the setting of a definite date for the Convention. (C) (U)

Discussion on the draft document of the Party Program continued. Betty Gannett, Mickie Lima and Danny Rubin pointed out that this is the transition period from capitalism to socialism and since World War II there has been increased agitatio by the capitalistic countries. (C) (U)

Gus Hall said that capitalism will continue to make acts of aggression and that capitalistic imperialistic forces do not change but certain forces make it behave differently. (C) (U)

The session concluded as Gus Hall urged the members to read the document on the Party Program and to write out any changes they desired. Hall said discussion would continue on October 12, 1965. (C) (U)

Fifth Session
October 12, 1965 (C) (U)

Helen Winter acted as Chairman of this session. The discussion dealt with Section III of the Party Program document dealing with the working class. Mike Zagarell, Dorothy Healey, Irving Potash, Betty Gannett, Claude Lightfoot, among others, were critical of the wording of Section III. The criticism dealt with the lack of clarity in the language used, its failure to define terms and the fact that the Party's scope and role was not sufficiently spelled out. (C) (U)

Claude Lightfoot said that the civil rights movement had brought about a new political alignment of forces, which was not clearly shown in the document. He said the Negro - labor alliance must be aligned with the labor movement because its next step is in the political arena. (C) (U)

Helen Winter suggested the reorganization and rewriting of this section, calling it repetitious and not meaningful. Al Richmond, in defending the document, criticized the lack of constructive suggestions for rewriting. William L. Patterson said the section should deal with white chauvinism. (C) (U)

Dorothy Healey expressed the opinion that there should be some mention of the historical development of the working class in America. It should reflect labor's inactivity in the 1920's and the militancy in the 1930's. James Tormey defended Section III, calling it one of the strongest sections in the whole document, but thought that there should be greater emphasis placed on the unorganized in the South. Gus Hall said the section was "off balance" in its approach to the American working class and the labor movement. He described it as too negative, which was not evident at its first reading. Hall said the Party did not have all the answers, but that it must give leadership towards solving the problems in the labor movement. (C) (U)

Re: Communist Party, United States of America - Organization Internal Security - C

Claude Lightfoot said that the Negro would be unable to move forward in the political field without changes in the labor movement, whose leaders he said are controlled and influenced by white politicians. With regard to the Negro revolution, Lightfoot said that the church and civil rights workers have gone as far as they can and now labor must take over in order to obtain political objectives. He said labor, through its money, experience and members (voters), can more readily achieve these objectives. He said the Negro masses should not only concern itself with integration and segregation, but should concentrate also on Negro nationalism. (C) (U)

William L. Patterson stated that he considered the document being written as one for the Negro people to assume as their own. He said only the Communist Party could write a document of this magnitude. He noted that the middle class Negro has used their own particular ideology to slow down the Negro movement. He said this was an acute danger which must be exposed. Patterson said that the Party must recognize and support the position of Dr. King (Martin Luther King) with regard to the position he has taken on peace in Viet Nam. He said King's stand was magnificent. Gilbert Green commented that the Party must support Negro nationalism. The Negro is demanding his own leadership and the role of the white people in the civil rights struggle is changing. It was Green's opinion that leadership in the civil rights movement must now come from two areas: 1. the labor movement; and 2. the Ghetto community. James Allen said that there should be a specific definition of Negro nationalism. He said the Negroes must control the civil rights organizations. On the question of self-defense for Negroes, Allen said that if the Government failed to provide protection, the Negro has the right to organize and provide for his own defense. (C) (U)

Helen Winter read a birthday greeting to Gus Hall from the Central Committee, Communist Party, Soviet Union, expressing their fraternal greetings, good health and success in mobilizing the Comrades. (C) (U)

Re: Communist Party, United States of America - Organization Internal Security - C

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Albert "Mickie" Lima said that Negro-white unity is an essential part of the process of development of class consciousness in this country. Phil Bart stated that the Party should strive for the setting up of a Negro Affairs Bureau in Washington, D.C., by the Federal Government, to handle Negro matters. Arnold Johnson stated the document should more dramatically portray the Negro people's struggle during the last decade by specifically citing the number of marches, jailings and those who died for the cause. William Weinstone felt that the document should point out what the struggles of the Negro people has produced: ~~(C)~~ (U)

1. Organization of the Negro masses.
2. New Negro leadership.
3. Negro self-confidence.

~~(C)~~ (U)

Robert Thompson next proposed that discussion would be had on any part of the document in order to facilitate the proceedings. He said all of it would be referred back to the Program Committee for implimentation. ~~(C)~~ (U)

George Meyers stated he did not think "our" thinking on religion should be a rigid thing. He said they should not have a closed mind on religion, especially since the Pope's all out fight for peace. It cannot be said that only atheists have the correct thought. Some atheists, Meyers said, are very fascist minded while some Catholics are progressive. ~~(C)~~ (U)

Dorothy Healey said that she did not agree entirely with what the document stated about religion. She felt that it would be impossible to do an elaborate job on this (religion) but felt they could not leave it the way it was. ~~(C)~~ (U)

Mortimer Daniel Rubin expressed the opinion that the document should show that "our" Party is in favor of world CP conferences. ~~(C)~~ (U)

Gus Hall proposed that the question of rewriting the document should be left to the Program Committee. He sai~~(C)~~ that the document would be rewritten within a week, would be made available to all members of the Board for their comments. Hall's proposal was voted on and approved with two opposed. Hall extended thanks to Al Richmond for the work he had done on the Party Program document. (C) (U)

The meeting concluded at 4:45 PM. (C) (U)

Reurlet 10/18/65 concerning your office's latest efforts looking toward interviews with Charles and Leah Miras.

This matter has been pending with your office a considerable period of time. By communication to reach the Bureau no later than 11/10/65, furnish the Bureau results of interviews or fully justify why deadline not met.

As your office is aware, these interviews are most significant in an effort to possibly establish former membership in the Communist Party, USA, on the part of Harry Wachtel, a key advisor to Martin Luther King, Jr. This matter must, therefore, be given continuous preferred attention.

NOTE:

We have had the New York Office interview a number of individuals formerly associated with Wachtel in an effort to establish possible Party membership concerning Wachtel whose wife was a former Party member. The only remaining interviews are those of the Mirases and we feel that New York should be urged to run this matter out without any further delay.

The second, third, fourth and fifth sources advised in part on October 12, 1965, and in part on October 13, 1965, that the affair was opened by ROY WOOD, who stated that it was sponsored by the MCDR. WOOD explained that the Committee had been formed about five years ago to protect the U. S. Constitution and the freedoms which are guaranteed by the Constitution. WOOD stated that the Committee was opposed to the McCarran Act and was also opposed to the House Committee on Un-American Activities. WOOD then stated that the Committee was interested in seeing that real estate interests in the State of Maryland did not profit from segregation.

WOOD then announced that there would be future affairs and asked those present to give their names and addresses to the Committee Secretary, PAT GOODMAN. An unidentified member of the audience asked for the address of the MCDR and was advised by WOOD that it was Post Office Box 55, Glen Burnie, Maryland.

WOOD then introduced the second speaker who was WILLIAM JONES. JONES introduced the speaker for the evening, one CARL JAMES BRADEN, as a courageous newspaperman who had defied threats, bombs and jail in order to fight for fair housing in Louisville, Kentucky. JONES said that BRADEN had been the Kentucky editor of the "Cincinnati Enquirer," reporter for the "Louisville Times," and a reporter for a number of other periodicals and labor union papers. JONES stated that BRADEN was presently the Editor-in-Chief of the "Southern Patriot" and was an organizer for the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. See Appendix for characterization of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc.

BRADEN then stated that he was not going to talk about the McCarran Act and that his only topic would be civil rights.

BRADEN stated that he had been convicted of sedition and had served 8 months of a 15-year sentence and had been fined $5,000. BRADEN stated that he had been charged and convicted because he had bought a house in Louisville, Kentucky, and transferred it to a Negro family who were unable to buy a home because of prejudice.

BRADEN stated that as a result of his action he had suffered persecution and despite this fact, he continued his interest in civil rights. BRADEN stated that the Southern Conference Educational Fund of which he was the Organizer had long been active in promoting the integration movement in the South.

BRADEN stated that his principal interest was to promote activities which would enable white and Negroes to work together. He said that the gains which had been secured by the civil rights movement could only be consolidated by providing enough income to the poor people of the South so that they could take advantage of these rights.

BRADEN said that a decision had been reached that the best way to accomplish the goal of integration was to organize the poor people of the Appalachian Region, both white and Negro, in a common goal. BRADEN said as a result of this decision an "Appalachian Economic and Political Action Conference" had been established in Knoxville, Tennessee.

During the question and answer session that followed, BRADEN was asked how his plan was to be financed. BRADEN replied that he proposed to finance the plan by cutting eleven billion dollars from the defense budget and applying it to help the poor people of the South.

The fifth source advised that during the course of the affair DOROTHY GREEN and REE GREENBERG collected $34 for admission to the affair.

COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
NATIONAL NEGRO COMMISSION MEETING
OCTOBER 7, 1965
23 WEST 26TH STREET, NEW YORK, NEW YORK

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 12, 1965, that in the latter part of September, 1965, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, who is known to the source as the Chairman of the Communist Party (CP), National Negro Commission, sent out letters to CP officials in various areas of the United States which stated that "we" had just come through an intensive Summer of Party activity among young people and that for the first time in many years they were "breaking ground" among Negro youth. The letter went on to say that in several areas of the country they had some positive experiences which should be shared collectively. The letter indicated that in order to share the experiences there would be a meeting of the "Commission on Negro Work" which would devote an entire session to Negro youth work. This meeting was scheduled to be held in the Board Room at 23 West 26th Street, New York, New York, at 10:00 a.m. on October 7, 1965.

The source knows 23 West 26th Street, New York, New York, to be the headquarters of the CP, USA.

On October 7, 1965, a meeting of the CP National Negro Commission took place at 23 West 26th Street, New York, New York. Among the 22 persons in attendance the following CP members were identified by the source:

DOROTHY HEALEY
CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT
PHIL BART

Just prior to the meeting, GUS HALL, who is known to the source as the CP General Secretary, confidentially advised some of the above individuals that regardless of the outcome of the coming trial of the CP there would be a CP National Convention held early in 1966. HALL further stated that a CP Convention Program would be sent out from Party Headquarters within the next week which would be sent to all CP Districts for discussion purposes. The National Negro Commission meeting got under way at about 10:30 a.m. with CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT asking that a Chairman for the meeting be elected. TOM DENNIS was selected.

HENRY WINSTON made the opening remarks setting forth the purpose of the meeting in terms similar to that in the above-mentioned characterization.

DENNIS then read an agenda which had been drawn up by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and which indicated that DOROTHY HEALEY would make a report on the Negro riot which had taken place in the Watts Section of Los Angeles, California. This was to be followed by reports by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT and RASHEED STOREY on youth work in Chicago, Illinois, and New York, New York, respectively.

HEALEY then made a lengthy report on the riot in Los Angeles, which followed the newspaper accounts. HEALEY stated that this riot indicated that the Party should have an excellent opportunity to work among Negroes who continued to be exploited.

After HEALEY's talk, lunch was brought to those in attendance at the meeting.

During the afternoon LIGHTFOOT and STOREY stated that the Party was becoming more and more active in youth work. LIGHTFOOT said that in Chicago the Party youth work was becoming very well organized and that a sports program had been begun which included athletic equipment and scheduled sporting contests. LIGHTFOOT mentioned that a "youth leader" from the West Coast had come to Chicago and had attempted to act on his own but after LIGHTFOOT had talked with him, the "youth leader" coordinated his work with LIGHTFOOT.

STOREY said that youth work in New York was also becoming well organized along the pattern set forth by LIGHTFOOT.

After the reports were made, there was discussion by various people in attendance and general satisfaction was felt that the Party had at least become active in youth work.

Just ~~before~~ the close of the meeting which was at 4:40 p.m., ~~HENRY~~ WINSTON said that he would be leaving in a day or two for an important conference in South America. NY

B. COMMUNIST PARTY INTENTIONS TOWARD SCLC

A meeting of the CPUSA Negro Commission was held at CP Headquarters, New York City, on April 23, 1965. CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT called for the raising of substantial money to finance work in the South. GEORGE MEYERS delivered the main report in which he called for the setting up of small committees in the North and West to assure CP participation in the South in an organized way. MEYERS further called for the establishment of CP contacts in Negro organizations such as SCLC. MEYERS' talk, in the form of proposals, was to be presented to the CPUSA National Committee.

C. INFLUENCE OF NEW YORK MEMBERS OF "RESEARCH COMMITTEE" OF SCLC IN OPERATION OF SCLC AND IN SCLC PUBLIC POLICIES

HARRY WACHTEL and BAYARD RUSTIN were in contact on April 15, 1965. RUSTIN agreed to a meeting at WACHTEL's office for that date. On the same date, ANDREW YOUNG, Executive Director of SCLC, contacted RUSTIN. They discussed a proposed conference with United States Government officials. RUSTIN stated he and WACHTEL were concerned. He indicated the conference should be planned on a tentative basis only, so that they could get out of it if things began to look badly for SCLC. Furthermore, RUSTIN said they should insure that KING was not placed in a position where he could be criticized for leaving a conference of Government officials without getting anything. YOUNG stated that if the conference with Government officials was put off until some time in May, they could let things take their natural course "and just return to Alabama on Monday (April 19, 1965), thus focusing attention on the problem and bringing about greater understanding of the boycott." (The Alabama boycott).

[redacted] (U)

[redacted] (U)

RUSTIN replied that he hoped that that was the case, but thought KING wanted to get rid of "this thing" (the boycott) at any cost. YOUNG and RUSTIN concluded their contact noting that they would discuss these matters when they met on April 16, 1965.

On April 16, 1965, ANDREW YOUNG and RUSTIN were in contact. YOUNG advised that the meeting which he was supposed to have attended April 15, 1965, in Washington, did not materialize because he missed his plane. He said another meeting was scheduled for 2:00 p.m. on April 16, 1965, in Washington. He would meet with (LE ROY) COLLINS, Director of Community Relations Service and other Department of Commerce officials. The meeting would be devoted to matters relating to the Alabama boycott and other matters relating to SCLC. RUSTIN agreed to accompany YOUNG to Washington to attend the meeting.

HARRY WACHTEL and BAYARD RUSTIN were in contact on April 16, 1965, and WACHTEL informed RUSTIN that he was sending him a copy of "KING's Bar Association talk" and wanted him to analyze and criticize it since he did not think KING would.

WACHTEL, in commenting on RUSTIN's trip to Washington, inquired if he knew what to do there. RUSTIN answered affirmatively. WACHTEL said YOUNG had informed him that everyone wanted to go ahead with the boycott and that KING was the only opponent.

On May 9, 1965, a conference of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. and his advisors, including ANDREW YOUNG, HARRY WACHTEL and BAYARD RUSTIN took place. According to the source, the following transpired:

It was agreed that KING would decline the invitation to attend the rally at Madison Square Garden, June 8, 1965, to be held under the auspices of the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (SANE). His reason for declining would be attributed to pressing needs in Alabama with regard to the voting rights bill.

WACHTEL mentioned the fact that the Hammermill Paper Company was having its annual meeting in Erie, Pennsylvania, on May 11, 1965, and that there was a movement underway to have sit-ins to protest segregated policies of the company in its Alabama mills.

A discussion was had concerning KING's trip to New York on May 12, 1965. All of those attending the conference agreed to meet him. The purpose of the meeting would be to go over plans for a summer project.

SECRET (U)

KING's purpose in coming to New York was to speak in Long Island at Queens College. WACHTEL advised that he would handle all arrangements in connection with his visit to Long Island. He also said he wanted to introduce KING to some millionaires on the island.

NY T-3
May, 1965

On May 12, 1965, Special Agents (SAS) of the FBI observed MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. and ANDREW YOUNG and a man believed to be HOSEA WILLIAMS, Project Director of SCLC, arrive aboard Eastern Airlines, Kennedy Airport, New York, New York. They were met by HARRY WACHTEL, BAYARD RUSTIN and JOHN LEWIS, Director of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, (SNCC), and numerous newsmen. Following an exchange of greetings, KING, WACHTEL and WILLIAMS left the airport in a rented Cadillac limousine.

On May 12, 1965, a meeting took place in MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.'s suite at the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel, 34th Street and Broadway, New York, New York. According to the source, the meeting was devoted to issues pertaining to the Summer Community Organization and Political Education (SCOPE) and was attended by BAYARD RUSTIN, ANDREW YOUNG and JOHN LEWIS. The following were believed to have attended:

HOSEA WILLIAMS
WYATT T. WALKER	Former Executive Director of SCLC
NORMAN HILL	Director of Racial Matters of the American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO)
BILL STEIN

The question of recruitment of personnel for SCOPE was afforded important attention. It was stated that in the New York area alone a quota of 500 college students exists and that only one-fifth of the quota had been reached and that problems were expected in reaching the quota.

(U)

Budgetary matters in connection with the New York SCOPE project were discussed. It was stated that $75,000.00 had been set aside for the New York area and the national budget was $480,000.00.

It was agreed by all those in attendance that the recruitment campaign must have immediate action and that the National Council of Churches and other leaders with whom they have contacts be approached for the purpose of getting them to issue a statement backing the SCOPE summer campaign. BAYARD RUSTIN suggested that he and NORMAN HILL take over the joint directorship of the SCOPE campaign in the New York area. His suggestion was accepted. RUSTIN then advised that all decisions would cross his desk in New York and that he would deal with HOSEA WILLIAMS, in Atlanta, who was in charge of the overall program of SCOPE. With regard to fund raising, RUSTIN said he had in mind a Womens Committee which would probably be headed by such a person as MARION LOGAN, Northern Member of the SCLC, Board of Directors.

On May 13, 1965, Lieutenant NEIL COSTELLO, Nassau County Police Department, Long Island, New York, advised on May 12, 1965, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. accompanied by HARRY WACHTEL and others, went on a tour of Long Island towns and apparently observed slum conditions. COSTELLO further advised that KING, RUSTIN, WACHTEL, and JOHN LEWIS appeared at a voting rights rally in the Long Island arena, West Hempstead, Long Island.

On the morning of May 13, 1965, STANLEY LEVISON made a visit to MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.'s suite at the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel. LEVISON conversed with CLARENCE JONES, C.T. on May 28, 1965. JONES suggested to WACHTEL that a luncheon meeting of himself, LEVISON, WACHTEL, and BAYARD RUSTIN be arranged.

LEVISON contacted JONES and advised a meeting would be held in WACHTEL's office. JONES advised LEVISON that KING had the impression that JONES did not want such a meeting held. JONES told KING that he (JONES) was misunderstood and he felt it was important to hold a discussion because LEVISON could make a valuable contribution. LEVISON commented that WACHTEL would be the real stumbling block even more so than RUSTIN. JONES agreed. JONES stated that WACHTEL was evasive about the date of the meeting and that when it was finally decided upon he (JONES) volunteered to call RUSTIN, but WACHTEL quickly advised that he would take care of it. LEVISON remarked that this confirmed his personal feelings adding that he feels that RUSTIN is fairly indifferent, but that WACHTEL "is actively opposed to me...because you are troublesome yourself for what he wants his position to be but when you add me it does something to him and he is going to fight whereas RUSTIN won't."

LEVISON advised JONES that he had recently contacted ANDREW YOUNG, Executive Director of SCLC, to learn what action had been taken by SCLC in regard to BILL STEIN, and the project he (LEVISON) had proposed. YOUNG apprised LEVISON that the Administration Committee of SCLC had adopted it and agreed to go forward with it. JONES inquired of LEVISON if that meant that STEIN had been hired by SCLC. LEVISON answered that since the project had been approved, he would assume that STEIN would be hired, but someone would have to talk to STEIN about his background and other matters. LEVISON stated that someone other than YOUNG would have to talk to STEIN since YOUNG had already reached a satisfactory conclusion about STEIN.

An item on page 21 of the September 10, 1957, edition of "The New York Times" revealed that MARTHA DODD STERN and her husband, ALFRED K. STERN, were indicted in New York City on September 9, 1957, for espionage. The article stated that the STERNs, who had been residing in Mexico, were subpoenaed several months before by the Grand Jury which indicted JACK and MYRA SOBLE. They fought the subpoenaes in court, failed to appear, and were cited for contempt of court and fined $50,000. The article further stated that in July, 1957, the STERNs fled behind the Iron Curtain after renouncing their American citizenship.

"Look" magazine of November 26, 1957, contained an article by BORIS MORROS entitled, "My Ten Years as a Counter-Spy" in which the author described himself as "an FBI counterspy who had worked in the Soviet intelligence system for ten years. In this article, BORIS MORROS related his contacts with ALFRED K. and MARTHA DODD STERN who were to assist in the establishment of a music company to serve as a cover for Soviet Agents.

On July 14, 1965, STANLEY LEVISON and CLARENCE JONES were in contact and discussed the recent trip made by LEVISON to Atlanta, Georgia. LEVISON indicated that his primary purpose going to Atlanta had been to take Mrs. WALLY ALBERTSON. In addition, JONES inquired about the proceeds of the "Broadway Answers Selma" benefit held April 4, 1965, in New York City. He asked if MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.'s father knew of the proceeds. LEVISON stated that KING's father had asked him to tell JONES that they had received nothing. JONES commented that his files showed a check for $8,000 was sent, and that the net amount the church would get was $17,000. LEVISON suggested to JONES that he contact KING's father and make sure the money was not received and then contact the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai Brith concerning the proceeds. JONES and LEVISON also discussed the forthcoming national convention of SCLC. LEVISON stated that while in Atlanta, the question of draft resolutions for the convention came up. He felt that he and JONES should work on the resolutions. He stated that the drafts have to be prepared in advance and that MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. had left it up to LEVISON to prepare. LEVISON stated there should be a resolution on Vietnam and that KING had received a statement from LINUS PAULING which generally followed the suggestions of U THANT; a cease fire and a settlement on the basis of the Geneva Conference. LEVISON stated that this statement of PAULING had been signed by every living Nobel Peace Prize winner except RALPH BUNCHE and that the SCLC convention could properly endorse this statement and dispose of the matter.

(U)

LEVISON further suggested to JONES that a trip be made to Atlanta to discuss the draft resolutions with KING. It was felt that a staff member of SCLC should be involved in preparing the resolutions and ANDREW YOUNG was selected.

JONES inquired if the meetings of the "Research Committee" had been abandoned for the summer. LEVISON stated that he had had dinner with KING and indicated the subject of the Labor-Negro alliance should be taken up at the next Research Committee meeting, and that RALPH HELSTEIN should be present. LEVISON stated that KING agreed to this but did not indicate the meeting would take place until the fall of 1965.

It is reported in the article that about 800 volunteers from colleges, churches, and unions will work in about 60 counties in the rural South. Most of the volunteers were to begin work after completing a six-day orientation course at Atlanta University Center. On July 31, 1965, BAYARD RUSTIN, was in touch with DONALD SLAIMAN. This conference was devoted to the forthcoming SCLC convention to be held in Birmingham, Alabama from August 9, 1965, to August 13, 1965. KING stated that the purpose of the conference was to decide which resolutions would be presented at the convention and which would be most newsworthy. All agreed that the resolution which dealt with the Vietnam conflict would be most newsworthy, especially since KING was being questioned continuously on this issue. The proper timing for bringing the Vietnam resolution before the convention was discussed. It was agreed that RUSTIN should be the individual to handle the questions dealing with Vietnam. In order to do this, RUSTIN would work on a statement, write a memorandum, and prepare an open letter to the President of the United States, to the Premier of the Soviet Union, and to the Heads of all countries involved in the Vietnam conflict. The letter was to be written in the name of KING, and would state that KING was writing as a Nobel Peace Prize recipient and as an advocate of non-violence. KING would urge negotiations to end the conflict. RUSTIN stated the Civil Rights movement was not ready to speak to the world on Vietnam, but KING should speak as an individual, thereby getting the impact of the Civil Rights movement behind the statement, and would eliminate other Civil Rights leaders criticizing KING for speaking out on the matter. RUSTIN stated President JOHNSON should receive a telegram followed by his letter.

Following the above Vietnam discussion, the group discussed the Civil Rights resolution to be presented to the convention. KING stated that in regard to the Civil Rights resolution, he had talked with STANLEY LEVISON and CLARENCE JONES and requested them to prepare the resolution but to date, he had not received anything other than a general statement. KING said he would instruct WALTER FAUNTROY, Director of the Washington, D.C. Office of SCLC, to use the remarks made in the general statement in preparation of the overall resolution.

The above meeting then took up the question of the SCLC financial report. KING stated the auditors were working on the report, but had not been able to conclude it because they were baffled with the problem as to how they should make known their findings. KING advised the report reflected that for the past 10 months SCLC received approximately $1,500,000, and if the months of July and August, 1965, were included, the report would reflect almost $2,000,000 for the 12 month period.

KING had requested MC DONALD to contact LEVISON and ask LEVISON to prepare a statement dealing with the matter. LEVISON prepared the following statement:

"I know that you have grievances that are hard to live with--I know that any Negro can reach the end of his patience and want to strike out and strike back. But it is not courage nor militancy to strike out blindly. Our enemies have always hoped that we would lose our heads and riot against the guilty and innocent alike. This

"enables them to argue that we haven't decency or good sense. I speak to you as one who had to march with other Negroes against guns, clubs, dogs and whips and who won victories over cruel and barbarous sheriffs and klansmen. We won victories because we had a greater weapon - disciplined cool heads, and iron determination not to provoke into violence. Our adversaires have always known what to do when we lost our heads - it gave them a chance to beat our heads. They have never known what to do when we refused to be sucked into the trap of violence.

"Tonight the whole world is watching you. If you want all America to respect you, if you want the world to know that you are men, put down your weapons and your rocks. Get a committee together to draw up demands. If you want my help I will sit with you and plan how to improve your conditions.

"Negroes in the South were not less oppressed than you and we have run JIM CROW from thousands of places without using a rock or a bullet. We made millions of white Americans sick and ashamed of their practices and by our discipline won many to our side. You are harming yourselves, not the segregationists. Tonight in the South, the segregationist is delighted. He has made you lose your temper and for a few moments of emotional excitement and relief you are conducting yourself without reason, without a name and without a goal. You are not an army of Negro people if you fight without reason. Our people are not rioters and are not looters. Come back to our ranks where there is room for honest courage and militancy--where real and permanent victories have been won and will be won in the right way.

"The man who cools off, who puts down his weapon and stands up with only his body is the man of courage. Don't let us down here in the South. Dont discredit brave Negroes in jails in Johannesburg. Don't set yourself back. You can still win a great victory by halting the fighting because there is more honor and dignity in looking the other side squarely in the eye and demanding your rights than there is in struggling in blind fury.

On August 14, 1965, BAYARD RUSTIN and MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., were in contact concerning the rioting in Los Angeles. KING advised RUSTIN that he was on his way to Puerto Rico to deliver a speech, and that upon arrival in Puerto Rico, he would issue a press release dealing with the situation in Los Angeles. KING wanted RUSTIN's suggestions on this matter, and RUSTIN suggested the following points should be contained in any statement made by KING to the press:

"That we deplore resorting to violence no matter who is engaged in the violence because it is wrong and socially destructive. That while we deplore violence, we also deplore the concentration of the ghetto life which leads, with the absence of jobs, bad education and slums, to the hopelessness and despair where the Negro youth, out of these conditions, feel that they have no stake in American society." RUSTIN suggested in reference to that point, that KING make mention of President JOHNSON's conference scheduled to be held in November, 1965, which will deal with the whole ghetto and family life problem, by stating that he hoped new and stirring ideas would emerge from the conference.

In continuing his suggestions, RUSTIN said that KING should point out that, "Rightly or wrongly, whether or not there was, in fact, police brutality in Los Angeles, almost every Negro in every family has, at one time or another, felt that he has been maltreated by the police; therefore, in addition to the social problems, in every city there needs to be a civilian review board. This board is to protect the policeman when he is right and to protect the citizen when the policeman is not right."

After RUSTIN provided the above, both he and KING remarked that they had been asked to go to Los Angeles, to help suppress the riots, but both were of the opinion that they would not be of much assistance since the situation deteriorated to such a point that it was a job for the National Guard.

Question: Should the United States stay in Vietnam if South Vietnamese ask us to leave?

Answer: I believe we would have no moral or juridical basis for remaining if a sovereign government demands that we leave its territory.

Question: Can he be more specific regarding his attitude on escalation of the war?

Answer: Escalation is expressed in so many degrees and is related to escalation on the other side so that I can discuss it only in concrete terms. It is impossible to generalize.

Question: KING said he is not blaming either government for the war. Who is to blame?

Answer: There is blame on both sides because each has made responses too readily through means of violence without an earnest search for reduction of violence. I am encouraged by the restraint President JOHNSON has manifested both in action and in words and I believe the exercise of restraint will ultimately lead faster to constructive negotiation than will the flexing of the muscles of military power which the whole world knows we possess in terrifying abundance.

SECRET

Question: What specific proposals would KING have to make?

(U)

Answer: I have not formulated specific proposals for ending the war and I am not sure I have competence in that area.

Question: Is KING seriously thinking of going to Vietnam and under what circumstances?

Answer: I have no plans to go to Vietnam.

Question: Will KING's letter also be sent to the United Nations?

Answer: There are no plans for a letter to the United Nations because it is not a combatant nor an ally of any combatant. This does not imply it has no role. Its role is substantial but different.

Question: Will KING contact United States officials regarding his plans, that is, Governors, Senators, Congressmen or Diplomats?

Answer: I have no body of plans which could be the subject of discussions. I am expressing a point of view which will be self explanatory and I sincerely hope useful for those who have the responsibility to make plans.

Question: KING states he is following a path of non-violence, but Reverend JAMES BEVEL recently made statements indicating he is more militant. Can KING reconcile this and is BEVEL speaking for the SCLC or as an individual?

Answer: The emphasis JAMES BEVEL places on peace activity in relation to civil rights activity differs from mine because I am not presently proposing any change in the direction or the character of our civil rights work. He has the right to express his analysis and has done so.

(U)

Question: Reverend BEVEL stated the civil rights movement is legislated out of business. Will KING comment on this?

Answer: I do not agree with JAMES BEVEL's view that the civil rights movement has been legislated out of existence. We still have so far to go I cannot see the end of the road even now. I see the need for a multiplicity of additional legislative reforms which will take years of struggle fully to achieve."

On August 17, 1965, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was in contact with BAYARD RUSTIN and persuaded RUSTIN to join him in Los Angeles, California, on August 17, 1965. After RUSTIN's contact with KING, RUSTIN was in contact with HARRY WACHTEL and informed WACHTEL of KING's plans. RUSTIN stated that at KING's request he had drawn up a five-point program for KING's use while in Los Angeles. The points enumerated by RUSTIN to WACHTEL are as follows:

1. "To minister to the thousands of Negroes innocent of any wrong doing, and who have lost homes and jobs, and to pledge the SCLC to morally and financially assist these people.

2. "Visit those Negores in jail in an attempt to find ways in which they can help restcre damage they have done, and attempt to redeem themselves.

3. "To keep and maintain sympathy and communication with the white sympathizers and work out programs to prevent future disturbances.

4. "To confer with local government leaders if they so desire.

(U)

5. "To present his own plans for immediate and long range action to clergymen and other leaders."

NY T-3
August, 1965

On August 17, 1965, BAYARD RUSTIN was in contact with RACHELLE HOROWITZ. He told her of his plans to go to California to be with KING and instructed her to contact the White House in Washington, D.C., and inform someone there that he would be late in submitting the document he was preparing for the conference of civil rights leaders scheduled for November, 1965. HOROWITZ suggested RUSTIN contact MICHAEL HANNON, a former Los Angeles police officer who was suspended for participating in civil rights demonstrations and WILLIAM BECKER also a former Los Angeles police officer. HOROWITZ believed these individuals would be of assistance to RUSTIN in California.

On August 25, 1965, BERNARD LEE, Personal Assistant to MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was in contact with STANLEY LEVISON. LEE stated he was to contact LEVISON in behalf of KING. KING desired LEVISON's comments and to make changes in an article being prepared for the "New York Times" Sunday magazine.

August, 1965

On August 25, 1965, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., contacted LEVISON concerning the above article. They agreed the article would receive nation-wide attention and KING believed the article should make comments concerning the Los Angeles riots. KING stated that he was trying to get across the fact that a crisis like the Los Angeles riots could be both a danger point as well as an opportunity. KING stated he would include in that article that it was time to seek causes and face the fact that we have not done enough to right wrongs. He called for a new national commitment on the question of civil rights. LEVISON agreed with KING and suggested to KING that such a statement could be expressed in the form KING had used before, that non-violence can make its effective contribution only when there is a creative and cooperative response on the other side from the power structure.

After discussing the above, KING told LEVISON that he believed there was a need to re-evaluate "our whole programmatic thrust" particularly in the North. KING said that this was necessary because there had been accusations that the Los Angeles riot had been caused because civil rights leaders had not carried their program to the isolated people.

On August 30, 1965, the following individuals were observed by SAS of the FBI entering 575 Madison Avenue, New York City, the building wherein HARRY WACHTEL maintains an office, from 12:55 p.m. to 1:38 p.m.:

BERNARD LEE
BAYARD RUSTIN
STANLEY LEVISON
JOHN LEWIS, President of SNCC
CLARENCE JONES

On August 31, 1965, STANLEY LEVISON conferred with BILL STEIN and advised STEIN that he had recently talked with MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., during which time KING said that SCLC had decided to employ STEIN. According to LEVISON, STEIN would receive $9,000 annually plus expenses and would be the highest paid employee on the staff of SCLC. LEVISON further told STEIN that his function would be to raise funds for SCLC by contacting churches. LEVISON stated he desired to accompany STEIN down to Atlanta to discuss a few things about the Negro churches he would contact. However, LEVISON stated he might not be able to make the trip since KING had already delegated so many responsibilities to him (LEVISON) that he did not know whether he would have time for the trip.

On September 2, 1965, CLARENCE JONES was in contact with MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and they discussed the formation of a tax exempt corporation of the SCLC which should assist in increasing donations, to the SCLC. KING suggested such a name as the SCLC, Institute of Non-Violence. KING was concerned that if a corporation is set up which is apart from SCLC, it might hinder the operation rather than help it. JONES stated he was concerned that unless the new corporation had a definite relationship to SCLC, it might become a personal platform for HARRY WACHTEL. JONES was concerned about an independent operation in which WACHTEL could act without having any responsiveness to SCLC. KING agreed with this thought.

September, 1965

On September 6, 1965, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and STANLEY LEVISON again discussed a forthcoming article to appear in the "New York Times Magazine." LEVISON had prepared a draft of the article for MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. and wanted KING's comments. KING stated he felt the article was good but desired to change a few points.

In addition to the above, KING and LEVISON discussed a burglary of SCLC Headquarters in Atlanta. LEVISON stated that he had been unable to verify the story about the burglary and KING stated that checks amounting to $6,000 which had been contributed to SCLC, checks in the amount of $10,000 which were to pay SCLC bills, and a check in the amount of $190,000 which represented SCLC funds which were being transferred to another SCLC account, were taken in the burglary. LEVISON suggested to KING that he "scotch" the rumor that one quarter of a million dollars was stolen because it could adversely affect donations to SCLC.

September, 1965

On September 12, 1965, a conference took place between MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., STANLEY LEVISON, HARRY WACHTEL, CLARENCE JONES, ANDREW YOUNG, and CLEVELAND

(U)

ROBINSON, Secretary-Treasurer of Local 65, Retail Wholesale and Department Store Workers, AFL-CIO. KING stated that he desired the advice of those present in regard to his public position on Vietnam. KING stated that since making his public statement, he has been subject to criticism, especially from Senator THOMAS DODD of Connecticut. KING stated he was convinced President JOHNSON had persuaded Senator DODD to criticize him since it was the administration's feeling that he had gone too far in urging the seating of Red China and ending the bombings in Vietnam. KING further stated that he was convinced that the press had also been stacked against him. KING indicated he was not strong enough to carry on both the civil rights struggle and the Vietnam peace struggle. He said the public was not ready to digest the trouble in Vietnam and China and, therefore, he was being criticized. He requested those present to give opinions on how to get across to the public that he is not alone in his position on Vietnam and China on how to deal with the statement of Senator DODD; and on his plan to write letters to the heads of states involved in the Vietnam struggle. KING indicated he wanted some means whereby he could withdraw from the letter-writing campaign because he was convinced his plea for peace would be rebuffed by HO CHI MINH. He stated he must forget the peace issue and get back to the civil rights field.

After a discussion, the opinions of STANLEY LEVISON and HARRY WACHTEL were favorably received. They advised that KING should indicate he had given his opinion, had no intention of leading a peace struggle, and was now returning to the civil rights field. All of those in attendance at the meeting agreed that the criticism of Senator DODD should be answered. It was agreed that a national campaign would be started to enlist the aid of prominent government, church and civil rights leaders to answer DODD's criticism of KING.

September, 1965

On September 13, 1965, another conference took place with the same individuals who conferred on September 12, 1965, with the addition of WALTER FAUNTROY.

(U) SECRET

An agreement was reached indicating KING would not write letters to the leaders of various world powers urging negotiations for ending the war in Vietnam. The conference discussed getting statements from persons of influence backing KING's right to speak out as he did and counteracting the criticism he had received. HARRY WACHTEL was to contact the "New York Times" requesting an editorial in support of KING. BAYARD RUSTIN was designated to see Senator PAUL DOUGLAS of Illinois requesting him to make a statement in support of KING's right to speak out on the war in Vietnam. It was decided that various publications such as "The Nation," the "Saturday Review," and the "Christian Century," would be requested to publish articles and editorials supporting KING.

NY T-3
September, 1965.

On September 13, 1965, HARRY WACHTEL and BAYARD RUSTIN were in contact concerning KING's policy over Vietnam. It was agreed that the country needs a voice to speak on the subject of Vietnam, but not in the person of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. WACHTEL expressed the thought that KING's statements on the subject were wholesome, stimulating, and valuable, but that KING could not continue to make statements on foreign policy because his opponents would use it against him. WACHTEL stated that it was imperative that KING come out with some dramatic domestic issue in order to offset the bad publicity he had received. He suggested a program be instituted to defeat Governor GEORGE WALLACE of Alabama in 1966, and a program to enroll more Negroes to vote in the South.

NY T-3
September, 1965

On October 1, 1965, STANLEY LEVISON and MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., were in contact. LEVISON suggested that KING close the SCLC office at 312 West 125th Street, New York City, since it was accomplishing nothing constructive. KING indicated that closing the office might subject SCLC to criticism and LEVISON concurred with KING's reasoning.

(U) SECRET

(U)

LEVISON advised KING that he had received a wire from CAREY MC WILLIAMS, Editor of "The Nation", indicating MC WILLIAMS would write an editorial supporting SCLC's position. Before concluding the above contact, KING advised LEVISON of what he considered a potential embarrassing situation. KING advised that RALPH ABERNATHY, SCLC Official, had gotten ANDREW YOUNG to write 50 contributors about buying a car for ABERNATHY. Only one of the contributors responded. However, a car was purchased anyway at a price of $3,000. KING stated that in order to avoid criticism to SCLC the money would have to be raised. LEVISON advised KING that he would contribute half of the $3,000 and that HARRY WACHTEL would be approached about raising the other half.

The records of the New York Secretary of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Inc., was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Winter, 1965, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Inc., 799 Broadway, New York City. This issue lists JOHN HENRIK CLARE as Associate Editor, ESTHER JACKSON as Managing Editor, and JOHN L. DEVINE as Art Editor of the publication.

A confidential source made available information on July 1, 1964, reflecting that JOHN HENRIK CLARKE attended the first and founding meeting of the American Institute for Marxist Studies (AIMS) which was held on December 19, 1963, and continued on January 10, 1964.

This source also made available information on August 14, 1964, reflecting that CLARKE is an "associate" of AIMS.

The Winter, 1963, issue of "Freedomways," page 44, states that ESTHER JACKSON became one of the leaders of the Southern Negro Youth Congress (SNYC) which existed from 1937 to 1949.

The SNYC has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

According to a confidential source, ESTHER JACKSON is the wife of JAMES JACKSON, whom the source identified on October 14, 1964, as being a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP,USA.)

On January 30, 1961, SYLVIA M. BRENNER DEVINE, 415 South 50th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, advised that her former husband, JACK DEVINE, mentioned on December 17, 1960, that he was still in the CP and that the CP is his whole life.

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INC.

On July 24, 1963, a confidential source described JOHN DEVINE as a CP member.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro Movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, a source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CP, USA, by JAMES JACKSON.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

On October 15, 1965, Lieutenant THOMAS FRYE, Intelligence Unit, Philadelphia Police Department, Philadelphia, Pa., advised MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), was scheduled to arrive in Philadelphia at 30th Street Station, Pennsylvania Railroad, at 7:24 p.m. that day; would speak at the dinner sponsored by the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF) being held at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, and then enplane at 10:40 p.m. for New York City.

On page three of the October 16, 1965, issue of "The Evening Bulletin," a daily Philadelphia newspaper, appeared an article captioned, "Dr. King Says Here that Self-Interest Remains A Barrier to World Peace."

This article reflects the Reverend Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING appeared at the 50th Anniversary banquet of the WILPF at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel on October 15, 1965, and spoke before more than 1,000 people. KING cited narrow national self-interest as a barrier to peace throughout the world. In this day of dazzling discovery of novel opportunities, loftier dignities and fuller freedom for all persons, there is no excuse for the blind craving for power and resources which provoked wars of previous generations.

KING accused the United States of talking about peace while burgeoning a defense budget that already bulges, enlarging an already awesome army and devising even more devastating weapons. Most other nations are no less guilty than we.

100-442529

The article further reflects that on September 10, Dr. KING suggested a four point program to United Nations Ambassador ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG for achieving a settlement in the war in Viet Nam, including the admission of Red China to the United Nations. Last night, however, there was no specific reference to the war in Viet Nam or to Red China.

An hour before Dr. KING arrived at the hotel, 30 pickets carrying signs that read "King's Rights Equal Anarchy," "Reds and Peace Don't Mix," and "WILPF Means Red Slavery" paraded in front of the main entrance to the hotel. However, four detectives attempted to slip KING into the hotel through a side door unnoticed by the pickets. Two of them spotted him and called him "coward" and "yellow belly." KING ignored them. The pickets were representatives of the Delaware Valley Citizens for Victory Over Communism. There were no incidents.

On October 17, 1965, Detective CHARLES PETTAWAY, Intelligence Unit, Philadelphia Police Department, Philadelphia, Pa., advised that when KING arrived in Philadelphia at 7:30 on October 15, 1965, he was accompanied by Reverend ANDREW J. YOUNG, Executive Assistant to KING, and AMELIA BOYNTON, who was described as a leader of WILPF in Selma, Ala. This group was met at the hotel by Mrs. CORETTA KING.

KING appeared concerned over his appearnce at this affair and desired not to pass through any crowd or pickets, and particularly did not desire to be questioned by the press. After his speech, KING was taken to the International Airport where he boarded a plane at 10:40 p.m.

Re: Communist Infiltration of the SCLC

Clarence Jones is the General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he identified a photograph of Clarence Jones as a person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member of and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League.

The Labor Youth League has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1960, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. ~~(S)~~ (U)

Re: Communist Infiltration of the SCLC
Internal Security - C

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." X(u)

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CPUSA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CPUSA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

Re: Communist Infiltration of the SCLC
Internal Security - C

Harry Wachtel is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, New York, New York.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild. X(U)

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto. X(U)

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York. X(U)

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP. X(U)

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC.

CARL JAMES BRADEN
SECURITY MATTER - C

All informants set out herein have furnished reliable information in the past.

On September 14, 1965, NK T-1 furnished a letter dated August 20, 1965, signed by William Howard Melish and bearing the letterhead of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated (SCEF) which reflected that Carl Braden and Miss Carol Stevens were making a speaking tour of the Northeastern States during the end of September and beginning of October, 1965. In the letter Carol Stevens was described as "coordinator of the Appalachian Economic and Political Action Conference which SCEF is assisting in Tennessee."

A characterization of the SCEF is contained in the appendix hereto.

On April 16, 1964, NK T-2 advised that William Howard Melish was a member of the Board of Directors of the National Council of American - Soviet Friendship (NCASF) as of April 11, 1964.

The NCASF has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Mrs. Alberta Ahearn, 2311 Payne Street, Louisville, Kentucky, a self-admitted former member of the COMMUNIST PARTY (CP), Louisville, Kentucky, in testifying on December 11, and 13, 1964, in Jefferson County, Kentucky, Criminal Court in a state sedition prosecution against Carl James Braden identified Braden and his wife Anne Braden as having been known to her as members of the CP, Louisville, Kentucky, from January, 1951 to shortly prior to the time of her testimony.

ENCLOSURE 100-442529-

NK T-3 advised on August 19, 1964, that Carol Stevens goes to the residence of the Bradens almost every day to work on the "Southern Patriot".

A characterization of the "Southern Patriot" is contained in the characterization of the SCEF.

On October 8, 1965, NK T-4 reported that on the evening of October 6, 1965, Carl Braden and Carol Stevens appeared as guest speakers at the residence of Reverend Charles W. Bonner, 641 Belgrove Drive, Arlington, New Jersey. According to the informant, approximately 35 persons were in attendance and while the meeting appeared to be without a sponsor many of the persons attending were known to the informant to be members of the Belleville - Nutley Discussion Group. Reverend Bonner introduced Reverend William Howard Melish, who in turn introduced Carl Braden and Carol Stevens to those present. In his introduction, Reverend Melish introduced Braden as field secretary of the SCEF.

Braden spoke generally about civil rights activities in the south. He said that the SCEF is concentrating in the mountainous areas of the Eastern Seaboard and south, and that they were concentrating on organizing the jobless and underpaid whites and Negroes in Appalachia for joint action to solve their problems.

Braden also discussed his sedition case stating that he had bought a house and had the deed transferred to a Negro family. He said that this house was later bombed, but that instead of going out and prosecuting the bombers the state arrested him.

Braden further spoke on the need for education in the south and the need for funds, subsequent to which a collection was taken up.

According to the informant, Carol Stevens spoke about the SCEF Program on college campuses.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a leading functionary of the CP of Illinois and head of the CP's National Negro Commission, attended the National Convention of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) held in Denver, Colorado, during the week of June 28 through July 3, 1965.

LIGHTFOOT took with him from Chicago to Denver, several hundred copies of "The Worker" and a number of pamphlets on colonialism. LIGHTFOOT subsequently indicated that these items were distributed in connection with the NAACP Convention by Denver CP people. LIGHTFOOT also subsequently disclosed that he was able to obtain a press badge at the NAACP Convention and LIGHTFOOT was observed in and about the convention on several occasions.

Prior to the convention, LIGHTFOOT directed a CP of Illinois member who is active in the affairs of the NAACP, to attend this convention. LIGHTFOOT suggested that no CP caucus in the true sense be set up in connection with this convention but instead he proposed to set up a group consisting of several CP members as well as several persons who were considered to be "progressive" and/or sympathetic to the CP. This was done and on three occasions during the convention this group held meetings. During these meetings CP strategy was discussed in regard to defeating a Chicago Branch NAACP resolution to reject the plan of multiple branches; support for the Mississippi Democratic Freedom Party, and last, the injection of the peace issue. This CP group was successful on the first two issues mainly by pressures exerted by individuals on various officers but were soundly beaten on the peace issue.

During the convention, LIGHTFOOT met with various individuals from time to time to keep abreast of convention activities but he did not participate as such in any discussion of the CP group. LIGHTFOOT had private conversations, however, with known CP members on several occasions.

(CG T-1, 7/5/65)

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

Relative to the various civil rights organizations active in the civil rights movement in the Chicago area, it is to be noted that no individual in the CP of Illinois has an assignment of working in the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). TED PEARSON, head of the CP of Illinois youth, does have some contact with a leader of SNCC in Chicago but PEARSON, as a CP member, has no influence whatsoever in SNCC. Currently the CP of Illinois has no influence whatsoever in SNCC in the Chicago area.

As of August, 1965, CP concentration in the Negro civil rights field was to be directed toward the Negro-American Labor Council (NALC), the NAACP and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

In the NAACP, CP of Illinois individuals who are active in this organization in Chicago are LESTER DAVIS and BRENETTA HOWELL who are members of the Chicago NAACP Board, however, DAVIS and HOWELL as yet do not in any substantial way influence NAACP policy within the Chicago Branch.

In CORE there has been a running relationship between some leaders of that organization and EARL DURHAM, a member of the CP of Illinois State Board. Also, within CORE is ROSYLIN DEAN, a member of the CP of Illinois who has some status, but other than that there is no significant CP influence in CORE.

In the NALC, the CP of Illinois still maintains three CP members. These CP members are RALPH TURNER, HERB WRIGHT and NATE SHARPE. These individuals were in leading positions within the NALC in Chicago and although the organization itself has little or no membership, these individuals continue to maintain their leading positions in NALC.

Relative to the Freedom Democratic Clubs movement in Chicago in the Negro political action field it is noted that in regard to the situation of this organization, it is now dormant and there is no expectation that the Freedom Democratic Club movement will reactivate itself.

Further, in connection with Negro political action in Chicago, it is to be noted that GUS SAVAGE, a CP of Illinois contact, has become Editor of the "Chatham Citizen", a local community publication in the Chatham-Avalon area of Chicago. SAVAGE, through his position with this paper, is presenting an outlook to make Chatham a pivital community in Chicago Negro politics because it has such a large section of economically independent Negro voters.

Concerning ACT, this civil rights organization is almost publicly condemned by the CP of Illinois as an irresponsible organization and absolutely no relationship between the CP of Illinois and ACT is envisioned at this point.

(CG T-2, 8/18/65)

b. CP of Illinois State Board

On June 22, 1965, a meeting of the CP of Illinois State Board was held at a residence in Chicago, Illinois.

During the course of this meeting, a main report was given by EARL DURHAM, CP of Illinois State Board member, on the status of civil rights organizations in Chicago.

DURHAM in his remarks, primarily dealt with the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations' effort to remove Chicago School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS. DURHAM in his remarks expressed the fact that the lack of success of the program to remove WILLIS from his job as School Superintendent was due to the control exercised by the political machine of Mayor DALEY on the overall civil rights movement in Chicago. DURHAM also stressed that DALEY's political machine in the Negro area on the south side of Chicago controled the NAACP and that this control was the reason the NAACP has not participated directly in the removal of WILLIS movement.

Also, DURHAM commented on the War on Poverty in the Chicago area and said it was being run by Mayor DALEY's political machine and because of this, very little money was actually trickling down to the deprived individuals.

51 In the discussion that followed DURHAM's report, JAMES WEST, CP of Illinois State Board member, brought out that the CP of Illinois must develop a program where there would be a greater exchange of ideas between civil rights leaders in Chicago and the CP of Illinois. In this connection he mentioned that in the fall of 1965 steps would be taken to implement this program by having the Modern Book Store sponsor forums where there would be discussion on issues between civil rights leaders and selected CP members. He indicated that these forums would be in the nature of a round-table open discussion.

Also during the discussion of the DURHAM report, a question was raised as to the status of AL RABY, convenor of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO), and the members present agreed that RABY could be talked to and that he at least was free from the DALEY political machine. It was the feeling among those present that someone was behind RABY giving him directions, because it was the group's opinion that RABY was not flexible enough.

(CG T-3, 7/19/65)

On July 6, 1965, a meeting of CP of Illinois State Board was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois.

During this meeting JAMES WEST announced that the CP of Illinois had instituted a summer project for the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of Chicago and as of the time of the meeting the CP had nine students working on this project. He noted that of the nine involved, eight were CP members.

WEST noted that the students working in this W.E.B. DuBois Club Summer Project had contacted a number of industries on the west side of Chicago for jobs for youth as well as many labor and civil rights leaders. WEST noted that upon completion of this summer project a one week school would be conducted by the Party with a CP member as the instructor. WEST concluded his remarks by noting that it was being recommended that each CP Club in the Illinois District make a $10 contribution to assist in sustaining the summer project in the Chicago area and that $200 which had been raised by the CP of Illinois youth in connection with "The Worker" fund drive, be returned to the youth to be used by them for expenses in connection with this summer project.

(CG T-3, 7/30/65)

On July 21, 1965, several members of the CP of Illinois Youth Club met with EARL DURHAM, CP of Illinois State Board member, to discuss the West Side Summer Project of the W.E.B DuBois Clubs of Chicago. During this discussion these CP of Illinois youths discussed the difficulty of handling some of the Negro youth leadership in the Du Bois Clubs Summer Project, West Side Center, and the difficulty of employing CP of Illinois youth in the project to accomplish the best results.

As a result of these discussions it was decided that the six CP youth working in the project would be deployed with three to work on the west side, one on the north side and two in the Hyde Park area.

Also during these discussions the CP youth requested an evaluation of the civil rights struggle in Chicago as it related to the CCCO's attempts to remove Superintendent of Schools BENJAMIN C. WILLIS, and DURHAM in response stated that the continued marches by the CCCO serve the purpose of keeping the overall civil rights problem before the citizens of Chicago. DURHAM also stated that the liberal forces in the city were making efforts to participate and even control the CCCO demonstrations.

EARL DURHAM indicated that he did not have a full estimate as to why the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING was coming to Chicago to participate in these demonstrations and he also stated he did not have an estimate as to why Representative ADAM CLAYTON POWELL was coming to Chicago.

DURHAM stated, however, that it was possible that these two visits indicated that there are forces in Chicago that are willing to make a strong bid for the leadership of the civil rights movement in the city in order to place it in a more conservative direction.

(CG T-2, 7/22/65)

On July 27, 1965, a meeting of the CP of Illinois State Board was held in Chicago, Illinois.

During the discussion of various matters at this meeting, criticism was voiced relative to the fact that the Summer Project of the W.E.B DuBois Clubs of Chicago being conducted on the west side of Chicago had changed its emphasis from the obtaining of jobs for Negro youth to the issue of open housing. Upon the disclosure of this fact, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, who was present, indicated in an angry manner that he felt such a shift was tragic and that every ounce of Party influence must be exercised on the summer project members to pull the program back to the economic questions confronting the Negroes on the west side of Chicago.

Following LIGHTFOOT, JIM WEST also spoke and agreed with LIGHTFOOT as did EARL DURHAM, however, DURHAM in his remarks cautioned the CP of Illinois State Board that it should be conscious of the fact the CP of Illinois could not take too much of a role when it came to the policy of the summer project because this would tend to develop the danger that the direction for all projects would stem from the CP of Illinois and such a result would be detrimental in the long run. DURHAM concluded by agreeing that the struggle around the job issue should be re-emphasized and he also indicated that if possible, whatever limited contacts exist among teenage Negro gangs on the west side should be utilized by the CP immediately so that these teenage gangs could develop a decent program and not become instruments in the hands of reactionary elements which would be out to destroy the DuBois Clubs.

(CG T-2, 7/28/65)
(CG T-3, 7/30/65)

On August 24, 1965, a meeting of the CP of Illinois State Board was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois. HY LUMER of the CP National Office attended this meeting. LUMER was in Chicago to conduct a school for the CP youth involved in the summer project of the DuBois Clubs. It was announced at the meeting that this school would be the "wind up" of the Summer Project of the DuBois Clubs.

Also during the course of this meeting it was announced that the CCCO was to hold a conference on August 28, 1965, at the United Packinghouse Center, Chicago. During this announcement it was stated that HERB WRIGHT, a CP of Illinois member, would lead one of the panels at this conference on the subject of "Labor's Role in the Civil Rights Movement."

It was also stated during this meeting that EARL DURHAM, CP of Illinois State Board member, would get together with HERB WRIGHT, NATE SHARPE, CHARLES WILSON and RALPH TURNER, CP of Illinois members active in the NALC, sometime before the CCCO Conference was held in order to see what this group could work out in an effort to get the CP line into the CCCO Conference.

It was stated during this discussion that there is every indication that the CCCO is afraid that "left" forces would be getting into this conference.

(CG T-3, 8/30/65)

On September 7, 1965, a meeting of the CP of Illinois State Board was held at a private residence in Chicago.

During this meeting EARL DURHAM gave an evaluation of the problems confronting the Negro civil rights movement on the west side of Chicago. He emphasized that the biggest cause of trouble on the west side was the conditions of Negro ghetto life that had set the stage that compels explosions or resolutions. DURHAM noted that the unfortunate part of this condition was that neither the civil rights movement nor the political power structure had developed sufficient relationships based upon a positive program particularly with the young people of the Negro ghetto. DURHAM noted that in regard to the west side riots that had recently occurred, the Negro leaders in Chicago held two views. He indicated that one view was that the riots were good because they helped force the white community and the politicians into a realization that drastic actions were necessary. The other view came from those that felt the riots represented a complete breakdown of control and these Negro leaders became fearful because the riots demonstrated their lack of communication with the Negro community.

DURHAM noted that as a result of the riots the formation of many new coalitions were occurring in the west side Negro ghetto. He noted that one such coalition was under the leadership of the Chicago Missionary Society which, in conjunction with other religious and civic organizations, is attempting to hire the Industrial Areas Foundation (IAF) to come in and reorganize the committee along the lines of the Temporary Woodlawn Organization.

He noted that this activity was being resisted by other elements on the west side who feel that the IAF is a phoney outfit whose only objective is "to keep the natives quiet".

Following DURHAM's remarks CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT commented and reiterated that in his opinion the economic questions are the major considerations and that one thing should be clear from the discussion in this meeting and that is that the CP in its own right must find a way to rise into the main stream of the Negro community in Chicago based on these economic struggles.

LIGHTFOOT closed his remarks by noting that the CP should place a great deal of emphasis on supporting the DuBois Clubs' activity on the west side in the fight for jobs.

On September 21, 1965, a meeting of the CP of Illinois State Board was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois.

During the meeting TED PEARSON, a member of the CP of Illinois State Board, reported on CP of Illinois youth activity in connection with the CP of Illinois Summer Project which was actually carried out under the auspices of the DCA. During this report PEARSON noted the CP had spent $35,000 during the summer on the DCA and Party youth activity. PEARSON in his remarks concerning the Summer Project believed that this Party experience among youth was probably the best in the country, however, he indicated that the Summer Project was only positive in the working class Negro youth area and did not help at all in solving the problems on college campuses.

In connection with college campuses, PEARSON in his report suggested that the CP youth including himself attempt to enroll themselves at the University of Illinois or Roosevelt University in order to accomplish Party objectives on campus.

Following PEARSON's report, JAMES WEST approved of PEARSON's estimate that the Summer Project was a success and a positive experience and agreed that the DuBois Clubs were still the major concentration for CP youth. WEST, however, stated that the CP youth must also attempt to establish relationships with the rest of the youth movement in CORE, Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and the Students for a Democratic Society.

Also, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT commented during the meeting and urged that CP youth and particularly the Chicago DuBois Clubs project themselves into the civil rights movement in Chicago as well as the proposed program for Chicago, that is to be advanced by Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING.

c. CP of Illinois Clubs

South Side Club,
CP of Illinois

On June 8, 1965, a meeting of the South Side Club, CP of Illinois, was held at 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago, Illinois.

During the course of this meeting WILLIAM TERNIPSEDE reported on the demonstrations taking place in Chicago which were calling for the ouster of Chicago School Superintendent BENJAMIN C. WILLIS. During his remarks TERNIPSEDE stated that all CP people should attempt to give assistance to the various civil rights organizations involved in these demonstrations and help these organizations in their fight against WILLIS and with the integration of the schools in Chicago.

TERNIPSEDE noted that on recent days the demonstrators participating in these demonstrations had blocked street intersections in the Loop area of Chicago and were arrested. TERNIPSEDE noted that this type of action should not be participated in by CP members and that this type of activity indicated that the leaders of the demonstrations did not have control over the demonstrators.

(CG T-4, 6/17/65)

On July 20, 1965, the South Side Club, CP of Illinois, held a meeting at 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago.

During the course of this meeting VERSTA MILLER announced that all of the members of the South Side Club, CP of Illinois, were to join in the civil rights demonstrations to be held on July 26, 1965, calling for the ouster of Chicago School Superintendent BENJAMIN WILLIS. MILLER noted that on that day the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING would be in Chicago to lead the demonstrators.

Also, during his comments MILLER stated that while other civil rights and freedom organizations are going forward the CP was standing still in the civil rights fight. MILLER said that CP leaders should be in the forefront of all of the freedom marches and should also play a role in the organization of these marches so that when the civil rights struggle has ended the CP will be able to tell the Negroes that the CP got their freedom for them. MILLER noted, however, that at the rate the CP was participating in the freedom marches it will turn out that the Negro will help put the CP members in a concentration camp for life.

On August 31, 1965, the South Side Club, CP of Illinois, held a meeting at 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago.

During the course of this meeting WILLIAM TERNIPSEDE announced that the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO) held a civil rights conference on August 26-27, 1965. TERNIPSEDE noted that he had attended this conference and then reported on the various decisions that were made at the conference. Following TERNIPSEDE's speech it was suggested by SARAH JONES [S] that the South Side Club, CP of Illinois, make some attempt to carry the message of the conference to the Negro masses on the South Side of Chicago. No action was taken on JONES' suggestion. However, it was announced later that an executive meeting of the South Side Club would be held on September 7, 1965, at which time JONES' suggestion would be considered and some effort would be made to expand her suggestion with regard to the issues discussed at the CCCO conference.

CP of Illinois Youth Club

On August 31, 1965, MIKE ZAGARELL, National Youth Director for the CP, USA, met with the leadership of the CP of Illinois Youth Club and the leadership of the West Side W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of Chicago at the West Side W.E.B. DuBois Clubs Freedom Center, 2928 West Lake Street, Chicago, Illinois.

65 53 22

During the course of this meeting it was disclosed that ZAGARELL was interested in arranging a meeting between the West Side Negro youth gang leaders and himself for the purpose of learning of the Negro youth gang leaders' attitude toward racial problems and the recent race riots which had occurred on the West Side of Chicago. It was stated that ZAGARELL would be identified to the gang leaders as the National Youth Director of the CP, USA, and ZAGARELL would attempt to enlist these gang leaders' support in having such violent demonstrations stopped and the energies of the Negro youth gang members channelized into more constructive areas.

ILL

As a result of this meeting it was decided to have CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Head of the CP of Illinois, contact JEAN LEWIS, a Negro woman on the West Side who had recently run for Alderman of the 28th Ward, and request LEWIS make the arrangements for ZAGARELL to contact these West Side Negro youth gang leaders. This arrangement was decided upon because LEWIS was aware of the identities of these West Side gang leaders and LIGHTFOOT and LEWIS have known each other for some years.

It was also stated during this meeting that JEAN LEWIS would also be made aware of ZAGARELL's position with the CP, USA.

(CG T-7, 9/1/65)

MIKE ZAGARELL, National Youth Director for the CP, USA, left Chicago, Illinois, on September 9, 1965, without having accomplished a contact with the Negro youth gang leaders on the West Side of Chicago.

On August 27, 1965, a CP of Illinois School for Youth was held at the Milda Hall, 3100 block of South Halsted, Chicago, Illinois.

51

HYMAN LUMER, a CP leader from New York City, instructed this school on the subject matter of "the civil rights struggle." The whole point of LUMER's lecture and the question and answer period after his lecture was that Negro-white unity is necessary to shape up the working class for further struggle for socialism. During his remarks LUMER stressed that anything such as Negro nationalism, etc., that might hinder this unity is a deadend street and only tends to sidetrack the class struggle.

(CG T-8, 8/30/65)

d. CP of Illinois Caucus in the Negro American Labor Council (NALC)

51

On July 14, 1965, CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, held a meeting with CP of Illinois members active in the NALC.

During this meeting the CP of Illinois members active in the NALC were instructed as to what positions they were to take as members of a special committee which had been formed within the Chicago Chapter, NALC, to determine whether or not the Chicago Chapter, NALC, should be maintained as a civil rights organization.

LIGHTFOOT instructed those in attendance at this meeting that the Chicago Chapter of the NALC should be retained to do the job it was formed to do, that is, fight discrimination in the trade unions and to obtain jobs for Negroes in all industries and government.

LIGHTFOOT pointed out that this job could only be accomplished if the CP of Illinois members active in the organization can convince the NALC membership to go out and do the work. LIGHTFOOT instructed the CP of Illinois members to return to the Chicago Chapter, NALC, and work for the indicated objectives of the NALC and that whenever some objective is accomplished along these lines CP of Illinois members should see to it that press releases are made up for publication which will credit the Chicago Chapter, NALC, with its own accomplishments in the civil rights field.

(CG T-9, 8/9/65)

On August 26, 1965, a meeting of the CP of Illinois sub-committee active in the NALC was held at a private residence in Chicago, Illinois.

During this meeting those present discussed a CCCO labor committee conference which was being held August 28, 1965. It was stated that CP of Illinois members active in the NALC should determine from a long range point of view where the labor committee of the CCCO was going. It was indicated that such a conference could play a dominant role fighting for labor's participation in the civil rights movement. It was indicated that CP of Illinois members also members of the NALC should participate in this conference with the view of developing a program within the CCCO that would be attractive to the laboring class.

On July 26, 1965, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed a CCCO demonstration held on that date which was led by Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. The marchers assembled at Buckingham Fountain on the Lakefront in Chicago and marched to City Hall, Chicago, where the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING and AL RABY, Convenor for the CCCO, addressed the marchers. When the marchers assembled at City Hall, the group consisted of approximately from ten thousand to fifteen thousand individuals, and the proceedings were orderly. Dr. KING, during his remarks, noted that if nothing was done by the leaders of the City of Chicago to show good faith in the administration of the Chicago School System problems, he and his associates would return to the city within a few days and lead another massive march.

Dr. KING closed his remarks with a prayer in which he asserted that Chicago was in the throes of a social revolution and he prayed that the political leaders for the City of Chicago would respond to the legitimate discontent of the non-white citizens of Chicago with creative and imaginative programs which would rectify the injustices of the past.

At the close of KING's remarks, he directed the crowd to disperse peacefully and return to their homes, which they did.

B. Demonstrations and Disturbances,
Wilcox and Pulaski, Chicago, Illinois
August 12, 1965

At 7:05 PM, August 12, 1965, Officer ROBERT DAY, Deputy Superintendent's Office, Chicago Police Department, advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, that the civil rights organization ACT passed out handbills on August 12, 1965, calling for a rally to be held at 8:30 PM, August 12, 1965, at Oakley and Jackson Streets, Chicago, to protest the Board of Education and Welfare Department of the City of Chicago.

CG T-11 advised on August 13, 1965, that at 8:30 PM, August 12, 1965 the above indicated protest meeting was being sponsored by the West Side ACT against the practices made by the Chicago Board of Education and Cook County Public Aid Department. CG T-11 advised that the leaders of this demonstration intended to make speeches announcing the practices of these agencies against the Negroes and had enlisted members of West Side youth gangs, particularly the Spanish Cobras, to swell the ranks of the demonstrators. CG T-11 stated that as of 8:30 PM, August 12, 1965, there were only about fifteen individuals in attendance.

On August 12, 1965, from 9:00 PM to 9:50 PM, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed approximately fifty people in attendance at this rally. Agents observed that the rally was headed by LAWRENCE LANDRY, National Chairman of ACT. The group dispersed at 9:50 PM and were told to return on the evening of August 13, 1965, for a closed meeting at 4229 West Wilcox, Chicago, and to bring all mothers receiving aid to dependent children. 111

At 11:30 PM, August 12, 1965, Lt. EDWARD KELLY, Watch Commander, Filmore District, Chicago Police Department, advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that at approximately 9:15 PM, a Negro woman, who was subsequently identified as DESSIE MAE WILLIAMS, 4047 Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, was killed when a fire truck gone out of control hit a stop sign, which sign in turn struck her.

Lt. KELLY stated that the tillerman who steers the vehicle from the back seat of the hook and ladder was not on the truck at the time it left the fire station and because of this, the fire truck had hit several objects after pulling out of the fire station at 4001 Wilcox Avenue. KELLY stated that shortly after the accident, a crowd of approximately 100 Negroes gathered in the area.

At 12:30 AM, August 13, 1965, Lt. KELLY advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that the crowd at Jackson and Pulaski Streets had become violent and were breaking car windows in the area.

Assistant Deputy Superintendent JOHN T. CONNORS of the Chicago Police Department advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on August 13, 1965, that immediately after the accident, a crowd of approximately 200 Negroes were throwing bottles and bricks, but the damage was confined to automobiles, both parked and passing in the area. He stated that some damage was done to two police department vehicles, but no damage was done to any of the stores or other property in the area. CONNORS stated that the disturbance was brought under control by 2:00 AM, August 13, 1965, and two police officers received slight injuries. CONNORS further advised that several members of ACT were at the scene of the disturbance and were trying to calm the demonstrators.

CG T-40 advised on August 13, 1965, that he had learned FREDERICK DOUGLAS ANDREWS and approximately five other individuals were successful in attracting approximately 200 individuals to the scene of the above indicated accident. ANDREWS stated they would attempt to attract additional individuals to continue protest demonstrations during the evening of August 13, 1965. In addition, ANDREWS stated that NAHAZ ROGERS of ACT was in the process of preparing a leaflet for distribution concerning the death of the Negro female and for failure to integrate the fire houses in Negro neighborhoods. CG T-40 stated that it was his belief that ANDREWS was a motivating force in initiating the disturbances.

CG T-11, on August 13, 1965, advised that during the evening of August 12, 1965, information concerning the disturbance was being furnished to NAHAZ ROGERS since he was not present at the scene and because he was to prepare a flyer which would be distributed on the West Side of Chicago on August 13, 1965. CG T-11 stated that the flyer will state that the cause of the woman's death allegedly was due to drunkenness on the part of the fireman and, therefore, was inexcusable. The flyer will also demand integration of the fire stations on the West Side of Chicago.

CG T-11 further advised that the people leaving the scene of the disturbance during the early morning of August 13, 1965, were requested to return again the night of August 13, 1965, for further demonstrations. One of the main promoters of this request was ANDREWS.

CG T-11 stated that the crowd during the morning of August 13, 1965, was extremely ugly and that the crowd was a tinderbox, ready to explode at any time. The crowd consisted of both adult and teen-age individuals and many of the teen-age individuals present were members of Negro teen-age gangs, but to the best of CG T-11's observations, these gangs were not present in any organized manner.

DET:jmn

CG T-2, on August 20, 1965, advised that the CP of Illinois is very much against the recent outburst in the vicinity of Wilcox and Pulaski Streets in Chicago and the CP had no wish to interject itself into the disturbance. The uprising was at the instigation of LAWRENCE LANDRY and his civil rights group, ACT, and the CP has stayed away from any relationship whatsoever with ACT.

CG T-7 advised on August 19, 1965, that TED PEARSON, Area Coordinator of the West Side Section of the DCC, the Chicago affiliate of the DCA, advised that the DCC had not participated in the recent civil rights riots held on the West Side of Chicago. PEARSON felt that the West Side Chapter of the DCC should prepare a leaflet to be distributed which would not condone or condemn, but simply set forth the facts as to why it is believed the rioting occurred.

CG T-7 further advised that West Side DCC members were instructed to stay away from the area in which the riots were occurring and CG T-7 personally surveyed the area during the time the riots were being held and none of the members of the DCC were observed in the area during this period.

On August 14, 1965, Officer RICHARD BECKER, Chicago Police Department, advised that one DAVID PAGE was arrested in the general area of the racial disturbances at Wilcox and Pulaski, Chicago, Illinois. BECKER stated that PAGE was arrested for passing out leaflets captioned "Get the Cops Out", which was signed "Spartacist". PAGE indicated that he was from New York and furnished the police department with a birth date of [redacted] New York City, and identified himself as a student at the City College of New York. b6 b7C

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

A. Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO)

In late August, 1965 a CP of Illinois member active in the Negro American Labor Council met with leadership representatives of the CP of Illinois for the purpose of discussing the CP of Illinois role in the CCCO. This meeting was held to determine what the CP of Illinois could do in the CCCO in order to maintain the NALC as a factor in the CCCO.

During this meeting it was stated that the NALC is not believed to be an organization that could play a major role in the CCCO. This opinion was advanced on the basis that only a handful of people in the NALC are willing to do any kind of work. It was stated that before the NALC could become a factor in the CCCO the NALC would have to build a sufficient cadre to do this type of work.

As a result of this meeting the CP of Illinois leadership instructed that the CP members active in the NALC concentrate on doing a good job in the unions and from this base it is hoped the NALC would then become a major force in the CCCO.

(CG T-9, 9/8/65)

On August 28, 1965, the CCCO sponsored an all day conference in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of evaluating the civil rights activities by the CCCO to date in Chicago. This conference was held at 4859 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago, was addressed by AL RABY, civil rights leader and convenor of the CCCO, and was chaired by BERNARD LUCUS, a member of the Labor Committee of the CCCO.

DURHAM characterized the CP of Illinois success at this conference as poor. He did, however, praise HERB WRIGHT, CP of Illinois member who attended the conference, for the good job WRIGHT did as a leader of one of the conference workshops.

This source described the RCFI as being composed of former members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) who had split from the SWP and who were led by JAMES ROBERTSON. This source stated that this political unit has its main center in New York City, where it publishes "Spartacist" on a very irregular basis, but their formal meetings are held at least once a week.

A second source advised on March 4,1964, that FARRELL DOBBS, National Secretary of the SWP, sent a letter to all SWP branches in February, 1964, in which he advised that the expelled leader of a minority faction of the SWP, JAMES ROBERTSON, announced on February 10, 1964, that his faction would publicly criticize the SWP and had followed this with a public organ called "Spartacist" in which they attacked the SWP.

The January-February,1965, issue of "Spartacist," in its masthead described this publication as follows: "...published bi-monthly by supporters of the Revolutionary Tendency expelled from the Socialist Workers Party." This masthead sets forth that the editor of the publication is JAMES ROBERTSON and its main address is Post Office Box 1377, General Post Office, New York, New York.

A characterization of the NJDCA appears in the appendix hereto.

During a class on Marxism sponsored by the NJDCA, on August 17, 1965, the instructor, MARVIN MARKMAN, stated that a Marxist backs such movements as the war on poverty and civil rights. The recent rioting in Los Angeles was discussed and blamed on the police and the power structure.

MARVIN MARKMAN attended meetings of the New York District COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) Committee during the period September - November, 1964.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

A. PICKETING OF PATERSON, NEW JERSEY POLICE DEPARTMENT JUNE 21, 1965

The Paterson, New Jersey Police Department headquarters was picketed by about 50 individuals between 9:30 and 10:30 pm on June 21, 1965, protesting police action in connection with the arrest of a 22 year old Negro male named HAROLD PRIMUS of [redacted] New Jersey.

b7C

The pickets were all young Negro males with the exception of four or five young white males. They appeared to be led by EDWARD CARTER, the Chairman of the Passaic County Chapter of the CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY. Another white male, JOHN LEON GRUMFEST, who described himself as a student at Rutgers University, also led the picketing. No disorders occurred and the pickets dispersed peacefully.

In 7/65, NY 694-S*. advised that according to GUS HALL, HUNTER PITTS O'DELL has been "hired" on a full-time basis to work "secretly" in recruiting into CP, USA, Negroes from the civil rights movement. O'DELL was to be given $5,000.00 for salary and expenses. (X W)

HALL also stated that O'DELL had been assigned to organize a delegation of seven CP, USA members active in the CP, USA Negro movement to go to Moscow under the auspices of "Freedomways" at the invitation of the "Writers Union in Moscow". (X W)

On 8/7/65, CG 5824-S* furnished SA RICHARD W. HANSEN the following information: (X W)

During the course of the National Board meeting of the (X W)

CP, USA, held in NYC, during the period July 16-19, 1965, JAMES JACKSON, Editor of "The Worker", cornered CG 5824-S* during one of these days for a discussion which lasted one and one-half hours. One of the things JACKSON did at this time was to tell him that the Party could not let HUNTER PITTS O'DELL go, and JACKSON noted that O'DELL was now on the verge of leaving NYC and looking for another job. He said that if O'DELL left, the Party would lose his full services for Freedomways, Inc., as well as his talent and work in the civil rights movement. The Party, according to JACKSON could not find a better man for these tasks. JACKSON stated we must do something, and we should do something to subsidize him. He asked the question, "Why don't you do something?" CG 5824-S* replied that all he could do was possibly use what influence he had but that he had no money and could make no decision in this connection. CG 5824-S* then asked JACKSON, "What do you want me to do? What do you intend to do?" JACKSON's response was well maybe he could take this up with GUS HALL. At this point, CG 5824-S* suggested to JACKSON that he felt it might be best for him to talk to WINSTON on this matter first and then possibly LIGHTFOOT. When JACKSON had done this, CG 5824-S suggested that perhaps they, JACKSON and WINSTON, could jointly present this suggestion concerning some help to O'DELL to the Party as a considered opinion of the collective. CG 5824-S* told JACKSON that if he was asked, he would agree to the suggestion being made by JACKSON.

The source noted that JACKSON apparently did go ahead and did something on this matter and must have talked to WINSTON as well as LIGHTFOOT. It is assumed that he talked to LIGHTFOOT because LIGHTFOOT raised this matter in Chicago. When LIGHTFOOT raised this matter, he was told JACKSON had previously mentioned it in New York. Apparently also following the National Board meeting, JACKSON as well as WINSTON must have talked to GUS HALL about the situation involving O'DELL. It is assumed that as a result GUS agreed to the proposition to do something financially for O'DELL.

GUS HALL approved this suggestion and his approval authorized turning over $5,000.00 to O'DELL. This $5,000.00, according to JACKSON and HALL, will now be used by O'DELL in connection with his work. He is, in fact, being subsidized by the Party as the Party man in the civil rights movement. There are no restirctions on this money and no matter where O'DELL gets located, he is guaranteed this $5,000.00. He can use it any way he sees fit and is not limited as to its disposal. (X) W

This information is not being included in the report because it is felt that the inclusion of this information would compromise the informant.

The information from NY 694-S* and CG 5824-S* with respect to O'DELL is not being included in the report because the nature of the information tends to identify these valuable sources. (X) W

"Political Affairs" was reviewed for the pertinent period but no pertinent information was located.

SAS who observed activity on 8/30/65, at 575 Madison Ave., NYC, were [redacted] JOHN C. SEATON and [redacted] [redacted] b6 b7C

SA [redacted] observed the street rally on 8/24/65.

NYO files contain no pertinent info concerning CORE Chapters in the NYC area other than Staten Island CORE. On 10/7/65, Detective RAYMOND J. CLARKE, Bureau of Special Services, NYCPD, advised SA JAMES D. BRODY that a review of their records indicate there have been no change in officers listed in various chapters of CORE throughout the NYC area. These officers were set forth in a previous CIRM report, and are not being repeated in this report.

Synopsis: CPUSA, in Summer of 1965, held a Party school in New Jersey; it was noted that there was a course on civil rights which was established primarily for people active in civil rights work. A draft entitled, "An Approach to a Resolution on the Negro Question", by JAMES JACKSON, was made available to those attending a meeting of the National Board of the CPUSA in July, 1965; in this draft it was stated The Party's Leadership Role and Organization is a need of the Freedom Movement. In August, 1965, officials of CP decided to release a statement concerning Los Angeles riots; it was urged that National Guard be removed and money being used to maintain them be used instead for relief of riot victims; it was also urged that police brutality and "the reign of the trigger -- happy cops in Negro communities" be stopped. On 8/20/65, at a meeting of the 11th A.D. Club of the CP, ARTHUR KNIGHT said that stepped up action must follow to stop the war in Viet Nam, and bring the troops home to stand guard in Mississippi and Louisiana, where they are needed to protect the rights of the Negroes. In "The Worker" of 7/20/65, it is stated the Johnson Administration is getting ready to declare a national emergency against the desires of the American people in order to send Americans to Viet Nam, and it was stated if he is concerned with emergencies he need look no further than Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, New York City and Chicago. "The Worker" said bring back the troops from Viet Nam and deploy them against enemies of democracy in our country. At National Convention of SWP in September, 1965, SWP leaders analyzed role of SWP as encouraging Negro independent political action and opposing current Negro leadership; the goal would be turning Negro protest movement from gradualism to pro-socialism. In August, 1965, SAM MARCY, Chairman of WWP, hailed the rebellion of the black people of Los Angeles as a genuine revolutionary and a sure sign of the coming black emancipation; urged friends of Black Freedom to rally to the cause of the embittered black masses of Los Angeles, to condemn their oppressors and to avenge the murders of their comrades-in-arms. WWP stated black masses are determined to win freedom whatever the cost and WWP supports them without reservation. CP members continue to be active within NALC. STANLEY LEVISON, BAYARD RUSTIN and HARRY WACHTEL continue their contacts with SCLC.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA)

1. Plans, Strategy Made at National Level of the Party

On July 6, 1965, a meeting of the Secretariat, CP, USA, was held at CP Headquarters. According to the source, the first part of the meeting was devoted to a discussion of the recently concluded Party school held in New Jersey. HY LUMER commented that it was one of the most important developments in "our work" in many years. He said it was a precedent setting in having such a school on such a scale. He noted that there were approximately 75 students having four separate classes which ran simultaneously.

LUMER commented regarding the content of the school noting that there was a course on civil rights which was established primarily for people active in civil rights work.

On July 8, 1965, HENRY WINSTON, BILL PATTERSON, and GIL GREEN had an informal discussion at CP Headquarters, New York City.

WINSTON told the group that he was expecting CYRIL BRIGGS at 2:00 PM. He said that BRIGGS was a real oldtimer who was in from the west coast to do some writing.

PATTERSON and GREEN discussed an article written by BRIGGS concerning the Negro situation. PATTERSON commented that the article documents how Negro students are being used to support the foreign policy. He said, however, that he was at a loss to understand to whom the article is addressed and complained that it was far too general.

Continuing, PATTERSON commented that the article, on the whole, does not make the fight for liberty. He said it pictures the Communist in the light of people who think they know it all. He said the article does not have the correct approach to the question. He felt that they should tell BRIGGS that he poses the question in the incorrect manner. He cautioned, however, that they should not discourage him from writing in that vein, but stated the article in its present approach is not helpful.

GIL GREEN echoed the comment made by PATTERSON. He said the article would strike a responsive note with some Negroes, but it does not have the right approach.

WINSTON agreed that they should make their views known to BRIGGS.

A meeting of the National Board of the CP, USA was held at the Park Sheraton Hotel, New York City, on July 16, 1965 through July 19, 1965. With respect to a resolution on the Negro question, it was agreed, on July 17, 1965, by a group of members interested in Negro matters, that the body which was established at the Negro Commission meeting and which had the responsibility for preparing the resolution in Chicago on August 7 or 8, 1965, would meet. This committee would be composed of HENRY WINSTON, JIM JACKSON, THOMAS DENNIS, EARL DURHAM, and GEORGE MEYERS. This was agreed upon because time would not permit an adequate discussion and the resolution which was before the Board was totally inadequate. (X W)

The following draft, "An Approach to a Resolution on the Negro Question", by JAMES JACKSON was made available to those attending a meeting of the National Board of the CP, USA in New York City on July 16-19, 1965: (X W)

"An Approach to a Resolution on the Negro Question (X W)

"For a decade the Negro freedom movement has leaped forward. It has initiated wave after wave of mass actions which has set millions into motion in support of first one and then another of the programatic requirements for securing equality and freedom. (X W)

"In overwhelming numbers the young generation of white youth have come out in behalf of the demands of the Negro people to be free from all manner of discrimination. (X W)

(U) ~~SECRET~~

(U) ~~SECRET~~

"The major denominations of church-goers support the just demands of the Negro people.(X)W

"The majority of the organized labor movement is involved in the purposeful drive of the Negro people to secure the full measure of the rights to which they are entitled as citizens on the same, equal, level of that of all other peoples of the nation.(X)W

"Decisive sections of world public opinion have expressed its solidarity with the just cause of the Negro Americans.(X)W

"Under the ceaseless hammering of the Negro people and the everwidening front of their active supporters among the rest of the nation, and, as a consequence of the effect of this struggle upon world public opinion, the Federal government and the Administration have been compelled to make significant interventions in behalf of upholding the constitutional rights of the Negro citizen.(X)W

"Civil Rights legislation has been won. Some integration of Negroes in areas of Federal authority has been realized, etc. Substantial gains have been made in affirming the legality of the Negroes' demands to be free to exercise every right which white citizens claim, and racial discrimination has been outlawed though not ended.(X)W

"Nevertheless, the most oppressed component of the nation is the Negro people. Racial prejudice, political disfranchisement, economic deprivation and social discrimination characterize their status in relation to the white people of the nation. Indeed, the integration of Negro-Americans in the economic,(X)W

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"political and social life of the nation is nowhere accomplished in fair ratio to their numbers in the population. The opportunity for Negro Americans to participate in the major pursuits of the nation remains meanly circumscribed and severely limited by law or custom (XW

"The cause of the freedom and equality of the Negro Americans is a cause yet to be won. The prolonged and ofttimes heroic struggle of the movement for equality over the past decade has brought the vision of victory nearer, but the goal remains an objective to be fought for (XW

"In the present and developing phase of the Negro people's struggle for equal rights and freedom, a new quality of emphasis must be placed on the question of the interaction and interdependence of this struggle to the historic workingclass obligation to lead the entire nation in struggle to break through the barrier of the capitalist social system, this big business dominated society which is structured to serve primarily the profit interest of the monopolists, rather than satisfy the ever expanding needs and requirements of the masses of the people. (XW

"Lenin noted that it was necessary to be mindful of the wide range of the correlations between the movement of the oppressed and the proletarian emancipation movement of the oppressing people; to help each in turn to identify its cause and goals with that of the other. He saw the convergence and mutual reinforcement of those two movements as essential for the victory of either. This concept has special validity for our time and the struggle in our country; (XW

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"emphatically so, when we give consideration to the overwhelming workingclass composition of the Negro people. (U)

"In the period ahead the Negro freedom movement will increasingly develop a consciousness of the objective fact that the struggle for Negro equality and freedom is a specialized part of the workingclass struggle; that ultimately the Negroes' oppressive condition is perpetuated by the capitalist/monopolist class which is able to gain additional profit advantage from the super-exploitation of Negroes as a consequence of their deprivation of equal rights.

"More and more clearly the Negro freedom movement will draw anti-monopolist, anti-capitalist conclusions from its struggle experiences. The heavy proportion of working people to the total Negro population dictate such a course of development for the Negro freedom movement.

"What is more, capitalism in the U.S. has historically victimized the Negro American, even as capitalist-imperialism victimized his ancestral kinsmen of the African continent.

"From its earliest establishment in America, capitalism has been guilty of enriching its private fortunes out of the most savage robbery of the Negro people and the most ruthless exploitation of the labor power of Negro working people, both, during the era of chattle slavery, and, throughout the span of the century since emancipation.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

(U) ~~SECRET~~

"Capitalism instituted the dreadful system of human slavery to translate 'the blood, toil and tears' of Negroes into personal profit and corporate capital and maintained it by terror and law and bestially savage social customs for over 300 years. XX W

"The operation of the slave system in the U.S.A. then, like the discrimination system against Negroes now, were developments of capitalism and functions of this nefarious system of human exploitation for private profit-making. XX W

"Notwithstanding all the disabilities and oppression -- the excluding and the denial, the segregation and the discrimination -- the Negro people are an integral part of this American nation. XX W

"The Negro is an American and this United States is his native land. XX W

"Other than the Indians, all Americans have ancestral origins abroad. Negro Americans' ancestors stemmed from Africa, from peoples who today are playing a great role in the world cause of emancipation from the bondage of colonialism and imperialism. XX W

"To meet the challenge and utilize the opportunities to best advantage of the present phase in the struggle, the following should be given emphasis: XX W

"The struggle of the Negro people for integration in the economic, political and social affairs of the nation on the basis of full equality with all other Americans is a struggle to enlarge democracy in the entire nation. XX W

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"Negro Americans of all classes are compelled to enter into the struggle against racial discrimination and its social consequences. However, the fact that the Negro people are predominantly working class will increasingly influence the program and goals of the Negro people's movement, the strategy and tactics of the struggle, as well as assuring the permanent nature of the alliance with the organized labor movement. Indeed, labor and the Negro people are destined to march together in pursuit of a common future free of capitalist exploitation and capitalist racial oppression.

"Because of the high working class composition of the Negro people and the strength of the Negro workers in key areas of the economy, the freedom struggle of the Negro people presents itself as a vital front of the anti-monopoly struggle. It is geared into the tasks related to the fulfullment of the historic goal of the working class, that is, to effect the transformation of society from capitalist to socialist. The freedom objectives of the Negro people directly benefit the working class and serve the democratic interest of the whole nation.

"I. In the POLITICAL Sphere:

"The Negro people's fight to eliminate political discrimination is in essence A STRUGGLE FOR GENUINELY REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

"It entails full freedom to vote and to be voted for. The majority must be secure to exercise its right to the power in local political subdivisions -- precincts, wards, counties, Congressional Districts, Assembly Districts, etc. The minority must have the right to proportional representation at all levels of the three branches of government in the legislative

~~SECRET~~ (U)

SECRET (U)

"administrative and judicial as well as an equal share of the police power.

"The struggle of the Negro people for full access to the political arena in the southern states and the northern ghettos is a struggle to oust the worst reactionaries, Dixiecrats, racists, warmongers, anti-labor servants of the monopolists from the Congress and from the state and local governing bodies, and to place in public office genuine representatives of the people drawn from the Negro people, the labor movement and the progressive forces generally.

"II. In the ECONOMIC Sphere:

"The struggle of the Negro people against economic discrimination is a major front in the real WAR AGAINST POVERTY.

"It requires the trade union organization of the unorganized especially in the factories and the fields of the South.

"It necessitates the development of the economy in the South in particular and in the other areas of blight and poverty as well. The reconstruction of agriculture on a modern scientific basis and big expansion of industry in the southern region is required. The economic needs of the Negro people require a vast and countrywide program to wipe out the shame of the slums of the metropolitan centers and rural areas and to erect in their stead unsegregated, open-occupancy controlled low-rent, and low-cost housing, recreational facilities and playgrounds and parks as well as all necessary schools and hospital facilities.

SECRET (U)

(U) ~~SECRET~~

"Capital for the financing of such development programs which are needed to reduce the accumulated discrimination gap in the economic status of the Negro people must be supplied by the government out of the profit hoards of the monopolists and from the savings that would flow from a drastic reduction of the military appropriations.

"To secure the scale of an anti-poverty program needed to wipe out the economic discrimination and social deprivation of Negro Americans is to make an assault upon the profit grabbing of the corporations and the trusts, is to enter into struggle against monopoly capitalism

"Keep an Eye to the Working Class Strata's Requirements and Needs on Policy Questions

"Central to the solution of all problems that present themselves in the area of strategy and tactics for the Negro freedom movement is the necessity to establish the identity of the Negro people in terms of 1) their relation to the nation as a whole, and 2) their relation to the working class (whose destiny it is to lead the nation to its classless future). In this regard -

"1) Negroes are an integral part of the nation, though suffering special oppression and racial discrimination.

"2) The number of Negro capitalists are minimal and none are big capitalists; the middle class category are a small percentage of the total; the mass of the Negro people are of the working class.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"The approach to all policy questions, to all matters of tactics and strategy in respect to the developing struggles of the Negro freedom movement must take into account the necessity that all policies and tactics need to correspond to both the immediate as well as long range interest on the basic numbers of the Negro people -- the working class majority.

"The Party's Leadership Role and Organization is a Need of the Freedom Movement

"During the past decade the young generation especially of the Negro people have gained a wide experience with the CLASS nature of the capitalist STATE and how its police and court system defends its privileges and power. They have gained much experience in the matter of building organization, cultivating unity, reaching out to forge alliances with a wide strata of white people. They have, out of their experience, grown profoundly critical of the whole nature and structure of capitalist society. They seek a progressive alternative to capitalism. Our Party has the opportunity and duty to disclose the socialist alternative to the young generation, to bring to them the compass of science, of Marxism-Leninism to illumine their way, that they may take their rightful place in our Party, the better to give leadership to the masses in the struggle for freedom, equality and justice.

"Certain Current Facts and Figures Depicting the Extent of the Super-Exploitation of Negro Workers as a Consequence and as an Expression of the Oppression of the Negro People

"A U.S. Bureau of Census study for 1964 showed:

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"Of the total U.S. population of 191.3 million, 10.9 percent or 20.8 million were Negro Americans.

"Currently 17.5% of all of the Nation's jobless are Negroes. The unemployment rate among Negroes being twice that among whites. 9% of the Negro work force is jobless as compared to 4.3% for whites.

"40.9% of Negro male workers have incomes of less than $2,000 a year compared with 24.2% of white male workers. The median income of Negro men is half that of white men.

"74.4% of Negroes 25 or older have not finished high school compared with 49.8% of whites.

"27.8% of all persons arrested in the United States are Negroes. (Not more criminal, just more often arrested and victimized by the police-court system.)

"In his extraordinary speech at Howard University in Washington, D.C. last June 4th, President Johnson took note of the snails pace of progress that characterizes the economic progress of the Negro especially. 'The harsh fact of the matter,' he noted, 'is that, in the battle for true equality, too many Negroes are losing ground.' The wide disparity in status, the differences that still exist between Negroes and whites 'are solely and simply the consequence of ancient brutality, past injustice and present prejudice...For the Negro, they are a reminder of oppression. For the white, they are a reminder of guilt.'

"41.9% of Negro male workers are blue-collar workers, as against 36.4% of white male workers

SECRET (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"46.5% of white male workers are in the white-collar category as compared to the 18.4% of Negro male workers with white-collar jobs.

"Of the category of Service Workers, 31.4% of Negro men working are in this category, as against only 10.8% of the white males employed.

"6.3% of the white male working force are farm workers, and 8.3% of the Negro male workers are farm workers.

"In every category of employment Negroes are paid less than whites for equivalent work, for example:

"The life-time earnings of white teachers amount to $256,000 on the average as against $183,000 for Negro teachers.

"The life-time earnings of clerical workers are estimated at $218,000 for a white worker as against $162,000 for a Negro.

"The white carpenter earns $190,000 in a life-time as compared to $112,000 for a Negro carpenter.

"The life-time earnings of a white laborer amounts to $157,000 as against $105,000 for a Negro laborer."

On August 16, 1965, HYMAN LUMER and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT conferred regarding a statement to be released. LUMER proposed a statement reading as follows:

"Once again in the city of Los Angeles and to a lesser degree in Chicago and Springfield, Massachusetts, we witness eruptions of violence in Negro ghettos. And once again we witness the brutal ferocity, this time exceeding all previous bounds, with which these spontaneous protests among a frustrated and desperate people are put down.

"In Los Angeles, 2,500 National Guardsmen, in addition to local police and sheriff's deputies, have poured into the Watts area cheating and killing. At this moment 32 are dead, 26 of them Negroes. 762 are injured, nearly all of them Negroes. 2,225 have been arrested, all of them Negroes. The figures speak for themselves. It is the white Guardsmen and cops who are killing and wounding Negroes, not the other way around. This is the violence historically visited on the Negro people, the violence with which their efforts to secure the treatment due them as human beings has been all too often met. We cannot support rioting as a means of seeking redress of grievances, but we cannot condemn the rioters. Rather, we must condemn those responsible for the inhuman conditions which lead to these outbursts (compelled?) by human anguish. And no condemnation is strong enough for those who meet them by shooting people down in cold blood like animals. These explosions are a consequence of the inhuman poverty and mass unemployment to which the Negro residents of these unspeakable ghettos are subjected for the sake of the extra billions in profits extorted by the big corporations out of the Jim Crow oppression of the Negro.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"They are a consequence of the fact that despite all the talk of a war on poverty, literally nothing has been done to relieve these conditions. While the Yortys, the Daleys and their like use the anti-Poverty program as a means of maneuvering for political patronage and power. In the Watts area more than 30 per cent are unemployed, according to even the official figures. In this and other ghetto areas, as Doctor Conant showed in his study some years ago, 60 to 70 per cent of Negro youth remain jobless. This is what must be remedied if these outbursts against the hunger, degradation and demoralization are to be ended. The policy of brutal repression must be ended at once. What is needed instead is a massive emergency program of jobs and assistance far exceeding the grossly inadequate sums now allotted. At this moment three hundred thousand dollars a day is being spent to maintain the murderous National Guard units in the Watts area. As a beginning the Guard should be removed and this sum spent instead for the relief of its victims. Further, the Watts community must be declared a disaster area and immediate relief provided to its inhabitants who are now unable to obtain food and other necessities of life. We call also for the establishment of appropriate Citizens Committee of Inquiry to investigate these situations and to make full reports with recommendations for drastic actions to remedy them. President Johnson has called for the cessation of violence. We agree. But we would urge that an appropriate beginning would be to punish the murderers of civil rights workers in the South, murderers who now kill with impunity and on whom not one day of punishment has been imposed. An appropriate beginning would be to end police brutality and the reign of the trigger-happy cops in ~~KC~~ W

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"Negro communities. An appropriate beginning would be to end the war of aggression in Viet Nam and to use the money now wasted on armaments for a truly all out war on poverty. Above all, an end can be put to violence by abolishing the ghettos and by doing away with the oppression and segregation of human beings that so disgraces our country today."

LIGHTFOOT regarded it as excellent and suggested a press release in the name of the CP, USA, as well as publication in "The Worker".

LUMER thought it should be published over the names of GUS HALL, HENRY WINSTON and LIGHTFOOT, and LIGHTFOOT agreed, adding that it should be sent to every Party district, with a covering letter urging publication of it in leaflet form. LUMER agreed with this, then noted that JAMES JACKSON was insistent on deleting the wording, "We cannot support rioting as a means of seeking redress of grievances, but we cannot condemn the rioters," on the ground it gives way to racists. LIGHTFOOT said it could be deleted and argued about later.

LUMER also conferred with ROBERT THOMPSON about this statement, and THOMPSON suggested addition of a call for police review boards. LUMER noted that this statement was not to be released until the morning of August 17, 1965, and a conference for further discussion was arranged.

"Warning that 'every slum and every ghetto of every city of America and many rural areas in the South is like a smoldering volcano, ready to erupt,' Gus Hall, leading U.S. Communist, declared in an open letter of September 7 to President Johnson, and added 'Unless the government recognizes the nature and magnitude of this crisis, and unless it takes adequate emergency measures to meet it, what happened in Harlem, Rochester and Philadelphia last year, and in Los Angeles a few weeks ago, are only forerunners of even graver things to come.'

"'What occurred in Los Angeles was no race riot,' Hall continued, 'It was a pent-up people's explosion against unbearable conditions -- bestial police brutality, mass unemployment (34 percent of Watts' people and more than 60 percent of its young people are jobless), abysmally low, sub-standard wages for those employed, and every form of discrimination and degradation.'

"An Open Letter to President Lyndon B. Johnson by Gus Hall

"September 7, 1965

"To President Lyndon B. Johnson,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.

"Dear Mr. President:

"You recently warned the nation that 'the Los Angeles riots were not an isolated incident.' You correctly observed that the same thing 'could occur in other cities where people feel they don't get a fair shake and where justice is not open to them.'

"But what is the Federal government going to do to give the people of our urban and rural slums and ghettos the fair shake and the justice of which you speak? That is the question, Mr. President.

"We know that a number of social legislative measures have been adopted by this session of Congress. There are gains for which the people fought for many years. But none of them individually, nor all of them collectively, can make any meaningful change in the terrible conditions of poverty in which so many millions of Americans find themselves.

"Every slum and every ghetto of every city of America and many rural areas in the South is like a smoldering volcano, ready to erupt. Unless the government recognizes the nature and magnitude of this crisis, and unless it takes adequate emergency measures

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"to meet it, what happened in Harlem, Rochester, and Philadelphia last year, and in Los Angeles a few weeks ago, are only forerunners of even graver things to come.

"What occurred in Los Angeles was no race riot. It was a pent-up people's explosion against unbearable conditions -- bestial police brutality, mass unemployment (34 per cent of Watts' people and more than 60 per cent of its young people are jobless), abysmally low, sub-standard wages for those employed, and every form of discrimination and degradation.

"At the time of the tragic events in Los Angeles, Mr. President, you poured salt on the wounds of the oppressed by holding them responsible for violence and by preaching to them patience and respect for law and order. And you once again promised them that 'we shall overcome.

"How can there be respect for law and order, when the men sworn to uphold it have no respect for it themselves -- when the law and order they preach is an acceptance of unbearable and humiliating conditions of life? Why, Mr. President, have you done nothing to halt the repeated cold-blooded murders of civil rights workers and Negro people in the South? Why has the Department of Justice been sitting on its hands? Either the government will protect the lives of people or they shall be compelled to resort to measures of self-defense.

"Why, Mr. President, have you not condemned police brutality and the fact that Negro communities are being treated as if they were colonial zones of occupation? The Watts community was transformed into a battlefield in which people were shot down in the "same shameless fashion as is being done by American troops and planes in Viet Nam. In Los Angeles of 36 killed, 33 were Negro; of 900 who were sent to hospitals, nearly all were Negro; and of the 4,200 arrested, every single one was Negro.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"For nearly two years, Mr. President, you have been promising an all-out war against poverty. This much-heralded war has not even been a skirmish. A few million dollars have been appropriated to fight poverty and for public works. Yet $60 million a year is spent to add to our military power to over-kill. And now that you have escalated the war against the peoples of Viet Nam you are asking for billions upon billions more for this dirty war. You have just announced a cut-back of nine billion dollars a year in domestic spending in order to finance the slaughter of innocent Vietnamese. Thus the all-out war against poverty at home has been replaced by an all-out war against poor peoples eight thousand miles from our shores.

"Yet the conditions in our slums and ghettos continue to deteriorate. Our nation's poor, Negro and white, are worse off today than when the so-called anti-poverty program started.

"This is the sorry picture of American capitalism. Mountains of wealth at one extreme of society and valleys of abject poverty at the other! And we were promised a 'Great Society!'

"A year ago, at the time of the Harlem upheaval, the Communist Party put forth an emergency progran to really end ghettos and to fight poverty. The most important plank of this program called for the

~~SECRET~~ (U)

(U) ~~SECRET~~

"immediate appropriation of no less than $15 billion a year as a special reconstruction fund to rebuild our slums.

"Only a federal expenditure of this magnitude can even begin to tackle the immense task of tearing down slums, of renovating old structures and building new low rental housing units, of constructing new schools and technical and scientific training centers, and of building cultural and recreational facilities, especially for children and young people.

"When it comes to armaments and war there is always plenty of money. But when it comes to really fighting poverty the government always starts to economize.

"This is a rich country. The huge corporations have never had it so good. Since 1961, net corporate profits have skyrocketed by no less than 68 per cent. Yet their swollen profits come from the people's labor. Much of it comes directly from the system of discrimination. The insurance companies and banks are the largest slum-lords of the nation.

"The Federal Government has declared the Watts community of Los Angeles a disaster area to receive immediate emergency funds for reconstruction and jobs. This is not enough. Every slum and ghetto must be declared a disaster area. We dare not wait until these are burned to the ground by the fire of an oppressed people's anger and resentment. We must have a national emergency plan to reconstruct every ghetto and slum in America to provide its peoples with employment at living wages and with decent low-rental housing.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

"If a natural disaster were to sweep over our land we would act with haste and resolution. We would raise whatever funds were needed to meet the disaster. We can do no less in face of the disastrous conditions under which people live in the slums of America. (X W

"There is no time to lose. The answer is not in enlarging our police force of FBI. It is not in a policy of 'getting tough.' It is not in a policy of preaching patience or using anti-poverty funds to buy off ghetto leaders in exchange for 'pacifying' their communities. Such are the policies of imperialist powers to control rebellious native peoples. It is doomed to failure in our foreign policy. It can never work in our treatment of the oppressed minority peoples within the country. (X W

"Mr. President, I address this open letter to you because the time for emergency action is now. Stop the war against the Vietnam peoples! Spend billions for life, not death! Meet the emergency with an immediate reconstruction appropriation bill of no less than $15 billion! Take firm measures to end the terror and violence directed at the Negro people in the South! Conduct a federal investigation of police brutality and of racist influence in our law-enforcing agencies! (X W

"These are the demands not only of Negro Americans but of millions of white Americans as well. To end slums, to fight poverty, to reconstruct out cities, -- these are in the interests of the entire American people and are the kind of anti-depression measures that are in the best interests of the nation and of world peace. 2. Plans, Strategy Made at District and Lower Level Meetings of the Party

On August 20, 1965, a meeting of the 11th A.D. Club of the CP was held at 555 Edgecombe Avenue, New York City. During the course of the meeting, ARTHUR KNIGHT asked each member for an opinion concerning the recent riot in Los Angeles. KNIGHT stated that the plight of the Negro people has been deplorable for many years. He said that Negroes in Los Angeles are caught in a ghetto and that there are no roads leading out. Continuing, he stated that this tension, plus the police brutality, plus being jobless made them second class citizens. He said that the Negroes of Los Angeles took the line of least resistance against the white power structure which kept them contained in the black ghetto and then used what means at hand to show their resentment. He said that Los Angeles had been seething with resentment due to two Black Muslims who were killed there several years ago.

OTTO HALL stated that the Negroes in Los Angeles over the past years have been oppressed and frustrated in their efforts to break out of the black ghetto and very little effort made to improve his personal position.

CHARLES JOHNSON stated that it was ironic that the Negroes in Los Angeles did the most damage to himself, his community; he stated this was not a civil rights demonstration but a case of tempers being fanned with violence exploding.

On August 23, 1965, a CP, USA, New York District Board meeting was held at the Hotel Martinique, New York City. At this meeting, BOB THOMPSON discussed the riots which took place in Los Angeles, and his discussion was generally a review of the news taken from the local newspapers. He attempted to tie in the riots in Los Angeles with the Viet Nam situation and also with the racial disturbances which took place in Harlem last year. He stated that the riots in Los Angeles were more severe in that the police and the National Guard used machine guns and rifles and in Harlem the police used their revolvers but shot in the air and not at the people.

He stated that the Government should be concerned with the poverty program at home instead of sending troops to Viet Nam. According to THOMPSON, very little is being done by the Government in the anti-poverty program, and, therefore, the Party should sharpen up this issue. In Los Angeles, the Negro organizations are divided and do not have any strong leadership. He stated that MARTIN LUTHER KING, although an outsider, has a good position in this area.

AGNES WILLIS stated that the Negro people are divided. She said that a few feel that non-violence is outdated and that the only way they can gain anything is to spill blood. She disagreed with THOMPSON and stated that quite a few of the Negro people in Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant have criticized MARTIN LUTHER KING and are not supporting him strongly.

MIKE DAVIDOW seemed to agree with AGNES WILLIS. DAVIDOW said that he had been to Harlem recently, and it was his opinion that although on the surface it was peaceful, the underlying currents in the area made the situation tense since the Negroes did not like to have white men in the neighborhood.

DANNY RUBEL commented that there is no Negro leadership in the CP which can go into Bedford-Stuyvesant and Harlem areas and discuss the issues with the people. BOB THOMPSON remarked that the Party will have to use what they have at present time to get their points across to the masses.

MIKE DAVIDOW mentioned that the Party ought to open headquarters in Harlem, Bedford-Stuyvesant and other places throughout the city. This way, he stated, the Party would be able to get ideas to the people and let them know exactly what the Party's line is. He stated that "we" are blamed for a lot of things which we have not said or done; therefore, we might just as well open Party headquarters throughout the city and tell the people what "we" have to offer.

On August 30, 1965, a CP, USA, New York District Board meeting was held at the Henry Hudson Hotel in New York City. At this meeting, BOB THOMPSON spoke about the National Convention, and he stated that the Party would hold it either at the end of February or the first of March of next year. The place where the convention is to be held has not been settled, and he said that there is a lot of work to be conducted between now and then. THOMPSON stated that within the next three months preconvention meetings of both state and county are to be held. THOMPSON mentioned that the drafts on the following programs have to be drawn up: Political Activities, Negro Work, Trade Unionism, Education and a Party Program. THOMPSON stated that the District would consider the appointment of delegates to the District Convention with respect to the work which has to be done on the programs.

3. Plans as Revealed in Party Publications

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

"The Worker" of July 20, 1965, contains an editorial captioned "Johnson's Emergency." In this editorial it is stated that the JOHNSON Administration is getting ready to declare a national emergency against the desires of the American people in order to round up young and middle aged Americans by the tens of thousands for the "slaughterhouse" which is now Viet Nam. It was stated that if President JOHNSON is concerned with emergencies he need look no further than Bogalusa, Louisiana, Anniston, Alabama, Selma, Alabama, Philadelphia, Mississippi, New York City, and Chicago, where there is racial strife. It was stated that if the President wants to declare an emergency now, let him do it within our own boundaries. Bring back the troops from Viet Nam and deploy them against the enemies of democracy in our country.

"The Worker" of August 15, 1965 contains an editorial captioned "Civil Rights and Peace" in which it was indicated that there is a growing merger of the fighting forces for Negro freedom, the forces of the "Civil Rights Revolution" and those who have been advocating an end to war and cold-war policies in the Government's conduct of foreign affairs. It was stated that victory in the cause of peace in Viet Nam requires that these forces combine their fight for particular needs with the universal general requirement of the fight for an end to the war in Viet Nam. It was also stated that as the Negro freedom movement has come to recognize this truth so must the trade union movement enter the struggle for an end of the war in Viet Nam.

"The Worker" of August 22, 1965, contains an article captioned "Los Angeles CP Calls for Negro Aid Program" in which was stated that the CP of Southern California called for immediate allocation of funds to provide jobs for the unemployed in the Negro ghetto in Los Angeles. It also demanded a civilian inquiry into the living conditions of the Negro people and a citizens' review board over the police. The Party in a public statement accused Mayor SAMUEL W. YORTY and Chief of Police WILLIAM PARKER of being responsible for the death toll in Los Angeles. It also accused the police of brutality in the Watts section of Los Angeles.

In this statement source advised that the PLP encourages discontented groups to protest housing issues with rent strikes. The PLP stirs up such groups in Harlem, students, Puerto Ricans in New York City, and minority groups on the west coast and also trade unionists.

Source also stated that the Harlem Defense Council (HDC) was organized in June, 1964, and is headed by WILLIAM MC ADOO. Block defense committees or councils were to be set up to free arrested individuals from the arresting police officers.

Source also advised she was sure that the HDC obtained money from the PLP for its organization.

and ROGER D. ASHLAN

Characterizations of the PLP and HDC appear in the appendix hereto.

A source advised on September 13, 1965, that on Saturday, September 11, 1965, at 2:30 p.m. a SYP petition rally for the Senatorial campaign of WILLIAM DEVON was held at Broadway and West 109th Street, New York City.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

About 12 people from the PLP were present and a table was set up near the corner of West 110th Street and Broadway. The PLP individuals began to solicit signatures for EPTON's campaign. Several persons gave speeches in Spanish in which the United States Government was attacked for its action in Santo Domingo, Cuba and Viet Nam. One of the speakers also spoke about police brutality in the United States.

At 2:00 p.m. a second rally was held at 104th Street and Broadway, New York City. The crowd at this point was larger and there were police present. One of the speakers, again speaking in Spanish, urged the American government to get out of Santo Domingo and Viet Nam, and he blamed the actions of the United States Government representatives in Santo Domingo and government officials in Washington, D. C. for the killings in Santo Domingo. One of the speakers, who was a white American male, claimed to have been in Cuba. At no point at this rally was there any mention about the EPTON campaign. There were many Cubans from the neighborhood present, who violently disagreed with the speaker. They booed and heckled the speaker and told him to go back to Russia. The Cubans made it very difficult for the speakers to proceed with their talk. The PLP group at this point had enlarged to about 30 in number and the heckling between the PLP group and the Cubans became more abusive. The PLP speaker, who was using a battery operated microphone on a ladder, was told by the Cubans to come down and fight. More policemen had arrived at this time to maintain order of the crowd of approximately 100 people. Eggs and tomatoes were thrown and fist fights were taking place. The speaker from the PLP group told the police that one of the individuals, who had been throwing tomatoes had gone into a nearby building. The police went to this building and arrested the man along with another man, who was coming from the building carrying a baseball bat. The PLP group group then challenged the Cubans in the crowd to come to 109th Street and Columbus Avenue if they wanted to continue the fight. A female was injured at this point but the cause of injury was not known.

The PLP group then proceeded to Columbus Avenue and West 109th Street and again set up their battery operated microphone. The speaker then told the people present that they had just been attacked by a group of Cubans and he asked the crowd to be prepared. The Cubans then arrived in two separate groups. The first group about ten in number arrived but apparently realized there were to many Dominicansupporters present. Some moments later, a larger group of Cubans arrived, about 25 in number, who evidently came from the nearby subway exit. The numerous policemen and detectives present saw the possibility of trouble and prevented the groups from converging on one another. There was much yelling back and forth between the group and some rocks were thrown by the Cubans from a nearby building. The policemen then started to disperse the group. A white male from the PLP group was arrested and placed in a police car. Four or five pieces of wood were then hurled from a building. Two of the detectives were injured by these pieces of wood. The crowd yelled at the police and called them criminals. One of the policemen then pointed his revolver into the air and fired at least two shots, for the purpose of scaring the crowd. The policemen went into the building from which the wood was thrown and may have arrested one man. The police, about 60 in number, then broke up the meeting at about 4:00 p.m.

The source advised that in his opinion it appeared that the PLP's interest in this activity was not a sincere election campaign but was to create a disturbance by exciting the Cubans in the crowd against the Dominicans.

NY T-45
September 13, 1965

On September 11, 1965, Detective JACK BARNATHAN, Bureau of Special Services (BSS), New York City Police Department (NYCPD) advised that among the speakers at the above-described street meetings were EDWARD LEHANSKI, FELIPE DE JESUS and WILLIAM EPTON. He advised that at 104th Street and Broadway and at 109th Street and Columbus Avenue, many inflammatory statements were made by the speakers against the Cuban refugees in the crowd, including calling them prostitutes, who stole from CASTRO and fled to the United States. At 109th Street and Columbus Avenue the fights, including egg throwing, became so numerous that the NYCPD requested that the rally be terminated. EDWARD LEHANSKI refused to disband and was, therefore, arrested for disorderly conduct and placed in a patrol car. While LEHANSKI was in the car, several pieces of lumber spiked with nails were hurled at detectives from a roof top at the south corner of 109th Street and Columbus Avenue, injuring three detectives. According to BARNATHAN, LEHANSKI expressed satisfaction over his arrest and in one of the speeches, declared himself to be a Communist. BARNATHAN advised that LEHANSKI was taken to night court and was released on $500.00 bail.

Detective BARNATHAN advised that in his opinion the PLP was attempting to create a conflict between anti-CASTRO Cubans residing in the area and the Dominicans who were present.

Socialist Workers Party (SWP)

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

At a membership meeting of the SWP - New York Local (NYL), held June 17, 1965, the educational portion of the meeting was devoted to the Negro resolution to be presented at a forthcoming National Convention. It was stated that the SWP line remained basically unchanged from that established at the convention of 1963. It was noted that the Negro struggle was becoming extremely militant and the SWP had observed MALCOLM X develop his organization, the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) from religious and separatist to militant internationalism. It was the belief of the SWP that MALCOLM X, just before his death, was turning toward the ideology of revolutionary socialism. It was stated that the SWP was finding more acceptance in Harlem and that it had contacts among the sympathizers of MALCOLM X and the OAAU.

The Student Non-Violent Co-Ordinating Committee (SNCC) was also discussed at the meeting on June 17, 1965, and the opinion expressed that there was a cleavage in the organization. It was said the more militant members of SNCC had ideas which they obtained from two sources, MALCOLM X's writings and "The Militant". It was claimed that "The Militant" had been the instrument for spreading the SWP's ideas and it was read by young radicals in the South, studentsand the Negro Ghetto.

In the issue of "The Militant", dated June 21, 1965, it was set forth that CLIFTON DE BERRY, the SWP candidate for Mayor of New York City, spoke at a public forum organized by the OAAU, at the Hotel Theresa, in Harlem, on June 13, 1965. DE BERRY was quoted as saying that racism would exist as long as capitalism existed.

On June 30, 1965, it was noted that "The Militant", which had formerly been readily available at the Headquarters of the OAAU in New York, was no longer being seen at this location.

NY T-42
June 30, 1965

At a membership meeting of the SWP - NYL, held July 1, 1965, discussion on the Negro resolution was continued. One member said that the purpose of the SWP was not to become involved in the civil rights struggle along with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), and such "reformist" organizations, but to concentrate on bringing about the American revolution by developing its own line.

Following the discussion, CLIFTON DE BERRY summarized, stating that the SWP had increased its contacts in Harlem and improved sales of "The Militant" there. He said the task of the SWP was to build a "black cadre", composed of Negroes from the ghetto. The goal was to turn these people into socialists and commit them to the struggle to bring about the American revolution. DE BERRY also commented on this occasion that the OAAU was finished as an organization.

At a membership meeting of the SWP - NYL, held August 19, 1965, there was further discussion of the opportunity for the SWP in the Negro civil rights field. It was stated that SNCC and the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP) were the only civil rights organizations from which there was a possibility for SWP recruitment. SNCC, because it was opposed to the conservatism of MARTIN LUTHER KING, and the MFDP, because there was a move within it to break with the Democratic Party.

It was also reported at this meeting that there were 537 individuals in Harlem who subscribed to "The Militant" and the SWP was hopeful of eventually establishing a bookstore there.

NY T-41
August 25, 1965

By the end of August, 1965, relationship between the SWP and the followers of the late MALCOLM X had seriously deteriorated. It appeared to the SWP that the leadership of the OAAU had become less militant and that it could no longer hope for assistance from this source to attain SWP objectives in the Negro field.

NY T-41
August 26, 1965

In "The Militant", September 6, 1965, an article was printed on Page 1, headed "Meaning of the Los Angeles Ghetto Rebellion". This set forth that the rioting in the community of Watts was a "colossal landmark in the self-assertion of black Americans". It described the Watts uprising as a protest against

(U) ~~SECRET~~

(U) ~~SECRET~~

"The caste system maintained by the money masters of America, which denies (Negroes) the necessities of life, any just share in the nation's wealth, the rights of United States citizens, and the dignity of human beings".

It was further set forth that the Los Angeles uprising was on a "higher level" than the actions in Harlem the previous summer. This was because "an entire community took the offensive against the existing order and could not be quelled without the National Guard". "The Militant" predicted that this type of protest would happen again and it would be necessary for federal occupation troops to occupy principal cities of the United States.

The article went on to say that it was unfortunate that the Los Angeles rebels lack a centralized co-ordinated organization and authoritative leadership which could effectively orient their resistance. It was also set forth that the SWP was proud that at the height of the Watts conflict, its members joined in picketing before the central police station in Los Angeles, with demands that the police and troops be withdrawn.

An editorial was also printed in "The Militant" of September 6, 1965, setting forth in general that the Watts Negroes were fully justified in their actions, while the forces used to supress them were not. The editorial recommended that the "Racist Capitalist System" be opposed by independent Negro political power.

At the national convention of the SWP, held at the Hotel Empire in New York City, September 13-16, 1965, the Negro resolution was presented and discussed. SWP leaders analyzed the role of the SWP as encouraging Negro independent political action and opposing current Negro leadership. The Party was to remain essentially propagandistic in its policy, however, and its program would be carefully planned and centrally coordinated with the goal of turning the Negro protest movement from gradualism to pro-socialism.

NY T- 41
September 13, 1965

It was stated by other speakers at the convention that the problems of Negroes in various communities could best be handled on an individual basis by SWP members, giving constructive assistance wherever they could. The value of "The Militant" was recognized as valuable in getting the SWP recognized as an ally of the "black vanguard". The SWP members were urged to work hard with the "black radicals" or these Negroes would find leadership elsewhere. It was alse said there were good possibilities for recruiting Negro youth for work in the anti-war movement.

The March 11, 1965 issue of "Workers World" contained an article entitled, "In Selma, Bronxville and Viet Nam, The Enemy is the Same," which stated that the United States Marines in Viet Nam are trying to impose the same system under which the black people are living in the United States. The article stated that the United States Government will send troops to the South only when it is afraid that white racists will be killed and when the black people are on the road of true liberation. The Government will also send troops when it is apparent that the "black masses" are going to organize in armed self-defense.

The June 24, 1965 issue of the "Workers World" containe an article entitled, "Mississippi Terror Rages On," which claims that "black people in the South continue to be arrested violently." The article concluded with the following paragraph:

"Southern racism, whether the segregationism of state legislation or the open terror of police brutality and Klan violence, continues unabated, except where the Black People have organized to defend themselves against it."

Ku Klux Klan has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The July 15, 1965 issue of the "Workers World", headlined "U.S. Youth Want to Fight for Black Freedom in Bogalusa - Not U.S. Colonialism in Viet Nam!". This article praised the actions of the Deacons for Defense and Justice in defending themselves in Bogalusa, Louisiana, and claimed that the struggle for civil rights and the organized self-defense of the black people are deeply allied to the defense of revolutionary Viet Nam against the United States.

The July 29, 1965 issue of the "Workers World" contained an article entitled, "Bogalusa Masses Not Favored By Small Concessions, La. Officials Fail to Stop Black Self-Defense." The article stated that although local authorities in Louisiana, assisted by Federal authorities, were trying to crush the Deacons for Defense and Justice, the active self-defense unit, they have been unable to do so. The article indicated that as a result of the actions by the Deacons for Defense and Justice, harassment and brutality have been cut down 90% in Bogalusa.

The August 26, 1965 issue of "Workers World" contained an article entitled, "Party Hails the Insurrection as Sign of Coming Emancipation." This article stated that on August 17, 1965 SAM MARCY, Chairman of the WWP, had hailed the rebellion of the black people of Los Angeles as a genuine revolutionary upsurge and a sure sign of the coming black emancipation. Condemning the Los Angeles police and California National Guard and calling for a workers solidarity with the black insurrection, MARCY made the following statement in the name of the WWP:

"When people rise up and face machine guns with fists and sidearms, they are telling the world that they are finished with the old system. They are ready to die rather than live in the old way any longer. The Watts Insurrection proves that the struggle for black emancipation has reached a new and higher level and its ultimate victory is certain.

"The Workers World Party calls upon all friends of Black Freedom to rally to the cause of the embittered black masses of Los Angeles, to condemn their oppressors and to avenge the murder of their comrades-in-arms. We denounce the imprisonment of 3,000 innocent people and demand their immediate release."

The last paragraph of this article stated that the black masses are now determined to win freedom, whatever the cost, and the Workers World Party supports them without reservation.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

1. Demonstration by West Side Unified Action Committee at 73rd Street and Broadway, New York City, on August 4, 1965

The West Side Unified Action Committee (WUAC), formerly West Side Committee on Racial Equality, held a protest rally on August 4, 1965, from 82nd Street to 73rd Street on Broadway, New York, New York. The rally was held in protest of a recent grand jury decision exonerating Patrolman LEIBOWITZ of the New York City Police Department (NYCPD) in a recent shooting of NELSON ERBY, deceased.

After a short march, a speakers' platform was set up around 73rd Street. Signs reading "End Police Brutality" and "New York is Like Viet Nam Killing" were carried. Speakers were heckled by onlookers. The demonstrators, about forty in number including ten about eight to twelve years of age, tried to remove the hecklers and an altercation ensued. Two demonstrators were arrested and taken to the 20th Precinct, NYCPD, where the WCUA began picketing from 8:30 PM to 9:00 PM. No further incidents occurred.

1. CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY

The Congress of Racial Equality will be referred to as CORE in this report unless reference is being made to a chapter of CORE. The designation then will be preceded by the name of the chapter.

Proposed Plans and Activities

On September 29, 1965, MARVIN RICH, Director of CORE Scholarship, Education and Defense Fund (SEDF), 150 Nassau Street, New York, New York, advised SA VINCENT J. ASCHERL that the new direction given to CORE activity in the civil rights field in the past year, namely, toward community organization, political action and voter registration, is still being implemented. He said that working through community organizations is difficult and the progress is slow. He stated a specific example of a community organization actively supported by CORE locally is the Brooklyn Freedom Democratic Movement (BFDM) in which MAJOR OWENS, candidate for the BFDM, was also chairman of Brooklyn CORE. He stated that CORE supported the candidacy of MAJOR OWENS.

Mr. RICH stated it is difficult to define the yardstick by which CORE assesses a candidate for endorsement by its organization. He stated that ordinarily it will endorse a candidate whose policies most closely fit the major activities of CORE. On the other hand, the community involved would be a factor in its endorsement of a political candidate. If, for example, a candidate was running for an office in a southern community, CORE might there overlook the candidate's basic disagreement with CORE's policies, and endorse him as "less objectionable" than his opponent.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

SECRET (U)

Mr. RICH stated that another area of CORE activity at the present time is voter registration in the South. He said that noticeable gains have been made in the registration of qualified Negroes in southern communities; however, the results achieved thus far still constitute only "a drop in the bucket" in comparison to the total Negro population in those areas. According to Mr. RICH, the work is continuing and it is hoped that a greater number of Negro voters will come to the polls to vote at election time.

Mr. RICH stated that CORE SEDF is entirely independent of National CORE, having its own board of directors and own separate staff. He stated that he, as director of CORE SEDF, occupies the highest position in the organization. A brochure issued by CORE SEDF states that the organization is a non-profit organization and donations to CORE SEDF are tax deductible.

Mr. RICH stated that over the past year CORE SEDF has made expenditures in the amounts shown below for various projects:

$48,000 for Scholarships to deserving individuals.

$44,000 for Legal Defense in civil rights cases.

$25,000 for voter registration.

$36,000 on Fellowships (for independent and specific work in the civil rights field).

Communist Party (CP) Attempts to Infiltrate

During April, 1965, a meeting was held between leading CP individuals in the Chicago area to discuss a forthcoming NAACP Convention scheduled to be held in Denver, Colorado in June, 1965. At this meeting it was stated that it was essential that Party activity in connection with this Convention must be directed to the area of voting rights and registration. It was further stated that in the South emphasis must be placed on greater voting registration and Negro representation, while in the North emphasis must be placed on increasing quality of Negro representation. It was also stated that it may not be necessary to introduce resolutions as such at this Convention; however, the Party must be alert to amend or institute discussion on ideas presented at this Convention which come within the framework of voting rights and registration. During the latter part of April, 1965, a discussion was held between two Communist Party members who are active in the affairs of the NAACP concerning the forthcoming National Convention of the NAACP scheduled to be held in Denver, Colorado, in June, 1965. During this discussion it was stated a decision must be arrived upon concerning certain issues to be brought forth at the NAACP Convention. Among the issues discussed were the following: XW

1) The question of vote -- During the discussion, it was reiterated that the decision set down by leading Communist Party forces must be followed, namely, that there must be increased voter registration in the South and the Party must strive to improve the quality of representation in the North. It was stated that the National Office of the NAACP now appears to be ready to assert additional influence in the political action field; therefore, the Party forces at the Convention should explore the possibility of trying to commit the convention to a much broader policy for actively participating in election campaigns. XW

2) Foreign affairs -- a discussion was held on the current Viet Nam and African crises; however, it was decided that this problem must be set aside until it is determined what forces are available at the Convention and who would be in a position to submit such resolutions. It was felt that known Party forces at the Convention could not present such resolutions. XW

3) Domestic -- A discussion was held concerning the establishment of multiple branches of the NAACP throughout the United States. It was stated that this plan was tried in Texas and California and has been apparently successful. Also, it was learned that the Chicago NAACP is against this plan and hopes to present a resolution to reject this plan. If such a plan is passed, XW the Chicago Branch would be broken down into five or six smaller branches. During this discussion, it was felt that should the multiple branch plan be accepted, it would bring about greater membership participation and in this way it was also felt that Party forces could function more effectively in multiple branches. It was, therefore, decided that all efforts should be made to back any resolution in favor of the multiple branch policy. RW

Prior to the Convention, LIGHTFOOT directed a CP of Illinois member, who is active in the affairs of the NAACP, to attend this convention. LIGHTFOOT suggested that they not set up a CP caucus in the true sense but he proposed to set up a group of several CP members and several persons progressive and/or sympathetic to the CP. This was done and this "group" met on three occasions during the convention. They discussed strategy in regard to defeating the Chicago Branch resolution to reject the plan of multiple branches; support for the Mississippi Democratic Freedom Party and, last, the injection of the peace issue. They were successful in the first two endeavors mainly through pressures exerted as individuals on various officers but were soundly beaten on the peace issue.

LIGHTFOOT met with various individuals from time to time to keep abreast of convention activities but did not participate as such in any discussions of the "group". He had private conversations with known CP members on several occasions.

LIGHTFOOT stated that the NAACP is dragging its feet in regards to the civil rights question. He stated that he was disappointed that the NAACP Convention did not support a peace proposal and did not ask for a withdrawal of American troops from Viet Nam. He stated that there was some red-baiting, in fact, more at this Convention than at other Conventions that he had recently attended.

LIGHTFOOT stated that one of the good points in regards to the Convention was that the Party people were better organized this time than they had been before.

The Negro American Labor Council will be referred to in this report as the NALC. The Greater New York Chapter of the NALC will be referred to as the NYNALC, and The Communist Party, USA as the CP.

In July 1959 more than 75 Negro Trade Union leaders met in New York to explore the possibility of establishing an organization designed to fight discrimination in industry, government and trade unions. After much planning, the NALC was officially founded in Detroit, Michigan, May 28, 29 and 30, 1960. A. At the Second Annual Convention held in Chicago, Illinois, November 10, 11 and 12, 1961, the NALC broadened its membership base to include not only trade unionists but all Negro workers in response to the developing job crisis suffered by colored workers.

INTEREST OF THE CP IN THE NALC

"The Worker", a weekly East Coast Communist newspaper, in its edition of June 5, 1965, page 1, carried an article entitled "Negro Unionists Urge End of War in Vietnam".

The article reported that the Fifth Annual Convention of the NALC held on May 28-30, 1965 at the Westchester Town House, Yonkers, New York, had urged that war "be stopped in Vietnam and a negotiated peace be initiated" by the nations involved. Further, that "military action is no remedy for the settlement of the problem in Southeast Asia or Santo Domingo", the convention reportedly declared in its "World Peace" resolution, voted unanimously by the delegates. The resolution, it stated, was submitted by A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, President of the NALC.

The theme of the convention reportedly was "Economic Freedom and Security for the Black and White Poor".

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
NEW YORK AFFILIATE

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference will be abbreviated by the initials SCLC. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., is the President of SCLC which is headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia.

On July 9, 1965, STANLEY LEVISON of New York City, contacted one BILL STEIN, and advised him that he (LEVISON) had prepared a memorandum which had been read by MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. KING had advised LEVISON that he would present the memorandum to the Executive Committee of SCLC on July 19, 1965. The memorandum recommended that SCLC raise funds by soliciting contributions from various churches.

NY T-16

On July 31, 1965, STANLEY LEVISON and CLARENCE JONES of New York City, were in contact. LEVISON advised JONES that he had recently contacted ANDREW YOUNG, Executive Director of SCLC, to learn what action had been taken by SCLC in regard to BILL STEIN, and the project he (LEVISON) had proposed. YOUNG apprised LEVISON that the Administration Committee of SCLC had adopted it and agreed to go forward with it. JONES inquired of LEVISON if that meant that STEIN had been hired by SCLC. LEVISON answered that since the project had been approved, he would assume that STEIN would be hired, but someone would have to talk to STEIN about his background and other matters. LEVISON stated that someone other than YOUNG would have to talk to STEIN since YOUNG had already reached a satisfactory conclusion about STEIN.

On July 14, 1965, STANLEY LEVISON and CLARENCE JONES were in contact and discussed the recent trip made by LEVISON to Atlanta, Georgia. LEVISON indicated that his primary purpose going to Atlanta had been to take Mrs. WALLY ALBERTSON. In addition, JONES inquired about the proceeds of the "Broadway, Answers Selma" benefit held April 4, 1965, in New York City. He asked if MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.'s father knew of the proceeds. LEVISON stated that KING's father had asked him to tell JONES that they had received nothing. JONES commented that his files showed a check for $8,000 was sent, and that the net amount the church would get was $17,000. LEVISON suggested to JONES that he contact KING's father and make sure the money was not received and then contact the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai Brith concerning the proceeds. JONES and LEVISON also discussed the forthcoming national convention of SCLC. LEVISON stated that while in Atlanta, the question of draft resolutions for the convention came up. He felt that he and JONES should work on the resolutions. He stated that the drafts have to be prepared in advance and that MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. had left it up to LEVISON to prepare. LEVISON stated there should be a resolution on Vietnam and that KING had received a statement from LINUS PAULING which generally followed the suggestions of U THANT; a cease fire and a settlement on the basis of the Geneva Conference. LEVISON stated that this statement of PAULING had been signed by every living Nobel Peace Prize winner except RALPH BUNCHE and that the SCLC convention could properly endorse this statement and dispose of the matter.

LEVISON further suggested to JONES that a trip be made to Atlanta to discuss the draft resolutions with KING. It was felt that a staff member of SCLC should be involved in preparing the resolutions and ANDREW YOUNG was selected.

JONES inquired if the meetings of the "Research Committee" had been abandoned for the summer. LEVISON stated that he had had dinner with KING and indicated the subject of the Labor-Negro alliance should be taken up at the next Research Committee meeting, and that RALPH HELSTEIN should be present. LEVISON stated that KING agreed to this but did not indicate the meeting would take place until the fall of 1965.

RUSTIN said he had a hard time convincing KING that KING should not press the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) to take a position on the Vietnam situation. During the conversation between RUSTIN and SLAIMAN they discussed a scheduled leadership conference of Civil Rights organizations for the future. RUSTIN and SLAIMAN agreed to work for the success of such a conference and RUSTIN stated he would be in Washington D.C. on August 3, 1965, to meet with Vice-President HUMPHREY about the conference.

On August 8, 1965, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., BAYARD RUSTIN, HARRY WACHTEL, and ANDREW YOUNG, had a conference. This conference was devoted to the forthcoming SCLC convention to be held in Birmingham, Alabama from August 9, 1965, to August 13, 1965. KING stated that the purpose of the conference was to decide which resolutions would be presented at the convention and which would be most newsworthy. All agreed that the resolution which dealt with the Vietnam conflict would be most newsworthy, especially since KING was being questioned continuously on this issue. The proper timing for bringing the Vietnam resolution before the convention was discussed. It was agreed that RUSTIN should be the individual to handle the questions dealing with Vietnam. In order to do this, RUSTIN would work on a statement, write a memorandum, and prepare an open letter to the President of the United States, to the Premier of the Soviet Union, and to the Heads of all countries involved in the Vietnam conflict. The letter was to be written in the name of KING, and would state that KING was writing as a Nobel Peace Prize recipient and as an advocate of non-violence. KING would urge negotiations to end the conflict. RUSTIN stated the Civil Rights movement was not ready to speak to the world on Vietnam, but KING should speak as an individual, thereby getting the impact of the Civil Rights movement behind the statement, and would eliminate other Civil Rights leaders criticizing KING for speaking out on the matter. RUSTIN stated President JOHNSON should receive a telegram followed by his letter.

Following the above Vietnam discussion, the group discussed the Civil Rights resolution to be presented to the convention. KING stated that in regard to the Civil Rights resolution, he had talked with STANLEY LEVISON and CLARENCE JONES and requested them to prepare the resolution but to date, he had not received anything other than a general statement. KING said he would instruct WALTER FAUNTROY, Director of the Washington D.C. Office of SCLC, to use the remarks made in the general statement in preparation of the overall resolution.

The above meeting then took up the question of the SCLC financial report. KING stated the auditors were working on the report, but had not been able to conclude it because they were baffled with the problem as to how they should make known their findings. KING advised the report reflected that for the past 10 months SCLC received approximately $1,500,000, and if the months of July and August, 1965, were included, the report would reflect almost $2,000,000 for the 12 month period.

He informed a representative of the mission that he desired to transmit a letter from MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., to President HO CHI MINH He was told to address the letter to the Cambodian Ambassador, Mr. SAMBATH, who would forward it to the Cambodian Commercial Representative in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. Upon arrival in that city, the letter would be delivered to the Hanoi Commercial Representative. (S) (U)

On August 13, 1965, DORA MC DONALD, Secretary to MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and STANLEY LEVISON, were in contact concerning the rioting in Los Angeles, California. MC DONALD stated that KING had been contacted by a radio station in Los Angeles and urged to issue a statement appealing to the Negroes to end the rioting. KING had requested MC DONALD to contact

LEVISON and ask LEVISON to prepare a statement dealing with the matter. LEVISON prepared the following statement:

"I know that you have grievances that are hard to live with - I know that any Negro can reach the end of his patience and want to strike out and strike back. But it is not courage nor militancy to strike out blindly. Our enemies have always hoped that we would lose our heads and riot against the guilty and innocent alike. This enables them to argue that we haven't decency or good sense. I speak to you as one who had to march with other Negroes against guns, clubs, dogs and whips and who won victories over cruel and barbarous sheriffs and klansmen. We won victories because we had a greater weapon - disciplined cool heads, and iron determination not to provoke into violence. Our adversaries have always known what to do when we lost our heads - it gave them a chance to beat our heads. They have never known what to do when we refused to be sucked into the trap of violence.

"Tonight the whole world is watching you. If you want all America to respect you, if you want the world to know that you are men, put down your weapons and your rocks. Get a committee together to draw up demands. If you want my help I will sit with you and plan how to improve your conditions.

"Negroes in the South were not less oppressed than you and we have run JIM CROW from thousands of places without using a rock or a bullet. We made millions of white Americans sick and ashamed of their practices and by our discipline won many to our side. You are harming yourselves, not the segregationists. Tonight in the South, the segregationist is delighted. He has made you lose your temper and for a few moments of emotional excitement and relief you are conducting yourself without reason, without a name and without a goal. You are not an army of Negro people if you fight without reason. Our people are not rioters and are not looters. Come back to our ranks where there is room for honest courage and militancy--where real and permanent victories have been won and will be won in the right way.

"The man who cools off, who puts down his weapon and stands up with only his body is the man of courage. Don't let us down here in the South. Don't discredit brave Negroes in jails in Johannesburg. Don't set yourself back. You can still win a great victory by halting the fighting because there is more honor and dignity in looking the other side squarely in the eye and demanding your rights than there is in struggling in blind fury. In the name of brave Negroes who have died in the South over the past ten years of bitter struggle, I appeal to you to end the hostilities so that together we can march forward for real gains for our people everywhere."

NY T-16
August, 1965

On August 14, 1965, BAYARD RUSTIN and MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., were in contact concerning the rioting in Los Angeles. KING advised RUSTIN that he was on his way to Puerto Rico to deliver a speech, and that upon arrival in Puerto Rico, he would issue a press release dealing with the situation in Los Angeles. KING wanted RUSTIN's suggestions on this matter, and RUSTIN suggested the following points should be contained in any statement made by KING to the press:

"That we deplore resorting to violence no matter who is engaged in the violence because it is wrong and socially destructive. That while we deplore violence, we also deplore the concentration of the ghetto life which leads, with the absence of jobs, bad education and slums, to the hopelessness and despair where the Negro youth, out of these conditions, feel that they have no stake in American society." RUSTIN suggested in reference to that point, that KING make mention of President JOHNSON's conference scheduled to be held in November, 1965, which will deal with the whole ghetto and family life problem, by stating that he hoped new and stirring ideas would emerge from the conference.

In continuing his suggestions, RUSTIN said that KING should point out that, "Rightly or wrongly, whether or not there was, in fact, police brutality in Los Angeles, almost every Negro in every family has, at one time or another, felt that he has been maltreated by the police; therefore, in addition to the social problems, in every city there needs to be a civilian review board. This board is to protect the policeman when he is right and to protect the citizen when the policeman is not right."

SECRET (U)

After RUSTIN provided the above, both he and KING remarked that they had been asked to go to Los Angeles to help suppress the riots, but both were of the opinion that they would not be of much assistance since the situation deteriorated to such a point that it was a job for the National Guard.

NY T-17
August, 1965

On August 14, 1965, BAYARD RUSTIN and HARRY WACHTEL were in contact and RUSTIN stated that he had dissuaded MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., from going to Los Angeles at that time.

NY T-17
August, 1965

The "New York World Telegram and Sun" August 13, 1965, page 2, contained an article captioned "Dr. King Urges Vietnam Talks." The article noted that KING while addressing the SCLC convention in Birmingham, Alabama, had urged opposing sides in the Vietnam conflict to negotiate and end the Vietnam cycle of mistrust, violence and war.

On August 13, 1965, DORA MC DONALD and STANLEY LEVISON were in contact. MC DONALD related that MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., desired LEVISON to prepare answers to 12 questions dealing with Vietnam which were put to KING by the "New York Times." MC DONALD stated the "New York Times" inquiry was precipitated by KING's recent statement on Vietnam.

LEVISON furnished MC DONALD the answers to 12 questions which had been given him. The questions and the answers provided by LEVISON for KING's use are as follows:

Question: In his statement, KING noted several peace organizations had approached him regarding Vietnam. What specific peace groups are they?

Answer: Among others, National SANE, Women Strike for Peace, Student and Faculty Group in Berkeley, California.

Question: What is the text of the letter KING is sending to President JOHNSON and HO CHI MINH?

Answer: When the text is finalized, a copy will be made available.

Question: How will the letter be sent?

Answer: These details have not been planned as yet.

Question: Should the United States stay in Vietnam if South Vietnamese ask us to leave?

Answer: I believe we would have no moral or juridical basis for remaining if a sovereign government demands that we leave its territory.

Question: Can he be more specific regarding his attitude on escalation of the war?

Answer: Escalation is expressed in so many degrees and is related to escalation on the other side so that I can discuss it only in concrete terms. It is impossible to generalize.

Question: KING said he is not blaming either government for the war. Who is to blame?

Answer: There is blame on both sides because each has made responses too readily through means of violence without an earnest search for reduction of violence. I am encouraged by the restraint President JOHNSON has manifested both in action and in words and I believe the exercise of restraint will ultimately lead faster to constructive negotiation than will the flexing of the muscles of military power which the whole world knows we possess in terrifying abundance.

Question: What specific proposals would KING have to make?

Answer: I have not formulated specific proposals for ending the war and I am not sure I have competence in that area.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Question: Is King seriously thinking of going to Vietnam and under what circumstances?

Answer: I have no plans to go to Vietnam.

Question: Will King's letter also be sent to the United Nations?

Answer: There are no plans for a letter to the United Nations because it is not a combatant nor an ally of any combatant. This does not imply it has no role. Its role is substantial but different.

Question: Will KING contact United States officials regarding his plans, that is, Governors, Senators, Congressmen or Diplomats?

Answer: I have no body of plans which could be the subject of discussions. I am expressing a point of view which will be self explanatory and I sincerely hope useful for those who have the responsibility to make plans.

Question: KING states he is following U.S. a path of non-violence, but Reverend JAMES BEVEL recently made statements indicating he is more militant. Can KING reconcile this and is BEVEL speaking for the SCLC or as an individual?

Answer: The emphasis JAMES BEVEL places on peace activity in relation to civil rights activity differs from mine because I am not presently proposing any change in the direction or the character of our civil rights work. He has the right to express his analysis and has done so.

Question: Reverend BEVEL stated the civil rights movement is legislated out of business. Will KING comment on this?

Answer: I do not agree with JAMES BEVEL's view that the civil rights movement has been legislated out of existence. We still have so far to go I cannot see the end of the road even now. I see the need for a multiplicity of additional legislative

On August 17, 1965, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was in contact with BAYARD RUSTIN and persuaded RUSTIN to join him in Los Angeles, California, on August 17, 1965. After RUSTIN's contact with KING, RUSTIN was in contact with HARRY WACHTEL and informed WACHTEL of KING's plans. RUSTIN stated that at KING's request he had drawn up a five-point program for KING's use while in Los Angeles. The points enumerated by RUSTIN to WACHTEL are as follows:

1. "To minister to the thousands of Negroes innocent of any wrong doing, and who have lost homes and jobs, and to pledge the SCLC to morally and financially assist these people.

2. "Visit those Negroes in jail in an attempt to find ways in which they can help restore damage they have done, and attempt to redeem themselves.

3. "To keep and maintain sympathy and communication with the white sympathizers and work out programs to prevent future disturbances.

4. "To confer with local government leaders if they so desire.

5. "To present his own plans for immediate and long range action to clergymen and other leaders."

NY T-17
August, 1965

On August 17, 1965, BAYARD RUSTIN was in contact with RACHELLE HOROWITZ. He told her of his plans to go to California to be with KING and instructed her to contact the White House in Washington, D.C., and inform someone there that he would be late in submitting the document he was preparing for the conference of civil rights leaders scheduled for November, 1965.

HOROWITZ suggested RUSTIN contact MICHAEL HANNON, a former Los Angeles police officer who was suspended for participating in civil rights demonstrations and WILLIAM BECKER also a former Los Angeles police officer. HOROWITZ believed these individuals would be of assistance to RUSTIN in California.

NY T-17
August, 1965

On August 25, 1965, BERNARD LEE, Personal Assistant to MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was in contact with STANLEY LEVISON. LEE stated he was to contact LEVISON in behalf of KING. KING desired LEVISON's comments and to make changes in an article being prepared for the "New York Times" Sunday magazine.

NY T-16
August, 1965

On August 25, 1965, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., contacted LEVISON concerning the above article. They agreed the article would receive nation-wide attention and KING believed the article should make comments concerning the Los Angeles riots. KING stated that he was trying to get across the fact that a crisis like the Los Angeles riots could be both a danger point as well as an opportunity. KING stated he would include in the article that it was time to seek causes and face the fact that we have not done enough to right wrongs. He called for a new national commitment on the question of civil rights. LEVISON agreed with KING and suggested to KING that such a statement could be expressed in the form KING had used before, that non-violence can make its effective contribution only when there is a creative and cooperative response on the other side from the power structure.

After discussing the above, KING told LEVISON that he believed there was a need to re-evaluate "our whole programmatic thrust" particularly in the North. KING said that this was necessary because there had been accusations that the Los Angeles riot had been caused because civil rights leaders had not carried their program to the isolated people.

A meeting of the "Research Committee" would be held on Monday, August 30, 1965, at noon, at the office of HARRY WACHTEL, New York City.

On August 30, 1965, the following individuals were observed by SAs of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) entering 575 Madison Avenue, New York City, the building wherein HARRY WACHTEL maintains an office, from 12:55 PM to 1:38 PM:

CLARENCE JONES

On August 31, 1965, STANLEY LEVISON conferred with BILL STEIN and advised STEIN that he had recently talked with MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., during which time KING said that SCLC had decided to employ STEIN. According to LEVISON, STEIN would receive $9,000 annually plus expenses and would be the highest paid employee on the staff of SCLC. LEVISON further told STEIN that his function would be to raise funds for SCLC by contacting churches. LEVISON stated he desired to accompany STEIN down to Atlanta to discuss a few things about the Negro churches he would contact. However, LEVISON stated he might not be able to make the trip since KING had already delegated so many responsibilities to him (LEVISON) that he did not know whether he would have time for the trip.

NY T-16
August, 1965

On September 2, 1965, DORA MC DONALD instructed CLARENCE JONES to get together with STANLEY LEVISON and prepare two speeches for the use of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. She indicated that one of the speeches was to be given at a District 65 meeting of the Retail Wholesale and Department Store Union in New York City.

NY T-23
September, 1965

On September 2, 1965, CLARENCE JONES was in contact with MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and they discussed the formation of a tax exempt corporation of the SCLC which should assist in increasing donations to the SCLC. KING suggested such a name as the SCLC, Institute of Non-Violence. KING was concerned that if a corporation is set up which is apart from SCLC, it might hinder the operation rather than help it. JONES stated he was concerned that unless the new corporation had a definite relationship to SCLC, it might become a personal platform for HARRY WACHTEL. JONES was concerned about an independent operation in which WACHTEL could act without having any responsiveness to SCLC. KING agreed with this thought.

NY T-20
September, 1965

On September 6, 1965, MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and STANLEY LEVISON again discussed a forthcoming article to appear in the "New York Times Magazine." LEVISON had prepared a draft of the article for MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and wanted KING's comments. KING stated he felt the article was good but desired to change a few points.

In addition to the above, KING and LEVISON discussed a burglary of SCLC Headquarters in Atlanta. LEVISON stated that he had been unable to verify the story about the burglary and KING stated that checks amounting to $6,000 which had been contributed to SCLC, checks in the amount of $10,000 which were to pay SCLC bills, and a check in the amount of $190,000 which represented SCLC funds which were being transferred to another SCLC account, were taken in the burglary. LEVISON suggested to KING that he "scotch" the rumor that one quarter of a million dollars was stolen because it could adversly affect donations to SCLC.

NY T-16
September, 1965

On September 12, 1965, a conference took place between MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., STANLEY LEVISON, HARRY WACHTEL, CLARENCE JONES, ANDREW YOUNG, and CLEVELAND ROBINSON, Secretary-Treasurer of Local 65, Retail Wholesale and Department Store Workers, American Federation of Labor - Congress of Industrial Organizations. KING stated that he desired the advice of those present in regard to his public position on Vietnam. KING stated that since making his public statement, he has been subject to criticism, especially from Senator THOMAS DODD of Connecticut. KING stated he was convinced President JOHNSON had persuaded Senator DODD to criticize him since it was the administration's feeling that he had gone too far in urging the seating of Red China and ending the bombings in Vietnam. KING further stated that he was convinced that the press had also been stacked against him. KING indicated he was not strong enough to carry on both the civil rights struggle and the Vietnam peace struggle. He said the public was not ready to digest the trouble in Vietnam and China and, therefore, he was being criticized. He requested those present to give opinions on how to get across to the public that he is not alone in his position on Vietnam and China; on how to deal with the statement of Senator DODD; and on his plan to write letters to the heads of states involved in the Vietnam struggle. KING indicated he wanted some means whereby he could withdraw from the letter-writing campaign because he was convinced his plea for peace would be rebuffed by HO CHI MINH. He stated he must forget the peace issue and get back to the civil rights field.

After a discussion, the opinions of STANLEY LEVISON and HARRY WACHTEL were favorably received. They advised that KING should indicate he had given his opinion, had no intention of leading a peace struggle, and was now returning to the civil rights field. All of those in attendance at the meeting agreed that the criticism of Senator DODD should be answered. It was agreed that a national campaign would be started to enlist the aid of prominent government, church and civil rights leaders to answer DODD's criticism of KING.

NY T- 17
September, 1965

On September 13, 1965, another conferende took place with the same individuals who conferred on September 12, 1965, with the addition of WALTER FAUNTROY. An agreement was reached indicating KING would not write letters to the leaders of various world powers urging negotiations for ending the war in Vietnam.

SECRET (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)

The conference discussed getting statements from persons of influence backing KING's right to speak out as he did and counteracting the criticism he had received. HARRY WACHTEL was to contact the "New York Times" requesting an editorial in support of KING. BAYARD RUSTIN was designated to see Senator PAUL DOUGLAS of Illinois requesting him to make a statement in support of KING's right to speak out on the war in Vietnam. It was decided that various publications such as "The Nation," the "Saturday Review," and the "Christian Century," would be requested to publish articles and editorials supporting KING.

NY T-17
September, 1965

On September 13, 1965, HARRY WACHTEL and BAYARD RUSTIN were in contact concerning KING's policy over Vietnam. It was agreed that the country needs a voice to speak on the subject of Vietnam, but not in the person of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. WACHTEL expressed the thought that KING's statements on the subject were wholesome, stimulating, and valuable, but that KING could not continue to make statements on foreign policy because his opponents would use it against him. WACHTEL stated that it was imperative that KING come out with some dramatic domestic issue in order to offset the bad publicity he had received. He suggested a program be instituted to defeat Governor GEORGE WALLACE of Alabama in 1966, and a program to enroll more Negroes to vote in the South.

NY T-17
September, 1965

On October 1, 1965, STANLEY LEVISON and MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., were in contact. LEVISON suggested that KING close the SCLC office at 312 West 125 Street, New York City, since it was accomplishing nothing constructive. KING indicated that closing the office might subject SCLC to criticism and LEVISON concurred with KING's reasoning.

LEVISON advised KING that he had received a wire from CAREY MC WILLIAMS, Editor of "The Nation," indicating MC WILLIAMS would write an editorial supporting SCLC's position.

However, a car was purchased anyway at a price of $3,000. KING stated that in order to avoid criticism to SCLC the money would have to be raised. LEVISON advised KING that he would contribute half of the $3,000 and that HARRY WACHTEL would be approached about raising the other half.

DR. LINUS C. PAULING

On December 23, 1952, according to a "United Press" dispatch datelined Washington, D.C., LOUIS F. BUDENZ, a former functionary of the CP, USA, testified before a Special House Committee in Washington, D.C. At that time he stated LINUS PAULING had been a "concealed" member of the CP, USA, who had no card or other vestige of membership, but who had made contributions to the CP, USA. He added that PAULING was a member of the Advisory Board that selected fellowship recipients for the Guggenheim Foundation.

In response to the above, PAULING, in an "Associated Press" dispatch, dated December 24, 1952, from Washington, D.C., denied the above allegation and was quoted as saying, this statement is a lie. I have never been a member of the CP, and I have sworn to this fact.

"Time", a weekly news magazine, in its issue of April 21, 1958, page 13, column 3, characterized Dr. LINUS CARL PAULING as a "long time supporter of Communist line fronts." To substantiate this characterization, "Time" quoted a House Committee on Un-American Activities report in 1951, as follows:

WILLIAM EPTON was interviewed at the Harlem Progressive Labor Movement Club, presently known as Progressive Labor Party (PLP), 336 Lenox Avenue, New York, New York, by BOB POTTS of Radio Station WBAI, New York City. This interview was programmed over Station WBAI at 7:15 PM on July 31, 1964, and EPTON related that the Harlem Defense Council (HDC) was formed during the summer of 1964 around the defense of six youngsters charged with murder. He stated that the people in the community decided to organize the HDC to protect themselves against police.

The source advised on May 17, 1965, that WILLIAM EPTON was elected Vice-President of PLP at a national convention of the PLP held April 18, 1965, New York City.

A second source advised during July, 1964, that the HDC was formed by the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) in New York City as a front organization with its main objective to get recruits for the PLM. As the PLM is known to be a very militant type organization, the leaders of the PLM hope to use the HDC to recruit Negroes and others and gradually turn their recruits toward the aims and objectives of the PLM. The HDC was also formed by the PLM to organize Negores on a block-by-block basis in New York City with plans to furnish the people with arms to defend themselves against police.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

A. MISSISSIPPI FREEDOM DEMOCRATIC PARTY (MFDP)

[JN T-1, who is acquainted with the racial situation in the State of Mississippi, advised on June 10, 1965,] that in conversation with persons at the headquarters of the MFDP he had been advised that a march on the State Capitol, to leave from a Negro Baptist church in Jackson, Mississippi, had been planned for June 14, 1965. Informant also advised that the march was to protest the special session of the Mississippi legislature which was to convene on June 14, 1965. According to informant, marches were planned on a daily basis during the special session.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

JN 100-57 SJC.... (U)

On June 11, 1965, mimeographed flyers were circulated in Jackson announcing a protest demonstration on Monday, June 14, 1965 in Jackson under sponsorship of the MFDP.

On June 11, 1965, MIKE HIGSON, Communications Officers, MFDP, advised that the MFDP was sponsoring a demonstration for June 14 1965, and that to his knowledge, the participants would gather on the State Capitol grounds around 12:00 noon on the 14th. He stated that some of the participants would carry placards and possibly attempt to march around the Capitol building. HIGSON also advised that they were hoping for at least 500 persons.
